J. S. Jones att

The Quoniam Richard Britton sworn must respectfully represent unto the Court that the Stock belonging to his heirs, consisting of Hogs, Hens and Cattle, are likely to be lost

As he is unable to give them that amount of personal attention that should be bestowed upon them in order to procure them for the benefit of his wards, that he has no funds with which to pay taxes, Court Cost and other Charges against his wards; that he is satisfied that it would be to the advantage of his wards to sell all their personal property, except enough to keep up the farm, to cut the meadow, plow, and work Oxen, and except also the horses given to each of his wards by name by their decessor father; he therefore prays for an order to sell such property on a Credit of twelve months, at public Sale, excepting enough to raise one hundred dollars which he wishes to sell for Cash

All of which is respectfully Submitted
