

The Big Ball's in COWTOWN

ELVIS
Has Not Left
The Building!

Big Ball's in Cowtown
by Hoyle Nix

"Workin' on the railroad, Sleepin' on the ground
Eatin' saline crackers, Ten cents a pound
Big Ball's in Cowtown, We'll all go down
Big Ball's in Cowtown, We'll dance around."
"Cowboyin' in the Coliseum, Bulldoggin' em to the ground
Eatin' barbeque brisket and Ribs by the pound
Big Wall's in Cowtown, We'll all go down."
Big Wall's in Cowtown, We'll look around."

by Bob Holmes
for Hub Baker

5 Billy Huckaby
The Voice of Stockyard Rodeo

Lonestar

Garlene Tindall Paris
& Friends

Heather Locklear & Bullfighters

2002—Deion Sanders brings Cowtown Coliseum and a lesson in roping to Monday Night Football.

Woman realizes dream

Jerry Diaz

5

2005

2007—11th Year of Weekly Stockyards Championship Rodeo.

2007

Carter Reid
on Lonestar

12

Hub & Joe Hub Baker

5

Tuff Hedeman,
Clint Cooper
& Roy Cooper

5

Trick Roper
Joe Hub Baker

5

Call Scramble

5

Gus & Mack

5

© K. Reid giving
Deion Sanders a roping
lesson for a CBS Special
Report for Monday
Night Football, 2002.

5

Beth
Murphy
Miss
Texas

5

Hollywood actor &
western artist
Buck Taylor

5

Lane Frost at Cowtown
Coliseum

5

Cowgirl Chicks
Drill Team

5

Fred
Whitfield

5

"Ceremonies occasioned
by the placing of the cornerstone of the
coliseum at the Stock Yards today were simple and impressive...the placing of the stone was conducted with Masonic ceremonies..."

—Fort Worth Star Telegram,
October 3, 1907

"The Masonic Grand Lodge officers placed in the receptacle of the stone
a box that contained papers, documents...that might at some future time
see the light of day again."

—Fort Worth Star Telegram,
October 3, 1907

October 6, 2007

The Texas Masonic Grand Lodge Officers perform the ceremony to rededicate the Cowtown Coliseum Cornerstone.

—Grand Master,
Denny Broughton,

12

11

11

11

7

1956
The King performs before a crowd of 7,000 in Cowtown Coliseum.

THE TEXAS MASONIC GRAND LODGE OFFICERS PERFORM THE CEREMONY TO REDEDICATE THE COWTOWN COLISEUM CORNERSTONE.