The State of Texas }
 County of Dallas, In County Court of Dallas County, Texas.

To the Hon. E. J. Bower, Judge of the Dallas County Court:

Your Petitioner, John Hoffman, respectfully shows to the Court, that he is a resident of Dallas County, Texas, that heretofore to wit; on the 29th day of September, 1897, Nicholas Pyreider, departed this life intestate in Dallas County, Texas, that said decedent died seized and possessed of personal property, situated in Dallas County, Texas, to wit: One hundred dollars in cash, and property consisting of beer, whiskey, and Bar room fixtures of the value of Three hundred dollars. That said estate requires the immediate appointment of an administrator, because said whiskey beer and other Bar room goods belonging to said estate, are liable to waste and become valueless, unless immediately cared for, wherefore Your Petitioner prays that he be appointed Temporary Administrator of said estate, with power to sell the beer and whiskey belonging to said estate, under such conditions and restrictions, as may be provided by law, and the order of this Court, and Your Petitioner will ever pray &c.

State of Texas, }
 Dallas County, } County Court of said County sitting for Probate purposes, Civil Term 1887,

To the Honorable E. G. Brewer, Judge of the County Court of said County:

The following is a true and complete statement of John Hoffman, as Temporary Administrator of the estate of Nicholas Byrider, from October the 4th 1887, to November the 17th 1887,

When I took charge of the estate, I found on hand the following:
 Amount of Stock on hand about $300.00 Cash in Bank 100.00

Total in stock and Cash $400.00

I also found that the said Nicholas Byrider was in possession of State, County and City, license, to sell liquors, cigars &c, and in order to defray the expenses of deceased (under said license,) and to make as much for the benefit of the heirs as possible, it became necessary for me to pay house rent, fuel lights &c and to add some stock to the old stock in order to sell the old stock, this being best and most economical for the administration of the estate. The stock being worthless unless added to, and properly attended too.

The following on next page, I found to be the expense of the estate, and the same includes what was necessary to pay out for rents, clerk hire, fuel lights &c and additional stock.

To wit: Also amounts received and paid out,

That said Anna Margaretha Vogel, born Bayreuther is the sole heir at law of the late Nicholas Bayreuther, who died in the city of Dallas, Dallas County Texas on the 29th day of September A.D.
 1887 without leaving a will,

That John Hoffmann, a citizen of Dallas County, having made application therefor to your honl. Court, was on the 4th day of October A.D. 1887 appointed temporary administrator of the estate of the late Nicholas Bayreuther as appears on the Probate Record of the County Court of Dallas County in case Numbered 1106.

That said temporary administrator filed a bond for the sum of $ 800. which was approved by the court on October 6th 1887

That said bond is entirely insufficient and inadequate to the value of said estate, as petitioner has been credibly informed, that the estate of said decedent was worth a great deal more at the time of his

Now comes John Hoffman temporary administrator of the Estate of Nicholas Bayreiter dec'd and in response to the attachment served on him herein on the 9th day of May 1892 respectfully shows to the Court that hereupon to wit on the 20th day of December 1887 he filed in this Court his final account as such temporary administrator but that said account has never been passed on by this Court.

That hereupon to wit on Nov 24 1887 said John Hoffman had filed in Court his application to be appointed permanent administrator of said estate but that said application has never been acted upon by the Court formally but said John Hoffman shows that this Court has approved various claims against the estate of said decedent and ordered them paid by said Hoffman and he has paid them, and thought and believes that he was the duly appointed and qualified administrator of said estate.

That while he was acting as temporary administrator as aforesaid and after he had filed application for permanent letters of administration this affiant executed his authority as temporary administrator by selling the saloon bar fixtures and furniture of said decedent, but affiant states that the same was done under the advice of J. P. Poley his attorney who then presented him as temporary Administrator and under said apprehension and mistake as to the extent of his authority and without
