Mr. Newton Cole,

Dear Brother, we received your letter concerning business matters but as it is Sunday could send a letter no more. It is ally too bad about Wades being sick and I hope he will be up again.

I suppose there is a great deal of sickness about Dallas and the doctors say there will be a great of it here too. Lucy's baby is now sick, but the rest are up. The Mouses are still living under that great burden of dissatisfaction. The old lady says she is going back the last of Aug.

N. E. & I will appoint you as our guardian. And I am sure I had rather have you than any one else. WE will look for
