County of Dallas & Dallas County Tex 1877.

To the Hon. R. H. West Judge of County Court.

The petition for final settlement and discharge of Sarah C. Akard (now Daniels) Guardian of the Minors Porter H. Coleman B: Charles W: and Frederic Akard. respectfully shews to the court that after the death of W. C. C. Akard her former husband. she qualified as survivor under the statute in such cases made and provided, and as such managed the entire estate of said decedent.
That in order to collect the amount of a certain insurance policy upon the life of said decedent. she heretofore on the 6th day of January a. D. 1871. applied for letters of guardianship of the estate of said minors for the purpose of collecting said sum of money. which application was granted. and said sum of money was collected for said heirs amounting to Three Thousand Five Hundred Dollars. that annual showings were made by her from time to time until the 30th day of June a. D. 1876. that on the day of 1877. she intermarried with A. C. Daniels and afterwards tenet: on the 12th day of June a. D. 1877. she joined by her said husband instituted suit against said minors, in the District Court of Dallas County for a final settlement of all matters between them and for partition, in which said proceeding she accounted to said heirs for all sums of money due them as such guardian and survivor as is fully shown by the record in said cause No 3440 in District Court. That a full final and complete settlement was then had between them, and partition of said estate granted, in respect to the interest of petitioner & said minors therein that said decree fully settled the matter of guardianship herein, and your petitioner asks to be finally discharged & that this proceeding be closed and dismissed from the docket of this court. That she has instituted regular proceedings in this court for general guardianship of the estate of said minors & desires that these special and irregular proceedings be closed - upon the payment by her of all costs.
