conveyed by said Richard White & wife to H. H. Harwood Sept 29, 1884 by deed recorded in Book 18 page 353 of said Records of Tarrant County, said 1/8 interest of said minors in said premises being then interest inherited from their Grand Father Richard White through their then mother and the other  $\frac{1}{4}$  interest is owned by other heirs of said Regard White Estate. Said Guardian with the said coopers of said  $\frac{1}{4}$  interest sold said setting premises, <sup>at public sale</sup> for the sum of \$7500.00 which is more than same would have

Dear Sir
 Your favor relative to the Vandyke Minor received. I intended & should have signed as Trustee but being so accustomed to signing as Trustee may have neglected to prefix the Ex.
 The property a description of which is here in enclosed was widow Power who has died since I was discharged as trustee. The widow owned one half of the property & the heirs of R White four in number came into possession of the other half at her death. Mr Vandyke's late wife was one of the four heirs & the Minors Andrew Ballin & James Vandyke own a one eighth interest.
 What Mr Van Slyke wants is an order of court to sell their interest so a division of property can be made.

Respectfully,
 J D White

P.S

I will also state that I am one of the heirs is why I interest myself in the matter over

This is the only property of the estate of Richard White Muddiman & of course will have to be sold to be divided & Mrs. Van as Guardian of his children has the disposition of their interest & will have to get an order of court to sell to make title to same

No 15-13
In re estate of Anson, Fannie & Sallie Van Slyke minors

In County
Court, Dallas Co. Tex.

To the Judge of said Court:

Now comes J. S. Van Slyke guardian of the persons and estate of Anson Van Slyke, Fannie Van Slyke and Sallie Van Slyke and respectfully represents to the court that all of said minors are now of age, that Sallie Van Slyke the youngest of said minors was twenty-one years of age on the 24th day of April 1906.

That said Guardian was appointed Guardian of said above named children on the 5th day of February 1891 and that since said date the following is a list of all moneys received and paid out by your petitioner in the management of said estate.

Moneys received.

Sale of  $\frac{1}{8}$  interest in Richard White homestead, same being lots 2 & 3 Block 12 of Simpson's Addition to the town of Bonham Fannin County, Texas ----- \$312 50 Cash received from the estate of Richard White from sale of notes and money on hand 2687 50 Total amount received ----- \$3000 00

Moneys expended.

Educating and maintaining Anson Van Slyke from Feb. 5, 1891 to March 10, 1900 the date of attaining his majority ----- $1000 00

Educating and maintaining Fannie Van Lyshe from Feb. 5, 1891 to Oct - 1903 $1,000-the date of attaining her majority - Educating and maintaining Sallie Van Lyshe from Feb. 5, 1891 to April 24, 1906, $1,000-the date of attaining her majority - Total amount paid out - $3,000-

That said guardian had no means of his own to educate and maintain said minors.
That said guardian has this day turned over to each of said children the sum of sixty-six and  $\frac{2}{3}$  dollars in cash.

That there was no other property of any character whatsoever that came into said guardian's hands except said sums above enumerated. That said guardian has not kept and is unable to produce vouchers and receipts of said moneys received and paid out for said minors. That said children (formerly minors) and each of them have given said guardian a written receipt and release as guardian of their said estates and requesting this Hon. Court to release and discharge said guardian and his bondsmen on his guardianship bond.
That said release and receipt has been filed with the papers in this cause.

Wherefore petitioner considered your petitioner respectfully prays this Honorable Court that this report be accepted as final and that same be approved by this Court and that said guardian be discharged and his bondsmen released from further liability on said bond.

and that said estates be declared closed, and of this he will ever pray.
