In Re Estate of ) Glen R. Wright, deceased.) In County Court, Dallas Co., Texas.

To Hon. H. F. Lively, Judge of said Court:

Now comes Louis Blaylock, Jr., Administrator of the Estate of Glen R. Wright, deceased, and presents this his final account and statement of his administration of said Estate, viz:-

1st.

His original inventory filed herein shows the property that has come into his hands as Administrator, belonging to said Estate, except, on June 2nd, July 14th, 1905, and Jan'y 1st, 1906, respectively he collected as dividend on the bank stock referred to in the said inventory $40.00 on each of the said dates, making a total of $120.00, and he collected from the Blaylock Publishing Co. the sum of $1322.35 2nd.

The property described in said inventory and the money collected as aforesaid is now in his possession except the amounts that have been paid out on debts due by the said Estate and the expenses of administration as herein shown.

3rd.

Exhibit "A" hereto attached shows the debts paid by him as Administrator and shows the various items of expenses which he has paid and vouchers therefor are hereto attached, except where the amounts as originally allowed are marked paid as shown on the face thereof, the money having been advanced for that purpose before the accounts were formally allowed, and to which receipted accounts reference is here had for vouchers, and except also the sum of $30.12 paid to Mrs U. B. McFarland Dec. 5, 1904, and the sum of $30.00 paid to her December, 1905, as shown by said Exhibit "A". The total amount so paid out by the Administrator is $1185.37. The total amount of cash coming into his hands as shown in said Exhibit is $1488.68, leaving a balance of cash now on hand of $302.31.

4th.

Your Administrator knows of no indebtedness now due by the said Estate and believes that all debts have been paid. The expenses which will be still owing by the said Estate are the unpaid Court costs and commission, commissions due to the Administrator as fixed by law, and a reasonable allowance of $100.00 as attorneys fees for attorneys in procuring letters of administration, filing accounts of administration, and advice and consultation, and for the filing of the final report and procuring the discharge of the Administrator.

5th.

Except as above mentioned, the property described in the said inventory as belonging to the said Estate, still remains on hand in the possession of the Administrator, subject to delivery to the heir upon the proper order of this Court.

6th.

So far as this Administrator has been able to discover, there is but one heir to said estate, to-wit: Mrs Georgie Ella McFarland, who is a resident of the City and County of San Francisco in the State of California, a sister of the Deceased. This Administrator is of the opinion and believes that the deceased Glen R. Wright died without issue; that he was never married; that he left no father or mother surviving him and no sisters or brothers or <sup>their</sup> ~~other~~ descendants other than his sister the said Mrs Georgie Ella McFarland, who is an adult person, being a widow.

7th.

The Administrator further shows that no advancements nor payments have been made to any heir except two $30.00 advancements made to the foregoing as above set forth, the receipts for which are herewith attached.

8th.

Vouchers for all payments and expenses incurred by the said Administrator are hereto attached and presented except a few small items for express and telegrams as set forth in said Exhibit "A". All of said vouchers are herewith filed as a part of this final report.

9th.

Said Administrator shows that his legal fees under the law for the amounts collected and paid out, <sup>amount</sup> ~~amount~~ to $1484.35 collected, and $1126.25 paid out, as shown by said Exhibit "A", and $100.00 to be paid, <sup>to Cockrell & Co.</sup> as attorneys fees, making a total of $2710.60 of cash collected and paid out, 5% of which or $135.53, will be due me as commissions

10th.

Your Administrator knows of no reason why the administration upon this estate should not be closed and he therefore prays that citation be issued in due form of law, citing all persons having or claiming an interest in said Estate, to appear at the next regular term of this Court, and that on the hearing of this report an order be entered directing the property on hand to be turned over to the true heirs of the deceased, and discharging this Administrator and his bondsmen, and formally closing the Estate

Before me the undersigned authority on this day personally appeared Louis Blaylock, Jr., Administrator of the Estate of Glen R. Louis Blaylock, Jr.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by the said Louis Blaylock, Jr., this 21 day of March A.D. 1906. In testimony whereof witness my hand and seal of office.

Now comes LOUIS BLALOCK, JR., ADMINISTRATOR of said Estate and under oath states, that in paying the debts of said Estate as allowed by the Court through an over-sight, he failed to pay one account $5.31 due the NEPTUNE LAUNDRY, and one account $1.85 to BROGAN CAFE: at the time of filing his final report he had not discovered said over-sight.

He further says that said accounts are due in the City of PHILADELPHIA, PA., and he has this day forwarded the money to pay said accounts and will file receipts therefor, or vouchers, at the same <sup>time</sup> he files final receipt of the distributees, MRS. MCPARLAND.

WHEREFORE he prays that an order be now entered approving his final report and that he be discharged as Administrator upon the filing of said receipts. <sup>May 30th 1906</sup>

IN THE PROBATE COURT OF SAID COUNTY:

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

Now comes your applicant, Lewis Blalock, Jr. and shows to the Court that Glenn R. Wright, late of Dallas County, died on or about August 24th, A. D. 1904, intestate, in the City of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania.

2. That the domicile of said deceased at the time he died was and had been for many years in Dallas County, Texas, and his property was personal property, and consisted, for the most part, of bank stock in a bank in the City of Dallas, and in open accounts due him by residents of said City of Dallas, and the County Court of Dallas County has jurisdiction over his said estate.

3. His estate consisted, altogether, of personal property of the probable value of $2000.

4. A necessity exists for administration upon the estate of the deceased, in that he owed debts at the time of his death, and his estate is indebted also for expenses of his last sickness and funeral expenses.

5. Your applicant further says that he is not disqualified by law to act as administrator, and that the deceased has no relatives in the State of Texas, and applicant makes this application for administration at the request of Lewis Blalock, a creditor of said estate.

Premises considered, applicant prays that notice be given in terms of law, and that on the hearing he be appointed permanent administrator of the estate of said Glenn R. Wright.

R.W. Nelson et al

IN THE DISTRICT COURT FOR THE FORTY-FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

Now comes Columbus Tucker and files this his Supplemental Plea of Intervention to be taken in connection with and as a part of his original Plea of Intervention filed herein on the ____ day of _____ 1917, and for such supplement this intervenor says that since the filing of his Plea of Intervention he has acquired in addition to the interests set forth in his original Plea of Intervention, the interests of parties to the suit as follows: The interest of A.B. Nelson amounting to 1128/9408 of the whole amount of the land set forth and described in his original Plea of Intervention; that he has acquired the interest of Minnie Rainey amounting to 188/9408 of the entire estate; that he has acquired the interest of Dee Oliver amounting to 188/9408 of the entire estate; that he has acquired the interest of B.H. Coyle amounting to 188/9408 of the entire estate; that he has acquired the interest of Pat McEntee amounting to 1128/9408 of the entire estate; and that he has also acquired the interest of Bettie Nelson amounting to 188/9408 of the entire estate, the said Bettie Nelson having married one E.A. Wyrick and said purchase by this intervenor having been made from Bettie Wyrick who was joined in the conveyance by her husband E.A. Wyrick.

Your Intervenor says that the respective interests of all the parties who now own or are interested in the property and lands described in the Original Plea of Intervention are the following:

This Intervenor, Columbus Tucker who is entitled to	7904/9408
Wm. J. Nelson Jr. who is entitled to	188/9408
Herbert S. Spence who is entitled to	188/9408
Lou V. Weeks, Bertha Weeks and Wm. Lester Weeks who are each entitled to	376/9408 of the whole of said estate. The interest of Herbert S. Spence however, is subject to an estate for life in favor of his father, Roy Spence in one-third of that portion which the mother of Herbert Spence inherited from her father W.B. Nelson.

Intervenor further alleges that service has been had on all the parties hereto and that the minor defendant Wm. J. Nelson Jr. has a guardian duly qualified and appointed by the Probate Court of Dallas County, Texas and that such guardian is I.C. Adams upon whom service has been had, and that the minor defendants Wm. Lester Weeks, Bertha Weeks and Lou V. Weeks have a duly appointed and qualified guardian of the person and estate and that such guardian has been appointed by the Probate Court of Dallas County, Texas and that such guardian is their father E.M. Weeks, upon whom service has been had.

That the Minor, Herbert S. Spence has no guardian regularly appointed by the Probate Court, but that this Court has appointed Albert Walker, an attorney at law of the Dallas Bar, to represent said Herbert S. Spence as guardian ad litem in this cause and this intervenor further says that service has been had upon Herbert S. Spence and all the other parties in this suit, and he prays as in his original Plea of Intervention and for such other and further relief as in law and equity he may be entitled to.

Attorney for Columbus Tucker, Intervenor.
