The State of Texas } In the matter of the estate County of Dallas } of Strother V. Helms } in Guardianship of his } person and estate

In County Court, Dallas County and November term.

To said County Court:- Your petitioner Henry Rusher comes at this time and represents that he is a citizen and resident of said Dallas County, Texas, and comes at the instance and election of Strother V. Helms and makes this his application for appointment as guardian of the person and estate of said Strother V.
Helms - who is a minor - Petitioner represents, said Minors are none to be Strother V. Helms of the male sex, and of the age eighteen years the last of the month of August, the present year, that said Minors is an actual resident bona fide of said Dallas County, Texas, and has been such resident for ~~one~~ one and one half years prior to the date of filing this application continuously that both the father and mother of said Minors are dead and neither of same died in this State, but died beyond its boundaries, and neither of his said parents left a will appointing a guardian for said Minors.
That said Minors estate consists principally in personal property, money and securities in the state of Illinois. with a small interest in real estate in state of Illinois and the state of Tennessee held by him in common undivided with six others who are all of majority, said interest being one seventh, by her ship - Said estate can not be more fully described because beyond this state and out of petitioner and said minor's possession, that the probable value of said estate is the sum, to wit: Seven thousand dollars. That said minor has no estate in this state except personal apparel, and his daily earnings ~~on~~ on which he lives and that no guardianship exists in this of the person or estate of said minor, and a necessity exists therefore wherefore your petitioner prays that after due and lawful notice shall be given of this application he be appointed Guardian of the person & estate of said minor.
