Order of Court upon
Report of temporary administrator.

Leake, Shepard & Miller.

To Hon. E. G. Bower,

Judge of said Court:

Your petitioner, S.O. Sectt, Temporary Administrator of the estate of Henry M. Morris, deceased, respectfully shows to your honor:

That amongst the personal property of the deceased, which has been discovered by him as reported in the list thereof heretofore presented and filed, there is a lot of old corn, some of it of last year, and some of the year before; in amount estimated at between two and three hundred bushels. The said corn was accumulated by the deceased, as your petitioner is informed by C.I. Cravens, the agent of deceased upon said farm, for the purpose of feeding stock through the winter. The said corn is old and is rapidly deteriorating in value, and the necessity for feeding stock ^{has} passed. It is the opinion of your petitioner, as well as of said C.I. Cravens, the agent of deceased, that the said corn should be sold as soon as possible, because it is not only deteriorating in quality, but is likely to become of less value as the season progresses. The said C.I. Cravens has also informed your petitioner that it was the intention and desire of said Morris to sell all of said corn remaining after the winter's feeding was over.

Petitioner respectfully presents the facts aforesaid to your

Honor and believing it to be to the interest of said estate that said corn be sold at private sale, as the terms thereof can well be arranged, prays for an order granting him authority to sell the same at private sale.

S. O. Scott

Temporary Administrator,

Estate of Henry M. Morris, Dec'd.

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared S. O. Scott, Temporary Administrator of the Estate of Henry M. Morris, deceased, who being sworn, says that the facts set forth in the foregoing petition are true to the best of his knowledge and belief.

Witness my hand and official seal, this the 30th day of April, 1890.
