ESTATE OF HELEN FOREMAN, A Minor,
 No. 871 IN PROBATE

MONDAY MARCH 11, 1901.

This day came on to be heard the final report of Mrs. Fannie R. Mitchell, guardian of the estate of Helen Foreman, filed herein on February 26, 1901, and the exceptions thereto of Helen Foreman, filed herein on February 26, 1901, and it appearing to the Court that this was a regular calling of the Probate docket, in the County Court of Dallas County, Texas, and that the hearing of said report and said exceptions, had been by the Court set down for this day, and that notice of said exceptions, and of the fact that said report and said exceptions thereto would be heard on this day had been duly given to Mrs. Fannie R. Mitchell and to C.S. Mitchell her husband, the Court after duly considering said report and said exceptions, and hearing evidence thereon, is of the opinion that said exceptions are well taken, and it appearing to the Court that Helen Foreman is now of age, and that the guardian of her estate, Mrs. Fannie R. Mitchell has had in her hands, as the money belonging to the said Helen Foreman, received by the said Fannie R. Mitchell as guardian herein, the sum of $1225.00, which was received by the said guardian prior to January 1st, 1887, and the additional sum of $5830.50, received by the said guardian prior to May 1st, 1887,

And it further appearing to the Court that all of said sums since their said receipt by Mrs. Fannie R. Mitchell as guardian, have been surplus funds in her hands, as guardian, belonging to her said ward Helen Foreman, and that none of said funds had been invested, or loaned out by the said guardian under the orders of this Court. And it further appearing to the Court, that no diligence has been used by the said guardian while said funds were in her hands to loan out or invest the same, and that during all of said time said funds could have been safely loaned out by the said guardian so as to produce an actual revenue thereon, ~~and~~ the Court is of the opinion that the said Mrs. Fannie R. Mitchell should be charged in her final ^{settlement} statement with her ward, Helen Foreman, with interest on said sums at the highest legal rate allowed by law, she being chargeable with interest at the rate of 12 per cent per annum from January 1st, 1887, until September 22, 1891, on the said sum of $1225.00, and with interest at the rate of 12 per cent per annum from May 1st, 1887, until September 22, 1891 on said sum of $5830.50, and with interest at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from September 22, 1891, unto this March 11th, 1901, upon both of said sums of $1225.00 and $5830.50. And it further appearing to the Court that said interest amounts altogether to the sum of $10446.40.

It is therefore Ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court, that Mrs. Fannie R. Mitchell is indebted to Helen Foreman by virtue of the amounts received by her the said Mrs. Fannie R. Mitchell, ^{as guardian} and by virtue of the premises ^{mentioned} herein in the sum of $17501.90. It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the said Mrs. Fannie R. Mitchell do, and she is hereby ordered to, pay over to the said Helen Foreman the said sum of $17501.90.

It is further ordered by the Court that the costs ~~with refer-~~ ⁱⁿ ~~ence~~ to this cause be paid by the said Helen Foreman out of the said sum so adjudged in her favor and that upon said costs being paid this estate and cause be and the same is hereby closed and settled.

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS,

IN PROBATE.

Now comes Hellen Foreman and excepts to the final account of her guardian, Mrs. Fannie R. Mitchell, filed herein on February 26, 1901 and respectfully shows to the court:-

That said report shows that her guardian received the net sum of $1225.00 prior to January 1st, 1887, and the additional sum of $5830.50 prior to May 1st, 1887, but said account does not charge the said Fannie R. Mitchell as guardian with any sum whatever by way of interest. This ward, Hellen Foreman, respectfully shows to the court, that during all of the time that the said monies have been in the hands of her said guardian, it has been surplus money blonging to this ward which could have been loaned out at interest by the said Fannie R. Mitchell as guardian, if she had exercised reasonable diligence with reference thereto; that her said guardian has failed to lend out said money under the orders of court in compliance with the statutes of Texas, and has not used any diligence whatever to do so; that by reason of the premises, and by virtue of the statutes of Texas, the said guardian should be charged with interest on said sums of money at the highest legal rate allowed by law during all the time from the receipt of said monies by her, as aforesaid, up to the present time, and this ward prays that the court adjudge and decree that the amount due to this ward from her said guardian be increased by the addition of interest as aforesaid to the amounts shown by said ~~report~~ report to have been received by the said guardian.

Now comes Mrs. Fannie R. Mitchell, guardian of the estate of Helen Foreman, and presents to the Court this, her final report as guardian, and says:-

That she as guardian of the estate of Helen Foreman did receive prior to the First day of January, 1887, from the legal representatives of the estate of Edward Foreman the sums of $1000.00 and $250.00, out of which she paid Texas attorneys for the examination of guardianship papers the sum of $25.00.

That in addition to the above sums she did prior to May First, 1887, receive as guardian for her said ward from the legal representatives of the said Edward Foreman's estate the sum of $5830.50.

That these sums were all received by her as belonging to the said Helen Foreman, and were received by her as the guardian of the estate of the said Helen Foreman. That she has never paid any of said money to said ward nor for her said wards account, except the said sum of $25.00, and that she as such guardian is still indebted to her said ward for the said sums of money so received by her as guardian less the said sum of $25.00.

In the matter of the estate of Helen Foreman, a minor.

Now comes Helen Foreman, by her attorney, and represents to the court that she has long since become of lawful age. That Mrs. Fannie R. Mitchell, who now resides in Glen Rose, Sumervell County, Texas, was appointed guardian of her estate in the year 1886 by this court, but though said guardian has heretofore often be cited to file an annual account herein she has wholly failed and refused to do so, and no report of said guardian has ever been filed herein she she qualified as guardian. Your petitioner further says that since she has become of age she is entitled to the property received by her guardian as such for her and prays this honorable court to cite said guardian to file her final account in said estate
