In the matter of the Estate of Minnie Harris and Sallie May Cooper

State of Texas }
 County of Dallas }

And now comes Sallie M Cooper of the Est of Harris, Cooper and Sallie May Cooper in compliance with the order of the Hon County Court that she show cause if any why the judgment-fining her $25⁰⁰ for non-compliance with former order - requiring her to file Report showing condition of her wards Estate, - should not be made final.

In answer to the order of the Hon Court, she begs to state that on Oct 28th 1891 her Report was filed and approved, showing that a small balance of $102⁴⁵ (said amt, being all the property of whatever description belonging to said Est) remained on hand unexpended, and that on Sept 15th 1894 another Report was made and filed with the Court - showing that since the previous Report - she had not only expended the $102⁴⁵ bal as before mentioned, but had expended additional thereout of her own individual funds the sum of $347²⁰ in the support of said Minnie.

She also begs to say that the said Harris and Sallie May Cooper have both attained legal age as shown in the accompanying papers - and she joins the said Sallie M Cooper former guardian in the request that they having received the full benefit of the funds that belonged to them while in minority that the said Sallie M Cooper and her Bond men be released from all liability under the Bond.

And the said Sallie M Cooper asks that the fine of $25⁰⁰ assessed against her be set aside - for the reasons above set forth - that she be discharged from any liability thereunder -
