This cause having come on to be heard before the court, and from the evidence it appearing that Nettie B. Evans, Edward S. Briggs and Ruth Thatcher, children of Charles Henry Briggs and Irene S. Briggs, have waived service of citation:

And it appearing from the evidence that the said Charles Henry Briggs departed this life on the 8th day of June, 1908, at the City of Dallas, County of Dallas and State of Texas, leaving as his lawful issue Nettie B. Evans, formerly Briggs, a daughter, of the age of thirty-~~eight~~^{NINE} years, Edward S. Briggs, a son, at the age of thirty-five years, and Ruth Thatcher, formerly Briggs, a daughter, of the age of thirty-two years:

And it appearing from the evidence that all of said children reside in the City of Dallas, Dallas County, Texas, except the said Edward S. Briggs, who resides at the City of Houston, Harris County, Texas:

And it further appearing that all of said children; to wit, Nettie B. Evans, joined by her husband John W. Evans, of the City of Dallas, Dallas County, Texas;

Edward S. Briggs, of the City of Houston, Harris County, Texas;

And Ruth Thatcher, joined by her husband, John E. Thatcher, of the City of Dallas, Dallas County, Texas;

Are the only heirs at law of the said Charles Henry Briggs and Irene S. Briggs;

And it appearing that the estate of the petitioner and deceased Charles Henry Briggs, consisted of the following described property:

REAL ESTATE:

Located and situated in the City of Dallas, Dallas County Texas, and being more particularly described, as follows:

Charles Henry Briggs, Deceased. }

The State of Texas, County of Dallas.

To All Whom These Presents May Come--Greeting:-

Be it known, that whereas, it having been made known to me as County Judge of said Court, that Charles Henry Briggs departed this life on the 8th day of June, A.D. 1908, in the County of Dallas, in the state of Texas, where the said deceased had his residence and domicile prior to and at the time of his death, and that he died possessed of an estate consisting of personal property of the probable value of $5252.00 ~~XXXXXXXX~~ And it appearing to me in my official capacity, that it would be to the best interest of the estate of said deceased, that the following matters concerning the estate be attended to at once, viz: The collection of a Policy of Insurance issued to the deceased in his lifetime in the Prudential Life Insurance Company, of New Jersey, and being numbered No. 383061, for the sum of five thousand ^{Two} ~~five~~ hundred and fifty two dollars, and payable to the estate of said deceased, and further that the interests of said estate require the immediate appointment of an administrator, and that Edward S. Briggs who has made application therefor to me, is a suitable person to act as temporary administrator of said estate.

Now therefore, I H. F. Lively, Judge of the County Court in and for the county aforesaid have on this day of July, 1908, and do hereby appoint the said Edward S. Briggs, temporary administrator of the estate of Charles Henry Briggs deceased, with authority and full power to Edward S. Briggs, and for the faithful performance of which, as well as of all duties under this appointment, the execution of a good and lawful bond in t the sum of _____ Dollars is hereby required of him, the said Edward S. Briggs as such temporary administrator.

And it is hereby ordered that the appointment shall not take effect nor be delivered to the said temporary administrator, until the same shall have been recorded in the probate minutes of Dallas County, and until the clerk of this court shall have endorsed on this appointment, a certificate that the same has been so recorded, and until the said temporary administrator has taken the oath and has given bond as required herein and as required by law; and Further ordered that this appointment shall cease to be of force on the day designated for taking up probate business at the August Term A. D. 1908, of this Court, the same being the first term of the county court held next after the date of this order, unless at the term it be continued in force by an order entered upon the minutes in open court;

And further ordered that the said temporary administrator shall have and exercise only such rights and powers with regards to the estate, or such portions thereof as are or may be committed to his charge, as are specifically and clearly expressed in this order of appointment, and that at the expiration of the term for which he is appointed he shall file with the Clerk of the County Court of Dallas County, a list of all the property of the estate of which he has come into his hands, and a full exhibit and account of all his acts as such temporary administrator, all of which shall be verified by his affidavit.
