No. _____

In the matter of the estate of : In County Court, Dallas County, Tex.
Mrs. Annie Jehn, Deceased. :

To the Honorable Judge of said Court:

Now comes Joseph T. Campbell, and represents to the court that Mrs. Annie Jehn, deceased, departed this life on January 12th, 1908, and was at the time of her death and had been for some time prior thereto a resident citizen of Dallas County, Texas; that the said Mrs. Annie Jehn died leaving surviving her four minor children; that the husband of the said Mrs. Annie Jehn died prior to the time of her death.

That your applicant is informed and believes that the estate of the said Mrs. Annie Jehn consists of a life insurance policy of about the value of $174.00; that said deceased left no other property, either personal or real, except whatever interest she may have had in the estate of her deceased husband, Emil C. Jehn, which is under administration in this court.

That the said Mrs. Annie Jehn, deceased, at the time of her death was not indebted to any-one, save and except in so far as she may have been indebted to the creditors of her deceased husband.

That your petitioner was brother-in-law of deceased, and is not disqualified to act herein, and that there is no objection to the applicant being appointed.

Premises considered your applicant prays that he be appointed temporary administrator of the estate of Mrs. Annie Jehn, deceased, with the power to collect the moneys coming to said estate, to pay the debts, if any, against the estate, and to turn the money over to guardian of the said minor children.

No. 4278.

In the matter of the estate of Mrs. Annie Jehn, Deceased.

In County Court, Dallas County, Tex

To the Honorable Judge of said Court:

Now comes Joseph T. Campbell, here-before appointed temporary administrator herein, and shows to the court that he has received, as such temporary administrator, the following estate:

He found belonging to said estate, an insurance policy and on this policy he has realized the sum of.....$182.50.

Also this estate is entitled to a one-half interest in the assets, after payment of all debts, of the estate of E. C. Jehn, Deceased, which amount coming to this estate and received by this temporary administrator is.....$749.46.

There is also a lot of house-hold furniture left by the deceased, Mrs. Annie Jehn, which furniture is reasonably worth about the sum of.....$ 25.00,-

Making a sum total of.....$956.96 received by your administrator; that this is all the property that came into the hands of your administrator, and is all the property that can be found belonging to said estate.

2. Your administrator further shows to the court that certain claims, and all the claims of which he has knowledge, have been approved by your temporary administrator; have been filed, allowed by the court, and have been paid by your administrator, as follows:

Claim of Dr. S. H. Freedman, for professional services during last illness of deceased, as per attached statement, duly receipted.....$25.00.

Claim of J. H. Brown as per attached statement 22.00
Claim of Ed. C. Smith & Mrs. Undertaking Co., funeral expenses of said Annie Jehn, Deceased, as per attached statement, duly receipted.....$83.00

Making total of expenditures.....$130.00,

3. That the total assets of this estate are and were $956.96;
that the total debts against it were, $108.00; deducting the $130.00 from the $956.96, leaves balance now in the hands of this temporary administrator in the sum of $826.96.

4. Your administrator further shows that he is indebted to the American Bonding Company of Baltimore, in the sum of $5.00 for bond in this case; that he is also due the court costs, aggregating the sum of fifteen dollars; that he is also due to his attorneys, Meador & Davis, a reasonable fee; that he prays this court to allow said attorneys a reasonable fee, not to exceed the sum of $40.00, in full for their services herein rendered and to be rendered, and that your administrator be allowed his proper fee of $20.00.

5. Your administrator further shows that the parties entitled to the assets of this estate herein are all minors, to-wit: Carl, Harry, and Ralph John, all children of the deceased; that both parents of these children are dead; that the minor Emil Marion John is now deceased, and that his parents both being dead the minors, Carl, Harry and Ralph, John, are entitled to the estate of the said Emil Marion John, deceased.

6. Wherefore, your administrator prays that this account be approved and proper order entered making distribution and disposition of the assets of this estate, and that this estate be closed, there being no unpaid debts against the estate and no necessity for further administration.

John T. Campbell
Temporary Administrator.

State of Texas.

County of Dallas.

Before me John D. Davis, a notary public in and for Dallas County, Texas, personally appeared John T. Campbell, temporary administrator of the estate of Emil Marion John, deceased, who, being duly sworn by me, states on oath that the foregoing account contains a correct and complete statement of the matters to which it relates.

In the matter of the estate of : In County Court of Dallas County, Tex.
Mrs. Annie Jehn, Deceased. :

This the 11 day of March, A.D. 1908, came on to be heard the final report of the temporary administrator in the above entitled and numbered cause, showing the sum total of Nine Hundred Fifty Six Dollars and Ninety Six Cents, value of the estate, of which nine hundred and thirty one dollars and ninety six cents is cash, and the balance $25.00 is the estimated value of house held goods, left by the deceased, - all belonging to this estate; the report further shows the sum of One Hundred and ~~thirty~~ ^{thirty} Dollars paid out by the administrator, in satisfaction of claims and demands heretofore filed, approved and allowed, leaving a balance of Eight Hundred ~~thirty~~ ^{Twenty Six} Dollars and Ninety Six Cents in hands of administrator, - and it appearing to the court that the report is in all things correct, -

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that said final report be and the same is hereby in all things approved.

The court is further of the opinion that the attorneys for the said Joseph T. Campbell, Temporary Administrator, Meader & Davis, should be allowed a fee of forty dollars for their services herein; that the administrator should be allowed the sum of Twenty Dollars for his services; that the costs of this court, aggregating the sum of fifteen dollars should be paid, and that the premium on the temporary administrator's bond, in the sum of five dollars, should be allowed and paid, -

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by this court that the temporary administrator, Joseph T. Campbell, be and is hereby directed to pay the said Meader & Davis, the sum of forty dollars, as attorney's fees; also to the said Temporary Administrator, the sum of twenty dollars; also to the clerk of this court the sum of fifteen dollars; also to the American Bonding Company the sum of Five Dollars, - making a sum total of Eighty Dollars, and to take receipts for each of said amounts and file with the clerk of this court.

It further appears that after the payment of all debts and claims against this estate that there will be a balance of Seven Hundred ^{Forty Six} ~~thirty~~ Dollars and Ninety Six cents in the hands of the temporary
