With respect to the claims and the Estate she begs to state that she and her attorney have used due diligence to make collection but have not been able to collect any the few claims alone reported.
 Most of the claims against solvent people are disputed because of offset ss. and the Books of the Debt. were so badly kept that no account can be verified. A great many of the accounts are written because the debtors have failed during the great business reverses here within the last three years and cannot be collected. And for that reason she has deemed it necessary to incur cost quite necessary to sue upon these claims.

Proper vouchers are herewith presented for credit being claimed, and she asks that the account be allowed.

ESTATE OF _____)
J. W. WEBB, DEC'D) In the County Court of Dallas County.
Sitting in Probate and other like matters.

To the Honorable Judge of said Court:

Now comes, F. LOUISE BUTLER, by attorney, and respectfully shows to the court that on April 5th, 1888, J. W. Webb, deceased, executed to your petitioner his certain promissory note for Five Thousand Dollars, due four years after date with eight per cent interest per annum from date, payable semi-annually, on the 5th days of October and April of each year, for which interest instalments the said J. W. Webb at the same time executed eight other promissory notes in favor of petitioner, with a stipulation in said original note for the payment of ten per cent additional as attorney's fees in case said note was not paid at maturity and collected by suit, or by attorney. Said notes were made payable at the City National Bank, Dallas, Texas; and was secured together with said coupons by a deed of trust to E. M. Reardon, trustee, upon the following described real estate, Situate in the City and County of Dallas, State of Texas, and being the East half of Lot Three (3) in Block Fifty One (51) according to the original map of the Town of Dallas, and also known as Block Fifty Five (55), according to the Official Map of the City of Dallas---said half lot having a frontage of twenty five feet on the South side of Main Street, and a depth of one hundred feet between equal and parallel lines at right angles with Main Street;

That said deed of trust among other things provides that in case of default in the payment of said note, or any of them, or the failure on the part of said J.W.Webb, to keep and perform any of the covenants and agreements therein contained, that the said Reardon, trustee, was then fully authorized and empowered at the request of the said E. Louise Butler, or other legal holder, of said note, made at any time after such failure ~~xxx~~ or default, to sell the above described property for cash at the County Court House in the City and County of Dallas, after advertising the time, place and terms of sale, and the property to be sold, by posting a written notice on the bulletin board at said Court House, for at least twenty days prior to the day of sale, and to sell said property together, or in parcels, as to said trustee should seem best, and to execute and deliver to the purchaser good and sufficient deed etc., and apply the proceeds of such sale, after the payment of expenses of executing this trust to the satisfaction of this debt.

Plaintiff shows that default was made in the payment of said debt; that said originally note for Five Thousand Dollars, and one of said coupon notes for Two Hundred Dollars ^{with interest on each} ($200.) are still unpaid. That the said J. W. Webb, departed this life on the _____ day of _____ 18 __; that Mrs. Mattie Q. Webb, surviving widow of J. W. Webb, is the duly qualified and acting administratrix of the Estate of said J. W. Webb; that the plaintiff's said claim was duly presented to said administratrix, authenticated as required by law; that on June 11th, 1892, said administratrix allowed said claim in favor of plaintiff for the sum of Five Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety Five and 25/100 Dollars ($5795.25); and that subsequently on the 1 day of July 1892, said claim and allowance was approved by the Honorable Probate Court of Dallas County, Texas; that said claim is now duly and regularly on file in said Probate Court; and that a certified copy of the deed of trust or mortgage executed by said J. W. Webb in his life time to secure the payment of this debt, is attached to said claim.

The premises considered petitioner prays this Honorable Court to grant an order directing the sale of said above described property in accordance with the law and the terms of said deed of trust; and that the proceeds of said sale, or so much thereof as may be necessary be applied to the payment and satisfaction of plaintiff's claim and mortgage aforesaid.

Plaintiff prays that the administratrix and all persons interested in said estate be cited to appear and answer this application; and that upon hearing this applicant have an order directing the sale of said above described property as required by law; and for all such other relief and orders as plaintiff may be entitled to in the premises.

Your Administratrix begs to report that all the property belonging to the estate which has come into her possession has been disposed of as shown herein and as heretofore reported, except 70 shares of stock in the Webb Land Mortgage Company, and one share of stock in the Dallas Club, all of which are worthless and cannot be sold. Also that she has never received anything on account of the notes reported in her inventory to have been held as collateral by creditors of the deceased prior to his death.

She also desires to report that all of the accounts belonging to the estate and heretofore listed and reported by her which are not reported as collected or extinguished by offsets are uncollectible and worthless; that she has made every effort to collect same, both by collectors and by her attorneys, and cannot do so, and in her opinion it would be unwise to sue upon them. She therefore requests that such order be made by the Court respecting same as will relieve her of any further responsibility about them. And as this report will show that the estate is insolvent, she does not give the names of persons entitled to receive any portion of the estate, and no advancements have been made to any of such persons on that account.

Your Administratrix asks that notice of this account be given, and after being considered by the Court that her account be settled and she be discharged.

County of Dallas.

To the Honorable Thos. F. Nash, County Judge.

Your petitioner, W.F. Thacher, would respectfully show to your Honor, that J.W. Webb, deceased, was indebted to him in the sum of $43.50 on account of medical services; that the claim was duly presented to the Administratrix, and by her allowed on the 17th day of November, 1892, and that the same was by the attorneys of said W.F. Thacher, filed in the County Clerk's office, but by some mistake it has been mislaid or lost, and that the loss of same was only discovered a short time ago when it was sought to be presented to your Honor for approval. That the record of claims in the hands of the Administratrix shows that the same was a just debt and properly allowed, and your petitioner now asks that an order nunc pro tunc be made, that this claim be docketed, and that an entry upon the probate books be made as of the date when said claim was filed, so that your petitioner may receive his pro rata of payments allowed upon claims filed within a year.

Freeman Hall, Atty at large for W.F. Thacher

W.L. Hall being duly sworn says that he is one of the attorns of W.F. Thacher that the above said claim was returned to him after approval that the statements herein made are to affiant's knowledge true

Be it remembered, that on this seventh day of November A. D. 1892, before me Charles Egan Mills a Notary Public for Washington County in New York City, there appeared Henry Wood who being by me duly sworn, deposes and says, that he is a member of the firm of Wood & Hughes doing business in New York City and State of New York that the Estate of J. W. Webb of Dallas in the State of Texas owes and is justly indebted to deponent firm of Wood & Hughes in the full sum of three hundred & fifty two $100 dollars for goods, wares and merchandise sold and delivered to said J. W. Webb at this special instance and request; that the annexed statement marked "Exhibit A," by the Notary Public is a just, true and strictly correct account of said indebtedness, showing items, dates and prices; that said sum of three hundred & fifty two $100 dollars remains due and unpaid, and has not been settled or paid by said J. W. Webb in his estate or any other person; that there are no just credits, off-sets or counter-claims against said sum, either in law or in equity; and that said sum of three hundred & fifty two $100 dollars is now due to Wood & Hughes exclusive of any payment, set-off, security or other claim; and that lawful interest is due thereon from the day of A. D. 189 that the same is just and unpaid, and that all debts of debts, payments and credits known to this affiant, have been allowed -
