tion for the sale of the six unimproved lots in the town of Lawrence Kaufman Co.
Texas, and valued ~~1~~ under the appr-

Comes C. H. Huffman, administrator of said estate and presents this, his final account herein and says that this estate was practically closed on the 6th day of October, 1900, when the last of the property herein administered upon was acted upon by this Honorable Court, since which time, nothing has been done.

That the two confirmations of sale recorded herein in Book C, page 442 and in Book P., page 389, of the Minutes of this Court show all of the property administered upon and the disposition thereof;

And that all was exhausted in the payments of debts, and was insufficient to pay the same, leaving a balance due, and that there is no estate on hand, all having been administered;

That the application for sale filed herein on December 21, 1898, shows that said estate was insolvent; that all of the accounts and vouchers have, years ago, been filed herein according to law, and approved by this Honorable Court, except a small balance due of court costs, which have accrued since the last action taken herein on October 6, 1900.

WHEREFORE said administrator, having fully administered said estate, prays that he be discharged from his trust by order of this Honorable Court and said estate ordered closed, and this he will ever pray.

Sworn and subscribed to before me by C. H. Huffman this 16 day of May, 1904.
