Dallas County Tex
November Term 1884

To the Hon. B. E. Rusk Judge of the Dallas County Court

Your petitioner Guardian of estate and person of Mary P. Blankenship Willie B. Blankenship and Archie Blankenship respectfully asks for an order of sale for all the personal and real property ^{as described below of said} belonging to said Minors, basing his application upon the following grounds

- (1) - There are no available funds out side of said sale for the support and education of said Minors -
- (2) - That the liabilities Contingent and ^{amounting to three hundred and twenty five dollars} ~~fixed~~ expenses overhanging said estate cannot be cancelled by the crop grown on the land belonging to said Minors -
- (3) - The perishable property is Copartnership property and cannot be divided only by selling and dividing proceeds -
- (4) - That there are notes for $1625⁰⁰ now due for the purchase money on the land referred to - said land being jointly owned by said Minors and James D. Jones
- (5) - That said land as described in inventory and appraisement now on file in this cause is so situated that an equitable division cannot be made -
- (6) - That unless said property is sold said Minors will be left without funds to support clothes and educate
