And it appearing to the Court that citation has been duly issued and published; and no exceptions or objections having been made to said report; and the Court having examined said report and account and the vouchers attached thereto; and it appearing to the Court that all the debts against said estate have been paid and that there remains no property of said estate on hand save a balance of $266.29 in the hands of the executor; and it appearing to the Court that under the will of the said W. Deceased.
No. 2040

T. W. Hurst, Executor.

In the County Court of Dallas County.
In Probate.

Now comes, T. W. Hurst, Executor of said Estate, and represents to the court:

That the personal property of said estate, besides money and choses in action, as shown by the inventory and appraisal herein, consists of two horses, a sulky and a small lot of old plumbers tools and materials. That said property is of very small value, and that it is to the interest of said estate that it be sold at once, in order to save the expense of keeping the same, and to save the rent necessary to be paid on the place where said tools and materials are stored.

That an advantageous sale of said property can be effected at private sale.

Wherefore the petitioner prays that he be directed to sell said property, for cash, at private sale.

To the Honorable County Court of Dallas County, - In Probate:

Your petitioner, T. W. Hurst, respectfully represents:-

That William K. Holmes, late of Dallas County, Texas, died on the 8th day of February, 1901, in said Dallas County.

That the said William K. Holmes resided, at the time of his death, and for many years prior thereto, in the City of Dallas, in Dallas County.

That he left an estate consisting of personal property, situated in Dallas County, of the probable value of $600.

That he left a will, duly executed, which is herewith produced and filed; that the petitioner, T. W. Hurst, who resides in Dallas County, Texas, is the executor named in said will; that the petitioner is not disqualified by law from accepting letters of executorship upon said estate.

That the said will provides that no bond shall be required of the executor.

Wherefore the petitioner prays:- that upon due notice the said will may be probated; that the petitioner may be appointed executor of said estate, without bond; and for such other relief as may be proper.

The petitioner further represents that prior to the death of said testator, ^{he} had personally requested the petitioner to make all necessary arrangements for his funeral and to see that his body was sent to Cincinnati, Ohio, there to be buried in a burial lot belonging to the family, and where other members of the family had been buried; and also requested the petitioner to attend to other affairs that might need attention, upon his death. application of W. G. Godfrey, appointed the said Godfrey as temporary administrator of said estate; neither this court, nor the said Godfrey, as petitioner is informed, knowing, at the time, of said will nor of said prior arrangements and directions given by said decedent. That the appointment of a temporary administrator was in fact unnecessary. The petitioner, therefore, further prays, as the estate is so small, and as there are debts which will consume the greater portion, if not all of it, that no further action be taken, or expense incurred, in reference to said temporary administration.
