No. 3591                      Dec'd }

Now comes J. E. Dunn Temporary Administrator of this estate and presents this his final report, and for such report shows;

That in obedience to an order of this Court made on May 10th 1904 he sold all the property reported on hand, for $51<sup>65</sup> same being shown in the attached exhibit, marked "Exhibit A".

That the property mentioned is all that has come to the knowledge of your Admr.

That there is nothing owing to the estate, so far as he is able to ascertain.

That the money received will not quite pay the expenses of burial or and Court Costs, but he desires to pay the Court Costs in full, and let balance go as far as it will toward paying the other expenses.

Therefore this Admr prays that this report be approved, and that upon payment of Court Costs he be discharged, bondsmen released and estate closed

Jas E. Dunn
J. E. Dunn being duly sworn states on oath that the above report is true
