Now comes Wm. W. White a resident citizen of Dallas County, Texas, and would respectfully show to the Court:

That on the 17th day of February, 1902, George Freeze, deceased, who, at and before his death, had his domicile in the County of Dallas, State of Texas, died in said county intestate. That at the time of his death, the said George Freeze, deceased, was seized and possessed of personal property of the probable value of three hundred and fifty dollars.

That there is a necessity for an administration upon the estate of said George Freeze, deceased, who, at the time of his death, was indebted to the petitioner in the sum of Two Hundred and fifty seven dollars and seventy-five cents. Said sum is due for board, room rent, washing, medicine and care and attention furnished said George Freeze, deceased, during his last sickness and during the last year of his life by your petitioner, who is next of kin in the state of Texas to said George Freeze, deceased.

That said George Freeze, deceased, was, at his death, indebted to divers other persons, in whose behalf this application is made, as follows: Dr. J. Wilbur Bourland for professional services during the last sickness of said deceased in the sum of $28.00; Ed C. Smith & Bro. for funeral expenses of said deceased in the sum of $50.00; _____ for services as night nurse during the last sickness of said deceased in the sum of $2.00. Wherefore, petitioner prays that citation be issued to all parties interested in said estate as required by law; that letters of administration be issued to your petitioner, and that such other and further orders be made as to the Court may seem proper.
