HAWKINS & HAYNES,

The State of Texas.)
County of Dallas.

In county court of Dallas County, Texas, sitting in probate.

To The Hon, Judge of said Court :-

Now comes your petitioner, W. R. Poynter, in person and by his attorneys, and shows to the court that one Mrs. Margaret L. Curtis departed this life intestate in Dallas County, Texas, on the 23rd. day of Dec. A. D. 1903. That she was the surviving widow of W.F. Curtis, deceased, who departed this life long prior to said 23rd day of Dec. 1903. That said decedent, Mrs. Margaret L. Curtis left surviving her as her sole and only heirs at law her children, Belle Starks, Lawrence Starks, and Daniel Starks, all of whom are children of said Mrs. Curtis by a former marriage, the last two children named being now under age, and all of said children being residents of Dallas County, Texas.

That your petitioner is not in anywise related to said decedent, Mrs. Margaret L. Custis, nor to her heirs at law aforesaid, but that he is a friend and neighbor of said children and heirs aforesaid; that he has been especially requested by each and all of said children and heirs at law to qualify as temporary administrator of the estate of said Mrs. Margaret L. Curtis; and that he is a suitable person for appointment as such administrator.

That at the time of the death of said Mrs. Margaret L. Curtis there was in full force and effect a policy of insurance upon her life for the sum of two Thousand Dollars in Consurvation Life Insurance orthogonal States Change (alasted the day of Africa A.D. 1901.

That the said sum of $2000.00 has not been paid but is now due and payable to the administrator of said decedent, but said insurance co. declines and refuses to pay same or any part thereof to any or all of said heirs, or to anyother person other than the duly and legally appointed administrator of said estate.

That there are no debte against said estate except for services of a physician in her last sickness, amounting to $\frac{100^{\circ 0}}{100^{\circ 0}}$; and expenses of her funeral amounting to $\frac{100^{\circ 0}}{100^{\circ 0}}$; and bills for merchandise amounting and \$500 advanced to decared on Dec. 23 1100 7 be paid except through an administration on said estate.

wherefore the best interests of said estate require the appointment immediately of a temporary administrator under the provisions of Art. 1930 of the Rev. Civ. Stat. of Texas.

Premises considered, your petitioner prays that he be appointed, forthwith, temporary administrator of said estate, and that the order for his appointment may give him full and necessary authority in the premises, including authority to the following effect, viz:

- (1) To collect said sum so due on said policy of insurance, with or without suit, and to execute proper receipts and acquittances therefor.
- (2) To pay said bills for physician's services, funeral expenses and for merchandine. and money advanced.
- (3) To pay all reasonable expenses necessarily incurred by him in the collection of said insurance money and in the preservation, safe keeping and management of said estate, and all reasonable attorneys fees that may be necessarily incurred by him in the course of said administration, and the court costs which may accrue in course thereof.
 - (4) After making the payments above provided for, to hold the balance of said estate subject to the further orders of this court.

Your petitioner prays that the amount of bond to be required of him be fixed in the order for his appointment as temporary administrator of said estate.
