1863

Hon. A. H. Dean Judge.

Your petitioner Geo. Bartsche Guardian of the person & Estate of Annie & Caroline Kelly would respectfully represent that there is of the said Annie's estate 4 Bushels of wheat & of the said Caroline's estate 28 Bushels of wheat both obtain for the rent of their lands for this year for these articles he asks an order to sell. he also asks an order to rent the lands out for next year. He would represent that that the articles for sale are very small & the price established in the country & that the price of renting land is also established in the country. He is of opinion that he can make a better arrangement for the rent of the land at private renting. He therefore asks you honor for an order allowing him to sell said wheat at private sale because it is too small to demand a public sale or attract public attention & may be so expedient to rent said land at private renting.

Your petitioner would further represent that upon the land allotted to his ward

Annin There is a barn & no other building said Barn is so isolated or remote from any one making the use of it that it will not suit for any thing it is no advantage whatsoever to the renting of the land and is bound to go to waste. That his said ^{ward} Annin is about eight years old & by the time she may be old enough to take charge of her property said barn will be nearly or altogether valueless. That if it is sold now the money may be put at interest or invested in some other property that will produce some income or at least not go to waste He therefore prays that he for an order to sell said Barn at public auction on a credit of twelve months & for such other & further orders in relation to the matters as to your Honor shall seem proper in the premises
