No 706
Estate of R.H. Evans <sup>dec'd</sup> } In Probate Court Dallas Co.
N.Y. Turney Ex<sup>r</sup> } Texas

Comes said Executor and shows to the Court that heretofore, on to-wit Nov 30th 1889, he filed in this Court the affidavit of the Executor herein hereto attached marked "A" and also the affidavit of William Y. Turney hereto attached and marked Exhibit "B", both of which are supported by the vouchers of the Executor. He shows that taken with the Executor's reports show that said Estate was indebted to said Executor as well as the officers of this Court for their costs. When the Court House of Dallas Co. was last burned the files and papers were scattered and mislaid. But this executor had theretofore paid all the claims shown by his reports, and since then this executor and the beneficiary have had a settlement of the said Estate evidenced by their written contract by which this executor, in consideration of the transfer to him of the same judgment, turned over the said Estate to said beneficiary, cancelled his claim and will pay all unpaid costs. Wherefore he makes this final report and prays to be discharged upon paying said costs.
