On this day came regularly on for hearing the application of Martha May for the probate of a written instrument in the hand writing of Turner Lyday, deceased, offered as the last will and testament of deceased. Same said applicant and the contestants to said instrument and by and through their respective counsel announced ready for hearing on said application. And both sides submitted the issues of law as well as of fact to the court without a jury. And the court having heard the testimony of M.P. Penn, Oliver Williams and Adam Forbs as to the handwriting of said Turner Lyday, a written statement thereof taken in open court and filed herewith. And it appearing to the court that notice of said application has been given for the length of time required by law, and in the manner required by law in such cases. The court finds that said written instrument is not a will and is not the last will and testament of said Turner Lyday deceased, and is not entitled to probate. It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the contest to the probate of said ~~will~~ will be and the same is hereby sustained, and said will be and is hereby not admitted to probate as the last will and testament of Turner Lyday deceased. It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed herein that the costs ~~of said will~~ herein incurred be and the same is hereby taxed against the applicant and that the officers of the court have their execution for the same

To the Honorable Judge of Said Court In Probate Sitting:

Now comes Martha May a resident and citizen of the aforesaid state and county of Dallas, Texas, and ~~XXXXXX~~ shows unto the court that the above named deceased departed this life on or about the 28th day of March, 1905, at

Chalton, Texas

That said deceased left a will whereby he devised and bequeathed to this applicant as sole legatee all of his property, and that the same consisted of three vendor's lien notes, balance due on one vendor's lien note, tools and household furniture, etc all of which are fully described in the inventory and appraisal, original and supplemental list of claims heretofore filed in the above named estate by said administrator.

That the above named will was not discovered till after the appointment and qualification of said administrator. That the property bequeathed, etc, as ~~the~~ above said is situated in the aforesaid state and county of Dallas, Texas.

That this applicant is informed and believes that said administrator has collected all of said notes, the balance due on said other note and the interest thereon amounting to the sum of ~~XXXX~~ $451.39. That the reasonable value of said other property is the sum of $5.00. That no executor is named in said will. And that this applicant is not disqualified from accepting letters. Premises considered applicant prays that citation issue in terms of law and that upon a hearing hereof said will be declared the last will and testament of the deceased and that the same be admitted to probate and that this applicant be declared sole legatee as per terms of said will. And further that said administrator be required to file his statement the same to show the condition of said estate. And that applicant be appointed administrator of said estate with the will annexed and that said administrator be ordered to turn over to her all of said estate in his hands as such administrator, and applicant will ever pray etc.

My name is Oliver Williams. I live in Dallas. I knew Turner Lyday during his life time. I also know Martha May. She lives in Dallas, Texas. I knew Lyday about four years before he died. I have seen him write. several times. From this I am acquainted with his hand writing. This instrument is in the hand writing of Turner Lyday. The endorsement on the back of the instrument is also in his hand write. Martha May and Martha Kennedy is one and the same person. Turner Lyday and me lived with Martha May. for some time. beforex he left. Two or three days before he left we were talking and he told me that he wanted Martha May to have what he had left. He was sick. He never did get well after that. Cross: I do not know if Turner Lyday is dead or not. The reason he told me this about what he was going to with his property we were talking and he told me. He I have helped him make out his lumber bills. I did not see his dead body. I only heard that he was dead.

Now come Kate Arnold and Hannah McDonald, who reside in Hillicothe Missouri, and who are the sole heirs of Turner Lyda deceased and file this as their contest of the will, and application to probate same, filed herein on the 22nd day of February 1906, and for opposition thereto say;

1st
That the paper offered for probate is not in fact and in law the will of Turner Lyda deceased;

2nd; That said paper is not ^{a will or} in the form of a will and does not assume to be the last will and testament of said deceased.

3rd;
That it does not appear from the face of the paper that Turner Lyda had any idea in his mind that he was making or attempting to make a will.

with this paper purported will is not dated & does not state the day, month or year.
Wherefore Contestants pray the court to refuse to probate said instrument as the last will and testament of said deceased; for costs; and for such relief as the facts may show Contestants entitled to.

App. of Martha May to Probate the Last
Will and Testament of Turner Lyday Decd.

The application of Martha May for the probate of the last will and testament of Turner Lyday deceased coming on to be heard Dr. M.P. Penn of the city of Dallas, and the State and County of Dallas, Texas, and being over the age of 21 years personally appeared in court and being duly sworn upon oath testified and and subscribed to the following:

My name is M.P. Penn. I reside in the city of Dallas, Texas. I am the administrator of the estate of Turner Lyday deceased. I know Martha May the applicant. She lives in the city of Dallas, Texas. I knew Turner Lyday during his life time. Knew him for some time before his death. I am acquainted with the headeriting of Turner Lyday deceased. This instrument is in the and writing of Turner Lyday deceased. The notes mentioned in the instrument were put into my hands for collection by the deceased, before he disappeared.
I did not see the instrument until I was appointed administrator, and after I had collected a part on the first note. I found it among his deeds and other papers. So far as I know it is the last will and testament of deceased.
I have had all of the papers belonging to the estate of the deceased ever since I was appointed administrator of the estate. I have looked through them and have found no other papers of the same kind or in the nature of a will. Deceased never told me that he was going to give his property to Martha May at his death

I do not know if Turner Lyday is dead or not. I did not see his dead body. I heard he was dead. I heard this through a man at ^{his} ~~the~~ ~~place~~ ~~where~~ ~~he~~ ~~died~~, by a letter.
The letter is at my office. I said when the claims were contested that there was no will left by Turner Lyday. I did not consider the instrument in question a will.

deceased, No. *

Now comes, W.R. Haynie, a resident of Dallas County, Texas, and files this application for letters of Administration on the estate of Thaddeus Haynie, deceased, and would respectfully show to the Court:-

That said Thaddeus Haynie, deceased, died in the City and County of Dallas, State of Texas, on, to-wit, the 15th day of February, 1906, and died intestate. That at the time of the death of said Thaddeus Haynie he resided in Dallas, Texas, and was seized and possessed of an insurance policy in the Maryland Life Insurance Co., of Baltimore, for the sum of One Thousand Dollars, payable to his executors, administrators or assigns. That it is necessary to have an administration on his estate in order to collect said insurance policy and to pay the debts against his said estate.

That ^{the} estate of said Thaddeus Haynie, deceased, is probably worth $1000.00, and that the expenses of his last sickness and funeral are due and unpaid and it is necessary to have an administrator appointed in order to collect said insurance policy and pay said debts against his estate.

That the applicant, W.R. Haynie, is one of the children of said Thaddeus Haynie and is of age and the wife of said Thaddeus Haynie, deceased, is dead, and said W.R. Haynie is not disqualified from acting as administrator of the estate of said Thaddeus Haynie, deceased.

Therefore in consideration of the premises said W.R. Haynie prays that citation be issued herein and that he be appointed Administrator of the estate of said Thaddeus Haynie, deceased, with authority to administer on said estate.
