 Bonis non. §

-0-

To the Honorable Ed S. Lauderdale, Judge of said Court:

Now comes O. N. Brown, administrator de bonis non in the above named estate, and presents to the Court his final account as to the condition of said estate.

Administrator states that on the 17th day of October, 1900, he was appointed administrator de bonis non of said estate, and that the inventory as returned into court upon said appointment showed as belonging to said estate a judgment against the estate of W. H. Sutton, deceased, in the sum of $1466. He says that after a protracted litigation in connection with the said judgment, the same having been appealed to the Court of Civil Appeals, he received as the proceeds thereof $131.76. That he has never received anything more upon said judgment, and that there is no possibility of ever receiving more.

That he received from Robert Astin, of the firm of Davis & Astin, the sum of $25, moneys held by the said firm and belonging to said estate, making the total amount of cash received belonging to said estate the sum of $156.76.

That he paid out to J. B. Nabors ^{agent} for a surety bond company, fee for making his bond as such administrator, the sum of $10. That he has paid out in costs of court since the opening of the said estate by George W. Davis the original administrator, the sum of $28.20. That he is entitled as administrator to retain of the amount on hand as fees for collections and disbursements the sum of $9.25, leaving cash on hand belonging to said estate 108.81 ^{less $25.00 paid out to Davis & Astin atty, for services to said estate leaving balance $83.81}

That there are no debts owing by said estate that he knows of except the court costs that will be due arising from the filing of this report and the winding up of said estate. That Lister Witherspoon, administrator of the estate of Thomas C. Wood, deceased, in Woodford County, Kentucky, is the proper person to receive the said estate in the hands of this administrator.

The administrator asks the Court to allow him a fee of $10, to be paid to John W. George, attorney, for presenting this final report. He asks that upon consideration of this report by the Court that the same be approved, and that upon payment of all costs and on payment of the balance of the estate in his hands to the administrator above named, who is entitled to receive the same, that he and his bondsman be discharged from all further liability upon his bond as such administrator.

d. n. of above estate and respectfully
shows the court that the only asset belonging to said estate is an interest of about $122.00 in a ^{note} issued by J. D.
Damon to H. S. Gray, admr etc bearing 8%
interest; that the remainder of said note is owned by Samuel J. Booth; that said interest in said note was transferred by
