A ..... FOR COLLECTION, $ .....

Receipts for ..... 188

From Mrs. M. Ragon

care of L. M. Ragon

On 1883 + 1884

General Instructions.

If the enclosed is a time draft, it must be presented for acceptance as soon as received, and at the expiration of the time at which drawee agents presented for payment. If either acceptance or payment should be refused, the instructions as to Protest must be strictly followed.

If a simple bill or Account for Collection, Agent will cash the same promptly, and if not paid, and there is a prospect of its payment within one week, hold for that length of time, at the expiration of which (unless special instructions to the contrary are given, herein) return it, giving reasons for non-payment.

Collect in bankable notes, unless otherwise instructed. When exchange is to be taken, or order to be purchased, the draft must be drawn to the order of parties for whom the collection is made—never in the order of the Express Company.

Do not receive partial payments or installments.

Return proceeds, or the enclosed, with this envelope, by first Express after approval. Always return the same money as received.

Agents at Transfer offices will re-enclose all collections transferred to other Companies, retaining the original envelope in their possession until the return of the collection. In filling out the new envelope make it in favor of Express Company, and be very particular to enter therein all special or general instructions given on the original envelope.

From C. M. Ragon

General Instructions.

If the enclosed is a new draft, it must be presented for acceptance as soon as received, and at the expiration of the time at which drawn again presented for payment. If either acceptance or payment should be refused, the instructions as to protest must be strictly followed.

If a simple bill or document for Collection, Agent will present the same promptly. If a simple bill or document for payment within one week, hold for 15 days and if not paid, at the expiration of which unless special instructions to the contrary are given, present return to, giving reasons for non-payment.

Collect in banker's money, unless otherwise instructed. When exchange is to be taken, or ordered to be purchased, the draft must be drawn to the order of parties for whom the collection is made - never to the order of the Express Company.

Do not receive partial payments or installments.

Return proceeds to the enclosed, with this envelope, by Post Express after payment. Always retain the same money as received.

Agents at Transfer offices will re-enclose all bills if so instructed to other Companies, retaining the original envelope in their possession until the return of the collection. In filling out the new envelope make it in favor of Express Company, and be very particular to enter thereon all special or general instructions given on the original envelope.

In the Matter of the Guardianship of the Estate of Claude Ragan Minor -

To the Hon. E. G. Pomeroy County Judge of Dallas County,
I have the honor to submit to your Honor herewith my annual account of my Guardianship of the Estate of Claude Ragan, Minor <sup>showing the total amount</sup> received and Expended by me in said Estate, up to the 3rd day of May <sup>1890</sup> ~~1890~~ report which I submitted ~~to~~ the ~~number~~ in which the funds belonging to the said Estate were then leased. Said loans still subsist and I hold the notes and other securities as set out in said former report. In my account herewith submitted I have charged myself with the interest accruing on said notes to May 3rd 1890. I submit herewith the vouchers for the disbursements with which I have credited myself. I respectfully pray that your Honor shall examine my said account and the vouchers submitted therewith and approve the same - Respectfully Submitted.
