J. B. Wolfenberger Admin. &
To the Hon. J. F. Nash
Judge of said court.

Now comes J. B. Wolfenberger Administrator as aforesaid and respectfully represents, that the ready money and solvent claims in the hands of your petitioner belonging to said estate, will not exceed the sum of $88 \frac{95}{100}$ dollars, and that besides the sum of one hundred dollar estimate expenses of Administrator to claims against said estate, which have been allowed by your petitioner amount to the sum of one hundred + Fifty-eight + $\frac{74}{100}$ dollars, as will more fully appear from the exhibit hereto attached and marked exhibit "A". And your petitioner further represents, that owing to the insufficiency of the proper means in the hands of your petitioner as aforesaid, your petitioner finds that to enable him to pay off and discharge the debts of said estate, it is necessary to sell some the following described personal property, and real estate, To-wit: Two cows with their calves and one yearling - Also the following described real-estate, the same being all the real estate in this estate belonging to said estate, To-wit: Lying and being situate in Dallas County, Texas and being known as Lots Nos. One (1) and Two (2) in Block No. Nine (9), ^{with improvements thereon} according to the map and plat of the town of Grand Prairie, Dallas County, Tex. + The before described real estate is all the real-estate belonging to said estate, except some lots in Florida, which are of little value. Wherefore your petitioner prays that citation issue as the law directs, and that on final hearing that your petitioner be authorized to sell at public or private sale as to him may seem to be the best interest of said estate the personal property and real estate hereinbefore described for the purpose of applying the proceeds thereof to payment of the debts against said estate.

Deceased of Dallas County, Tex.

In the matter of the probate of the nuncupative will of Emma A. Haskett deceased, J. H. Curry, Lizzie Boales and Eugenia Grantham, being duly sworn, each of them upon their oaths do state—

That on the 13th day of January, 1893, Emma A. Haskett, a person over the age of twenty one years, and being of sound mind, in the time of her last sickness, at her habitation in the town of Grand Prairie, Texas, where she had resided for more than ten days next preceding, called upon them the said Affiants to bear witness to her will. She ^{then} stated that she desired that Mrs Minnie McKelvey have all her household goods, including beds and bed clothing and furniture, and she also expressed the desire that the balance of her estate, after all debts having been paid be divided equally between Mrs Minnie McKelvey's babe, Lydia McKelvey, and her two sisters Mrs Maria Justice of Galena Kansas, and Mrs Jennie Kessler of Terr. Haute, Indiana.

Her said statement was then and there reduced to writing and subscribed by affiant witnesses thereto.

That thereafter on the 23^d day of January, 1893 she the said Emma A. Haskett departed this life at her said home in said county and said will was not revoked by her, so far as known by these affiants. That affiants at the time of the making said will was each of them over the age of Fourteen years.

In the matter of the nuncupative will of Mrs Emma A. Haskett Deceased On the 13th day of January in the year one Thousand Eighteen Hundred and ninety three. Mrs Emma A.
Haskett being in her last sickness in her dwelling situated in Grand Prairie, Dallas County, Texas, in the Presence of the Subscribers did declare her last will and wishes concerning the disposition of her Property, in the following words namely, She desired that Mrs Minnie Mc Kelvey have all her house hold goods, including Beds and bed Clothing and Furniture, she also expressed a desire that the ballance of her Estate, after all debts having been paid, divided Equally between Mrs Minnie Mc Kelvey, Babe Lydia Mc Kelvey, and her two sisters Mrs Mariah Justice of Galena Texas and Mrs Jennie Hestler of Terre Haut, Indiana

made the foregoing statement as her will, she was of sound mind

The State of Texas & In County Court, County of Dallas & Dallas County, Texas.

Judge of said court:

The petition of J. L. Waelpueber, a resident citizen of said County respectfully represents, that Mrs. Emma A. Hoaskett late of said County deceased, at her residence therein departed this life on the 23^d day of January 1893, leaving an estate of the probable value of five hundred dollars. ^{Respectfully of name that in some former prob. case, probate judge, or account and lots at Dallas, Texas, 1891.} That deceased left two heirs at law as follows to-wit: Mrs. Maria Justice, residence, Galena, Kansas, & Mrs. Jennie Hestler, residence, Terra Haute, Indiana. That deceased, during her last sickness at her own residence, on the 13th day of January 1893 and being of sound and disposing mind and memory made her last nuncupative will in the presence of the following witnesses called upon by the testator to hear testimony that such was her will - to-wit: J. H. Curry, Mrs. Lizzie Boales & Eugenia Gauthier, all residents of the town of Grand Prairie, Tex. in said County, said Nuncupative Will being in substance as follows. She stated that she desired that Mrs. Minnie McKelvey have all her household goods, including beds and bed clothing and furniture. She also expressed a desire that the balance of her estate, after all debts having been paid, be divided equally between Mrs. Minnie McKelvey's babe, Lydia McKelvey, and her ^{two} sisters Mrs. Maria Justice of Galena, Kansas & Mrs. Jennie Hestler of Terra Haute, Indiana. Petitioner states that there are debts existing against said estate creating a necessity for an administration with the will annexed, as no executor was appointed by said Nuncupative Will. Your petitioner states that he is not disqualified from acting as administrator herein, and further represents, expenses and that Mrs. Minnie McKelvey is appointed as administrator of said estate for burial has relinquished her said right in favor of your petitioner. Petitioner further represents that the said will of the deceased was reduced to writing by the said witnesses, at which time the same was made, and the same is filed herein as a part of this application, and marked exhibit "A".

 Wherefore your petitioner prays that citation issue as the law directs and that on final hearing that on proper proof being made that said your petitioner will be admitted to probate, and that said and granted letters of administration, and that said your petitioner will ever pray.

Eugenia Grantham and Lizzie Boaler to bear witness that such was her will; that said witnesses did then and there attest said testamentary words when reduced to writing; that said will was not revoked by said testator, that more than 14 days, and less than six months have elapsed since the death of said testator, it is considered by the Court and so ordered adjudged and decreed, that said nuncupative will, so reduced to writing, be and is the same as hereby proved and established as the last will & testament of said Mrs E.A. Heskett deceased, and that same, together with all the testimony in the case, as well as the Application for the probate thereof, be recorded in the minutes of this Court.
 And it further appearing to the Court that the parties entitled to letters testamentary herein have waived their rights to be appointed in probate, and J. L. Wolfenbarger ^{and} ^{that said J. L. Wolfenbarger is not disqualified to act as Administrator} It is therefore ordered by the Court that said J. L. Wolfenbarger
