In Re Estate of Millie Dougharty, Deceased.

In the County Court of Dallas County, Texas.

000

To the said Honorable Court:--

Lizzie D. Yeager, Temporary Administratrix of the Estate of Millie Dougharty, Deceased, respectfully represents:--

That since qualifying as temporary administratrix of the above mentioned estate on March 22, 1907, she has collected the following assets belonging to said estate, to wit:--

One policy of life insurance in the Southwestern Life Insurance Company owned by deceased during her lifetime and made payable to deceased's estate in the sum of $105.25.

That this policy of insurance constitutes all the assets of said estate.

That there are no debts against said estate except the account of $136.00 now on file in favor of S. E. Rosengren, Undertaker; the costs of this proceeding, and a reasonable compensation to the attorney for services in this proceeding.

Wherefore premises being considered, administratrix prays that out of this sum of money on hand, she be directed to pay the court costs accruing as a result of this proceeding, a reasonable compensation to the attorney for services in this connection, that the balance remaining on hand be paid to S. E. Rosengren toward the satisfaction of his debt, and that she and her bondsmen be fully and finally discharged from further liability as temporary administratrix of the estate of Millie Dougharty, Deceased, and this estate closed, as in duty bound administratrix will ever pray.

Lizzie D. Yeager

Temporary Administratrix.

The State of Texas.
County of Dallas.

§ S. S.

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Lizzie D. Yeager, Temporary Administratrix of the estate of Millie Dougharty, Deceased, who after being by me duly sworn, deposes and says that the above and foregoing final report is a true and correct statement of the condition of said estate and of all matters to which it relates.

APPLICATION FOR LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION.

The state of Texas.
County Of Dallas.

In Re Estate of Millie Dougharty, Dec'd.

)))))))))000)))))))))

To the honorable County Court in and for said County:

Your petitioner, Lizzie D. Yeager, shows to the court that she resides in Dallas, Dallas County, Texas.

That on the 5th day of February A. D. 1907, Mrs. Millie Dougharty who at, and before her death had her domicile in the County of Dallas, state aforesaid, died in ~~the~~ ^{Texas} county, ~~the~~ ^{Texas} State, intestate.

That the time of her death, the said Mrs. Millie Dougharty was the owner and holder of a policy of life insurance in the Southwestern Life Insurance Co. of the probable value of One Hundred and Forty Five ($145.00) dollars.

That there is a necessity for an administration upon the estate of the said Mrs. Millie Dougharty, in order that the aforesaid policy of life insurance may be collected and the expenses of her last illness, including her funeral expenses may be paid out of it, the aforesaid policy of insurance being payable to the estate of the deceased.

That James Dougharty, husband of deceased, has waived his right to be appointed administrator of deceased's estate, said waiver being in writing and attached to this application and marked Exhibit "A". That your petitioner is not disqualified by law to act as temporary administratrix.

Wherefore premises being considered, your petitioner prays that letters of administration be issued to her, and that such other and further orders be made as to the court may seem proper, as in duty bound petitioner will ever pray.

W. S. Yeager
Attorney for Petitioner.

Attorney at Law
263 Main St.
Dallas, Texas

March 19-1907-

I hereby waive all right to be appointed temporary administrator of the Estate of my wife, Mrs Millie Dougherty, deceased and agree that said temporary letters of administration may be granted to my daughter Mrs Lizzie D. Yeager -
