Dead } Texas,

On this day came on to be heard in open court the application to probate the will of Louis Miller alias Louis Mullasano deceased and thereupon came into open court P. Savour who after being duly sworn upon his oath says;

"That he was acquainted with Louis Miller alias Louis Mullasano during his life time; that he, said Louis Miller alias Louis Mullasano is now dead; that he died in Dallas County Texas where all his property was and is situated; that the instrument now produced and shown to affiant was signed and executed by the said L. Miller, on the 9th day of January 1895, as his last will and testament; that said L. Miller (Louis Miller alias Louis Mullasano) at the time he so signed and executed said will, declared in the presence of affiant and of Thomas Burke, Charley Thompson and Dr. J. P. Armstrong the other subscribing witnesses to said that said will was his last will and testament, and requested affiant and said other subscribing witnesses to sign same, and that said affiant and said other subscribing witnesses did sign said will at the request of said testator, in

To the Hon. Judge of said court, your petitioner, E.M.

Salvatore most respectfully shows that Louis ~~Salvatore~~ ^{Salvatore} alias Louis Mollasano, departed this life in the county of Dallas, on the 14th day of January, 1895: $100
204

That he has left a very small estate situated in the County of Dallas, Texas.

Your petitioner would further show that he is not disqualified from acting as administrator of the estate of said decedent.

Your petitioner would further show that there is an immediate necessity for administration.

Your petitioner is a creditor of the deceased, holding first lien upon all the property of the said estate.

The said estate consists of one stand upon wheels or car, located at the corner of Market and Elm Sts. in the ^{City} county of Dallas, Texas, with small stock of fixtures, in which there is run and operated a restaurant, of the probable value of $75.00.

Your petitioner would show that there is immediate necessity for administration because the ground rent, if allowed to run until regular letters of administration can be had, will consume the substance of said estate, unless said restaurant business can be operated in the meantime.

Wherefore, petitioner prays that your honor might grant him letters of administration on said estate, to the end that he secure his debt, and said estate be not wasted, and as in duty bound will ever pray.
