Archibald Hargrove, Guardian of the Probate Court of the Main Line of Paul Roy & Dallas Co. Decr. 1846 to the Hon. Ellis County Judge of the County Court of Dallas County.

The petitioners of Archibald Hargrove Guardian of the Main Line of Paul Roy Decr. respectfully sheweth that it is impossible for him to collect the perishable property of his wards within sixty days as required by law. for that the property of his wards consisting of horses are in the ranges scattered on account of scarcity of grass & cannot be collected without great expense if at all before spring at which time they will probably return to their former range. Therefore he asks this Court to grant him until the 1st day of June 1847 to return inventory of the estate of 15 wards or until such time as in the judgment of the Court may seem proper all of which is respectfully submitted.
