PROCEEDINGS

FIRST DAY

(Monday, May 27, 2013)

In obedience to the Proclamation of the Honorable Rick Perry, Governor of the State of Texas, the Senate met in the Senate Chamber of the State Capitol at Austin, Texas, on the 27th day of May, 2013, at 6:20 p.m. and was called to order by the Honorable David Dewhurst, Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate.

The President directed the Secretary of the Senate to call the roll of the Senate.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Birdwell, Campbell, Carona, Davis, Deuell, Duncan, Ellis, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Garcia, Hancock, Hegar, Hinojosa, Huffman, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Rodríguez, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Uresti, Van de Putte, Watson, West, Whitmire, Williams, Zaffirini.

The President announced that a quorum of the Senate was present.

Senator Eddie Lucio, Jr., offered the invocation as follows:

O Lord, to be better legislators, give us some of the faith of Abraham, who would have sacrificed his son, Isaac, at Your command. Touch us, too, and give us some of the forgiveness of Joseph, who forgave his brothers even after they sold him into slavery. To be better legislators, give us some of the leadership of Moses, who led a nation out of slavery. To be better legislators, give us some of the confidence of Joshua, who brought the walls of Jericho trembling down. To be better legislators, give us some of the strength of Samson, who could kill a lion with his bare hands. To be better legislators, give us some of the fidelity of Ruth, who stayed with Naomi. To be better legislators, give us some of the courage of David, who faced Goliath with only a slingshot. To be better legislators, give us some of the wisdom of Solomon, who judged a mother's love. To be better legislators, give us some of the patience of Job, whom You let the devil persecute. But surely, to be better legislators, may we serve others as did our redeemer, who was nailed to a cross. Amen.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

The following Proclamation by the Governor was read and was filed with the Secretary of the Senate:

PROCLAMATION
GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF TEXAS

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

I, RICK PERRY, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF TEXAS, by the authority vested in me by Article III, Section 5 and Article IV, Section 8 of the Texas Constitution, do hereby call an extraordinary session of the 83rd Legislature, to convene in the City of Austin, commencing at 6 p.m. on Monday, May 27, 2013, for the following purposes:

To consider legislation which ratifies and adopts the interim redistricting plans ordered by the federal district court as the permanent plans for districts used to elect members of the Texas House of Representatives, Texas Senate and United States House of Representatives.

The Secretary of State will take notice of this action and will notify the members of the legislature of my action.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereto signed my name and have officially caused the Seal of State to be affixed at my Office in the City of Austin, Texas, this the 27th day of May 2013.

/s/Rick Perry

(Seal)

Attested by:

/s/John Steen
Secretary of State

ELECTION OF PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE
EIGHTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE, FIRST CALLED SESSION

The President announced that the time had arrived for the election of President Pro Tempore of the 1st Called Session, 83rd Legislature.

Senator Whitmire nominated Senator Craig Estes to serve as President Pro Tempore.

The President declared Senator Estes elected by acclamation to the office of President Pro Tempore and administered the Oath of Office.

OATH OF OFFICE ADMINISTERED

The President administered the Constitutional Oath of Office to Senator Craig Estes as follows:

I, Craig Estes, do solemnly swear, that I will faithfully execute the duties of the office of President Pro Tempore of the Senate of the State of Texas, and will to the best of my ability preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution and laws of the United States and of this state, so help me God.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Senator Ellis moved that the remarks regarding Senator Watson's parliamentary inquiries be ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal.

The motion prevailed by the following vote: Yeas 26, Nays 1.

Nays: Deuell.

Absent: Carona, Fraser, Paxton, Schwertner.

President: Senator Watson, for what purpose do you rise?

Senator Watson: Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: Mr. President, under which rules will the Senate operate during the 1st Called Session of the 83rd Legislature?

President: We're going to operate under the permanent rules of the Senate as immortalized in the 83rd session.

Senator Watson: Mr. President, parliamentary inquiry.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: Does Senate Rule 5.13 of those permanent rules of the 83rd legislative session provide that no bill, joint resolution, or resolution affecting state policy may be considered out of its regular calendar order unless the regular order is suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the Members present?

President: Yes.

Senator Watson: Alright, parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: Mr. President, does a blocker bill, as has been traditionally used by the Senate and was used in the recently concluded regular session, require a vote of two-thirds of the Members present to suspend the regular order of business and take up other legislation?

President: In a regular session, that's right.

Senator Watson: In a regular session. Well, we're operating under the rules of the regular session, so my question would be, would a blocker bill, as—

President: No, you're, no, I think you're confused. The—

Senator Watson: I'm sorry, I don't believe I'm confused.

President: Well, let me answer your question. We're going to follow the rules as they are embodied in the rules of the 83rd Legislature. And in this session, in special session, and in regular session, we'll follow the regular order of business.

Senator Watson: And my question then, my parliamentary inquiry then, Mr. President, is, does a blocker bill, as has been traditionally used and was recently used in the regular session, if there is a blocker bill, does it require a vote of two-thirds of the Members present to suspend the regular order of business and take up other legislation?

President: Senator Watson, as you know, it always takes a two-thirds vote to take a bill out of its regular order of business.

Senator Watson: So, if there's a blocker bill in place, it would take a two-thirds vote to take a bill up that's behind the blocker bill?

President: That is correct.

Senator Watson: Mr. President, I have a parliamentary inquiry.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: Is there any rule or requirement of the Texas Senate that would prevent the placement of a blocker bill during a special called session?

President: Senator, the rules that we have in place allow for bills to be placed in the order, in the regular order of business as they are referred out of committee.

Senator Watson: So, there is no rule or requirement preventing a blocker bill in a special called session?

President: To the best of my knowledge, there's not one that prevents it nor requires it.

Senator Watson: In fact, Mr. President, parliamentary inquiry.

President: Could you pause just for a moment?

Senator Watson: Sure.

President: The rules of the Senate do not specifically address a blocker bill.

Senator Watson: The tradition of the Senate, and we've just referred to a blocker bill, and we referred to the fact that a blocker bill was utilized in the regular called session, there's no rule that would prevent the placement or referral of a bill at the top of the regular order of business requiring a two-thirds vote as was just used in the regular session.

President: That is also true, but the tradition of the Senate for the last 10 years, actually going back almost 22 years, is not to have a blocker bill in sessions, in special sessions, and particularly ones in which there is congressional redistricting. We have not had a blocker bill in the Texas Senate during a special session for 10 years.

Senator Watson: Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

President: State your inquiry, Sir.

Senator Watson: Was there a blocker bill in the 78th first called special session in 2003?

President: There was in the first, but not in the subsequent second, third, and fourth.

Senator Watson: Mr. President, parliamentary inquiry.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: I believe, was there not a blocker bill in the called session, of the fourth called session in 2003?

President: I don't believe that there was.

Senator Watson: I believe the record will reflect it related to the creation of the County Park Beautification and Improvement Program, SB 7, but let me ask another parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: Was there a blocker bill in the 79th, 1st Called Session, 2nd Called Session, and 3rd Called Session in 2005?

President: Senator, I'm not advised as we stand here right now. We'd have to go take a look at the Journals.

Senator Watson: Alright, thank you.

President: But the regular order of business is controlled by our rules, as laid out in our rules in the 83rd Legislature, and the Constitution controls what we can introduce and refer, and we're going to follow the Constitution.

Senator Watson: Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: Will there be a blocker bill during the 1st Called Session of the 83rd Legislature?

President: Senator Watson, at the present time, it's my intention to refer bills as they appear in the call.

Senator Watson: I'm sorry, I may be confused now, is that a yes or a no that there, whether there will be a blocker bill in the 1st Called Session of the 83rd Legislature?

President: My intention right now is to continue the practice that we've employed, that I've employed over the last 10 years, and refer bills that are on the call. The only bill that's on the call at the present time is the redistricting call, and that's what I intend to refer.

Senator Watson: Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

President: State your inquiry, Sir.

Senator Watson: In special sessions, previously, where there has been a blocker bill filed, did you refer those bills? Even if they weren't on the call?

President: Senator Watson, I'm not advised as to which session you're talking about. It's my intention to follow strictly the Constitution on referring of bills and our rules. And it's my intention at the present time to refer bills that are on the call.

Senator Watson: Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: During the 1st Called Session of the 82nd Legislature, was there a blocker bill?

President: In the 82nd, if memory serves, no.

Senator Watson: Was that a legislative special called session that involved congressional redistricting?

President: No.

Senator Watson: Was congressional redistricting on the Governor's call for the 1st Called Session of the 82nd?

President: Senator, um, again, I'd have to refresh my memory, I'm not advised, I don't think it was on the call.

Senator Watson: Mr. President, parliamentary inquiry.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: If Members of the Senate have a Motion In Writing, what would be the appropriate parliamentary maneuver in order to make that motion, get a vote on that Motion In Writing?

President: Senator Watson, if you would bring your Motion In Writing forward so that we can take a look at it and see if it's a proper Motion In Writing to be before the body. Senator Watson, I'm advised by Senator Seliger, in the 82nd, 1st Called Session, we did have redistricting and there was not a blocker bill.

Senator Watson: That, that was my research as well, Mr. President, thank--

President: And I apologize, Senator Watson, I did not remember that.

Senator Watson: Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: Mr. President, is it your position that if redistricting were not on the call, then there would be, it would be appropriate for you to place a blocker bill, but your practice is to not have a blocker bill in cases where redistricting is on the call?

President: My position is that the tradition of the Senate and the precedent is that in special session involving redistricting that a blocker bill is not placed and there's no requirement to place a blocker bill in special sessions in which redistricting is not on the call.

Senator Watson: Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: Are you aware that the Democratic Members of the Senate after the last redistricting represent over 60 percent of the Hispanic population of Texas and over 57 percent of the Black and Hispanic population of Texas?

President: Mr. Watson, Senator Watson, that's not a proper parliamentary inquiry.

Senator Watson: Mr. President, parliamentary inquiry.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: Did a federal court find that the operation of the Senate and going outside of ordinary procedure resulted in purposeful discrimination in the congressional redistricting maps that were passed during the 82nd Legislature?

President: Senator Watson, after conferring with the Parliamentarian, that's not a proper parliamentary inquiry.

Senator Watson: Thank you, Mr. President.

President: Thank you, Senator Watson.

STATEMENT FROM LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

Lieutenant Governor Dewhurst submitted the following statement:

I submit this statement to clarify my responses to Senator Kirk Watson's parliamentary inquiries raised on May 27, 2013. Senator Watson primarily inquired into the Senate's historical use of so-called "blocker bills" to alter the Regular Order of Business, particularly during called sessions of the Legislature (special sessions).

I have presided over the Texas Senate as Lieutenant Governor during ten special sessions. Blocker bills were not utilized in four of those sessions: the current special session (2013), the First Called Session of the 82nd Legislature (2011), and the Second and Third Called Sessions of the 78th Legislature (2003). Lieutenant Governors Bill Ratliff and Rick Perry did not preside over any special sessions. Lieutenant Governor Bob Bullock presided over four special sessions, all occurring during the 72nd Legislature (1991 - 1992). The Senate calendars operated without blocker bills in the Third and Fourth Called Sessions in 1992.

Senator Watson also asked whether it is my position that the placement of blocker bills is appropriate in special sessions where redistricting is not within the Governor's call, and further, whether it is my practice to forego the use of a blocker bill in cases where redistricting is on the call. Senator Watson's predicate should not mislead one to conclude that the Senate's adherence to the Regular Order of Business during special sessions has only been reserved for the consideration of redistricting bills. The journals of the Senate demonstrate the use of a majority vote on vital public policy measures for which consensus could not be reached during a regular session. The funding of our general government and our public schools, for example, are crucial to the well-being of Texas and no less important than our constitutional duty to reapportion legislative and congressional districts after every federal census. I believe that on these three critical issues the use of obstructive parliamentary maneuvers has arguably resulted in the virtual legislative delegation of constitutional responsibilities to the courts.

In conclusion, I believe in the constitutional imperative to pass fair and legal redistricting maps during this special session. For this reason I will not refer to committee any bills outside of the Governor's call which may be used to block action on redistricting. I believe majority passage is constitutional and consistent with Senate rules and practices.

/s/David Dewhurst
Lieutenant Governor

To Committee on Redistricting.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The President and Senator Hegar acknowledged the interim appointment of Julia Rathgeber as Commissioner of Insurance.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Ellis and by unanimous consent, the remarks regarding the interim appointment of Julia Rathgeber as Commissioner of Insurance were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

President: Members, if you would, I'd like to recognize Senator Hegar for an announcement that I'm very pleased for this very capable lady, but I have certain regrets, and it's a little painful for me, but I wish her all the very, very best. Senator Hegar.

Senator Hegar: Thank you, Mr. President, and Members. I think most of you've heard by now that somebody we've known for a very long time, Julia Rathgeber, is now appointed to be our new Department of Insurance Commissioner, and I want to tell her congratulations, and I will see you before. Mr. President, I do have an inquiry, though. I'm not sure if she's crying out of joy, out of sadness, or if she's already heard that I've had 30 Members request that we have a very long hearing.

President: I need some help, Senator Watson.

Senator Watson: Well, Mr. President, I've, you know, she is a constituent of mine, and under the tradition that allows a Senator that has a constituent nominated by the Governor—

President: If you said no, then she'd have to stay.

Senator Watson: I was contacted by the Governor's office, and I told her that I have a whole list of bills that she would blame you for being slow getting here. I'm going to find out now whether she was the one responsible when we get into a hearing.

President: Well said, Senator Watson.

Senator Deuell: Mr. President. We, I think it's blocked. I think the nomination is blocked. I don't know if Senator Hegar's checked the votes yet, but—

President: Our loss is the state's gain, and she's going to do a phenomenal job at the insurance commission. Bless you. Julia, I just want you to know that Senator Seliger, in observation of how important you are to the Senate, important you are to me, is working the floor to try and make your replacement have to be confirmed by the Senate.

Senator Ellis: Mr. President.

President: Senator Ellis.

Senator Ellis: While you're all in a good mood, can I have these comments put in the record?

President: Members, Senator Ellis moves to reduce to writing and include in the Journal the comments that were just made about a fabulous, fabulous, fabulous state employee who's done so much for the Texas Senate and, certainly, for me, certainly for me. Is there objection from any Member? Chair hears no objection and the motion is adopted. Thank you, Senator Ellis. Very thoughtful, very thoughtful.

---

SECOND DAY

(Wednesday, June 12, 2013)

The Senate met at 1:38 p.m. pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by the President.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Birdwell, Davis, Deuell, Duncan, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Garcia, Hegar, Hinojosa, Huffman, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Rodríguez, Schwertner, Seliger, Uresti, Van de Putte, Watson, West, Whitmire, Williams, Zaffirini.

Absent-excused: Campbell, Carona, Ellis, Hancock, Paxton, Taylor.

Major Dale Brynestad, Acting State Chaplain, Texas Military Forces, offered the invocation as follows:

My gracious heavenly Father, You are the God of order. You are the one who has ordained civil authorities to govern and protect the people under their care. Therefore, I lift up the men and women gathered here today and ask that they may know Your leading as You direct their steps in these critical times so that we may enjoy the blessings You have poured out on our great state. The eyes of the nation are watching what happens in these hallowed halls so the decisions made here have national and international consequences. Give our Senators and their staff wisdom and discernment to make the tough and right decisions. Bless and defend their families so that they have the freedom to do what is being asked of them. I ask that You would forgive, renew, and restore us to right standing in Your eyes and in the eyes of our people. It's into Your hands I commend each and every one as I trust again in Your mercy through Your son, Jesus Christ, my lord. Amen.

Senator Whitmire moved that the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of the previous day be dispensed with and the Journal be approved as printed.

The motion prevailed without objection.

On motion of Senator Davis and by unanimous consent, the remarks regarding SB 2 were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal.

The remarks were printed in an addendum to this day's Journal.

STATEMENT REGARDING SENATE BILL 1 AND SENATE BILL 2

Senator Ellis submitted the following statement regarding SB 1 and SB 2:

I am aware that the Plaintiffs in the Senate redistricting plan have now won agreement from attorneys representing the State of Texas to abandon efforts to dismantle Senate District 10—a district where minority voters have elected their candidate of choice, my colleague Senator Wendy Davis, in 2008 and 2012. And, I'm pleased that all parties to the Senate redistricting law suit have agreed to leave the boundaries of Senate District 10 exactly the same as they existed before the 2011 round of redistricting, as they are in the Interim Senate map. In light of this, and if Senator Zaffirini's amendment to eliminate Section 2 of the proposed legislation, which removes language stating that these maps are undeniably constitutional – I intend to vote in favor of the bill adopting Court-ordered Interim Senate Redistricting Plan S172 for use in the 2014 elections.

However, I also want to note for the record that the Interim Senate Plan does not fairly reflect the population or voting strength of minority citizens in the Harris County region. I made this point in 2011 and I make it again here today. It is certainly possible that at some point in the future that there will be a legal challenge to the Senate boundaries in the Harris County region as part of an effort obtain a fairer district configuration.

There are over 1.8 million Latinos and over 938,000 African Americans in Harris County and Fort Bend County combined. If you add Asians and other minority residents in the two counties, the overall total is about 3.5 million compared to 1.5 million Anglos.

Under the interim map configuration, which maintained all Senate boundaries as drawn by the Legislature in 2011 in every part of the State except for the DFW region, these minority residents are packed into three Senate Districts and then cracked among several others.

My Senate District 13 has a black plus Hispanic population of nearly 90 percent. Senate District 6 has non-Anglo population of 88 percent. Senate District 15 has a combined black plus Hispanic population of 72 percent. Obviously, all three districts are overwhelmingly Democratic.

The other 5 Senate districts are very carefully constructed to absorb some minority population, but too much - certainly not enough to permit the minority voters to elect their candidate of choice. In each of these districts, the combined population is always over 30 percent, but just under or barely over 50 percent. In each one, minority voters are overwhelmed by Anglo voters who bloc vote against minority preferred candidates - by design.

As noted above, the interim map retains the configuration in the Harris County region that was adopted by the Legislature in 2011. When Texas legislative leaders redrew the Senate map in our area in 2011, there was an opportunity to create a fourth district (SD 17) in the region that was on the cusp of seeing minority voters elect their candidate of choice.

In Senate District 17, under the previous decade's map, the total minority population had grown to just over 62 percent, according to the 2010 census. The Black population alone was almost 20 percent (18.7%).

Rather than take the next step and empower the minority voters in District 17, the Legislature did just the opposite and reversed the growing influence of Black and other minority voters in the district. The total minority population was reduced by over 10 points and the Black population was cut by a third.

At the same time, the minority populations in the three existing minority districts - SDs 6, 13 and 15 was maintained at or increased to levels far higher than necessary to give minority voters an opportunity to elect their candidate of choice.

Packing or over-concentrating minority voters into districts, as the State did in 2011 with respect to Districts 6, 13 and 15 and which remained under the interim Senate plan, effectively wasted votes that might have been used to create an additional effective minority opportunity district.

Neither I nor anyone else is making a partisan argument that we need more Democratic seats in the Houston area, or anywhere else in Texas. Now, of course, I would like more Democratic seats, but that is not the argument.

What I'm saying, and what I'm giving as a little bit of a warning to our Leadership, is that maps are being drawn by the Legislature that go beyond being partisan. They are specifically designed to undermine the voting strengths and the voting rights of the minority residents in our State, particularly in my region of the State.

The State's attorneys had to give in on Senate District 10, so we're going to be able to pass a plan that restores that district. Restoration of SD 10 was a good thing for minority voters. Had there been a challenge in the Houston area, you might have been forced to give in there too. And, I'm not sure that type of challenge won't come before we get around to the next census.

Senator Watson offered the following amendment to the bill:

Floor Amendment No. 2

Amend SB 4 (senate committee printing) as follows:

(1) Strike SECTIONS 1, 2, and 3 of the bill and substitute the following appropriately numbered SECTIONS:

SECTION _____. The redistricting plan identified as PLAN245 on the redistricting computer system operated by the Texas Legislative Council is adopted as the permanent plan for districts used to elect members of the United States House of Representatives from the State of Texas.

SECTION _____. (a) This Act supersedes all previous enactments or orders adopting congressional districts for the State of Texas.

(b) Chapter 1 (S.B. 4), Acts of the 82nd Legislature, 1st Called Session, 2011 (Article 197j, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is repealed.

SECTION _____. The districts included in the redistricting plan adopted under Section _____ of this Act apply to the election of the members of the United States House of Representatives from Texas beginning with the primary and general elections in 2014 for members of the 114th Congress. This Act does not affect the membership or congressional districts of the 113th Congress.

(2) Correct cross-references in the bill accordingly.

The amendment to SB 4 was read.

Senator Watson withdrew Floor Amendment No. 2.

SENATOR ANNOUNCED PRESENT

Senator Taylor, who had previously been recorded as "Absent-excused," was announced "Present."

Senator West offered the following amendment to the bill:

Floor Amendment No. 3

Amend SB 4 (senate committee printing) as follows:

(1) In SECTION 1 of the bill, between "Council," and "is hereby" (page 1, line 34), insert "as modified by substituting the districts contained in PLAN248 on the redistricting computer system operated by the Texas Legislative Council, appropriately renumbered if necessary, for the corresponding districts in the modified plan,".

(2) Strike SECTIONS 2 and 3 of the bill and substitute the following appropriately numbered SECTIONS:

SECTION _____. (a) This Act supersedes all previous enactments or orders adopting congressional districts for the State of Texas.

(b) Chapter 1 (S.B. 4), Acts of the 82nd Legislature, 1st Called Session, 2011 (Article 197j, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is repealed.

SECTION _____. The districts included in the redistricting plan adopted under Section _____ of this Act apply to the election of the members of the United States House of Representatives from Texas beginning with the primary and general elections in 2014 for members of the 114th Congress. This Act does not affect the membership or congressional districts of the 113th Congress.

(3) Correct cross-references in the bill accordingly.

The amendment to SB 4 was read.

ADDENDUM

(SECOND DAY CONTINUED — Friday, June 14, 2013)

REMARKS REGARDING SENATE BILL 2 AND SENATE BILL 4 ORDERED PRINTED

Remarks Regarding Senate Bill 2

The following remarks regarding SB 2 were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal:

Senator Seliger: Thank you, Mr. President. Senate Bill 2 is the first of three redistricting bills. With the indulgence of the Senate, I would like to comment before I lay out the bill, that everyone on this floor has been very patient. The Members, the 15 Members of the Committee, Republicans and Democrats, really knocked themselves out to be active participants and to go on the road and to take the discussion of redistricting to the State of Texas, along with our colleagues in the House of Representatives, and I appreciate that very much. And the exchange has been a very good and valuable one. Senate Bill 2 ratifies and adopts the Senate plans, the map is S172, used for the 2012 election cycle that was ordered by the three-judge panel from the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas, in the Davis and Perez lawsuits. The court retained 27 of the 31 districts passed in the state's enacted plan, and the remaining districts were changed with the agreement of plaintiffs and defendants in the Davis versus Perry lawsuit, primarily related to District 10. In a recently filed joint advisory to the court in San Antonio, the Davis, Veasey, and LULAC plaintiffs all informed the court that there is no claim by plaintiffs that the interim plan for the State Senate violates the Voting Rights Act or the United States Constitution. I believe Senator Zaffirini has an amendment, but she's on phone a friend at the moment.

President: Members, I'm going to lay out an amendment by Senator Zaffirini. It's being passed out to you as we speak. The Chair lays out Floor Amendment Number 1 by Senator Zaffirini. The Secretary will read the amendment.

Secretary of the Senate: Floor Amendment Number 1 by Zaffirini, West, and Ellis.

President: Chair recognizes Senator Zaffirini to explain the resolution.

Senator Zaffirini: Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President and Members, this amendment simply removes a section that would direct itself to legislative findings that the interim maps are in compliance with federal and state constitutional provisions and laws applicable to redistricting plans. It only removes the language and it does not change any part of the bill, and I believe it is acceptable to the author.

President: Chair recognizes Senator Seliger on the amendment.

Senator Seliger: Thank you, Mr. President. The amendment does just remove a statement on the bill, and a statement that was, probably be effectively replaced by discussion that we've been having on the floor, that would reflect the letter written by the Davis, Veasey, and Perez amendments, I'm sorry, plaintiffs, and it is acceptable to the author.

President: Chair recognizes Senator Zaffirini to close.

Senator Zaffirini: Thank you, Mr. President. I move adoption.

President: Members, you've heard the motion by Senator Zaffirini, is there objection from any Member? Hearing no objection from any Member, Floor Amendment Number 1 is adopted.

Senator Zaffirini: Thank you.

President: Chair recognizes Senator Seliger for a motion.

Senator Seliger: Mr. President, I move passage to engrossment of Senate Bill 2.

President: Senator Davis, for what purpose do you rise?

Senator Davis: I'd like to make a comment on the bill, if I may—

President: You're—

Senator Davis: —Mr. President.

President: —recognized.

Senator Davis: Thank you. Members, as you recall, we're here today having this conversation because the court denied preclearance to the last session's state-adopted Senate plan, having found intentional discrimination in the process used to adopt it. As a result, the 2012 election in District 10 was conducted with the current court-ordered boundaries to protect minority voting rights. It's important to note, however, that since the court's opinion was issued, minority voters in Senate District 10 have again demonstrated their ability to elect their candidate of choice, so that district has now established historical success by demonstration of successfully making that choice in two separate election cycles. The map for Senate District 10 in Senate Bill 2 contains none of the illegal retrogression or other violations of the Voting Rights Act or the U.S. Constitution of the original map as it pertains to the drawing of that district. There is broad agreement among all groups that this plan is fair and legal as it pertains to Senate District 10, and I'm calling on you to adopt the interim State Senate redistricting plan as the final plan. Thank you, Members. Thank you, Senator Seliger.

President: Thank you, Senator Davis. Senator Ellis, for what purpose do you rise?

Senator Ellis: Just to make a brief statement, Mr. President, on the bill.

President: You're recognized.

Senator Ellis: Thank you, Mr. President and Senator Seliger. As I mentioned to you briefly on the floor, I did submit a record to the statement, a statement to the record, but I know y'all haven't seen me in a few days, so, I'll just make a few brief points. And I made these when the initial redistricting came up on the Senate floor at the end of the last session at some point. I'm going to, I voted, I will vote for this plan today, primarily to protect the changes that the court made in Senator Wendy Davis' area. I did not file a lawsuit about my belief that there was retrogression in the Harris County area, particularly in Harris County, because I didn't want to spend a million-plus on legal fees, as Senator Davis did, to get us to where we are today. I think that if I had gotten lawyers to represent me and been willing to pay the legal expenses, that you all would've made some of the changes that I think should be made in Harris County area. As it relates to my district in particular, I think it was packed. And as I understand the Voting Rights Act, it has a negative impact on minority voting strength, both when you crack minorities up in such a way that you dilute their strength, but it is also possible to pack them into certain districts. And we've had such tremendous growth in Harris County, particular, over 1.8 million Latinos, 930,000 African Americans in Harris County and Fort Bend County combined. If you add our Asian Americans and other minority residents in the two counties, overall total is about 3.5 million minorities, compared to 1.5 million Anglos. Under the interim map configuration, which maintains all Senate boundaries as drawn by the Legislature in 2011, every part of the state except the DFW region, those minority residents are packed into three Senate districts and then cracked among several areas, several others. My Senate district has a Black plus Hispanic population of nearly 90 percent, and I'm proud to represent all of them, but I think that their views would be represented even if you didn't have someone representing a district with a 90 percent African American and Hispanic population. Senate District 6 has a non-Anglo population of 88 percent. Senate District 15 has a combined Black, Hispanic population of 72 percent. Obviously, all three districts are overwhelmingly Democratic. The other five Senate districts are very carefully constructed to absorb some minority population, but not too much, certainly not enough to protect the minority voters to elect their candidate of choice. In each of these districts, the combined population is always over 30 percent, but just under the barely 50 percent. In each one, minority voters are overwhelmed by Anglo voters who bloc vote against minority-preferred candidates by design. I'm not going to read all of my statement. I put it into the record, but just to sum it up, I just want to make the case, I think that those districts were in, my district was intentionally packed, so were the others, to dilute the minority voting strength and the power that they would've had in those other districts. I do appreciate the time that the Committee put into having these hearings around the state. I went to the hearing in Harris County. I didn't pack the hearing with a lot of my constituents on very short notice, to go in and make these points, but I can assure you, they are concerned about them. And I just wanted to make sure that I put this in the record. Thank you very much. I will vote for this bill. I do regret that I wouldn't have had the ability to have my voice heard even more if we'd been voting with the two-thirds tradition. But I will vote for this bill.

Senator Seliger: Thank you.

President: Senator Whitmire, for what purpose do you rise, Sir?

Senator Whitmire: I'd like to speak on the issue before us.

President: You're recognized.

Senator Whitmire: Mr. President, Members, Senator Seliger, a lot of recognition for your hard work and transparency, and I think you've done the very best you could under the circumstances. Mr. President, I would like to vote "no" against the Senate plan that we are ratifying today, in protest of the change of the rules, which took place so we can even have this conversation today. But for a change in the rules, it would be my opinion that we would not be having a special session. So, where I would like to vote "no" in protest, Senator Seliger, I had to place this matter in what I, in my life, I call the greater good test. Even though I'd like to protest us being here in special session for a very political matter that would've not been brought up in a regular session, we're here. So, then, I have to look at the greater good of protesting my vote with a "no," Senator Seliger, or voting for it, which I intend to do, out of respect for each of the 31 Members and the integrity of their districts and the voters that have sent them here for this process. Even though I often don't agree with some of these individual Members, in fact, I do disagree strongly with some Members' positions, I respect the process that got them here, the redistricting process which allowed us to represent over 800,000 people. Particularly, the greater good would be for me to vote to protect those districts and the integrity of the voters' decisions, as it relates to Senator Davis, who, I think, we'd all have to agree, got unusual attention in the redistricting process by this body and, ultimately, the federal courts. I respect the choice of her district and intend to vote to protect those lines, or certainly make that statement confirming those lines, out of respect for her voters in that process. But I have to make a statement that I still strongly disagree with taking up this issue, because, Members, hopefully each of you that have spent one day in this deliberative body knows how important the two-thirds vote is. Senator Patrick, whether it's your education issues, Senator Huffman, whether it's how you use the two-thirds to block some criminal justice issues that you strongly oppose, whether it's an outstanding transportation plan that Senator Nichols has designed, with Senator Williams' assistance in the great budget that represented the diverse views of this body, whether it's going to allow Texans to once and for all have a water plan, the two-thirds plan works and builds consensus on behalf of the people of Texas. And each time we come into a special session, Mr. President, and we waive that two-thirds, we destroy that two-thirds, we're chipping away at a fundamental procedure that I, after 30 years, know works for the people of Texas. So, where I would like to vote "no" in protest for us being here on a very political, partisan matter, I can vote in good conscience for it because this Senate plan would've passed under a two-thirds rule in a regular session. It was only when we lump it with the congressional and the House that you got the resistance based on a two-thirds rule. So, yes, I'm going to vote for the plan under protest of doing away with the two-thirds because I think it's the greater good for this body and the people of Texas, and I respect the political process that sent each of these 31 Members here from their diverse districts. Thank you.

Senator Seliger: I appreciate and respect your views on all of the issues on the floor today, Dean Whitmire.

Remarks Regarding Senate Bill 4

The following remarks regarding SB 4 were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal:

Senator Seliger: Senate Bill 4 adopts the congressional map. The map is C235, used for the 2012 election cycle that was ordered by the three-judge panel for the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas in the Davis versus Perez lawsuits. Subsequently, all three plans were denied preclearance, and the district court's interim plans were proven to be judicious. The interim plans remedy, we believe, the legal flaws found in the federal court in D.C., and it is because of that, that they were implemented, and everyone currently serving Texas in the U.S. Congress was elected. Enacting those plans will help bring a close this chapter of redistricting. They will almost ensure that the ongoing litigation over the redistricting plans will be brought to a swift end and will ensure that the confusion and any delay associated with the 2012 election cycle will not repeat itself, at least, for this decade. And because interim plans only alter the legislatively drawn lines were necessary to fix legal flaws with the agreement of the litigants involved, enacting the interim plans will give effect to the will of the Legislature and the people of Texas. The interim congressional plan addresses the legal flaws found by the D.C. district court, and the D.C. district court denied preclearance because the congressional plan lacked an additional minority district. The interim plan also remedies that legal challenge. The District of Columbia district court also found that the Legislature impermissibly excluded district offices, residences, and certain economic engines from certain existing minority districts. It's important to note at this point that the most recent contact with our Legislative Council to Members of Congress for district offices and residences and things went largely unanswered, and so there's some information lacking because it was not offered. Like other interim plans, the interim congressional plan garnered significant support or lack of challenge from some groups challenging Texas redistricting maps. And it's interesting to note that the Latino Redistricting Task Force, which is made up of a number of Latino advocacy, election advocacy groups, like the GI Forum, like MALDEF, and others, have not contested and have not protested, to the best of my knowledge, this plan.

President: Senator West, for what purpose do you rise, Sir?

Senator West: Question of the author.

President: Will Senator Seliger yield?

Senator Seliger: I do.

Senator West: Senator Seliger, thank you, first of all, for taking the, realistically, we've gone all over the State of Texas, all except Dallas.

Senator Seliger: Yes, Sir.

Senator West: And I requested several times to have a hearing in the Dallas-Fort Worth area. Is that correct?

Senator Seliger: Yes, Sir.

Senator West: And you as Chairman, denied that, denied that request?

Senator Seliger: Yes, Sir.

Senator West: Okay. In terms of the San Antonio court, did the court basically say that it would be, this, the interim map was just basically a preliminary determination and it could be revised upon full analysis? Do you recall them saying that?

Senator Seliger: I'm not aware of the court characterizing them as temporary, but as interim maps.

Senator West: Okay, are you familiar with the language then, the court explicitly, does it tell you that its process was expedited and that it was, it was able to make only preliminary conclusions that may be revised upon full analysis? Did anyone inform you of that quote by the court?

Senator Seliger: Not specifically of that quote, but the sentiment that they were, indeed, interim maps, yes, Sir.

Senator West: Had you known that the court had made that statement, would you have looked, done further analysis of the interim maps to see whether or not they comply with the Voting Rights Act, specifically Section 5?

Senator Seliger: That examination and opinion was done largely by the Texas Attorney General, who felt that the court approved these maps because they felt that they were compliant with the Constitution and with Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act.

Senator West: That's the same Attorney General's office that took the congressional map to the D.C. court for preclearance, too. Is that correct?

Senator Seliger: Yes, Sir.

Senator West: And that, so, and that's the same Attorney General that got the opinion back from the D.C. court that basically said that Texas had engaged in intentional discrimination.

Senator Seliger: That is the same Attorney General's office.

Senator West: Okay, so, we're relying upon that advice, and we've had some good advice from the Attorney General's office on other areas, but we're relying upon that advice that led us to the D.C. court, as opposed to the Justice Department, and we got this opinion back basically saying that Texas has engaged in intentional discrimination.

Senator Seliger: In truth, it's the only Attorney General that we have. And if some of their opinions and decisions are not infallible, then so be it. But I think that you would agree that's probably true of any attorney or group of attorneys in almost any sort of testimony.

Senator West: I agree with you wholeheartedly. I've been on both sides of an issue myself, sometimes. But the reality is that given that the San Antonio court made its decision prior to the D.C. court, it seems as though that would've given us pause to look at exactly what the San Antonio court said about doing a full analysis of the preliminary plan, prior to us passing this partisan plan again. Would you agree with that?

Senator Seliger: I think possibly in principle, but I think as time goes by, and there has been further analysis and discussion, I think it's not unreasonable for me to assume that that opinion is better developed now than from the day when the court issued the statement to which you refer.

Senator West: Okay, now, just kind of, let's look at Texas' history, as it relates to elections. Okay. Voting rights, the voter ID bill, that's the same Attorney General that is taking on that challenge, right, and basically, the Supreme Court hadn't ruled on that, the same Attorney General that's trying to get Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act set aside.

Senator Seliger: Yes, Sir.

Senator West: Okay, these are the facts. Alright, now let me ask this. It's your intention, is it your intention on the floor today not to accept any amendments offered by anyone to this preliminary matter?

Senator Seliger: If the amendments are not compelled by the Constitution or the Voting Rights Act, it is my intention not to accept them.

Senator West: How do we make a determination as to whether or not it's compelled by that, by the Voting Rights Act or the Constitution?

Senator Seliger: I think all of the amendments that will be offered on the floor were offered by yesterday, subject to my request, which I appreciate very much, by the way, and have been reviewed by the Attorney General's office and by the Committee counsel and Legislative Council.

Senator West: And all of those individuals that have reviewed the proposed amendments have said what?

Senator Seliger: They have submitted notes to me based upon the assertions made by changes in the map, whether they are or are not compelled by Section 2, the same sort of advice—

Senator West: Section 2 or Section 5?

Senator Seliger: —in this case, Section 2, as it relates to the court. I don't have, there are some things related to Section 5 in this, but the primary focus has been the San Antonio court.

Senator West: Okay, so, help me understand this. So, the analysis that you have gone by is a Section 2 analysis, not a Section 5 analysis?

Senator Seliger: There are some notes here, and I will make some comments based upon Section 5 going forward, but the majority of the analysis has been accorded, has been about Section 2.

Senator West: So, if Section 5 is upheld, what impact would that have on your consideration of amendments to this particular map?

Senator Seliger: If Section 5 is upheld by the Supreme Court and this bill passes, it is my understanding that it will have to then be submitted to the court for preclearance.

Senator West: And so, given Section 5 analysis, you feel as though the amendments that would be offered would not be applicable because, that the map would satisfy the Constitution and also the Voting Rights Act, specifically Section 5?

Senator Seliger: Would you say that again, please?

Senator West: Yes, there're amendments that individuals have, frankly, they offered in the Committee and may offer on the floor, in order to make certain that the mandates of Section 5 and the Voting Rights Act are complied with. It's my understanding that what you, based on your previous statement, that you don't intend to accept any of those amendments because you believe that if, indeed, Section 5 is upheld, that the map that you are offering, the preliminary map, comports with the requirements of Section 5 in the Voting Rights Act.

Senator Seliger: Well, that, I think, is what's going to be asserted by our attorneys. I make no such assertion on my own, but I think, right now, references to Section 5 are relevant, certainly, in some context because it is still the law of the land.

Senator West: Okay, and so all of your work, so for purposes of this record, all of your work and stewardship of this particular bill has been done pursuant to current law?

Senator Seliger: Keep in mind also that I don't practice law, and so, has my work been done to apply the law to these, as you would? No, Sir, I can't say that.

Senator West: What would you say then?

Senator Seliger: I would say that I've taken the information given me, as we analyzed each particular amendment and sought that professional advice. Am I compelled, or are we compelled by either Section 2 or Section 5 to allow certain amendments? I make no legal judgments of my own.

Senator West: Let me make certain I understand this then, that the advice that you've received has been based on making certain that whatever we pass out of this, out of this body, as we have done in other areas, comport with current law.

Senator Seliger: You are asking me how both our Committee counsel and the Attorney General have reached the conclusions that worked our way through notes, I can't answer that. That's for them to answer.

Senator West: Well, I'm asking you how would they have advised you as the Chair of the Committee? That's what I'm asking.

Senator Seliger: I think a lot of that is covered by attorney-client privilege and wouldn't care to share it, only that I have sought their advice on all the amendments.

Senator West: Okay, so this bill does or does not comport with current law, that's all I'm asking.

Senator Seliger: You're asking for a legal decision, and I don't make those, Senator West. I'm not a lawyer.

Senator West: Okay, well, let me ask the question this way. In drafting the map and presenting it to this body, is it your intent that this particular map comport with current law?

Senator Seliger: I didn't draft this map. It was a product of the negotiation of the litigants, and I think largely the Davis lawsuit, and approved under which we could hold elections in 2012. I didn't draw these lines.

Senator West: In authoring this map, is it your intent that it comport with current law?

Senator Seliger: It is my intention that it should, yes, Sir.

Senator West: Okay. And so, any amendments that are offered, you have scrutinized those amendments through the process that you engaged in, in order to author this particular bill. Is that correct?

Senator Seliger: I think that's a reasonable assessment, and that being said, let me say that I think the amendments that have been offered, the ones that were offered in Committee, I think they, in largest part, were legal. Were they compelled, as I asked each offerer, by Section 2, or were they proscribed in different context by Section 5?

Senator West: Oh, okay, well, the analysis, the Section 2 analysis, I don't recall hearing that in Committee, and I think I was at all the meetings. You asked the authors of the amendments as whether or not they comply with Section 2?

Senator Seliger: Not whether they complied with Section 2—

Senator West: But whether—

Senator Seliger: —whether they were compelled by Section 2. And correct me if I'm wrong, because you and I have been to the same redistricting things. Section 2 makes certain, absolute requirements. And so, my questions of the people who offered those amendments were, is this required by Section 2, not necessarily are they legal under Section 2 or the Constitution, but are they compelled.

Senator West: What do you see the Section 2 requiring?

Senator Seliger: Here's the way I, here's a layperson's assessment—

Senator West: Okay, sure—

Senator Seliger: —and I think this is sort of a statement, and you grade the paper, that if a Legislature can create a district in which a historically underrepresented minority can elect a candidate of its choice, then the Legislature must do that.

Senator West: —okay, alright.

Senator Seliger: That is a layperson's understanding of Section 2.

Senator West: What about Section 5?

Senator Seliger: Section 2 requires preclearance—

Senator West: Section 5.

Senator Seliger: —Section 5, I'm sorry. Section 5, once again, as I understand it, one, requires preclearance, not only of maps and elections but the lines drawn for school districts and cities and things like that, and as I understand Section 5, it also proscribes retrogression in maps. And as I understand that, that is lessening the ability of a minority-represented candidate of choice where it existed previously.

Senator West: Okay, so, let me just make sure I understand. If, indeed, there was an amendment that allowed for minority underrepresented groups to elect a candidate of its choice, you would be supportive of that?

Senator Seliger: No, Sir, not necessarily. Not unless it is required by the law.

Senator West: Under what conditions would it be required by the law?

Senator Seliger: As I have pointed out, if, let's say, under Section 2, that it is required to draw a certain district to make the change in the existing map, then it's required.

Senator West: Do you find that in any instance in the map that you currently have before us that there's a requirement under Section 2 to draw such a district?

Senator Seliger: I don't make those judgments. I believe that the map that has been offered today does comply, and the reason I reach that conclusion is, it is the product of negotiation of litigants and approved for elections by not just a federal district court but by a three-judge panel.

Senator West: Of some litigants, not all litigants.

Senator Seliger: Not all—

Senator West: Right—

Senator Seliger: —litigants.

Senator West: —and so, again, based on that product by those litigants, you don't plan to offer or accept anything, I should say, from anyone else that would kind of make it a better product?

Senator Seliger: Better product is in the eye of the beholder, and I feel the persons who offered the amendments will feel certain that it improves the map. It's not a question of improve, it's that's, it's not art, it's whether they are required by law.

Senator West: No, I should say, under the language by the San Antonio court, that would assist them in a fuller analysis of compliance with Section 5 and Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act.

Senator Seliger: I'm sorry, I don't understand the significance of a—

Senator West: What I'm, what I'm saying is this. You said the litigants, some of the litigants signed off on this preliminary map, and you recognize that the decision by the D.C. court was subsequent to the San Antonio court drawing up this particular map, and there's language in that opinion basically saying that it's a preliminary map subject to further analysis. And so, the litigants signed off on a preliminary map that was subject to further analysis, and based on what I'm hearing you say, is that you are okay, you feel as though that there's no need for further analysis of this map by the Legislature.

Senator Seliger: I didn't say that.

Senator West: Is that correct?

Senator Seliger: I did not say that.

Senator West: Do you think that there should be further analysis by the Legislature of the preliminary map?

Senator Seliger: I think that analysis is inevitable. It doesn't matter whether I approve of it or not. I think it'll take place, quite often, and quite likely, in the context of further litigation. That's up to the discretion of the court.

Senator West: Maybe, and you missed my question on that. I said, do you believe that the Legislature, even given that the litigants, some of the litigants came up with an agreement for the preliminary map, whether the Legislature, independent of the litigants, still do further analysis compliant with what the Supreme, the San Antonio court said that it would do?

Senator Seliger: I'm sorry, would you say that again?

Senator West: The San Antonio court made a statement that it was a preliminary map subject to further analysis. We have not, we, as the legislative body, have not done further analysis. Would you agree with that?

Senator Seliger: This body has not done further analysis?

Senator West: Right.

Senator Seliger: Well, that's not quite true, because as we look at laying out these bills—

Senator West: I'm talking—

Senator Seliger: —and—

Senator West: —about this, uh, what's this—

Senator Seliger: —yes, I think—

Senator West: —court.

Senator Seliger: —that we have done some analysis with our lawyers in a discussion of these maps and are they compliant with the law, yes, that analysis has gone on. It's not really my analysis.

Senator West: Okay, so the only analysis that has been done, for purposes of this record, has been with the lawyers?

Senator Seliger: In largest part, yes.

Senator West: Has there been any further analysis done with the Members of this body?

Senator Seliger: Oh, I think a lot of the Members of the body have done analysis, yourself included—

Senator West: No.

Senator Seliger: —did all that analysis confirm that these ought to be the maps, no, but there're disagreement on maps all the time.

Senator West: Okay, let me ask this question. Has there been any further analysis done in conjunction with the Members of this body, of the Committee I should say, of the Committee and the lawyers?

Senator Seliger: I have spoken with lawyers at the Attorney General's office and the Committee counsel. What other consultation has gone on between other Members of the Committee and lawyers outside or with Committee counsel or Attorney General, I do not know.

Senator West: Okay, but you would agree with me, there has not been a meeting of the lawyers, a private meeting to do the analysis with the lawyers of the Committee, yourself, and Members of the Committee?

Senator Seliger: No, we have not had any group meetings.

Senator West: So then, for purposes of the record, the only real analysis that you're talking about is the analysis with the attorneys of the Committee, attorneys of the Committee. Is that correct?

Senator Seliger: I'm, I'm sorry, say that again.

Senator West: For purposes of this record, the analysis that you're referring to is the analysis that you did with the attorneys for the Committee?

Senator Seliger: Correct.

Senator West: Okay.

Senator Seliger: That's not entirely the entire case, though. If you will recall, I announced, I think, in a week and a half ago, that all of the advocacy groups that wanted to come by my office were more than welcome to come by and analyze, as you say, and talk about the maps and changes. We sent, we contacted, I think, 40 different entities, or some number thereby. One came by. One. And they were groups that absolutely have done analysis and things like that, and had the opportunity to come by my office and share that analysis. One did.

Senator West: And you contacted those advocacy groups, and which advocacy group came by?

Senator Seliger: The Hispanic redistricting task force.

Senator West: And that's the only group that came by.

Senator Seliger: That's the only one.

Senator West: Okay. Is the NAACP in support of this map?

Senator Seliger: I have no idea. They didn't come by my office. Did you ask them to?

Senator West: Is the, is LULAC supportive of this map?

Senator Seliger: I do not know. They didn't come by my office.

Senator West: So, again, thank you for your response on the full analysis, but I would ask that you look at the creation of another district in the Dallas-Fort Worth area. That was one of the reasons I wanted to have a hearing in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, so you could kind of look at whether or not it would be comport, and whether or not it would be legally required to have another congressional district in North Central Texas.

Senator Seliger: And I appreciate that. And you and I have had this discussion and disagree with our colleagues in the House, with the exact same map, went to Dallas, and their record is going to be available to us for analysis going forward, and it's going to be available to courts going forward, as we look at the Dallas-Fort Worth area. But the subject of a hearing, whether it was House or Senate, is exactly the same because the maps are exactly the same.

Senator West: Okay, so, let's explore whether or not that's the normal procedure. Could you tell the Members and myself whether historically, during the regular process of redistricting or just the regular process of this body, that in passing a Senate bill, we relied on information received from the House?

Senator Seliger: I would like to think that if we're to make informed decisions about almost any subject, and we make them about important subjects, that we use all the information, that we not take such a parochial or self-centered view, that only the information that we ourselves generate are valid to our discussion. I would say, again, because our colleagues in the House went to the Dallas-Fort Worth area with the exact same map that as we have here today, that I should imagine that testimony and its sentiment and the intensity of it is exactly the same.

Senator West: Okay, so, you answered my question, as we have done that in the past?

Senator Seliger: I've been here through one redistricting cycle, Senator West, I can't tell you.

Senator West: Okay, so, if we haven't done that in the past, then that would be different from what you're doing now.

Senator Seliger: Are--

Senator West: That--

Senator Seliger: --you--

Senator West: --correct?

Senator Seliger: --saying the only acceptable or good ideas are those things that were done in the past?

Senator West: No, no, no, no, no, I'm talking about changes in the process, that's what I'm talking about. And so, what I'm saying and what I heard you say, is that you don't know whether or not in the past we have looked to the House for information in order to pass a Senate bill. That's what I just heard you say, correct me if I'm wrong.

Senator Seliger: Well, that may be what you thought you heard me say--

Senator West: That's what I'm trying--

Senator Seliger: –but it may–

Senator West: –to make sure–

Senator Seliger: –not be what I thought I said for you to hear me say.

Senator West: –okay, what did you say then?

Senator Seliger: I think all that information is perfectly relevant.

Senator West: Okay–

Senator Seliger: The fact that there may be some sort of departure in some context, and I'm not familiar with it, I don't necessarily, makes the process flawed.

Senator West: So, you don't know whether or not this is a departure or not?

Senator Seliger: I do not. Like I say, I've been here through, you've been here through more redistricting that I have.

Senator West: Let me suggest to you it is. Now, let me ask this. You're telling the Members of the body that in making your decision about what to do in North Central Texas, is based on your reading of a transcript from what, the hearing that took place by the House in the Dallas-Fort Worth area?

Senator Seliger: I have not seen such a transcript. I expect it.

Senator West: Okay, so, if you haven't seen the transcript, how in the world can we take into consideration, even if it's the normal practice, what the House town hall meeting or committee meeting offers for this particular map?

Senator Seliger: Because that reading of the transcript at the House hearing, while I think it is useful, is not an absolute requirement. I would point out that we had no hearing whatsoever in El Paso, in Amarillo, in Lubbock, in Tyler. Are all of them essential? You're asserting here that the lynchpin of this entire discussion is a transcript generated in Dallas, and I'm not sure that that's the case.

Senator West: Well, again, I'm talking about North Central Texas. I'm not talking about El Paso or Lubbock, any place like that, and you're saying that the House went there and that we should be able to use that in our consideration of this particular map. And what you're telling me now, is that you haven't even read the transcript or had a briefing of the transcript from the House, and you're not taking that into consideration in passage of this map and in determining whether or not an amendment that would offer another congressional district in North Central Texas should, in fact, be considered and supported by you as the author? That's what I'm hearing.

Senator Seliger: You're free to, however your hearing works, is fine–

Senator West: I'm free. Okay, thank you. Well, I plan on offering a map for North Central Texas, and I look forward to further debate concerning that particular amendment.

Senator Seliger: Thank you–

Senator West: Thank you–

Senator Seliger: –I look forward to–

Senator West: –Mr. President.

Senator Seliger: –it.

President: Senator Garcia, for what purpose do you rise?

Senator Garcia: Question of the author, please.

President: Will Senator Seliger yield?

Senator Seliger: I do.

Senator Garcia: Senator, thank you so much for coming to Houston. And, first, let me just also say that I concur with a lot of the comments that my colleague and also Member of the Committee, Senator West, has made. And I, too, am concerned about the court's, San Antonio court's comments that it was an interim preliminary map and also a need for full analysis. So, I wanted to just ask you, first of all, what, in your mind, is a full analysis?

Senator Seliger: Senator Garcia, I appreciate the question, but as I said, this is my first redistricting session, and I make no legal analyses because I'm not a lawyer. And so, the procedure that I follow, it's probably not so different than what you do, is look at a map, in this case the interim map, and sit down and talk with our attorneys, look at amendments, look at, look at exceptions to the map and say, what is illegal? What is legal? What is absolutely required? What is not a change made by, that is, is determined by Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act, in this case, but is simply a partisan change, designed to add a chair for partisan reasons, which is never required by law, at least that is my understanding.

Senator Garcia: Well, I don't think it's required by law to have partisan considerations interjected into this any more than incumbency is.

Senator Seliger: But I–

Senator Garcia: But–

Senator Seliger: –insist they have been, Senator Garcia, and that's the reality.

Senator Garcia: –right, well, but, I guess, I'm, do you think that the hearings were part of that analysis?

Senator Seliger: I think we can split hairs. Are they analytical or are they not? Are they partisan, in which case, to what role do they play in analysis? I think the hearings have some value. I think it's important to listen to the people in the State of Texas. It is impossible, I think, as Senator West asserts, to listen to all the people, or the ones that are selected, especially for that. But I think it's all part of the process.

Senator Garcia: But wouldn't you agree that the Houston hearing was probably the best attended, higher attendance and more people testifying than any other hearing that we held?

Senator Seliger: I thought it was very well attended. I also had the impression that a lot of the turnout was stimulated for partisan reasons. But that's part of the consideration, too. People are welcome to come and provide that testimony that they think is valuable to them and their communities. I think it's all far, part of the process. Part of the, part of that process is analytical, or something else, I don't know that I can determine that, but I'm not sure anyone else can.

Senator Garcia: Right, and by our count, there was about 73 out of 80 people there that testified that asked for an additional minority-opportunity district in Harris County. Did you hear that?

Senator Seliger: I don't know what the number is, but what I heard just as often is people who asked for another or more districts represented by Democrats.

Senator Garcia: Well, I was at the same hearing, and I didn't quite hear it that way, but the bottom line was that—

Senator Seliger: Then we—

Senator Garcia: —there was—

Senator Seliger: —disagree—

Senator Garcia: —about—

Senator Seliger: —profoundly—

Senator Garcia: —73 of those people who testified asked for an additional district. And do you think the interim map now accurately reflects the population growth of Latinos, in particular, in Harris County?

Senator Seliger: Senator, population growth is one thing, and it's a consideration, obviously. And we know about the Latino growth in Harris County, but don't you agree, as you read through this, and you read it in a different context than I do, since you're an attorney—

Senator Garcia: Oh, I thought maybe it was because I was Latina.

Senator Seliger: —no, it's because you very well wear the colors of Senator Duncan's beloved Texas Tech, if we're going that far—

Senator Garcia: Alright.

Senator Seliger: —but what we often discuss, and as I read things that come down from the court, seldom, it seems to me, do we read things that are just raw population numbers, but we read things like Hispanic citizens of voting age population, Hispanic voting age population, Black citizens, generally it's Black voting age population, because there's a different context for Black citizens voting age population and Spanish surname voting age registration. And so, it's not just raw population numbers, it's about those people who can and do go vote.

Senator Garcia: Oh, I totally agree with you, and if you would've looked at our, both the map that we presented in Committee, you would've noticed that we also were referring to CVAP numbers, not just population numbers. The population numbers just underscore the point. But I guess, my bigger concern is that, did you really seriously consider any other map or any other testimony that was given at any of the hearings because, quite frankly, we haven't changed anything.

Senator Seliger: We haven't changed anything, and in the context of other legislation, one could ask on every bill to be introduced, do you take into account everybody's viewpoint that impinges upon that legislation, and things like that. I believe that the map that we're looking at today is a fair and a legal one.

Senator Garcia: And you don't think that it was a deviation from our procedures to look at the amendments and adopt and vote on the amendments before we even heard people testify here in Austin this week?

Senator Seliger: I'm sorry, was it a departure? We vote in that order on amendments all the time. Normally, we amend the bill and then open the floor to public testimony, if that's what you mean.

Senator Garcia: Well, that's what I mean, but to me, if we were really trying to hear from the public, we would've heard from the public before we voted on the amendments.

Senator Seliger: But we did. Before there were any amendments offered—

Senator Garcia: Well, not after we—

Senator Seliger: —just a second—

Senator Garcia: —remember we—

Senator Seliger: —just a second, before any amendments were offered, we had two hearings in Austin, we had a hearing in Corpus Christi, and we had a hearing in Houston. So, most emphatically, we did take public testimony before any amendments were offered.

Senator Garcia: Well, that's the point. We had our amendments due by noon on Monday, and then we voted on Wednesday. I'm not sure that the public had a chance to really look at those amendments or speak to them, because, then, when we had the hearing on Wednesday, we voted on the amendments and then took testimony, that's the point that I'm trying to make. And it seems to me that that's not a process that's really looking for public input, and my biggest—

Senator Seliger: That—

Senator Garcia: —concern—

Senator Seliger: —is your—

Senator Garcia: —has been—

Senator Seliger: —opinion.

Senator Garcia: —from the beginning, if you'll remember in my opening remarks. I mean, what is the rush?

Senator Seliger: You sit in a lot of committees right now. Don't you normally take the amendments and then take public testimony in hearing?

Senator Garcia: Quite frankly, I think sometimes it depends on the Chair, but I, for this—

Senator Seliger: Oh—

Senator Garcia: –type–

Senator Seliger: –then it's–

Senator Garcia: –well–

Senator Seliger: –not out of the–

Senator Seliger: –ordinary.

Senator Garcia: –because for this, it's not the ordinary course of business. I mean, this is about the maps that we will be using for a decade. I mean, this is about due process, this is about one person, one vote. I mean, to me, this kind of committee is, should be held to a higher standard, particularly, when you've got multiple court cases looking at our, everything that we're doing.

Senator Seliger: When you say that's not the usual process, how was it done in 2011 and 1991?

Senator Garcia: Now, I was not there. I have no idea, I–

Senator Seliger: Well then, so it may not be the usual process?

Senator Garcia: –I don't know.

Senator Seliger: Okay.

Senator Garcia: But I would've preferred a more robust process, and you're absolutely right, we didn't go to El Paso, we didn't go to Laredo, we didn't go to Harlingen, and I say, why not?

Senator Seliger: I asked for a quorum of Members to go to Harlingen, and I find no blame, people are very busy, and they've got a lot of things to do this time of year, but without a quorum going to Harlingen, I felt that there would be criticism, quite frankly, for going to Corpus Christi with a quorum and going to Houston with a quorum and not going to Harlingen with a quorum. And those folks have every consideration everywhere else. This is, when you talk about what's the hurry, I think this bill was filed March the 8th. It's had a hearing in the State Affairs Committee. There's nothing new here.

Senator Garcia: Well, that's kind of like, was going to be my last comment, that last time around there was four maps presented that would've created a new minority-opportunity district for Congress by Alvarado, my predecessor, Senator Gallegos, by MALDEF, and by Dukes. My map was not really a new map, it was just a reintroduced map. And I'm just really disappointed that, my impression is, that it was not seriously considered by the Chair nor the Committee, and it fails to really acknowledge the population growth, the voting age population growth of Latinos in a particularly minority congressional district where you can get the African American, Asian, and Latino voters who have historically worked together in Harris County. So, that's my final statement, and I'm sure you have a response, and, but, thank you for giving me the opportunity to ask you a few questions.

Senator Seliger: Senator, kind of what you're saying is that you had an amendment or a bill that didn't pass, and so your feeling is, it was not seriously considered. And I respect that view, but don't you think that on this floor, almost everybody here could say that we have had a bill, some of them important bills and significant bills that have not been approved, and then we, too, can say, well, the only reason it didn't pass, because it was not seriously considered?

Senator Garcia: No, Sir, because I think this is totally different. This different situation, when I've had some Members of the Committee even indicate to me in private that they really were, they listened, but they were not open to making any changes—

Senator Seliger: I—

Senator Garcia: —because that—

Senator Seliger: —I—

Senator Garcia: —was not the—

Senator Seliger: —I respect—

Senator Garcia: —direction from the leadership, and I'm just telling you what I've been told. So—

Senator Seliger: —I respect that—

Senator Garcia: —thank you so much.

Senator Seliger: —opinion.

Senator Garcia: Thank you, Mr. President.

President: Thank you, Senator. Senator Rodríguez, for what purpose do you rise, Sir?

Senator Rodríguez: To offer a few comments to the author and—

President: You—

Senator Rodríguez: —on Senate—

President: —you're recognized.

Senator Rodríguez: —Bill 4. Mr. President, thank you, and, Members, I rise to express my concerns with the proposed congressional map on Senate Bill 4. Members, we all know what happened during the last session, leading to the embarrassing spectacle of the Legislature's maps being redrawn by the courts. And now, we are spending taxpayers' money to fight the Voting Rights Act, the federal law that gives us the tools to ensure that minorities are not being deprived of their constitutional rights. Nonetheless, this Legislature appears bent on repeating history. We all know what happened to open this special session, where the majority decided not to adhere, as the Dean pointed out, to the Two-Thirds Rule, the traditional operating procedure that protects minorities, and not, by the way, based on racial or on ethnic purposes, a minority, whether Republican or Democrat alike, and has been the hallmark of the Texas Senate, the Senate's distinction as the most deliberative body on Earth, as some people like to say. I will restate this because it cannot be emphasized enough, Senator Seliger, minorities and, in particular, Hispanics make up almost 90 percent of the state's population since 2000, and I don't think that's disputed. In this new Texas, and I emphasize, new Texas, that we are building together, we gained four congressional seats based on the increased population in the Latino community, but only two of those were majority-minority under this proposal. You cannot draw maps to exclude minorities from opportunity. This is what happened in 2011, and while the court stepped in with an interim solution, it was stated very clearly at the time that the court's maps did not fully address all the constitutional issues. These were just interim maps, temporary maps. I believe what has happened is that one side of this discussion has looked at the facts and realized that they could not do better for their side, but I think we can do better in Texas, and we must. For once, in redistricting, Members, Texas should do the right thing. We should allow everyone to fully participate in this process and pass maps that accurately reflect the demographics of this state. And I'm afraid that this map does not do so because as it has been acknowledged, it pretty much remains the same as it was when the courts, at least the court up in Washington, D.C., the federal court in D.C., found purposeful discrimination. And I think that, while I understand that that's on appeal, that is the current finding of the federal courts. And I'm afraid that with today's passage of this particular Senate Bill 4, that there will be similar finding in the future. Thank you, Mr. President and Senator Seliger.

Senator Seliger: Senator Rodríguez, when you say for once this body ought to do the right thing—

Senator Rodríguez: Yes.

Senator Seliger: —are you stating unequivocally that in the past, 2001, 1991, 1981, 1971, which was the first redistricting cycle after the Voting Rights Act, that everything the Legislature did was the right thing?

Senator Rodríguez: I believe that every single time that Texas has done redistricting since the period that you're talking about, the courts have found problems with the maps. There have—

Senator Seliger: So, then the—

Senator Rodríguez: —been challenges.

Senator Seliger: —Legislature didn't do the right thing, did they?

Senator Rodríguez: Well, it did not.

Senator Seliger: But you're saying that now, for the—

Senator Rodríguez: I say for—

Senator Seliger: —first—

Senator Rodríguez: —once.

Senator Seliger: —time—

Senator Rodríguez: Yes, I'm—

Senator Seliger: —the Legislature—

Senator Rodríguez: –saying–

Senator Seliger: –ought to do the right thing. Then you acknowledge that the Legislature's not been doing the right thing going back to 1971–

Senator Rodríguez: –no, I'm–

Senator Seliger: –which–

Senator Rodríguez: –I'm–

Senator Seliger: –is it?

Senator Rodríguez: –I'm saying, simply, the Legislature has not been doing the right thing on these maps and that for once, today, this time, we ought to draw maps that comport with the constitutional requirements. That's what I'm saying.

Senator Seliger: Thank you.

Senator Rodríguez: Thank you.

President: Senator Watson, for what purpose do you rise, Sir?

Senator Watson: Question of the author.

President: Will Senator Seliger yield?

Senator Seliger: Yes, I will.

Senator Watson: Thank you, Mr. President, and thank you, Senator. I want to follow up on a couple of things that, when Senator West was asking you questions, and make sure I understood. First of all, the counsel that you refer to, that you have met with and discussed these maps, is that the counsel that, is that Mr. Heath?

Senator Seliger: Yes, he is the Committee counsel.

Senator Watson: And when you say Committee counsel and you're asserting a privilege, is he your counsel as Chair of the Committee, or was he counsel to the entire Committee, so that the privilege would extend to people like Senator West and other Members of the Committee?

Senator Seliger: He is the counsel to the Committee, individually and collectively.

Senator Watson: Thank you. As I understood you in your answers to Senator West's questions, you indicated that you would be willing to take an amendment only if compelled by Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act. Did I understand that correctly?

Senator Seliger: No, I don't think so, completely, because I think when it comes to questions of retrogression, under current law, we can't ignore Section 5.

Senator Watson: Okay. So, but you're looking at it only from the standpoints of Section 5 and Section 2? Section–

Senator Seliger: No, Sir.

Senator Watson: –2 for, we, the, I'm trying, didn't help me with that. I'll go back to my original question. Are you going to take amendments only if compelled by Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act?

Senator Seliger: I don't think exclusively, no.

Senator Watson: What would be the other situations where you would be willing to take an amendment to Senate Bill 4?

Senator Seliger: I think that if there were a compelling argument under Section 5 provisions of the Constitution, and I can't tell you what they are. Are there other requirements of the law? I can tell you that most of the review that I have looked at, primarily, are around those subjects.

Senator Watson: Alright. So, you would agree with me that in order for this body to do its legal duty and do right, we would need to make sure not only that there was compliance with the Voting Rights Act but also compliance with the United States Constitution.

Senator Seliger: I think in such other provisions or law that Members of this body think are relevant and wish to discuss or introduce, things absolutely that I'm not aware of, but the body's free to discuss whatever they want.

Senator Watson: But certainly one of those requirements would be that this body follow the United States Constitution.

Senator Seliger: I think that's probably a good guideline all the time.

Senator Watson: Well, fair enough. We'll talk a little more about that then. With that being the case, you agree with me, don't you, Mr. Chairman, that there can be situations where this map can violate provisions of the United States Constitution, even if it is not violative of Section 2 or Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act?

Senator Seliger: You're asking me for a legal judgment, Senator, and I make no such thing.

Senator Watson: Do you, as Chair, have a position on whether or not this map can be violative of the United States Constitution in some particular, even though it doesn't violate Section 2 or Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act?

Senator Seliger: You are asking me, can I make a judgment if this is violative of the Constitution even if it conforms with Section 2 and Section 5. Once again, you're asking me for legal judgment, and I don't make them.

Senator Watson: I'm not asking you for a judgment. I'm asking you for, as this map gets laid out, as you lay out this map, as the author of the map, and you ask Members to vote on it, are you considering whether there are aspects of the map that violate the Constitution independently of violating the Voting Rights Act?

Senator Seliger: I will, I'll accept any argument anybody wants to make, but as I said before that I believe this map is fair and legal.

Senator Watson: So, you won't answer my question on whether or not you believe that it must, that there could be violations of the Constitution even though it doesn't violate the Voting Rights Act.

Senator Seliger: I don't determine whether provisions are, or things are offered are violative of any part of the Constitution, that's a question for lawyers. And as it's made very clear that this bill is going to be seen by a lot of lawyers, I don't make those judgments.

Senator Watson: The amendment that I offered in Committee, you were not at that time willing to accept that amendment, and I take it you would not be willing to accept that amendment on the floor.

Senator Seliger: I am not.

Senator Watson: During the regular session that was just completed, you had filed a version, it was not SB 4, I don't remember what the number was, but it was the same bill as what we're seeing with this congressional bill. Is that right?

Senator Seliger: Yes.

Senator Watson: Alright, so—

Senator Seliger: It's exact same bill, exact same map.

Senator Watson: —and during the regular session of the Legislature, at that point in time, that bill was blocked from coming to the floor.

Senator Seliger: I'm not aware of a block or anything else. All I'm aware is, was, I was given a hearing in front of the State Affairs Committee, there was not a vote taken in the State Affairs Committee, and what went into that consideration I was not privy to.

Senator Watson: Oh, so you don't know whether there was a block on the congressional map during the regular session of the Legislature?

Senator Seliger: No, I suspect you'd be the authority on that, but nobody said anything to me about it.

Senator Watson: Okay. During this special session of the Legislature, we are not following the tradition that is typically followed of having a blocker bill and allowing of, or require, having a requirement that there be a motion to suspend, requiring a vote of two-thirds of the Members of the Senate. Is that correct?

Senator Seliger: True.

Senator Watson: And so, this bill, SB 4, is on the floor today without the necessity of there being a motion to suspend the regular order of business and have a two-thirds vote of the Members.

Senator Seliger: That's true.

Senator Watson: Mr. Chairman, you're aware that the Democratic Members of the Senate represent over 60 percent of the Hispanic population of the State of Texas under the map that we were elected under in the last election. Is that correct?

Senator Seliger: I believe that to be true. I don't have the figure sitting in front of me.

Senator Watson: You're also aware as Chair of the Senate Committee on, the Special Committee on Redistricting, that the Democratic Senators in the Texas Senate elected under the map that we were all elected under in the last cycle, we represent a majority of the Black and Hispanic citizens of the State of Texas.

Senator Seliger: I believe that to be true.

Senator Watson: You're also aware, I think, that the Democratic Members of the Senate make up at least one-third of this Senate. Is that correct?

Senator Seliger: I believe that's true and are still decidedly in the minority.

Senator Watson: That, while that may be true, if the regular rule that requires there to be, or tradition that requires there to be a motion to suspend the rules in order to take up a bill, what we typically and traditionally refer to as the Two-Thirds Rule, those that represent over 60 percent of the Hispanic population and a majority of the Black and Hispanic population would be in a position to prevent such a bill coming to the floor if that tradition were being followed. Is that correct?

Senator Seliger: I think that's true, but it brings up another issue that's particularly important. That unless I'm mistaken, in the past there have been Lieutenant Governors who are Democrats who have also presided over special sessions in which there is no blocker bill. Now, I'm sure they had a far better reason, but the fact remains is that the same situation has existed other times in this body under a different sort of leadership, at least party.

Senator Watson: My question, that's obviously not an answer to my question, so let me ask my question again. My question is, that if those who represent over 60 percent of the Hispanic population and represent over 50 percent of the Black and Hispanic population in the state believed that this bill improperly impacted the Voting Rights Act, the voting rights of those individuals, if we were following the tradition of the Two-Thirds Rule with a blocker bill, those representing those individuals would be in a position to block this bill.

Senator Seliger: As would it have been the capability of the Republican minority in years gone by when this body was presided over by a Democrat.

Senator Watson: So, the answer's yes, huh?

Senator Seliger: The answer is the one I gave.

Senator Watson: Alright. Do you know whether in the past, in the Republican minority you were just talking about, the Republican minority represented a majority of the protected racial class in this state?

Senator Seliger: I do not.

Senator Watson: Under Section 2, one of the things that needs to be addressed is avoiding the dilution of minority voting strength. Is that correct, Mr. Chairman?

Senator Seliger: That's the way I understand it, yes.

Senator Watson: What is your definition of packing minority voters, and how that has an impact under Section 2?

Senator Seliger: With the caveat that mine is a layman's definition, packing is to put so many members of a minority in a certain district that it lessens the ability to elect the candidate of their choice in another or adjacent district. And fracturing is to fracture such a population so it cannot come together and so it will not be a voting bloc that can elect the candidate of their choice. And I apologize for any inadequacies there in the legal description.

Senator Watson: Under the concept of fracturing, would you also include in that the same definition with regard to cracking or splitting a minority population?

Senator Seliger: I'm sorry, if there are any subtleties or differences in those definitions, I don't know them.

Senator Watson: But basically you would put it in the same category as fracturing.

Senator Seliger: Once again, I'm not going to make that judgment.

Senator Watson: Was there any analysis done during this special legislative session with regard to Senate Bill 4 on whether there was packing, cracking, fracturing, or splitting of the map that you're asking us to vote on?

Senator Seliger: As we discuss this, I believe, given the legal advice that I have been given, no, there's not.

Senator Watson: There's not been that analysis?

Senator Seliger: I don't know if anybody's done the analysis or not, I'm telling you about the information that I have received. I did not do such an analysis.

Senator Watson: And your Committee did not do such an analysis.

Senator Seliger: Members may very well have, because a lot of folks were represented by a lot of different lawyers. I assume people have addressed it.

Senator Watson: But let me ask the question specifically. The Committee itself did not do an analysis of whether there is packing, cracking, fracturing, or splitting of minority populations in Senate Bill 4?

Senator Seliger: I am aware of none.

Senator Watson: Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President. Thank you, Mr. Chairman, too, Chairman Seliger.

Senator Seliger: Thank you.

Senator Watson: Mr. President, I would move that the dialogue between Chairman Seliger and Senators West, Garcia, Rodriguez, and myself be reduced to writing and placed in the Journal.

President: That's fine. Members, you've heard the motion by Senator Watson. Is there objection from any Member? Chair hears no objection, and the exchange between the different Senators and Senator Seliger will be inserted in the Journal. Chair lays out Floor Amendment Number 1 by Senator Zaffirini. The Secretary will read the amendment.

Secretary of the Senate: Floor Amendment Number 1 by Zaffirini.

President: The Chair recognizes Senator Zaffirini to explain Floor Amendment 1.

Senator Zaffirini: Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President and Members, this is the identical amendment that I offered for Senate Bill 2, and that was adopted, I believe, unanimously by the Texas Senate. Basically it removes the section regarding legislative findings that the interim maps are in compliance with federal and state constitutional provisions and laws applicable to redistricting plans. So, it's the identical amendment. It would simply strike the identical language that we just removed from Senate Bill 2, and I move adoption.

President: The Chair recognizes Senator Seliger on Floor Amendment 1.

Senator Seliger: Thank you, Mr. President. This amendment is different because it takes on a different context in this map. What the statement is on the bill is it simply says that this bill, these maps satisfy the requirements to be legal maps. Certainly there is disagreement. There will be a split vote on that, but the majority will determine what the sentiment is expressed in that bill. And so, while I will not ask to table the amendment, it is my intention to vote against the amendment and would ask the Members to do the same.

President: Chair recognizes Senator Zaffirini to close.

Senator Zaffirini: Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President and Members, as we saw with the originally passed maps that were found to be in violation by the U.S. district court in D.C., this Legislature has a poor track record of accurately determining what is constitutionally and statutorily required of the redistricting process and of redistricting maps. Whether court decisions are properly applied or redistricting maps are in compliance with constitutional and statutory requirements is not in the purview of the Legislature but rather that of the judicial system, which currently's in the process of reviewing the most recent Texas redistricting actions and the resulting maps. What's more, even our own Legislative Council, at a House redistricting hearing in Houston on Wednesday, pointed out that by quoting the San Antonio court that the interim maps are, quote, not a final ruling. These are preliminary determinations on the merits of Section 2. We are only looking at claims that are not insubstantial. These are difficult and unsettled legal issues, unquote. The court made it explicitly clear that these were interim maps. The representative from the Legislative Council went on to say that when the court said there were unsettled legal issues, they meant that they didn't have time to look at all of them. Making these determinations requires a very extensive fact finding, region by region. While the two field hearings at the San Antonio, at the Senate Redistricting Committee held in Corpus Christi and Houston were welcome, they did not allow for testimony from anywhere on the Border, West Texas, East Texas, Central Texas, or the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex. And since the maps remain unchanged, it can be assumed that whatever information gathered at the two field hearings was not seriously considered. This limited and restrictive process during a special session designed only to rubber stamp the interim maps is not sufficient for a confident finding, underscore finding, that the maps meet constitutional and statutory muster. The provision in the bills could be interpreted to seek to undermine and cut off the judicial process inappropriately, ultimately would be ineffective, and could serve to complicate the ongoing court cases and increase the time and cost of the litigation. My amendment simply would remove this provision from the bill. It also would result in a revised bill analysis that would not erroneously state that the Legislature is confident that the maps adopted in 2011 are fair and legal and compliant with federal law. Mr. President, I move adoption of my amendment.

President: Members, the issue before us is the adoption of Floor Amendment Number 1, which is opposed by the bill sponsor. The Secretary will call the roll.

Secretary of the Senate: Birdwell—

Senator Seliger: Mr. President, I'm sorry. Is it customary for the author of the bill to close before the vote's taken on the amendment?

President: Yes, it is. Chair recognizes Senator Seliger.

Senator Seliger: Thank you. And what I would like to say is, Senator Zaffirini is absolutely right. The court said these are interim maps, and the reason they said they are interim maps are there are no permanent maps. This is to be that permanent map that takes into account some of the litigants and the defendants who agreed to this map, and it was put in place by a three-judge panel. And I think that from what I've been told, that is kind of a compelling way to put together a permanent map. When Senator Zaffirini says that on the surface of it the input of the public is not considered by that Committee, I think the only time that some people would be satisfied if what went into the bill is what they want. And it doesn't necessarily work that way, that it will be determined by not individual preferences but by a vote of this body.

President: The Secretary will call the roll.

Secretary of the Senate: Birdwell, Campbell, Carona, Davis, Deuell, Duncan, Ellis, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Garcia, Hancock, Hegar, Hinojosa, Huffman, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Rodríguez, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Uresti, Van de Putte, Watson, West, Whitmire, Williams, Zaffirini.

President: There being 15 nays and 11 ayes, the Floor Amendment 1 fails.

Senator Zaffirini: Mr. President.

President: Senator Zaffirini—

Senator Zaffirini: Mr. President—

President: —for what purpose?

Senator Zaffirini: —I would move that my statement be reduced to writing and entered into the Journal.

President: Members, you've heard the motion by Senator Zaffirini. Is there objection from any Member? Chair hears no objection, and the motion is adopted.

Senator Zaffirini: Thank you, Mr. President and Members.

President: The Chair lays out Floor Amendment Number 2 by Senator Watson. The Secretary will read the amendment.

Secretary of the Senate: Floor—

President: Think it's being passed out right now.

Secretary of the Senate: —Floor Amendment Number 2 by Watson.

President: Chair recognizes Senator Watson to explain Floor Amendment 2.

Senator Watson: Thank you, Mr. President. Members, today I have a floor amendment that affects only Central and South Texas. I've included the statewide map only as a way to show context, and I anticipate that other amendments that attempt to remedy other flaws in SB 4 would be offered by others. I simply put it in a statewide so that you can see the context. It only impacts Central and South Texas. The interim plan, as has been discussed on the floor already, was entered by the federal district court in San Antonio in February of 2012. As has also been noted, and I think everybody is aware, notably, the D.C. federal court issued its preclearance decision based on Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act in August of 2012. As a result, and despite claims that we've heard today and by others leading up to today, the interim plan, SB 4, does not address, quote, every legal flaw, close quote, that was identified by the D.C. court. This Legislature can remedy this problem given the time, if we're given the appropriate time and if we're given the opportunity. I don't believe that there has been sufficient analysis, in light of the D.C. court, to be saying that SB 4 is what we should be voting on today. I am laying this amendment out. I will not, I will pull the amendment back down because I know in, as we had the dialogue with Senator Seliger, this amendment will not be accepted. And I believe that the die is cast that when the original proclamation for this special session was called, we were going to, this Legislature and this Senate was only going to pass the interim maps. But I do want the opportunity to stress that the Senate and the Legislature can do better, in fact, in my opinion, can do it right. It was not done, in my mind, Senate Bill 4 has not been done with the further analysis that it should have. Members, this amendment is a least-change option. In other words, it's the least disruptive to the interim plan. It's not necessarily what I would write if I got to write it and made no changes. It doesn't necessarily reflect my political preferences, but it's the least disruptive to the interim plan. It also restores a constitutionally protected crossover district in Travis County. And at the same time it adds a new Latino opportunity district, which you will see as Congressional District 34, and it strengthens two existing opportunity districts in order to maintain the same number of opportunity districts in the region as I believe is prescribed by Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act. Members, this amendment fixes a core constitutional defect in the interim plan. This is something that I asked Chairman Seliger about because it's very important to note. This plan can violate the United States Constitution, even independently of whether it meets certain requirements or doesn't need to have certain things happen under the Voting Rights Act. This restores, this amendment restores a crossover district centered in Travis County that the interim plan, SB 4, by simply adopting the 2011 legislatively enacted map destroyed. In the 2009 United States Supreme Court case of Bartlett versus Strickland, Justice Anthony Kennedy, in a very lengthy discussion related to crossover districts, defined a crossover district and confirmed that if a state purposefully dismantled such a district, it would raise serious constitutional questions under the 14th and 15th amendments. And, Members, that's exactly what happened in Travis County. In August 2012, the D.C. court held that the 2011 enacted map, and therefore the interim map, and therefore SB 4, had destroyed an existing tri-ethnic crossover district. That district was the former Congressional District 25, anchored in Travis County. This map remedies that constitutional violation by reconstituting the tri-ethnic coalition as the centerpiece of a district centered in Travis County. And this district in the map is numbered CD 35. There has been no argument placed forward at any point that I know of in this special session as to why this Legislature would not fix these constitutional concerns. In addition, this amendment adheres to Section 2 of Voting Rights Act. As the San Antonio court continues to consider the Section 2 case against the State of Texas, it's important that we also continue to pay attention to this critical component. This map adds a new Hispanic opportunity district in Central and South Texas which is shown as CD 34. The new CD 34 would run from Nueces County into Bexar. And the Hispanic voting age population, commonly referred to as HCVAP, is 58.3 percent, which is well above the threshold required by Section 2 and above the current CD 35. The map also reverses some of the intentional discrimination displayed in the drawing of Congressional District 20. Senator, Chairman Seliger noted when he laid out SB 4 that some of the findings of the federal court in D.C. were that iconic places and economic drivers had been moved out of some congressional districts. He pointed out that some of that had been corrected. In Congressional District 20, they have not been corrected. So, in San Antonio, the legislatively enacted map, which is, was adopted in the interim map and is now part of SB 4, removed historic landmarks and removed economic generators from CD 20. Landmarks like the Alamo, City Hall, the Henry B. Gonzalez Convention Center were taken out of the district previously represented by Congressman Gonzalez and now Congressman Castro. The D.C. court noted that the parties provided more evidence of discriminatory intent than we have space or need to address, and my proposal remedies this. Finally, Members, I would point out that this proposal supports Congressional District 23 as a Latino opportunity district. The interim map made modest improvements in the enacted map, but I believe Section 2 requires more. This proposal that I'm laying out slightly increases the Hispanic CVAP in CD 23 and improves upon the estimated election performance for candidates of choice in that district. Members, as I've indicated, the die has been cast. But what I want to lay out, the reason I want to lay out this amendment is I want to show a proposal that demonstrates that the Legislature does not, in fact, have a false choice between restoring a constitutionally protected district in Travis County and maintaining Latino opportunity districts to the south. Now, I know there are aspects of this that could be changed and could be tweaked or made to be better. If we were following a process that was to allow for that, I believe we could get to a point where we could have a restored district that was not unconstitutional in Travis County and do what we need to do under Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act. However, as I've indicated, from the time the Governor laid down his call by his proclamation, to where we are today, we knew what the result was going to be. We do not have to meet that false choice. This map shows how we do not have to meet this false choice. And I appreciate the fact that you've allowed me to lay this out. And at this time, Mr. President, I will pull down my Floor Amendment Number 2.

President: Thank you, Senator Watson. Senator Watson pulls down Floor Amendment 2. I'm going to—

Senator Seliger: May I simply say, Mr. President—

President: —the Chair recognizes—

Senator Seliger: —since the amendment is coming down, as we are custom to the work and scrutiny of this, put in by Senator Watson, is, as we've come to expect, both exhaustive and expert. I don't necessarily agree with it all, but I agree with the quality of the analysis and the exhaustiveness of that analysis.

Senator Watson: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

President: —Senator Williams, for what purpose do you rise?

Senator Williams: I believe that once we've got the motion before us, it's, I've still got the right to ask a question about this before he pulls it down, don't I? It's customary.

President: It's customary. Yes, Sir.

Senator Williams: Okay. Well, that's the purpose that I'm rising is to ask the author of the amendment some questions.

President: Will Senator Watson yield?

Senator Watson: Be happy to.

Senator Williams: Senator Watson, is this the same amendment that you offered in the Redistricting Committee—

Senator Watson: It is.

Senator Williams: —a few days ago? And did we vote on that amendment in the Committee?

Senator Watson: No, at that time it was pulled down as well.

Senator Williams: And why did you pull it down at that time?

Senator Watson: Because, as I've indicated, I believe that the votes of the majority of the Committee would not be there.

Senator Williams: Is that what you said in Committee the other day?

Senator Watson: I don't think I even gave an explanation. If you remember, I'm not on the Committee.

Senator Williams: Yeah.

Senator Watson: Senator West pulled it down—

Senator Williams: Yeah.

Senator Watson: —but I was in agreement with that.

Senator Williams: Yeah. Well, I think I just want to make sure that it's a part of the record that, you know, we had a discussion about this, and you didn't attend the hearing in Corpus Christi, is that correct?

Senator Watson: Yeah, as I told you that day, I did not.

Senator Williams: Yeah. Well, what you've done is you've shifted and substituted your political judgment about what ought to happen in Travis County with what ought to happen in Nueces County. And this is, clearly, the testimony that we had from both Democrats and Republicans would have been opposed to anything like this. I'm not sure that you even had all the Democratic support on the Committee for what you're trying to do here. So, I just think that's an important part of the record that needs to be made here is that this, we had extensive testimony from both Republicans and Democrats, Anglos and Hispanics and African Americans that they liked the arrangement of their congressional districts, and what you've done here is, really, you've split Nueces County up into three different congressional districts where they are the anchor of a congressional district, so that you could change the boundaries in Travis County. Isn't that what's really going on here?

Senator Watson: No. Would you like for me to explain?

Senator Williams: You can try, but I mean—

Senator Watson: Well—

Senator Williams: —it's prima facie—

Senator Watson: —I know I'm not going to convince you, Mr. Chairman. You've made that very clear with your constitutional analysis, but let me say what this bill does. What this amendment proposes to do is not only does it restore what I believe to be a constitutionally protected district, it creates, it makes sure that we have the same number of Latino opportunity districts. And with regard to Nueces County, I would say two things. One is that what it does is, right now in Nueces County there are over 200,000 Latino voters who are placed into a congressional district where their voice pretty much doesn't—let me, let me, let me finish.

Senator Williams: We didn't hear that, though.

Senator Watson: Well—

Senator Williams: You're asserting something that was, that we received no testimony to that effect in Corpus Christi.

Senator Watson: —well, what I, what I'm suggesting to you is that that's the case if you look at the voting patterns in Nueces County. The other thing that I would say about, so, one of the things I think is what this map would do is, it would create a greater opportunity for those voices to be heard. But what I've also said, and what I think in, is a problem with the current SB 4, is that I'm showing that we can make those changes in a way that would meet the Constitution and the Voting Rights Act. Sure, and I've always said, there may be changes that need to be made to the map to meet other needs, but I wanted to show a demonstration that it could be done. We're not engaged in a process that's really allowing for that sort of analysis to occur, where you and I and others might be able to get together and try to make some additional changes that would meet different needs in different parts of the state. Instead, what we're engaged in is a process outside the traditional rules of the Senate so that we can pass through a map that the Governor placed on the call exactly the way he wanted it to be passed. And that's what we're going to do here today. We're not engaged in the kind of thoughtful process that you seem to be suggesting we should.

Senator Williams: Well, Senator Watson, you won't even give us an opportunity to vote on your amendment. You've pulled it down in Committee, and you've pulled it down here on the floor. And I would say this is exactly the kind of debate that we're talking about, and you've preordained the outcome of that, not me and not Senator Seliger and not anybody else on this floor. And what I would further point out is that the Parliamentarian has already ruled that any matter dealing with redistricting, there's no narrowness to the call. The Governor can't keep us from considering these amendments. That has nothing to do with whether or not this amendment is being considered or not. The simple fact of the matter is that you've run it up the flagpole and you've pulled it down. And I suspect from the, you know, what, the chat that I hear on the floor is you don't have the support from a lot of people in your own party about this.

Senator Watson: Well, I appreciate your political advice, and as always, you're always helpful in that regard, Mr. Chairman. And what I would suggest to you is when I say, when I say that the process is preordained, I don't think there's anybody on this floor that doesn't understand that the process is preordained as a practical matter. And I don't think there's anybody on this floor, that if they're candid, they're honest, and they're forthright, wouldn't say that they know what the outcome was going to be from the very beginning of this legislative session. And regardless of the Parliamentarian's statements, as a practical matter, what has not been occurring is something that didn't occur during the last legislative session. And that is that we actually came together and worked on different aspects of the map as a group, and instead SB 4 has worked its way all the way through the process. The bottom line is the courts will have an opportunity to determine whether or not this body is, in fact, failing in its constitutional obligation with regard to Travis County. And I believe that it will ultimately determine that it has failed.

Senator Williams: Well, and we clearly disagree about that. I don't believe that there's a constitutional problem with the maps in Travis County. But setting that issue aside, what I really take issue with, Senator Watson, is that you're saying that it's preordained when you won't even let your own amendment be voted on. And this is exactly the deliberative process that our body goes through. What you're concerned about is you're not going to get the outcome that you would like to have. It's not a matter of whether the issues are being considered or not, clearly they are.

Senator Watson: Well, we also disagreed during the last session of the Legislature when these maps were passed. I believed that they were a violation of Voting Rights Act, you believed they were not. I believe they were passed with discriminatory intent, you believed they were not. And the federal court, of course, found that they were passed with discriminatory purpose, and that's one of the reasons that we have had the lawsuits. So, you're right, we do disagree. And we will continue to disagree, like we did in the past, where the district court ruled that, in fact, there was discriminatory purpose. Thank you, Mr. President.

President: The Chair recognizes Senator Seliger for a motion.

Senator Seliger: I have no other comment here. I believe there are other amendments—

President: Excuse me.

Senator Seliger: —before I move—

President: Excuse—

Senator Seliger: –passage.

President: –me. I've been told that we were through with amendments. The Chair lays out Floor Amendment Number 3 by Senator West. The Secretary will read the amendment.

Secretary of the Senate: Floor Amendment Number 3 by West.

President: Chair recognizes Senator West to explain Floor Amendment 3.

Senator West: Thank you very much, Mr. President and Members. We only get the opportunity to deliberate at this point, and we're going to get the opportunity to vote on this amendment to see exactly how it fares in this deliberative body. As, when you're looking at this particular map, we submitted it to Lege Council, and as it relates to the map, the underlying map, it actually works with the underlying map. This is not a statewide amendment. It's an amendment for North Central Texas. It was not considered by the Committee because it wasn't ready at that time. And we filed it, I believe it was yesterday. Members, what this particular map does, it creates a Hispanic congressional district in North Central Texas. Why is that important? Well, let me just talk to you about, briefly, about the increase in population in the State of Texas. All of us know that we have had about, what, about 5.2 million new residents, most of that being ethnic minority. When you begin to look at North Central Texas, what you begin to see, that the increase in North Central Texas, of the increase in Dallas and Tarrant County, which was about 700, about 668,000 persons, that the majority of that was, in fact, ethnic minorities. Interestingly, when you begin to look at the, Senator Seliger, when you begin to do a further analysis of the population in North Central Texas, and you know that you have two African American congressional districts there that obviously are being retained in your map, but we also have room to develop an Hispanic district. And what is the rationale for that? When you begin to look at the population changes in Dallas County, we lost about 191,000 Anglo voters, citizens in Dallas County between 2000 and 2011. The population increase for Hispanic voters was some 277,000 and for African Americans some 78,000. When you look at Tarrant County, you had an increase of Anglo citizens of about 53,000, but you had an increase of Hispanic residents of some 220,000, African Americans about 86,000. So, you can see there's room for another congressional district that favors Latinos if we have the political will to do it as part of this deliberative process. I want you to come with me one moment and look at districts surrounding Dallas County and also Tarrant County. When you begin to look at some of those districts, first of all, CD 6, that's in the benchmark plan. In the benchmark plan that is anchored in heavily Anglo counties of Ellis and Navarro, and I hadn't looked at the statistics, but I will be willing to bet you that those districts have increased in Anglo populations. But what ends up happening, that the district reaches into Dallas County and Tarrant County to include heavily Hispanic neighborhoods in Dallas, in Dallas County and areas of Tarrant County with rapidly growing Hispanic and African American population. The benchmark has a combined Black and Hispanic citizen voting age population in CD 6, some 38.6 percent. You look at CD 12 and see kind of the same, you look at CD 30, you look at CD 26, it's anchored in Denton County, kind of the same. You look at the Congressional District 26, the statistics may be different, but they end up having odd shapes, and they take in consideration, Senator Seliger, higher minority populations than are necessary. They kind of dart into the urban counties and take up that population. And when you begin to look at whether or not those representatives represent those citizens by their votes, and let me give you an example, the Affordable Care Act, as one example, which is a big example, those representatives were not supportive of the Affordable Care Act, which was important to many of the Hispanic and African American residents of those particular districts. And so, we have the ability to, under Section 2 and also under Section 5, to create a congressional district where Latinos have an opportunity of electing a candidate of their choice. And so, I would move adoption of the amendment.

(Senator Eltife in Chair)

Presiding Officer: Senator Seliger on Floor Amendment Number 3.

Senator Seliger: Senator West, are you familiar with a rubber band score?

Senator West: I'm sorry, say that again.

Senator Seliger: A rubber band score that scores the compactness of a district?

Senator West: I'm sorry, I didn't hear you.

Senator Seliger: Are you familiar with what's considered a rubber band score that scores the compactness of a district?

Senator West: A rubber band?

Senator Seliger: A rubber band score.

Senator West: No, I'm not.

Senator Seliger: Okay.

Senator West: What is—

Senator Seliger: Because there's a—

Senator West: —what does that mean?

Senator Seliger: —well, there's some details about it I don't understand, and I was going to ask you the question, in Congressional District 33—

Senator West: Okay.

Senator Seliger: —under this map.

Senator West: Yes.

Senator Seliger: Are you saying that Congressional District 33 is going to elect an African American candidate of choice?

Senator West: Yes. Because we increase, there were some stranded African Americans in one of the other contiguous districts, we're taking those in my map and putting in that particular district.

Senator Seliger: Would you define a stranded population, please?

Senator West: A, basically, they're in a district that does not represent their interests. I mean—

Senator Seliger: So, you're saying—

Senator West: –hold on, hold on, let me finish, let me finish, let me finish. And when you begin to look at the voting record of that representative, it's inconsistent with the interest of those individuals.

Senator Seliger: –and so, you're saying that Africans Americans in a district are not represented by the representative who is elected in that district, unless that representative is an African American.

Senator West: What? Say that again.

Senator Seliger: Is that what you're saying?

Senator West: I didn't hear what you said.

Senator Seliger: Are you saying that, take an African American population, what you call a stranded population, that they cannot be adequately or well represented by a congressman–

Senator West: No, no, I'm–

Senator Seliger: –or congresswoman–

Senator West: –I'm, no–

Senator Seliger: –who's not of that race?

Senator West: –I would never say that. I think you have to look at the person's record that–

Senator Seliger: Then, how are they stranded?

Senator West: –let me, let me finish. I think you have to look at the person's record to make a determination. Whether they're Black, White, purple, or pink as to whether or not they have a similar interest for the constituents for that particular area.

Senator Seliger: And I'm afraid I don't understand that because what you're talking about is they have a voting record that is not consistent with that so-called stranded population in that district. How is that judgment made?

Senator West: Based on the voting record, you look at the voting record to determine whether or not they have used an objective criteria. The objective criteria is, in fact, what the citizens in that particular area, geographical area, what those citizens are interested in, politically, and then look at the voting record of the individuals that represent them to make a determination as to whether or not they're voting their interests has, in fact, been considered and voted upon favorably by the representative. Those, I mean, it's objective. Would you not agree?

Senator Seliger: I don't know whether I agree or not. It seems to be such a subjective matter, and in preparing here, I don't think anybody has ever told me that that consideration was part of Section 2 when it comes to demands that it makes on a district. But I have another question. Am I correct in assuming that if one has a Black voting age population, or a Black citizen voting age population, that if one were to reduce those populations in favor of something else, it's my understanding that that is the very definition of retrogression under Section 5.

Senator West: I think that what you have, if indeed there had not been a determination of intentional discrimination, you'd probably be right.

Senator Seliger: And that leads me to another question, I think, because in Plan C235, the one described in Senate Bill 4, the Black voting age population is 46.4 percent, and the Black citizen voting age population is 53.5 percent.

Senator West: What district are you referring to, 33?

Senator Seliger: Plan 235, which is the plan offered by Senate Bill 4.

Senator West: Right.

Senator Seliger: Well now, in Plan C248, in the amendment that you have just offered, the Black voting age population drops a full five points to 41.8 percent, and the Black voting citizens age population drops to 58 percent, to 48 percent, I'm sorry, from 53.5. If I drew that map—

Senator West: I would support you.

Senator Seliger: —well, I wonder if you—

Senator West: Would you—

Senator Seliger: —would because—

Senator West: —co-author, would you co-author this with me?

Senator Seliger: —because what—

Senator West: Would you co-author—

Senator Seliger: —no, because—

Senator West: —this with me?

Senator Seliger: —I believe that my basing—

Senator West: I would, I would work—

Senator Seliger: —I'm sorry, may I finish now?

Senator West: —yes, you, yes, you can.

Senator Seliger: This appears to me to be the sort of retrogression that we must avoid, and yet you put it in your map.

Senator West: May I respond?

Senator Seliger: Well, let me ask you a question, though. Is retrogression okay if it's proposed by you, but not okay if it's proposed by me?

Senator West: Let me respond to you. If you decide to co-author this particular amendment, it's not retrogressive, not whatsoever. If you decide to co-author this, or if you say, Senator West, I want to submit this amendment, I'd pull mine down and co-author yours. Because the reality is, is what we're doing is maintaining two African American districts up here, where Eddie Bernice Johnson in Congressional District 30, she's been elected 11 times. Marc Veasey's in 33, he would be elected under this particular map also. And on top of that, we take some of those funny looking districts that kind of, where the core of the district is in suburban counties, where you have an increase in Anglo population, because again you've got to look at the totality of the circumstances. In Dallas County you lost, we lost 191,000 Anglo citizens in Dallas County. Tarrant County, you didn't have a substantial growth in Anglo population so the Anglo population is going somewhere, and so where are they going? They're going to counties outside of Tarrant and Dallas. What counties are contiguous with those counties, with Dallas and Tarrant? Denton, Ellis, that's where they're going. Where are the core of those congressional districts? CD 6, I believe, it's in Ellis or Navarro. And then you look at Denton, and so, and what those districts are doing that are contiguous to 33 and 30, they're darting in, taking ethnic minority population that would be of no political consequences to them because of the sheer numbers. It's the only thing I'm saying is that given that we've had sufficient population growth, we've had sufficient population growth in North Central Texas. This gives us an opportunity to create a Latino district that won't be retrogressive of minority districts. And I'm willing to pull this amendment down if you're willing to author the amendment yourself, and I would co-author it with you. Would you do that, Sir?

Senator Seliger: I will not support a district that I think is retrogressive. I think it's the wrong thing to do, but what I will do because I think it does just that, is move to table the amendment.

Senator West: Well, let me ask you this before you move to table the amendment.

Senator Seliger: No, I've already moved to table.

Senator West: Would you allow me to ask you a question before you do that?

Senator Seliger: Please.

Senator West: Okay. Why do you think it's retrogressive?

Senator Seliger: Because, as I've said, it reduces the, what did I say, the Black citizen voting age population in, from 46 point, I'm sorry, the Black voting age population from 46.4 to 41.8, and reduces the Black citizen voting age population from 53.5 to 48 percent.

Senator West: Do you agree with me in a Section 5 analysis that you must go beyond mere population data to include such factors as minority voter registration, minority voter turnout, election history, and majority, minority-majority voting behaviors?

Senator Seliger: Ah, I am, I'm sorry, I neither agree or disagree but certainly agree that it is your assertion. At the same time, I think that there could be accusation that it's retrogressive and, therefore, I must move to table the amendment.

Senator West: And as you're moving to table the amendment, I think that what Senator Watson said a few moments ago, this is, I won't say it was preordained, I'll say it's been predetermined. And so, I'd move to, that we do not amend, that we do not grant your motion to table. So, I'm against it.

Presiding Officer: Thank you, Senator West. Thank you, Senator Seliger. Before we take up the motion on the amendment, we have a Motion In Writing by Senator Whitmore to excuse Senator Van de Putte on matters of important business. Is there objection? Hearing none, motion is adopted. Thank you, Members. The motion is now by Senator Seliger to table Floor Amendment Number 3. Members, you're voting to table Floor Amendment Number 3. Secretary, please call the roll.

Secretary of the Senate: Birdwell, Campbell, Carona, Davis, Deuell, Duncan, Ellis, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Garcia, Hancock, Hegar, Hinojosa, Huffman, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Rodriguez, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Uresti, Van de Putte, Watson, West, Whitmire, Williams, Zaffirini.

Presiding Officer: 16 ayes, 11 nays, the motion to table prevails. Thank you, Senator West. Thank you, Senator Seliger. Senator Seliger, you're recognized for a motion.

Senator Seliger: Mr. President, I move the passage to engrossment of Senate Bill 4.

Presiding Officer: Senator Seliger now moves passage to engrossment. Secretary, would you please call the roll.

Secretary of the Senate: Birdwell, Campbell, Carona, Davis, Deuell, Duncan, Ellis, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Garcia, Hancock, Hegar, Hinojosa, Huffman, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Rodriguez, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Uresti, Van de Putte, Watson, West, Whitmire, Williams, Zaffirini.

Presiding Officer: 16 ayes, 11 nays, SB 4 is passed to engrossment. Senator West, for what purpose? Thank you.

Senator Seliger: I assume that Senator West was going to ask unanimous consent to reduce these comments and debate to writing.

Senator West: That's exactly right, plus I want to make a motion before, I want to set something in the record before final passage.

Senator Seliger: I would also move that any pictures taken during that time be only of Senator West.

Presiding Officer: Well, at this point, we don't have a motion, we just have mind reading going on. Is there a motion on the floor?

Senator West: There's a motion to reduce all comments, my comments, Senator Watson's comments, Senator Seliger's comments for sure.

Presiding Officer: Now we have a motion. Members, you've heard the motion by Senator West to reduce the comments made to writing. Is there any objection? Chair hears none, motion adopted. Thanks, Senator West.

Senator West: Mr. Chairman. There's—

Presiding Officer: Senator West, you're recognized.

Senator West: I'd like to speak before final passage.

Presiding Officer: Yes, Sir. We're stopping here right now.

Senator West: Oh.

Presiding Officer: We're going to another bill at this point. Then, we'll come back to that later.

THIRD DAY

(Friday, June 14, 2013)

President: The Chair recognizes Senator Seliger for, no, the Chair lays out on third reading and final passage Senate Bill 4. The Secretary will read the caption.

Secretary of the Senate: Senate Bill 4, relating to the composition of districts for the election of Members of the United States House of Representatives from Texas.

President: Senator West, for what purpose do you rise, Sir?

Senator West: I'd like to speak on final passage of the bill.

President: Alright, I'll call on you in just a moment.

Senator West: Yes, Sir.

President: The Chair recognizes Senator Seliger for a motion.

Senator Seliger: Members, this is Senate Bill 2, I'm sorry, Senate Bill 4 is the map for the Texas congressmen. It passed a little while ago, and with a split vote, and since it did pass then, now is a great opportunity to let "Kum Ba Yah" ring all over the State of Texas and all vote for Senate Bill 4. I move final passage, Mr. President.

President: The Chair recognizes Senator West.

Senator West: Thank you very much, Mr. President. And I'm, I will be voting against final passage of this particular bill, Members, and the reason I'm voting against final passage of this particular bill is because I firmly believe in my heart that there has not been a full discussion of the deliberative process that includes input from all of the Members of the Committee yet, Members of this particular body. I think that the San Antonio court indicated that the congressional map was a preliminary map and gave us the ability to do a little bit more so they could fully analyze it once it's sent back to them. In my estimation, based on the Committee meetings that I participated, the field hearings that I requested, and the field hearings that I've attended, I do not believe that once you look at the evidence in this particular record that there has been full consideration of it. The only thing we're doing is what the Governor asked us to do in the first place. That is to, what was that, Kirk, modify, no, ratify and adopt this particular map.

President: Members, the issue before us is the adoption of Senate Bill 4. The Secretary will call the roll.

Secretary of the Senate: Birdwell, Campbell, Carona, Davis, Deuell, Duncan, Ellis, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Garcia, Hancock, Hegar, Hinojosa, Huffman, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Rodriguez, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Uresti, Van de Putte, Watson, West, Whitmire, Williams, Zaffirini.

President: Members, there being 16 ayes and 11 nays, Senate Bill 4 is finally passed.

THIRD DAY

(Friday, June 14, 2013)

The Senate met at 1:02 p.m. pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by Senator Eltife.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Birdwell, Campbell, Davis, Ellis, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Garcia, Hancock, Hegar, Hinojosa, Huffman, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Rodríguez, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Uresti, Watson, West, Whitmire, Williams, Zaffirini.

Absent-excused: Carona, Deuell, Duncan, Van de Putte.

The Presiding Officer announced that a quorum of the Senate was present.

Senator Kelly Hancock offered the invocation as follows:

Heavenly Father, we praise You for the opportunity to be in this place and to be used as Your instruments to fulfill the goodwill to the citizens of the great State of Texas. God, we pray as we move forward in deliberation and agreement and disagreement, that we would remember Your scriptures that tell us that we are to be wise, not as the unwise, that we are to make the most of every opportunity. And I pray that today as we go about our business and Your business as You work through us, that we would do just that, that we use the wisdom that You provide, make the most of the opportunities both for our constituents but also for the great State of Texas. In Your name, I pray. Amen.

Senator Whitmire moved that the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of the previous day be dispensed with and the Journal be approved as printed.

The motion prevailed without objection.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

On motion of Senator Whitmire, Senator Carona was granted leave of absence for today on account of important business.

On motion of Senator Whitmire, Senator Deuell was granted leave of absence for today on account of important business.

On motion of Senator Whitmire, Senator Duncan was granted leave of absence for today on account of important business.

On motion of Senator Whitmire, Senator Van de Putte was granted leave of absence for today on account of important business.

(President in Chair)

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS POSTPONED

The President announced that the introduction of bills and resolutions on first reading would be postponed until the end of today's session.

There was no objection.

CONCLUSION OF MORNING CALL

The President at 1:05 p.m. announced the conclusion of morning call.

SENATE BILL 2 ON THIRD READING

The President laid before the Senate SB 2 by Senator Seliger at this time on its third reading and final passage:

SB 2, Relating to the composition of districts for the election of members of the Texas Senate.

The bill was read third time and was passed by the following vote: Yeas 27, Nays 0.

Absent-excused: Carona, Deuell, Duncan, Van de Putte.

SENATE BILL 4 ON THIRD READING

The President laid before the Senate SB 4 by Senator Seliger at this time on its third reading and final passage:

SB 4, Relating to the composition of districts for the election of members of the United States House of Representatives from Texas.

The bill was read third time and was passed by the following vote: Yeas 16, Nays 11.

Yeas: Birdwell, Campbell, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Hancock, Hegar, Huffman, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Williams.

Nays: Davis, Ellis, Garcia, Hinojosa, Lucio, Rodríguez, Uresti, Watson, West, Whitmire, Zaffirini.

Absent-excused: Carona, Deuell, Duncan, Van de Putte.

STATEMENT REGARDING SENATE BILL 4

Senator Garcia submitted the following statement regarding SB 4:

I proposed amendments in the Senate Select Committee on Redistricting that are labeled C243 and C244 and available online on District Viewer. First I want to make clear that I would never support a map or plan that retrogresses or harms the integrity of an African American or an Hispanic opportunity district anywhere in Texas, and especially in Harris County.

My plan C243 is an attempt to remove the fracturing that is created by CD 2 inserting itself into inner Houston and an attempt to unpack the three existing minority opportunity districts to create an additional Hispanic opportunity district that reflects the tremendous minority growth in Harris County.

In our election analysis of all four minority opportunity districts created by plan C243, Congressional Districts 9 and 18 will still easily perform as African American opportunity districts. Congressional District 9 goes from 39.6% Black Voting Age population to 35.1% and from 34% Hispanic Voting Age Population to 29.7%. In 2012 President Obama received over 70% of the vote in CD 9 in this configuration down from 78% in the court ordered interim map. U.S. Senate candidate Paul Sadler received 76% of the vote in this configuration.

Congressional District 18 goes from 41.4% Black Voting Age population to 39.4%. and from 34.5% Hispanic Voting Age population to 26.2%. In 2012 President Obama received 71% of the Vote in CD 18 in this configuration down from 78% in the Court ordered interim map. U.S. Senate candidate Paul Sadler received 74% of the vote in 2012 in this configuration.

There is no doubt that all four Congressional districts will remain effective minority opportunity districts and I would not pursue this if I was not completely confident in the performance levels for both the African American and the Latino communities.

In the Houston field hearing on June 8, 2013 at the University of Houston nearly all of the 73 witnesses opposing the map supported additional representation for minority candidates of choice in the Harris County area. Nearly all the growth in Harris County was attributable to Latinos, Blacks and Asian Americans, but minority representation in Congress made no gains in Harris county.

I believe it's time I set the record straight in the Texas Senate on the need for additional minority representation in Harris that reflects the growth over the last decade. I intend to keep working with the NAACP, MALDEF, LULAC and other minority voting rights advocates to pursue representation that does not dilute the voice of Blacks and Latinos in Texas and in Harris County.

SENATE BILL 3 ON THIRD READING

The President laid before the Senate SB 3 by Senator Seliger at this time on its third reading and final passage:

SB 3, Relating to the composition of districts for the election of members of the Texas House of Representatives.

The bill was read third time.

Senator Zaffirini offered the following amendment to the bill:

Floor Amendment No. 1 on Third Reading

Amend SB 3 (senate committee printing) on third reading by striking SECTION 2 of the bill (page 1, lines 36 through 57) and renumbering the remaining SECTIONS of the bill accordingly.

ZAFFIRINI

The amendment to SB 3 was read.

On motion of Senator Seliger, Floor Amendment No. 1 on Third Reading was tabled by the following vote: Yeas 16, Nays 11.

Yeas: Birdwell, Campbell, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Hancock, Hegar, Huffman, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Williams.

Nays: Davis, Ellis, Garcia, Hinojosa, Lucio, Rodríguez, Uresti, Watson, West, Whitmire, Zaffirini.

Absent-excused: Carona, Deuell, Duncan, Van de Putte.

SB 3 was finally passed by the following vote: Yeas 16, Nays 11. (Same as previous roll call)

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Zaffirini and by unanimous consent, the remarks by Senators Zaffirini and Seliger regarding Floor Amendment No. 1 to SB 3 were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal.

The remarks were printed in an addendum to this day's Journal.

STATEMENT REGARDING SENATE BILL 3 AND SENATE BILL 4

Senator Zaffirini submitted the following statement regarding SB 3 and SB 4:

Today I voted against SB 3 and SB 4 because they do not reflect a prudent approach to the redistricting process. The legal issues related to Texas redistricting are complex and continue to be litigated in the federal court system. Meanwhile, this Legislature has a poor track record of determining accurately what is constitutionally and statutorily required. I am very concerned about the Legislature's approving these maps, especially because of the number and scope of pending legal cases that could have an impact on them.

SB 3 and SB 4 each contain a problematic section that would enact legislative findings that the interim maps are in compliance with federal and state constitutional provisions and with federal and state laws applicable to redistricting plans. Whether court decisions are applied properly or redistricting maps comply with constitutional and statutory requirements is not in the purview of the Legislature, but rather in that of the judicial system.

The prudent approach would have been to wait for guidance from the courts before moving forward. The San Antonio U.S. District Court said the interim maps were by no means a final ruling on the merits of challenges to the discriminatory maps passed by the Legislature in 2011. In fact, the court said its interim district lines were based on "preliminary conclusions that may be revised upon full analysis."

That full analysis is ongoing in the courts system, and the Legislature should let it play out, instead of wading in prematurely and potentially making the situation worse.

These interim maps were implemented by the San Antonio court before it was established by the D.C. federal court that the original maps implemented by the Legislature reflected retrogression and did not comply with Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act. As the D.C. court rightly found, there was more evidence of discriminatory intent in those maps than the court had the space to address in its opinion. All along, the interim maps were understood to be a temporary—not permanent—solution to the problematic maps created during the 2011 redistricting process.

Part of the problem in 2011 was that minority groups were not listened to during the process. Now, in 2013, it appears that the Legislature is still not listening to minority groups. While the two field hearings the Senate Redistricting Committee held in Corpus Christi and Houston were welcome, they did not allow for testimony from anywhere on the Border, West Texas, East Texas, Central Texas, or the Dallas-Ft. Worth Metroplex. What's more, none of the suggested changes provided by witnesses—minority or otherwise—were adopted, and since the maps remain unchanged, it can be assumed that information gathered at the two field hearings was not seriously considered.

Indeed, the Legislature has squandered an opportunity to use that feedback to draw maps that are fair and not discriminatory and that address all the deficiencies identified by the courts thus far. Accordingly, I voted against Senate Bills 3 and 4.

ZAFFIRINI

SENATE BILL 23 ON THIRD READING

The President laid before the Senate SB 23 by Senator Huffman at this time on its third reading and final passage:

SB 23, Relating to the punishment for a capital felony committed by an individual younger than 18 years of age.

The bill was read third time and was passed by the following vote: Yeas 27, Nays 0.

Absent-excused: Carona, Deuell, Duncan, Van de Putte.

SENATE RULE 14.02

(Notice Rule)

Senator Hegar moved to suspend Senate Rule 14.02 as it relates to notice given for nominations.

The motion prevailed without objection.

SESSION TO CONSIDER EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS

The President announced the time had arrived to consider executive appointments to agencies, boards, and commissions.

Senator Hegar moved confirmation of the nominees reported today by the Committee on Nominations.

The President asked if there were requests to sever nominees.

There were no requests offered.

NOMINEES CONFIRMED

The following nominees, as reported by the Committee on Nominations, were confirmed by the following vote: Yeas 27, Nays 0.

Absent-excused: Carona, Deuell, Duncan, Van de Putte.

Commissioner of Insurance: Julia Jeffrey Rathgeber, Travis County.

Members, Board of Directors, Lower Colorado River Authority: Pamela Jo Ellison, Washington County; Robert D. Lewis, Bastrop County; Thomas Michael Martine, Blanco County; Franklin Scott Spears, Travis County; Timothy Theodor Timmerman, Travis County.

MOTION TO RECESS

On motion of Senator Whitmire and by unanimous consent, the Senate at 1:41 p.m. agreed to recess, in memory of Ramiro Muñoz, pending the introduction of bills and resolutions on first reading, the receipt of messages, and the receipt of committee reports, until 11:00 a.m. Tuesday, June 18, 2013.

RECESS

Pursuant to a previously adopted motion, the Senate at 5:00 p.m. Monday, June 17, 2013, recessed, in memory of Ramiro Muñoz, until 11:00 a.m. Tuesday, June 18, 2013.

ADDENDUM

(THIRD DAY — Friday, June 14, 2013)

The following remarks by Senators Zaffirini and Seliger regarding Floor Amendment No. 1 to SB 3 were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal.

Senator Zaffirini: Mr. President and Members, this is the identical amendment that we adopted in Senate Bill 2 and that you did not adopt in Senate Bill 4. It is the section that states that legislative findings that the interim maps are in compliance with federal and state constitutional provisions and laws applicable to redistricting plans. As we saw with the originally passed maps that were found to be in violation by the U.S. District Court in D.C., this Legislature has a poor track record of accurately determining what is constitutionally and statutorily required of the redistricting process and of redistricting maps. Whether court decisions are properly applied or redistricting maps are in compliance with constitutional and statutory requirements is not in the purview of the Legislature but rather is that of the judicial system, which currently is in the process of reviewing the most recent Texas redistricting actions in the resulting maps. What's more, even our own Legislative Council, at a House redistricting hearing in Houston on Wednesday, pointed out that by quoting the San Antonio court that the interim maps are, quote, not a final ruling. These are preliminary determinations on the merits of Section 2. We're only looking at claims that are not insubstantial. These are difficult and unsettled legal issues, unquote. The court made it explicitly clear that these were interim plans. The representative from the Legislative Council went on to say that when the courts said there were unsettled legal issues, they meant they didn't have time to look at all of them. Making these determinations requires a very extensive fact-finding region by region. While the two field hearings that the Senate Redistricting Committee held in Corpus Christi and Houston were welcome, they did not allow for testimony from anywhere on the Border, West Texas, East Texas, Central Texas, or the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex. And since the maps remain unchanged, it can be assumed that whatever information gathered at the two field hearings was not seriously considered. This limited and restrictive process during a special session, designed only to rubber stamp the interim maps, is not sufficient for a confident finding that the maps meet constitutional and statutory muster. The provision in the bills could be interpreted to seek to undermine and cut off the judicial process inappropriately, ultimately would be ineffective, and may serve to complicate the ongoing court cases and increase the time and cost of the litigation. My amendment simply would remove this provision from the bill. It also should result in a revised bill analysis that would not erroneously state the Legislature is confident that the maps adopted in 2011 are fair and legal and comply with federal law. We removed this language in Senate Bill 2, and I believe that it should also be removed in Senate Bills 3 and 4. And I move adoption, Mr. President and Members, of the amendment to remove this provision.

President: The Chair recognizes Senator Seliger on Floor Amendment 1.

Senator Seliger: Members, I have just as long an explanation as why, that we should not accept this amendment and keep the language into the bill, which, I think, going forward, is going to express an important sentiment of this body, and, therefore, I very respectfully move to table the amendment.

(Tuesday, June 18, 2013)

AFTER RECESS

The Senate met at 12:20 p.m. and was called to order by the President.

SENATORS ANNOUNCED PRESENT

Senators Carona, Deuell, Duncan, and Van de Putte, who had previously been recorded as "Absent-excused," were announced "Present."

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 2 ON SECOND READING

The President laid before the Senate CSSJR 2 by Senator Nichols at this time on its second reading:

CSSJR 2, Proposing a constitutional amendment to provide for the transfer of certain general revenue to the economic stabilization fund, to provide for the transfer of certain general revenue to the state highway fund and the dedication of that revenue, and to authorize the payment of the principal and interest on certain highway improvement bonds from other money deposited to the state highway fund.

The resolution was read second time.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

On motion of Senator Whitmire, Senator West was granted leave of absence for the remainder of the day on account of important business.

Senator Davis offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Floor Amendment No. 1

Amend CSSJR 2 (senate committee printing) as follows:

(1) In SECTION 1 of the resolution, amending Section 49-g(d), Article III, Texas Constitution (page 2, line 20), between "general revenue" and the period, insert "to be allocated to the foundation school fund".

(2) In SECTION 1 of the resolution, amending Section 49-g(e), Article III, Texas Constitution (page 2, line 31), between "general revenue" and the period, insert

"to be allocated to the foundation school fund".

DAVIS

The amendment to CSSJR 2 was read.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Nichols raised a point of order that Floor Amendment No. 1 was not germane to the resolution.

POINT OF ORDER WITHDRAWN

Senator Nichols withdrew the point of order.

Senator Davis withdrew Floor Amendment No. 1.

Floor Amendment No. 2

Amend CSSJR 2 (senate committee printing) as follows:

(1) In SECTION 1 of the resolution, amending Section 49-g(c), Article III, Texas Constitution (page 1, lines 38 and 39), strike "fund and the state highway fund" and substitute "fund, the state highway fund, and the foundation school fund".

(2) In SECTION 1 of the resolution, amending Section 49-g(c), Article III, Texas Constitution (page 1, line 50), following "public roadways.", insert "Revenue transferred to the foundation school fund under this subsection may be used only for the instructional facilities allotment, the existing debt allotment, or another program to support public school facilities and related debt."

(3) In SECTION 1 of the resolution, adding Section 49-g(c-1), Article III, Texas Constitution (page 1, line 55), strike "and the remainder to the state highway fund" and substitute ", three-tenths to the state highway fund, and two-tenths to the foundation school fund".

(4) In SECTION 1 of the resolution, strike added Section 49-g(c-2), Article III, Texas Constitution (page 1, line 57, through page 2, line 11), and substitute the following:

(c-2) If the anticipated balance of the economic stabilization fund after any transfer that may be made under Subsection (b) of this section and any transfer and allocation of money that may be made as provided by Subsections (c) and (c-1) of this section would be less than $6 billion, the comptroller shall reduce the amounts that would otherwise be allocated to the state highway fund and the foundation school fund as provided by Subsection (c-1) of this section by the lesser of the total amounts of the allocations to those funds or the amounts from each of those funds, in the same proportion that amounts would otherwise be allocated to each of those funds, necessary for the anticipated balance of the economic stabilization fund, after any transfer that may be made under Subsection (b) of this section and the transfer and allocation to be made as provided by Subsections (c) and (c-1) of this section, to equal

$6 billion. The comptroller shall allocate to the economic stabilization fund the amounts by which the allocations to the state highway fund and the foundation school fund are reduced under this subsection.

(5) In SECTION 3 of the resolution, in Subsection (a) of the temporary provision added to the Texas Constitution (page 2, line 48), following "state highway fund", insert "and the foundation school fund".

(6) In SECTION 4 of the resolution (page 2, line 64), between "state highway fund" and "and the dedication of that revenue", insert "and the foundation school fund".

DAVIS
ELLIS

The amendment to CSSJR 2 was read.

Senator Davis withdrew Floor Amendment No. 2.

Senator Uresti offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Floor Amendment No. 3

Amend CSSJR 2 (senate committee report) as follows:

(1) Add the following appropriately numbered SECTION:

SECTION _____. Article III, Texas Constitution, is amended by adding Section 49-q to read as follows:

Sec. 49-q. (a) The transportation infrastructure fund is established as a special fund in the state treasury.

(b) In each fiscal year, the comptroller of public accounts shall transfer from the economic stabilization fund to the transportation infrastructure fund three percent of the amount transferred to the state highway fund in that fiscal year under Section 49-g(c) of this article.

(c) Money in the transportation infrastructure fund may be appropriated only for the purpose of assisting counties in this state in the construction, reconstruction, or maintenance of transportation infrastructure that is intended to alleviate degradation to highways caused by the exploration, development, or production of oil or gas.

(2) Strike SECTIONS 3 and 4 of the resolution (page 2, lines 42 through 67) and substitute the following:

SECTION 3. The following temporary provision is added to the Texas Constitution:

TEMPORARY PROVISION. (a) This temporary provision applies to the constitutional amendment proposed by the 83rd Legislature, 1st Called Session, 2013, to provide for the transfer of certain general revenue to the economic stabilization fund, to provide for the transfer of certain general revenue to the state highway fund and the dedication of that revenue, to provide for the transfer of certain revenue to the transportation infrastructure fund, and to authorize the payment of the principal and interest on certain highway improvement bonds from other money deposited to the state highway fund.

(b) Section 49-q(b), Article III, of this constitution and the amendment to Section 49-g, Article III, of this constitution take effect January 1, 2014, and apply only to a transfer of revenue made by the comptroller of public accounts as provided by those sections on or after January 1, 2014.

(c) This temporary provision expires January 1, 2015.

SECTION 4. This proposed constitutional amendment shall be submitted to the voters at an election to be held November 5, 2013. The ballot shall be printed to permit voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment to provide for the transfer of certain general revenue to the economic stabilization fund, to provide for the transfer of certain general revenue to the state highway fund and the dedication of that revenue, to provide for the transfer of certain revenue to the transportation infrastructure fund, and to authorize the payment of the principal and interest on certain highway improvement bonds from other money deposited to the state highway fund."

(3) Renumber the SECTIONS of the resolution accordingly.

The amendment to CSSJR 2 was read.

Senator Uresti withdrew Floor Amendment No. 3.

CSSJR 2 was passed to engrossment by a viva voce vote.

All Members are deemed to have voted "Yea" on the passage to engrossment except as follows:

Absent-excused: West.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Patrick and by unanimous consent, the remarks by Senators Nichols and Patrick regarding CSSJR 2 were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

Senator Patrick: Thank you, Mr. President, thank you, Senator. I want to be sure that we understand the $6 billion floor, and I thank you for taking that language and incorporating it in the bill because, as you know, there was concern by many that we have a certain amount in the rainy day fund for our credit rating, for economic downturns, which it was designed for, and some people see it as a backup for an emergency. So, the way your bill is written, once we are at six billion and above, the money would flow after the education portion is taken out and the money goes to the general revenue, that 75 percent is split half and half between the rainy day fund and transportation. Is that correct?

Senator Nichols: That is correct.

Senator Patrick: And so, your projection from the Comptroller's office is, again, about 900 million would go into transportation beginning in the second year of the biennium. Is that correct?

Senator Nichols: Yes, it would be, yes, in about a little over a year.

Senator Patrick: Okay, and that also means that 900 million would be going into the rainy day fund.

Senator Nichols: That's correct, it would continue to increase.

Senator Patrick: So, because I stand in strong support of your bill, I think this is a very good conservative approach to maintaining the rainy day fund, our reserve, growing the rainy day fund, and providing a revenue stream on a yearly basis, as long as the revenues are coming in from the severance tax to transportation. So, because there has been some questions and some confusion, the rainy day fund would not continue to grow. It's still going to get half of the money that education would, I mean that transportation would receive.

Senator Nichols: That is correct, they would get equal amounts.

Senator Patrick: So, if the projections are correct, and it's hard to project out two, four, six years on what the cost of gasoline will be, but the dollars coming in, there's no reason not to expect our rainy day fund still to grow to seven, to eight, to nine, to $10 billion while we are funding transportation.

Senator Nichols: That is correct.

Senator Patrick: Again, thank you for taking that language. I think that it answers a lot of questions for a lot of folks who had concern about and, by the way, for clarification, it does not impact the Legislature from drawing down from the six billion?

Senator Nichols: It does not touch that at all. It only adjusts the $6 billion mark, only adjusts the rate in which you split the money. You're either splitting the money if it's above six or you put it all into the rainy day fund until it gets to the six.

Senator Patrick: And so, if there's a need in a future legislative session to draw down below it, the Legislature has the ability to do that. All it would do is stop the money going into transportation until it grew back to six billion.

Senator Nichols: That's correct. The mechanism for the Legislature or the budget writers ability to reach down there and use it when they feel like we need it has not touched at all. There have been several occasions in the past where the Legislature actually did reach in there and take it all.

Senator Patrick: I think that this is a good approach. It saves from raising taxes and fees, and it will help generate money for transportation, take advantage of this success we're having in the oil and gas industry right now, and continue to preserve the rainy day fund. So, as I've always said, you're one of the smartest guys in the room, you're always thinking, and you came up with a good plan, and you were willing to preserve the rainy day fund. I appreciate that and I hope everyone will support it.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Campbell and by unanimous consent, the remarks by Senators Nichols and Campbell regarding CSSJR 2 were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

Senator Campbell: Thank you, Mr. President. I wanted to thank Chairman Nichols and Chairman Williams for their hard work on this bill. As you know, transportation is vital to my district as well as Texas, and I think this is a viable solution for transportation funding. I want to just clarify a couple of things. Mr. Chairman, is the intent of this bill is to find a more viable revenue stream for transportation funding?

Senator Nichols: That is correct.

Senator Campbell: And the bill allows us specifically to also pay down debt service. Is that right?

Senator Nichols: On Proposition 12 debt, right.

Senator Campbell: This bill looks like it is a good start to revitalize a pay as you go concept. Would you say that is a true statement?

Senator Nichols: I would say that is correct. It doesn't get us all the way there, but it's a step in the right direction.

Senator Campbell: Mr. Chairman and Members, I think this is a brilliant idea. I think this is a good bill, and I applaud your efforts to help our great state in the infrastructure.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Williams and by unanimous consent, his remarks regarding CSSJR 2 were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

First let me clarify, in no uncertain terms, 25 percent of all occupation taxes (which include oil and gas severance taxes) are constitutionally dedicated to the Foundation School Fund. There is no artificial limit. The 1987 base year does not have anything to do with this calculation. Bottom line, this means that based on the Comptroller's BRE for FY 14-15, $2.8 billion from occupation taxes will be deposited into the Foundation School Fund. The 1987 "line" we discuss only comes into play when determining how much General Revenue to transfer to the Rainy Day Fund. The Comptroller considers how much severance tax is collected above this "line" of $1 billion, 131 million and transfers 75 percent of that amount to the Rainy Day Fund; the balance remains in General Revenue. Again, this is unrelated to the 25 percent of all occupation taxes that have already been deposited to the Foundation School Fund.

SENATE RULE 8.02 SUSPENDED (Referral to Committee)

Senator Duncan moved to suspend Senate Rule 8.02 to take up for consideration SCR 2 at this time.

The motion prevailed by a viva voce vote.

All Members are deemed to have voted "Yea" on suspension of the rule except as follows:

Absent-excused: West.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 2

The President laid before the Senate the following resolution:

WHEREAS, A lawsuit filed December 20, 2010, against Rick Perry, Governor of the State of Texas; Thomas Suehs, Executive Commissioner of the Texas Health and Human Services Commission; and Chris Traylor, Commissioner of the Texas

Department of Aging and Disability Services, in their official capacities (collectively, the "Defendants"), asserted claims under Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and several sections of Title XIX of the Social Security Act, including the Preadmission Screening and Resident Review provisions of the 1987 Nursing Home Reform Act; and

WHEREAS, The United States of America was granted leave to intervene in the lawsuit and filed a complaint against the State of Texas on September 20, 2012, asserting claims under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and Title II of the ADA; and

WHEREAS, The Plaintiffs to the lawsuit are Eric Steward, by his next friend and mother, Lillian Minor; Linda Arizpe, by her next friend and guardian, Rudy Arizpe; Andrea Padron, by her next friend and guardian, Rosa Hudecek; Patricia Ferrer, by her next friend and mother, Petra Ferrer; Benny Holmes, by his next friend and guardian, Priscilla Holmes; Zackowitz Morgan, by his next friend and guardian, Sharon Barker; The Arc of Texas, Inc.; and the Coalition of Texans with Disabilities, Inc.; and Plaintiff-Intervenor is the United States of America (collectively, the "Plaintiffs"); and

WHEREAS, In general terms, the litigation brought by the Plaintiffs concerns individuals with intellectual disabilities and related conditions residing in nursing facilities and at risk of admission to nursing facilities; and

WHEREAS, The parties to the lawsuit have entered into an Interim Agreement to resolve as many issues as possible related to the lawsuit for a limited time period while attempting to negotiate a Comprehensive Agreement to resolve the entire lawsuit; and

WHEREAS, The Interim Agreement will be effective when signed by all parties and will terminate on July 1, 2015; and

WHEREAS, Section 111.003(a)(2), Civil Practice and Remedies Code, requires the legislature to approve a settlement of a claim or action against this state if the settlement commits the state to a course of action that in reasonable probability will entail a continuing increased expenditure of state funds over subsequent state fiscal bienniums; and

WHEREAS, The Interim Agreement commits the State of Texas to a course of action that in reasonable probability will entail a continuing increased expenditure of state funds over subsequent state fiscal bienniums; and

WHEREAS, Any Comprehensive Agreement entered into by and between the parties will be submitted to the 84th Legislature of the State of Texas for approval; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the 83rd Legislature of the State of Texas, 1st Called Session, hereby approve the Interim Agreement.

DUNCAN

SCR 2 was read.

On motion of Senator Duncan, the resolution was considered immediately and was adopted by the following vote: Yeas 30, Nays 0.

Absent-excused: West.

RECESS

On motion of Senator Whitmire, the Senate at 1:39 p.m. recessed until 3:30 p.m. today.

AFTER RECESS

The Senate met at 5:31 p.m. and was called to order by the President.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE
SENATE BILL 5 ON SECOND READING

The President laid before the Senate CSSB 5 by Senator Hegar at this time on its second reading:

CSSB 5, Relating to the regulation of abortion procedures, providers, and facilities; providing penalties.

The bill was read second time.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Davis raised a point of order concerning Senate Rule 7.12 (Printing of Bills) as it pertains to CSSB 5.

POINT OF ORDER WITHDRAWN

Senator Davis withdrew the point of order.

Senator Hegar offered the following amendment to the bill:

Floor Amendment No. 1

Amend CSSB 5 by striking all below the enacting clause and substituting the following:

SECTION 1. Subchapter A, Chapter 171, Health and Safety Code, is amended by adding Section 171.0031 to read as follows:

Sec. 171.0031. REQUIREMENTS OF PHYSICIAN; OFFENSE. (a) A physician performing or inducing an abortion:

(1) must, on the date the abortion is performed, have active admitting privileges at a hospital that:

(A) is located not further than 30 miles from the location at which the abortion is performed or induced; and

(B) provides obstetrical or gynecological health care services; and

(2) shall provide the pregnant woman with:

(A) a telephone number by which the pregnant woman may reach the physician, or other health care personnel employed by the physician or by the facility at which the abortion was performed with access to the woman's relevant medical records, 24 hours a day to request assistance for any complications that arise from the performance of the abortion or ask health-related questions regarding the abortion; and

(B) the name and telephone number of the nearest hospital to the home of the pregnant woman at which an emergency arising from the abortion would be treated.

(b) A physician who violates Subsection (a) commits an offense. An offense under this section is a Class A misdemeanor punishable by a fine only, not to exceed $4,000.

SECTION 2. Chapter 171, Health and Safety Code, is amended by adding Subchapter C to read as follows:

SUBCHAPTER C. ABORTION-INDUCING DRUGS

Sec. 171.041. DEFINITIONS. In this subchapter:

(1) "Abortion-inducing drug" means a drug, a medicine, or any other substance, including a regimen of two or more drugs, medicines, or substances, prescribed, dispensed, or administered with the intent of terminating a clinically diagnosable pregnancy of a woman and with knowledge that the termination will, with reasonable likelihood, cause the death of the woman's unborn child. The term includes off-label use of drugs, medicines, or other substances known to have abortion-inducing properties that are prescribed, dispensed, or administered with the intent of causing an abortion, including the Mifeprex regimen. The term does not include a drug, medicine, or other substance that may be known to cause an abortion but is prescribed, dispensed, or administered for other medical reasons.

(2) "Final printed label" or "FPL" means the informational document approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration for an abortion-inducing drug that:

(A) outlines the protocol authorized by that agency and agreed to by the drug company applying for authorization of the drug by that agency; and

(B) delineates how a drug is to be used according to approval by that agency.

(3) "Gestational age" means the amount of time that has elapsed since the first day of a woman's last menstrual period.

(4) "Medical abortion" means the administration or use of an abortion-inducing drug to induce an abortion.

(5) "Mifeprex regimen," "RU-486 regimen," or "RU-486" means the abortion-inducing drug regimen approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration that consists of administering mifepristone and misoprostol.

(6) "Physician" means an individual who is licensed to practice medicine in this state, including a medical doctor and a doctor of osteopathic medicine.

(7) "Pregnant" means the female reproductive condition of having an unborn child in a woman's uterus.

(8) "Unborn child" means an offspring of human beings from conception until birth.

Sec. 171.0411. APPLICABILITY TO MEDICAL ABORTION. This subchapter does not apply to an abortion with the intent to:

(1) save the life or preserve the health of an unborn child;

(2) remove a dead, unborn child whose death was caused by spontaneous abortion;

(3) remove an ectopic pregnancy; or

(4) treat a maternal disease or illness for which a prescribed drug, medicine, or other substance is indicated.

Sec. 171.042. ENFORCEMENT BY TEXAS MEDICAL BOARD.

Notwithstanding Section 171.005, the Texas Medical Board shall enforce this subchapter.

Sec. 171.043. DISTRIBUTION OF ABORTION-INDUCING DRUG. (a) A person may not knowingly give, sell, dispense, administer, provide, or prescribe an abortion-inducing drug to a pregnant woman for the purpose of inducing an abortion in the pregnant woman or enabling another person to induce an abortion in the pregnant woman unless:

(1) the person who gives, sells, dispenses, administers, provides, or prescribes the abortion-inducing drug is a physician;

(2) the physician administering the abortion-inducing drug administers the drug to the woman while both are present at an abortion facility licensed under Chapter 245; and

(3) the provision, prescription, or administration of the abortion-inducing drug satisfies the protocol tested and authorized by the United States Food and Drug Administration as outlined in the final printed label of the abortion-inducing drug.

(b) Before the physician gives, sells, dispenses, administers, provides, or prescribes an abortion-inducing drug, the physician must examine the pregnant woman and document, in the woman's medical record, the gestational age and intrauterine location of the pregnancy.

(c) The physician who gives, sells, dispenses, administers, provides, or prescribes an abortion-inducing drug shall provide the pregnant woman with:

(1) a copy of the final printed label of that abortion-inducing drug; and

(2) a telephone number by which the pregnant woman may reach the physician, or other health care personnel employed by the physician or by the facility at which the abortion was performed with access to the woman's relevant medical records, 24 hours a day to request assistance for any complications that arise from the administration or use of the drug or ask health-related questions regarding the administration or use of the drug.

(d) The physician who gives, sells, dispenses, administers, provides, or prescribes the abortion-inducing drug, or the physician's agent, must schedule a follow-up visit for the woman to occur not more than 14 days after the administration or use of the drug. At the follow-up visit, the physician must:

(1) confirm that the pregnancy is completely terminated; and

(2) assess the degree of bleeding.

(e) The physician who gives, sells, dispenses, administers, provides, or prescribes the abortion-inducing drug, or the physician's agent, shall make a reasonable effort to ensure that the woman returns for the scheduled follow-up visit under Subsection (d). The physician or the physician's agent shall document a brief description of any effort made to comply with this subsection, including the date, time, and name of the person making the effort, in the woman's medical record.

(f) If a physician gives, sells, dispenses, administers, provides, or prescribes an abortion-inducing drug to a pregnant woman for the purpose of inducing an abortion as authorized by this section and the physician knows that the woman experiences a serious adverse event, as defined by the MedWatch Reporting System, during or after the administration or use of the drug, the physician shall report the event to the United States Food and Drug Administration through the MedWatch Reporting System not later than the third day after the date the physician learns that the event occurred.

Sec. 171.044. ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTY. (a) The Texas Medical Board may take disciplinary action under Chapter 164, Occupations Code, or assess an administrative penalty under Subchapter A, Chapter 165, Occupations Code, against a person who violates Section 171.043.

(b) A penalty may not be assessed under this section against a pregnant woman who receives a medical abortion.

SECTION 3. Subsection (a), Section 245.010, Health and Safety Code, is amended to read as follows:

(a) The rules must contain minimum standards to protect the health and safety of a patient of an abortion facility and must contain provisions requiring compliance with the requirements of Subchapter B, Chapter 171. On and after September 1, 2014, the minimum standards for an abortion facility must be equivalent to the minimum standards adopted under Section 243.010 for ambulatory surgical centers.

SECTION 4. Effective September 1, 2014, Subsection (c), Section 245.010, Health and Safety Code, is repealed.

SECTION 5. This Act may not be construed to repeal, by implication or otherwise, Subdivision (18), Subsection (a), Section 164.052, Occupations Code, Section 170.002, Health and Safety Code, or any other provision of Texas law regulating or restricting abortion not specifically addressed by this Act. An abortion that complies with this Act but violates any other law is unlawful. An abortion that complies with another state law but violates this Act is unlawful as provided in this Act.

SECTION 6. (a) If some or all of the provisions of this Act are ever temporarily or permanently restrained or enjoined by judicial order, all other provisions of Texas law regulating or restricting abortion shall be enforced as though the restrained or enjoined provisions had not been adopted; provided, however, that whenever the temporary or permanent restraining order or injunction is stayed or dissolved, or otherwise ceases to have effect, the provisions shall have full force and effect.

(b) Mindful of Leavitt v. Jane L., 518 U.S. 137 (1996), in which in the context of determining the severability of a state statute regulating abortion the United States Supreme Court held that an explicit statement of legislative intent is controlling, it is the intent of the legislature that every provision, section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or word in this Act, and every application of the provisions in this Act, are severable from each other. If any application of any provision in this Act to any person, group of persons, or circumstances is found by a court to be invalid, the remaining applications of that provision to all other persons and circumstances shall be severed and may not be affected. All constitutionally valid applications of this Act shall be severed from any applications that a court finds to be invalid, leaving the valid applications in force, because it is the legislature's intent and priority that the valid applications be allowed to stand alone. Even if a reviewing court finds a provision of this Act to impose an undue burden in a large or substantial fraction of relevant cases, the applications that do not present an undue burden shall be severed from the remaining provisions and shall remain in force, and shall be treated as if the legislature had enacted a statute limited to the persons, group of persons, or circumstances for which the statute's application does not present an undue burden. The legislature further declares that it would have passed this Act, and each provision, section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or word, and all constitutional applications of this Act, irrespective of the fact that any provision, section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or word, or applications of this Act, were to be declared unconstitutional or to represent an undue burden.

(c) If any provision of this Act is found by any court to be unconstitutionally vague, then the applications of that provision that do not present constitutional vagueness problems shall be severed and remain in force.

SECTION 7. (a) The executive commissioner of the Health and Human Services Commission shall adopt the standards required by Section 245.010, Health and Safety Code, as amended by this Act, not later than January 1, 2014.

(b) A facility licensed under Chapter 245, Health and Safety Code, is not required to comply with the standards adopted under Section 245.010, Health and Safety Code, as amended by this Act, before September 1, 2014.

SECTION 8. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this Act takes effect on the 91st day after the last day of the legislative session.

The amendment to CSSB 5 was read.

Senator Van de Putte offered the following amendment to Floor Amendment No. 1:

Floor Amendment No. 2

Amend Floor Amendment No. 1 to CSSB 5 (Senate Committee Printing) in SECTION 2 of the bill as follows:

(1) In added Section 171.063(a)(1), Health and Safety Code (page 3, line 29), between "physician" and the underlined semicolon, insert the following:
who:

(A) has the ability to:

(i) assess the duration of the pregnancy accurately; and

(ii) diagnose an ectopic pregnancy;

(B) is capable of providing surgical intervention in the case of an incomplete abortion or severe bleeding or has made arrangements for another qualified physician to provide the care described by this paragraph and has documented those arrangements in the woman's medical record;

(C) is able to assure patient access to a medical facility equipped to provide a blood transfusion and resuscitation; and

(D) has read and understood the prescribing information for the use of the abortion-inducing drug as provided by the drug manufacturer in accordance with the requirements of the United States Food and Drug Administration

(2) Strike added Section 171.063(c), Health and Safety Code (page 4, lines 12-24), and substitute the following:

(c) The physician who gives, sells, dispenses, administers, provides, or prescribes an abortion-inducing drug shall:

- (1) fully explain the procedure to the pregnant woman, including:
- (A) explaining whether the physician is using the abortion-inducing drug in accordance with the United States Food and Drug Administration regimen described on the final printed label or an evidence-based regimen; and
- (B) if using an evidence-based regimen:
- (i) specifying that the regimen used differs from the United States Food and Drug Administration regimen described on the final printed label; and
- (ii) providing detailed information on the evidence-based regimen being used;
- (2) provide the pregnant woman with:
- (A) the final printed label of the abortion-inducing drug;
- (B) a copy of the drug manufacturer's medication guide for the abortion-inducing drug;
- (C) a copy of the drug manufacturer's patient agreement; and
- (D) a telephone number by which the woman may reach the physician, or other health care personnel employed by the physician or by the facility at which the abortion was performed with access to the woman's relevant medical records, 24 hours a day to request assistance for any complications that arise from the administration or use of the abortion-inducing drug or ask health-related questions regarding the administration or use of the abortion-inducing drug;
- (3) obtain the patient's signature for and sign the patient agreement described by Subdivision (2)(C); and
- (4) record the drug manufacturer's package serial number in the woman's medical record.

The amendment to Floor Amendment No. 1 to CSSB 5 was read.

On motion of Senator Hegar, Floor Amendment No. 2 was tabled by the following vote: Yeas 19, Nays 11.

SECTION _____. HUMAN SEXUALITY INSTRUCTION. Section 28.004, Education Code, is amended by amending Subsections (i) and adding Subsection (n) to read as follows:

(i) Before each school year, a school district shall provide written notice to a parent of each student enrolled in the district of the board of trustees' decision regarding whether the district will provide human sexuality instruction to district students. If instruction will be provided, the notice must include:

(1) a summary of the basic content of the district's human sexuality instruction to be provided to the student, including a statement informing the parent that the instruction is required by ~~[of the instructional requirements under]~~ state law to:

(A) present abstinence from sexual activity as the preferred choice of behavior in relationship to all sexual activity for unmarried persons of school age; and

(B) devote more attention to abstinence from sexual activity than to any other behavior;

(2) a statement of whether the instruction is considered by the district to be abstinence-only instruction or comprehensive instruction, including an explanation of the difference between those types of instruction and a specific statement regarding whether the student will receive information on contraception and condom use;

(3) [~~2~~] a statement of the parent's right to:

(A) review curriculum materials as provided by Subsection (j); and

(B) remove the student from any part of the district's human sexuality instruction without subjecting the student to any disciplinary action, academic penalty, or other sanction imposed by the district or the student's school; and

(4) [~~3~~] information describing the opportunities for parental involvement in the development of the curriculum to be used in human sexuality instruction, including information regarding the local school health advisory council established under Subsection (a).

(n) In this section:

(1) "Abstinence-only instruction" means instruction that does not include information about preventing pregnancy, sexually transmitted diseases, infection with human immunodeficiency virus, or acquired immune deficiency syndrome through any means other than total abstinence from sexual activity.

(2) "Evidence-based" means information verified or supported by research that is:

(A) conducted in compliance with accepted scientific methods;

(B) published in peer-reviewed journals, if appropriate;

(C) recognized as medically accurate, objective, and complete by mainstream professional organizations and agencies with expertise in the relevant field, including the federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the United States Department of Health and Human Services; and

Amend Floor Amendment No. 1 to CSSB 5 (senate committee printing) by adding the following appropriately numbered SECTION and renumbering the existing SECTIONS accordingly:

SECTION ____ . HUMAN SEXUALITY INSTRUCTION. Section 28.004, Education Code, is amended by amending Subsections (e) and adding Subsection (n) to read as follows:

(e) Any course materials and instruction relating to human sexuality, sexually transmitted diseases, or human immunodeficiency virus or acquired immune deficiency syndrome shall be selected by the board of trustees with the advice of the local school health advisory council and must:

(1) be evidence-based;

(2) present abstinence from sexual activity as the preferred choice of behavior in relationship to all sexual activity for unmarried persons of school age;

(3) ~~[(2)]~~ devote more attention to abstinence from sexual activity than to any other behavior;

(4) ~~[(3)]~~ emphasize that abstinence from sexual activity, if used consistently and correctly, is the only method that is 100 percent effective in preventing pregnancy, sexually transmitted diseases, infection with human immunodeficiency virus, ~~and~~ acquired immune deficiency syndrome, and the emotional trauma associated with adolescent sexual activity;

(5) ~~[(4)]~~ direct adolescents to a standard of behavior in which abstinence from sexual activity before marriage is the most effective way to prevent pregnancy, sexually transmitted diseases, ~~and~~ infection with human immunodeficiency virus, ~~and~~ acquired immune deficiency syndrome; and

(6) ~~[(5)]~~ teach contraception and condom use in terms of human use reality rates instead of theoretical laboratory rates, if instruction on contraception and condoms is included in curriculum content.

(n) In this section:

(1) "Abstinence-only instruction" means instruction that does not include information about preventing pregnancy, sexually transmitted diseases, infection with human immunodeficiency virus, or acquired immune deficiency syndrome through any means other than total abstinence from sexual activity.

(2) "Evidence-based" means information verified or supported by research that is:

FOURTH DAY

(Tuesday, June 18, 2013)

The Senate met at 11:09 p.m. pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by the President.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Birdwell, Campbell, Carona, Davis, Deuell, Duncan, Ellis, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Garcia, Hancock, Hegar, Hinojosa, Huffman, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Rodríguez, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Uresti, Van de Putte, Watson, Whitmire, Williams, Zaffirini.

Absent-excused: West.

The President announced that a quorum of the Senate was present.

Senator Craig Estes offered the invocation as follows:

I pray the words of scripture from Jesus of Nazareth, some of the most perfect words ever said on Earth. Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the Earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Amen.

Senator Whitmire moved that the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of the previous day be dispensed with and the Journal be approved as printed.

The motion prevailed without objection.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

On motion of Senator Whitmire, Senator West was granted leave of absence for today on account of important business.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS POSTPONED

The President announced that the introduction of bills and resolutions on first reading would be postponed until the end of today's session.

There was no objection.

CONCLUSION OF MORNING CALL

The President at 11:11 p.m. announced the conclusion of morning call.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE
SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 2 ON THIRD READING

The President laid before the Senate CSSJR 2 by Senator Nichols at this time on its third reading and final passage:

CSSJR 2, Proposing a constitutional amendment to provide for the transfer of certain general revenue to the economic stabilization fund, to provide for the transfer of certain general revenue to the state highway fund and the dedication of that revenue, and to authorize the payment of the principal and interest on certain highway improvement bonds from other money deposited to the state highway fund.

The resolution was read third time.

Senator Nichols moved to temporarily postpone further consideration of the resolution.

The motion prevailed by the following vote: Yeas 20, Nays 10.

Yeas: Birdwell, Campbell, Carona, Deuell, Duncan, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Hancock, Hegar, Huffman, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Williams.

Nays: Davis, Ellis, Garcia, Hinojosa, Rodríguez, Uresti, Van de Putte, Watson, Whitmire, Zaffirini.

Absent-excused: West.

Question—Shall CSSJR 2 be finally passed?

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE
SENATE BILL 5 ON THIRD READING

The President laid before the Senate CSSB 5 by Senator Hegar at this time on its third reading and final passage:

CSSB 5, Relating to the regulation of abortion procedures, providers, and facilities; providing penalties.

The bill was read third time and was passed by the following vote: Yeas 20, Nays 10.

Yeas: Birdwell, Campbell, Carona, Deuell, Duncan, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Hancock, Hegar, Huffman, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Williams.

Nays: Davis, Ellis, Garcia, Hinojosa, Rodríguez, Uresti, Van de Putte, Watson, Whitmire, Zaffirini.

Absent-excused: West.

STATEMENT REGARDING SENATE BILL 5

Senator Zaffirini submitted the following statement regarding SB 5:

I am, and always have been, strongly pro-life. I also am very strongly pro-women's health. Today I voted against SB 5 because it does nothing to make abortions less necessary and because it has the potential to limit access to legal health care services for thousands of Texas women. SB 5 is neither pro-life nor pro-women's health, and I could not in good conscience support it.

Considering that the medical specialists associated most closely with women's reproductive health stand opposed to the legislation, and considering the high level of regulation and safety related to abortion services in Texas today, advocates for SB 5 failed to make the case that this bill is necessary.

I also am concerned about the possible negative consequences of this legislation. The bill's unnecessary regulations could force medical clinics to close, thereby limiting access to critical services. If clinics close in regions without many alternatives, women are likely to delay seeking care, and those in desperate situations may turn to desperate, unsafe measures. Other unnecessary regulations in the bill also intrude upon the doctor-patient relationship by requiring a particular regimen and limiting a doctor's ability to prescribe the best option for a specific patient. The Legislature should not substitute its judgment for that of qualified medical professionals.

The Texas Legislature should focus instead on making women's health care and pre-natal care more accessible and affordable. I will continue to vote pro-life, and I also will support issues including women's preventative health care, affordable contraception and family planning, health care for economically disadvantaged women, and pre-natal and pregnancy-related health care.

ZAFFIRINI

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE*SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 2 ON THIRD READING

The President laid before the Senate CSSJR 2 by Senator Nichols on its third reading. The resolution had been read third time and further consideration temporarily postponed:

CSSJR 2, Proposing a constitutional amendment to provide for the transfer of certain general revenue to the economic stabilization fund, to provide for the transfer of certain general revenue to the state highway fund and the dedication of that revenue, and to authorize the payment of the principal and interest on certain highway improvement bonds from other money deposited to the state highway fund.

Question—Shall CSSJR 2 be finally passed?

CSSJR 2 was finally passed by the following vote: Yeas 30, Nays 0.

Absent-excused: West.

REASON FOR VOTE

Senator Birdwell submitted the following reason for vote on SJR 2:

Today I voted in support of SJR 2, which proposes to Texas voters a constitutional amendment dedicating half of all oil- and gas-severance taxes currently transferred to the Economic Stabilization Fund ("rainy day fund") to the state highway fund (Fund 6).

This transparent dedication of revenue allows for the specific and limited purpose of construction, maintenance and right-of-way acquisition for public roadways. Equally important, SJR 2 also allows the state highway fund to repay the principal and interest on debt from Prop 12 transportation funding.

While I had initial concerns about the utilization of the Economic Stabilization Fund for the creation of a constitutionally-protected revenue stream, I was graciously afforded the opportunity to work side by side with my colleague and the author of SJR 2, Senator Robert Nichols, to ensure a $6 billion minimum balance was implemented for the protection of the Economic Stabilization Fund.

I still believe strongly that transportation funding must be prioritized within general revenue budgeting, and I will work to see that this happens in the future. Still, I am pleased that this innovative legislation will promptly serve to construct and maintain the crucial highway infrastructure of our rapidly growing state.

BIRDWELL

ARTICLE III

SECTION 1. In this Act, "tract," "block group," and "block" mean the geographic areas identified by those terms on the 2010 Census TIGER/Line Shapefiles, prepared by the federal Bureau of the Census for the Twenty-third Decennial Census of the United States, enumerated as of April 1, 2010.

SECTION 2. It is the intention of the Texas Legislature that, if any county, tract, block group, block, or other geographic area has erroneously been left out of this Act, a court reviewing this Act should include that area in the appropriate district in accordance with the intent of the legislature, using any available evidence of that intent, including evidence such as that used by the Supreme Court of Texas in Smith v. Patterson, 111 Tex. 535, 242 S.W. 749 (1922).

SECTION 3. Chapter 1271 (H.B. 150), Acts of the 82nd Legislature, Regular Session, 2011 (Article 195a-12, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is repealed.

SECTION 4. The districts set out in this Act apply to the election of the members of the Texas House of Representatives beginning with the primary and general elections in 2014 for members of the 84th Legislature. This Act does not affect the membership or districts of the House of Representatives of the 83rd Texas Legislature.

SECTION 5. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this Act takes effect on the 91st day after the last day of the legislative session.

RESOLUTION SIGNED

The President announced the signing of the following enrolled resolution in the presence of the Senate: HCR 7.

SENATE BILL 5 WITH HOUSE AMENDMENT

Senator Hegar called SB 5 from the President's table for consideration of the House amendment to the bill.

The President laid the bill and the House amendment before the Senate.

Amendment

Amend SB 5 by substituting in lieu thereof the following:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT

relating to the regulation of abortion procedures, providers, and facilities; providing penalties.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. (a) The findings indicate that:

(1) substantial medical evidence recognizes that an unborn child is capable of experiencing pain by not later than 20 weeks after fertilization;

(2) the state has a compelling state interest in protecting the lives of unborn children from the stage at which substantial medical evidence indicates that these children are capable of feeling pain;

(3) the compelling state interest in protecting the lives of unborn children from the stage at which substantial medical evidence indicates that an unborn child is capable of feeling pain is intended to be separate from and independent of the compelling state interest in protecting the lives of unborn children from the stage of viability, and neither state interest is intended to replace the other; and

(4) restricting elective abortions at or later than 20 weeks post-fertilization, as provided by this Act, does not impose an undue burden or a substantial obstacle on a woman's ability to have an abortion because:

(A) the woman has adequate time to decide whether to have an abortion in the first 20 weeks after fertilization; and

(B) this Act does not apply to abortions that are necessary to avert the death or substantial and irreversible physical impairment of a major bodily function of the pregnant woman.

(b) The legislature intends that every application of this statute to every individual woman shall be severable from each other. In the unexpected event that the application of this statute is found to impose an impermissible undue burden on any pregnant woman or group of pregnant women, the application of the statute to those women shall be severed from the remaining applications of the statute that do not impose an undue burden, and those remaining applications shall remain in force and unaffected, consistent with Section 10 of this Act.

SECTION 2. Subchapter A, Chapter 171, Health and Safety Code, is amended by adding Section 171.0031 to read as follows:

Sec. 171.0031. REQUIREMENTS OF PHYSICIAN; OFFENSE. (a) A physician performing or inducing an abortion:

(1) must, on the date the abortion is performed, have active admitting privileges at a hospital that:

(A) is located not further than 30 miles from the location at which the abortion is performed or induced; and

(B) provides obstetrical or gynecological health care services; and

(2) shall provide the pregnant woman with:

(A) a telephone number by which the pregnant woman may reach the physician, or other health care personnel employed by the physician or by the facility at which the abortion was performed with access to the woman's relevant medical records, 24 hours a day to request assistance for any complications that arise from the performance of the abortion or ask health-related questions regarding the abortion; and

(B) the name and telephone number of the nearest hospital to the home of the pregnant woman at which an emergency arising from the abortion would be treated.

(b) A physician who violates Subsection (a) commits an offense. An offense under this section is a Class A misdemeanor punishable by a fine only, not to exceed $4,000.

SECTION 3. Chapter 171, Health and Safety Code, is amended by adding Subchapters C and D to read as follows:

SUBCHAPTER C. ABORTION PROHIBITED AT OR AFTER 20 WEEKS

POST-FERTILIZATION

Sec. 171.041. SHORT TITLE. This subchapter may be cited as the Preborn Pain Act.

Sec. 171.042. DEFINITIONS. In this subchapter:

(1) "Post-fertilization age" means the age of the unborn child as calculated from the fusion of a human spermatozoon with a human ovum.

(2) "Severe fetal abnormality" has the meaning assigned by Section 285.202.

Sec. 171.043. DETERMINATION OF POST-FERTILIZATION AGE REQUIRED. Except as otherwise provided by Section 171.046, a physician may not perform or induce or attempt to perform or induce an abortion without, prior to the procedure:

(1) making a determination of the probable post-fertilization age of the unborn child; or

(2) possessing and relying on a determination of the probable post-fertilization age of the unborn child made by another physician.

Sec. 171.044. ABORTION OF UNBORN CHILD OF 20 OR MORE WEEKS POST-FERTILIZATION AGE PROHIBITED. Except as otherwise provided by Section 171.046, a person may not perform or induce or attempt to perform or induce an abortion on a woman if it has been determined, by the physician performing, inducing, or attempting to perform or induce the abortion or by another physician on whose determination that physician relies, that the probable post-fertilization age of the unborn child is 20 or more weeks.

Sec. 171.045. METHOD OF ABORTION. (a) This section applies only to an abortion authorized under Section 171.046(a)(1) or (2) in which:

(1) the probable post-fertilization age of the unborn child is 20 or more weeks; or

(2) the probable post-fertilization age of the unborn child has not been determined but could reasonably be 20 or more weeks.

(b) Except as otherwise provided by Section 171.046(a)(3), a physician performing an abortion under Subsection (a) shall terminate the pregnancy in the manner that, in the physician's reasonable medical judgment, provides the best opportunity for the unborn child to survive.

Sec. 171.046. EXCEPTIONS. (a) The prohibitions and requirements under Sections 171.043, 171.044, and 171.045(b) do not apply to an abortion performed if there exists a condition that, in the physician's reasonable medical judgment, so complicates the medical condition of the woman that, to avert the woman's death or a serious risk of substantial and irreversible physical impairment of a major bodily function, other than a psychological condition, it necessitates, as applicable:

(1) the immediate abortion of her pregnancy without the delay necessary to determine the probable post-fertilization age of the unborn child;

(2) the abortion of her pregnancy even though the post-fertilization age of the unborn child is 20 or more weeks; or

(3) the use of a method of abortion other than a method described by Section 171.045(b).

(b) A physician may not take an action authorized under Subsection (a) if the risk of death or a substantial and irreversible physical impairment of a major bodily function arises from a claim or diagnosis that the woman will engage in conduct that may result in her death or in substantial and irreversible physical impairment of a major bodily function.

(c) The prohibitions and requirements under Sections 171.043, 171.044, and 171.045(b) do not apply to an abortion performed on an unborn child who has a severe fetal abnormality.

Sec. 171.047. PROTECTION OF PRIVACY IN COURT PROCEEDINGS.

(a) Except as otherwise provided by this section, in a civil or criminal proceeding or action involving an act prohibited under this subchapter, the identity of the woman on whom an abortion has been performed or induced or attempted to be performed or induced is not subject to public disclosure if the woman does not give consent to disclosure.

(b) Unless the court makes a ruling under Subsection (c) to allow disclosure of the woman's identity, the court shall issue orders to the parties, witnesses, and counsel and shall direct the sealing of the record and exclusion of individuals from courtrooms or hearing rooms to the extent necessary to protect the woman's identity from public disclosure.

(c) A court may order the disclosure of information that is confidential under this section if:

(1) a motion is filed with the court requesting release of the information and a hearing on that request;

(2) notice of the hearing is served on each interested party; and

(3) the court determines after the hearing and an in camera review that disclosure is essential to the administration of justice and there is no reasonable alternative to disclosure.

Sec. 171.048. CONSTRUCTION OF SUBCHAPTER. (a) This subchapter shall be construed, as a matter of state law, to be enforceable up to but no further than the maximum possible extent consistent with federal constitutional requirements, even if that construction is not readily apparent, as such constructions are authorized only to the extent necessary to save the subchapter from judicial invalidation. Judicial reformation of statutory language is explicitly authorized only to the extent necessary to save the statutory provision from invalidity.

(b) If any court determines that a provision of this subchapter is unconstitutionally vague, the court shall interpret the provision, as a matter of state law, to avoid the vagueness problem and shall enforce the provision to the maximum possible extent. If a federal court finds any provision of this subchapter or its application to any person, group of persons, or circumstances to be unconstitutionally vague and declines to impose the saving construction described by this subsection, the Supreme Court of Texas shall provide an authoritative construction of the objectionable statutory provisions that avoids the constitutional problems while enforcing the statute's restrictions to the maximum possible extent, and shall agree to answer any question certified from a federal appellate court regarding the statute.

(c) A state executive or administrative official may not decline to enforce this subchapter, or adopt a construction of this subchapter in a way that narrows its applicability, based on the official's own beliefs about what the state or federal constitution requires, unless the official is enjoined by a state or federal court from enforcing this subchapter.

(d) This subchapter may not be construed to authorize the prosecution of or a cause of action to be brought against a woman on whom an abortion is performed or induced or attempted to be performed or induced in violation of this subchapter.

SUBCHAPTER D. ABORTION-INDUCING DRUGS

Sec. 171.061. DEFINITIONS. In this subchapter:

(1) "Abortion" means the act of using, administering, prescribing, or otherwise providing an instrument, a drug, a medicine, or any other substance, device, or means with the intent to terminate a clinically diagnosable pregnancy of a woman and with knowledge that the termination by those means will, with reasonable likelihood, cause the death of the woman's unborn child. An act is not an abortion if the act is done with the intent to:

(A) save the life or preserve the health of an unborn child;

(B) remove a dead, unborn child whose death was caused by spontaneous abortion;

(C) remove an ectopic pregnancy; or

(D) treat a maternal disease or illness for which a prescribed drug, medicine, or other substance is indicated.

(2) "Abortion-inducing drug" means a drug, a medicine, or any other substance, including a regimen of two or more drugs, medicines, or substances, prescribed, dispensed, or administered with the intent of terminating a clinically diagnosable pregnancy of a woman and with knowledge that the termination will, with reasonable likelihood, cause the death of the woman's unborn child. The term includes off-label use of drugs, medicines, or other substances known to have abortion-inducing properties that are prescribed, dispensed, or administered with the intent of causing an abortion, including the Mifeprex regimen. The term does not include a drug, medicine, or other substance that may be known to cause an abortion but is prescribed, dispensed, or administered for other medical reasons.

(3) "Final printed label" or "FPL" means the informational document approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration for an abortion-inducing drug that:

(A) outlines the protocol authorized by that agency and agreed to by the drug company applying for authorization of the drug by that agency; and

(B) delineates how a drug is to be used according to approval by that agency.

(4) "Gestational age" means the amount of time that has elapsed since the first day of a woman's last menstrual period.

(5) "Medical abortion" means the administration or use of an abortion-inducing drug to induce an abortion.

(6) "Mifeprex regimen," "RU-486 regimen," or "RU-486" means the abortion-inducing drug regimen approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration that consists of administering mifepristone and misoprostol.

(7) "Physician" means an individual who is licensed to practice medicine in this state, including a medical doctor and a doctor of osteopathic medicine.

(8) "Pregnant" means the female reproductive condition of having an unborn child in a woman's uterus.

(9) "Unborn child" means an offspring of human beings from conception until birth.

Sec. 171.062. ENFORCEMENT BY TEXAS MEDICAL BOARD. Notwithstanding Section 171.005, the Texas Medical Board shall enforce this subchapter.

Sec. 171.063. DISTRIBUTION OF ABORTION-INDUCING DRUG. (a) A person may not knowingly give, sell, dispense, administer, provide, or prescribe an abortion-inducing drug to a pregnant woman for the purpose of inducing an abortion in the pregnant woman or enabling another person to induce an abortion in the pregnant woman unless:

(1) the person who gives, sells, dispenses, administers, provides, or prescribes the abortion-inducing drug is a physician; and

(2) except as otherwise provided by Subsection (a-1), the provision, prescription, or administration of the abortion-inducing drug satisfies the protocol tested and authorized by the United States Food and Drug Administration as outlined in the final printed label of the abortion-inducing drug.

(a-1) A person may provide, prescribe, or administer the abortion-inducing drug in the dosage amount prescribed by the clinical management guidelines defined by the American Congress of Obstetricians and Gynecologists Practice Bulletin as those guidelines existed on January 1, 2013.

(b) Before the physician gives, sells, dispenses, administers, provides, or prescribes an abortion-inducing drug, the physician must examine the pregnant woman and document, in the woman's medical record, the gestational age and intrauterine location of the pregnancy.

(c) The physician who gives, sells, dispenses, administers, provides, or prescribes an abortion-inducing drug shall provide the pregnant woman with:

(1) a copy of the final printed label of that abortion-inducing drug; and

(2) a telephone number by which the pregnant woman may reach the physician, or other health care personnel employed by the physician or by the facility at which the abortion was performed with access to the woman's relevant medical records, 24 hours a day to request assistance for any complications that arise from the administration or use of the drug or ask health-related questions regarding the administration or use of the drug.

(d) The physician who gives, sells, dispenses, administers, provides, or prescribes the abortion-inducing drug, or the physician's agent, must schedule a follow-up visit for the woman to occur not more than 14 days after the administration or use of the drug. At the follow-up visit, the physician must:

(1) confirm that the pregnancy is completely terminated; and

(2) assess the degree of bleeding.

(e) The physician who gives, sells, dispenses, administers, provides, or prescribes the abortion-inducing drug, or the physician's agent, shall make a reasonable effort to ensure that the woman returns for the scheduled follow-up visit under Subsection (d). The physician or the physician's agent shall document a brief description of any effort made to comply with this subsection, including the date, time, and name of the person making the effort, in the woman's medical record.

(f) If a physician gives, sells, dispenses, administers, provides, or prescribes an abortion-inducing drug to a pregnant woman for the purpose of inducing an abortion as authorized by this section and the physician knows that the woman experiences a serious adverse event, as defined by the MedWatch Reporting System, during or after the administration or use of the drug, the physician shall report the event to the United States Food and Drug Administration through the MedWatch Reporting System not later than the third day after the date the physician learns that the event occurred.

Sec. 171.064. ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTY. (a) The Texas Medical Board may take disciplinary action under Chapter 164, Occupations Code, or assess an administrative penalty under Subchapter A, Chapter 165, Occupations Code, against a person who violates Section 171.063.

(b) A penalty may not be assessed under this section against a pregnant woman who receives a medical abortion.

SECTION 4. Section 245.010(a), Health and Safety Code, is amended to read as follows:

(a) The rules must contain minimum standards to protect the health and safety of a patient of an abortion facility and must contain provisions requiring compliance with the requirements of Subchapter B, Chapter 171. On and after September 1, 2014, the minimum standards for an abortion facility must be equivalent to the minimum standards adopted under Section 243.010 for ambulatory surgical centers.

SECTION 5. Section 245.011(c), Health and Safety Code, is amended to read as follows:

(c) The report must include:

- (1) whether the abortion facility at which the abortion is performed is licensed under this chapter;
- (2) the patient's year of birth, race, marital status, and state and county of residence;
- (3) the type of abortion procedure;
- (4) the date the abortion was performed;
- (5) whether the patient survived the abortion, and if the patient did not survive, the cause of death;
- (6) the probable post-fertilization age of the unborn child ~~[period of gestation]~~ based on the best medical judgment of the attending physician at the time of the procedure;
- (7) the date, if known, of the patient's last menstrual cycle;
- (8) the number of previous live births of the patient; and
- (9) the number of previous induced abortions of the patient.

SECTION 6. Section 164.052(a), Occupations Code, is amended to read as follows:

(a) A physician or an applicant for a license to practice medicine commits a prohibited practice if that person:

- (1) submits to the board a false or misleading statement, document, or certificate in an application for a license;
- (2) presents to the board a license, certificate, or diploma that was illegally or fraudulently obtained;
- (3) commits fraud or deception in taking or passing an examination;
- (4) uses alcohol or drugs in an intemperate manner that, in the board's opinion, could endanger a patient's life;
- (5) commits unprofessional or dishonorable conduct that is likely to deceive or defraud the public, as provided by Section 164.053, or injure the public;
- (6) uses an advertising statement that is false, misleading, or deceptive;
- (7) advertises professional superiority or the performance of professional service in a superior manner if that advertising is not readily subject to verification;
- (8) purchases, sells, barter, or uses, or offers to purchase, sell, barter, or use, a medical degree, license, certificate, or diploma, or a transcript of a license, certificate, or diploma in or incident to an application to the board for a license to practice medicine;
- (9) alters, with fraudulent intent, a medical license, certificate, or diploma, or a transcript of a medical license, certificate, or diploma;
- (10) uses a medical license, certificate, or diploma, or a transcript of a medical license, certificate, or diploma that has been:

- (A) fraudulently purchased or issued;
  - (B) counterfeited; or
  - (C) materially altered;
- (11) impersonates or acts as proxy for another person in an examination required by this subtitle for a medical license;
- (12) engages in conduct that subverts or attempts to subvert an examination process required by this subtitle for a medical license;
- (13) impersonates a physician or permits another to use the person's license or certificate to practice medicine in this state;
- (14) directly or indirectly employs a person whose license to practice medicine has been suspended, canceled, or revoked;
- (15) associates in the practice of medicine with a person:
- (A) whose license to practice medicine has been suspended, canceled, or revoked; or
  - (B) who has been convicted of the unlawful practice of medicine in this state or elsewhere;
- (16) performs or procures a criminal abortion, aids or abets in the procuring of a criminal abortion, attempts to perform or procure a criminal abortion, or attempts to aid or abet the performance or procurement of a criminal abortion;
- (17) directly or indirectly aids or abets the practice of medicine by a person, partnership, association, or corporation that is not licensed to practice medicine by the board;
- (18) performs an abortion on a woman who is pregnant with a viable unborn child during the third trimester of the pregnancy unless:
- (A) the abortion is necessary to prevent the death of the woman;
  - (B) the viable unborn child has a severe, irreversible brain impairment;
- or
- (C) the woman is diagnosed with a significant likelihood of suffering imminent severe, irreversible brain damage or imminent severe, irreversible paralysis; [ø#]
- (19) performs an abortion on an unemancipated minor without the written consent of the child's parent, managing conservator, or legal guardian or without a court order, as provided by Section 33.003 or 33.004, Family Code, authorizing the minor to consent to the abortion, unless the physician concludes that on the basis of the physician's good faith clinical judgment, a condition exists that complicates the medical condition of the pregnant minor and necessitates the immediate abortion of her pregnancy to avert her death or to avoid a serious risk of substantial impairment of a major bodily function and that there is insufficient time to obtain the consent of the child's parent, managing conservator, or legal guardian; or
- (20) performs or induces or attempts to perform or induce an abortion in violation of Subchapter C, Chapter 171, Health and Safety Code.

SECTION 7. Section 164.055(b), Occupations Code, is amended to read as follows:

(b) The sanctions provided by Subsection (a) are in addition to any other grounds for refusal to admit persons to examination under this subtitle or to issue a license or renew a license to practice medicine under this subtitle. The criminal penalties provided by Section 165.152 do not apply to a violation of Section 170.002 or Subchapter C, Chapter 171, Health and Safety Code.

SECTION 8. Effective September 1, 2014, Section 245.010(c), Health and Safety Code, is repealed.

SECTION 9. This Act may not be construed to repeal, by implication or otherwise, Section 164.052(a)(18), Occupations Code, Section 170.002, Health and Safety Code, or any other provision of Texas law regulating or restricting abortion not specifically addressed by this Act. An abortion that complies with this Act but violates any other law is unlawful. An abortion that complies with another state law but violates this Act is unlawful as provided in this Act.

SECTION 10. (a) If some or all of the provisions of this Act are ever temporarily or permanently restrained or enjoined by judicial order, all other provisions of Texas law regulating or restricting abortion shall be enforced as though the restrained or enjoined provisions had not been adopted; provided, however, that whenever the temporary or permanent restraining order or injunction is stayed or dissolved, or otherwise ceases to have effect, the provisions shall have full force and effect.

(b) Mindful of Leavitt v. Jane L., 518 U.S. 137 (1996), in which in the context of determining the severability of a state statute regulating abortion the United States Supreme Court held that an explicit statement of legislative intent is controlling, it is the intent of the legislature that every provision, section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or word in this Act, and every application of the provisions in this Act, are severable from each other. If any application of any provision in this Act to any person, group of persons, or circumstances is found by a court to be invalid, the remaining applications of that provision to all other persons and circumstances shall be severed and may not be affected. All constitutionally valid applications of this Act shall be severed from any applications that a court finds to be invalid, leaving the valid applications in force, because it is the legislature's intent and priority that the valid applications be allowed to stand alone. Even if a reviewing court finds a provision of this Act to impose an undue burden in a large or substantial fraction of relevant cases, the applications that do not present an undue burden shall be severed from the remaining provisions and shall remain in force, and shall be treated as if the legislature had enacted a statute limited to the persons, group of persons, or circumstances for which the statute's application does not present an undue burden. The legislature further declares that it would have passed this Act, and each provision, section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or word, and all constitutional applications of this Act, irrespective of the fact that any provision, section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or word, or applications of this Act, were to be declared unconstitutional or to represent an undue burden.

(c) If Subchapter C, Chapter 171, Health and Safety Code, as added by this Act, prohibiting abortions performed on an unborn child 20 or more weeks after fertilization is found by any court to be invalid or to impose an undue burden as applied to any person, group of persons, or circumstances, the prohibition shall apply to that person or group of persons or circumstances on the earliest date on which the subchapter can be constitutionally applied.

(d) If any provision of this Act is found by any court to be unconstitutionally vague, then the applications of that provision that do not present constitutional vagueness problems shall be severed and remain in force.

SECTION 11. (a) The executive commissioner of the Health and Human Services Commission shall adopt the standards required by Section 245.010, Health and Safety Code, as amended by this Act, not later than January 1, 2014.

(b) A facility licensed under Chapter 245, Health and Safety Code, is not required to comply with the standards adopted under Section 245.010, Health and Safety Code, as amended by this Act, before September 1, 2014.

SECTION 12. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this Act takes effect on the 91st day after the last day of the legislative session.

The amendment was read.

Senator Davis at 11:18 a.m. was recognized to speak on SB 5.

Question—Shall the Senate concur in the House amendment to SB 5?

(Senator Seliger in Chair)

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Nichols raised a point of order that Senator Davis' remarks were not germane to the body of the bill.

POINT OF ORDER RULING

The President ruled that the point of order was well-taken and sustained. The President instructed Senator Davis to confine her remarks to the body of the bill.

(Senator Davis resumed discussion of SB 5.)

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Nichols raised a point of order that the questions directed to Senator Davis were not germane to the body of the bill.

POINT OF ORDER RULING

The President stated that the point of order was respectfully overruled. The President again instructed Senator Davis to confine her remarks to the body of the bill.

(Senator Davis resumed discussion of SB 5.)

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Zaffirini raised a point of order that Senate Rule 4.06 states that a Senator should sit during the deliberation of a ruling.

POINT OF ORDER RULING

The President stated that the point of order was respectfully overruled.

(Senator Davis resumed discussion of SB 5.)

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Williams raised a point of order that Senate Rule 4.01 was violated because Senator Davis was assisted with a back brace.

POINT OF ORDER RULING

The point of order was sustained by the following vote: Yeas 17, Nays 11.

Yeas: Birdwell, Campbell, Deuell, Duncan, Estes, Fraser, Hancock, Hegar, Huffman, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Williams.

Nays: Davis, Ellis, Garcia, Hinojosa, Lucio, Rodriguez, Uresti, Watson, West, Whitmire, Zaffirini.

Absent: Carona.

Absent-excused: Eltife, Van de Putte.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator West and by unanimous consent, the remarks regarding the point of order on Senate Rule 4.01 were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

President: Senator Williams, for what purpose do you rise, Sir?

Senator Williams: Mr. President, I'd like to raise a point of order that Senator Davis has violated Rule 4.01 when she had Senator Ellis assist her by putting a back brace on during a pause a moment ago when we had a point of order raised and the Members were at the dais.

President: Would you all approach the podium? Senator Davis—

Senator Davis: Yes, Mr. President.

President: —I've been asked by a couple of the Members whether during this discussion, whether you sit down, and I understand. If I was you, I'd want to—

Senator Davis: I'm fine.

President: —but the Parliamentarian has, has advised me that, that you need to stand—

Senator Davis: I—

President: —in—

Senator Davis: —understand—

President: —the debate.

Senator Davis: —that rule, I'm—

President: I just—

Senator Davis: —prepared—

President: –simply–

Senator Davis: –to stand.

President: –wanted to share with you.

Senator Davis: Thank you.

President: Thank you.

Senator Davis: Thank you, Mr. President.

Senator Zaffirini: Mr. President. Mr.–

President: Senator–

Senator Zaffirini: –President.

President: –Zaffirini, for what, for what purpose?

Senator Zaffirini: For a parliamentary inquiry related to your statement to Senator Davis just now.

President: What is your inquiry?

Senator Zaffirini: Related to Rule 4.06, Mr. President, it states, when a Member shall be called to order by the President or by a Senator, the Member shall sit down and not be allowed to speak, except to the point of order, until the question of order is decided. If the decision be in the Member's favor, the Member shall be at liberty to proceed. If otherwise, the Member shall not proceed without leave of the Senate. And my question is, wouldn't Rule 4.06 allow Senator Davis or anyone else who is called to order or subject to the raising of a point of order, be required to speak during that time, be required to sit during that time.

President: Would you come forward, please? The point of order is overruled. Members, the point of order raised by Senator Williams deals with whether a Member can assist another Member during a filibuster. And the precedents in the rules clearly show that you can't lean on your desk, you've got to stay within, what, a couple of feet, three feet of the desk, and during a filibuster, previous rulings have dealt with the comfort of a Member during a filibuster. Now, while we've never seen incident like this and a point of order of raised like this, I think this point of order addresses the issue of the comfort of a Member, and I think should be put to the body. So, I'm going to start off with comment. I'm going to recognize, alright, Chair recognizes Senator Ellis to, to speak on the point of order.

Senator Ellis: Thank you, Mr. President and Members. I think the real issue here is whether or not this body respects the tradition of a filibuster or not. Now, here are the real rules of engagement. A majority of the Members on this floor decide all of the power in this body. A majority of the Members on this floor even decides who presides over the body. Anything that we do, any traditions that we have can be trumped by 16 votes. Now, I have not been here as long as two other Members on the floor, but I've been here for a very long time. As a staffer back in the mid '70s, I remember when a distinguished Republican Member of this body engaged in the longest filibuster that has been recorded in a state legislature in the history of the country, maybe one of the longest one-person filibusters in the history of not only state legislatures but the federal legislature as well, Senator Bill Meier from the Tarrant County area, I believe. At one point, back then, we didn't have the technology that we have today, and he needed to take a break, but he was so passionate about the issue, whatever it was. As a young law student, or, or at the LBJ School, I can't remember what it was, but, obviously, he was very passionate about it. At one point, he had to take a break and wouldn't leave the floor, and so, the Members of the Senate, most of them were Democrats back then, stood around his desk. Now, I was in the gallery, but I clearly remember these same wooden trash cans that we have today, and some Member of the opposing party was kind enough, dignified enough, respected this body and its traditions enough to organize his colleagues in both parties to stand around him in a circle so that he could make the appropriate things that had to be put in place so he could continue his some 40-hour filibuster. Now, Members, that's where we're really headed here. At any point, some Member could make a motion, be recognized by the Presiding Officer, and 16 votes, or if we don't have 31 here, a majority of whatever is here, as long as we have a quorum, would decide, you just shut off the filibuster. Now, I've seen that happen from time to time, but it's not been one, it's been an issue that has been something that Members felt this strongly about on either side of the political aisle or the philosophical aisle. I've seen that happen when somebody has not recognized the tradition of sending a letter in, saying that I will filibuster, and a Member would just get angry two or three days in a row and decide, well, I'm going to filibuster this one, I'll filibuster that one. That has happened while many of you have been here on this floor. I won't call the names of the Members, but I can remember at least two times that that has happened to Members. I can remember times in the past when Members would pass some ice chips or someone would pass some Life Savers to someone. Usually, I might add, it would be someone who didn't agree with the position of the person who was filibustering. Members, that's really what this is about. What goes around, tends to come around. If you don't respect the filibuster tradition, hey, I've carried that gaming legislation a number of years. Senator Carona has made progress with it as well. There'll be Members on this body who feel very strongly and adamantly against that legislation. And let me tell you, even if I'm carrying the bill, I would respect that Member's right to use the tool of the filibuster to kill that bill or to stop that bill to make a point. So, Members, that's really what it's all about. We've changed a lot of traditions in this body over the last several years, and I just want to encourage you, when you get ready to cast your vote, you're not going to get reelected or elected based on this one vote. If you think it's going to hurt you that much if you vote your conscience, instead of what you're getting from your political analysts or staffers that may think they can tell you what the thing is you ought to do to make it safe, some point you got to decide, is winning everything. Is winning everything or do traditions in this body mean something to you? So, based on that, I would respectfully, as a Member of this family, and it's a great family, on my worst days around here, I can't think of a greater honor in my life than being one of the 31 Members of the Texas Senate. And I want to ask you, I want to plead with you, don't destroy the few traditions that we've left in place in this body. Winning that one issue is not everything. Thank you.

President: Thank you, Senator Ellis.

Senator Zaffirini: President.

President: Senator Zaffirini.

Senator Zaffirini: Thank you, Mr. President. Mr.—

President: You're—

Senator Zaffirini: —President—

President: —you're recognized.

Senator Zaffirini: —thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President and Members, I agree wholeheartedly with Senator Ellis and endorse every word that he said. In the 27 years that I have served in the Texas Senate and the years before that when I worked with Senator Wayne Connally, I saw firsthand the traditions of this Senate, to support and to honor a person who was engaged in the filibuster, regardless of what side a Senator was on. The question today focuses on, specifically, Article IV of our rules, Decorum and Debate of Members of the Senate, Members to Address President. Specifically, Senator Williams has raised an issue related to Rule 4.01, allow me to read it to you. This is the rule and the only essence of this rule, when a Senator is about to speak in debate or to communicate any matter to the Senate, the Member shall rise in his or her place and address the President of the Senate. That is the rule. There is no other part of this rule. Allow me to repeat it. When a Senator is about to speak in debate or to communicate any matter to the Senate, the Member shall rise in his or her place and address the President of the Senate. Everything that Senator Davis has done is consistent with that rule. Now, granted there is an editorial note, but it is only an editorial note. Allow me to read that to you. A Member who desires to speak on a pending question should address the Chair and, having obtained recognition, may speak, in an orderly and parliamentary way, and subject to the rules of the Senate, as long as he desires. Everything Senator Davis has done is consistent with that editorial note. Now, there are notes on two rulings. Those rulings were given 44 years ago, in 1969. They are not rules, they are simply notes about another Lieutenant Governor's rules in 1969, again, 44 years ago. The first note is this: When a Member has been recognized and is speaking on a motion to refer a bill, he must stand upright at his desk and may not lean thereon. Senator Davis has not leaned on her desk, and you know it because many of you are watching her every move, her every move. She has not leaned on her desk. The other note is this: When a Member has the floor and is speaking on a bill or resolution, he must stand upright at his desk and may not lean or sit on his desk or chair. Senator Davis has not leaned on her desk. She has not sat on her desk. She has not sat on her chair. And I might note, Mr. President, she's a woman. The note refers to his desk, his chair, so I would argue that this rule does not apply to Senator Davis. So, Members, let's be literal about this. Let's be fair. Let's honor the tradition of the Texas Senate, and let's abide by the letter of the rule. Open your book. Look at your rules. Read it and understand that everything Senator Davis has done is consistent with the rule of the Senate. Please, read the rule, realize how specific it is, and honor this Member and honor the tradition of the Senate. Senator Davis, I applaud you for your understanding of the rules and for your being consistent with them in every way. Thank you for your leadership. Thank you, Mr. President and Members.

President: Senator Zaffirini. Senator Whitmire, you wanted to speak last. Is that what I heard? Alright. The Chair recognizes Senator Williams.

Senator Williams: Mr. President—

President: Senator Whitmire wished to speak last, but, but—

Senator Williams: —well, I think I brought the motion. I think I have the right to close. That's, all I want to do is close, and then I'll have to make a motion to call for the vote, if that would please the Chair.

President: Senator Whitmire, I'm going to go ahead and recognize you, please.

Senator Whitmire: Perfect. Members, it's kind of sad that we would normally have a Senate Caucus to resolve some of these matters. We've allowed this issue and the politics surrounding today's deliberations to really kind of prevent us from having a Senate Caucus. Because normally we'd caucus, discuss procedural matters, scheduling, relationships, and we'd come out as the family that we're often referred to. But I haven't called a caucus because I didn't know what the endgame was, Senator Williams. Normally, when we have a caucus, we know what the considerations are, and we decide that we're going to definitely come out with positive results and respect. But this week, you notice we hadn't had a caucus. I've had a couple of people ask me, one, Senator Hegar. This would probably be an excellent opportunity for us to have a caucus, and I would actually entertain that matter. But we find ourself considering this point of order, and I cannot do a better job than Senator Ellis reflecting on the traditions of the Senate. My good friend, second behind me in most seniority, Senator Zaffirini, talked about how we've assisted one another during debates. Senator Gonzalo Barrientos went 21 hours. People gave him ice cubes. I gave him some candy mints. The tradition of this body has been to assist another Senator in being an effective Senator representing his or her district and the people of Texas, and we're very close to leaving that Senate tradition. Senator Williams, I have the highest respect for you. I've gone on and on this spring and this summer about the fine job you've done leading us and actually bringing us together, producing a budget. I think, Members, we need to slow down right this moment and recognize what this very emotional issue is doing to this body, the politics of this issue, what it's doing to this body, and we must stop in our tracks and take a deep breath and look each other in the eye and remember the relationships, how we have gone to our, each other's children's services, how we've gone to each other's children's graduations. We weren't this tough on one another in trying to destroy this process during the days that we were in Albuquerque. Senator Duncan, you came to Albuquerque to talk to us, to assist us in reaching a compromise and coming back to the state because of the damage it was doing to this body. We're worse off today than we were 35 days in Albuquerque, because then we were still respecting each other. I urge you, let's slow down. I can go back to when I got here in 1983 and tell you darn near every filibuster. Each one was unique. Each one was special. Even if you oppose the person's position, you were still kind to them, you still respected them as a Senator. You knew what it, what they go through to get here, you know what it does to their families while they're gone for 140 days. Put back the face of the body that we work on, on a daily basis. We'll be here till midnight tonight. We respect one another, and we've lost it. So, let's slow down for a moment. Senator Davis, I've heard people on the opposing side grudgingly say, she's doing an outstanding job. People of all persuasions in this body are respecting you now because you've been very statesman-like, doing something that I know most of us couldn't do. I think there's some resentment here because there's some Members either don't have the courage or the physical or the capabilities to do it. There's admiration there, but what has happened, Members, without going into the details of the issue before us, did Senator Ellis hand her a back brace or did not? Remember the other day when I was talking to you about an issue, and I said, I most often on issues and in my personal daily life say, I put it to the greater good, the greater good test. Could I ask you to put this issue to the greater good test? What is the greater good? First of all, Members, if she's found in violation, Senator Williams, it's going to be the second warning, not going to take her off the floor. So, you're not going to get the greater good of removing her from the floor, but isn't there a greater good of respecting a woman? Isn't it a greater good of respecting a colleague that asked someone to do something that she could've done for herself? Senator Ellis, you're the one we ought to be angry at. She didn't need your help. You didn't assist her. You made the mistake of being a gentleman and a colleague, of handing her something from behind the brass rail, and then when she began to place it on her waist, you apparently made contact. Violation, Senator Ellis, don't do it again. Members, the tradition of this body is, you reach out and assist one another. We've had a great regular session. It's unfortunate that we find ourselves in a special. It's unfortunate that we find ourselves dealing with an emotional issue, and this, before, Senator Williams, I rest. I would say, Members, separate the emotion of the issue, which will be resolved sooner than later. And quite frankly, Members, there's a right way to do something and there's a wrong way. I think, you know, you have the votes in a special session to pass this piece of legislation, which I oppose. If you don't complete it tonight, it's none of our fault that it was placed in the call two weeks into the special, that the House spent more time than maybe was anticipated. If we don't finish it tonight, we can start back at the call of the Governor's message, and, ultimately, you probably have the votes, unfortunately, to pass this. So, this is not an up or down position on this issue, which is yet to be resolved. This is about the dignity of the body, the integrity of the body, and I would ask you, don't let this be a partisan vote. Don't let this be a vote whether you're for or against Senate Bill 5. Let this be a vote on the respect, the tradition of this body. And quite frankly, I will close by saying, when I sit down, regardless of how this vote is resolved, can we not commit ourselves to going through the remainder of these considerations without personal attacks. Senator Nichols, can we just agree to let her finish her filibuster? It is a legislative procedure that historically in this body separates us from other bodies. That's why we're not, in all due respect, the Texas House of Representatives. They raise points of orders on each other regularly. We allow people to file bills after the constitutional deadline. We try to assist each other in being effective representatives of our districts. Some 800,000-plus people depend on each and every one of us. So, I will say, Mr. President, under oath if necessary, I have seen the tradition of this body allow what took place on that side of the Chamber, where Senator Ellis assisted by giving her something that she could do herself. She did not lean. She did not sit. She's been an outstanding State Senator that, in the tradition of this body, if we even disagree with her, we ought to respect her convictions and her opportunity to represent her district and her point of view. Members, do what is the greater good in respecting a colleague, and let's finish this debate tonight honorably.

President: Senator Whitmire, I don't think anyone's questioning their respect. And I'm not going to get into a dialogue. I think we all respect Senator Davis, and we, I agree, I think she's doing a good job, although I disagree with her, but she, I, I think she's doing a good job. Senator Lucio, for what purpose do you rise?

Senator Lucio: Very briefly, to make a comment, Mr. President.

President: You're not recognized. We had three comments by, by—

Senator Lucio: Thank you, Mr. President—

President: —alright, I'll—

Senator Lucio: —thank you, Dean.

President: —recognize you for some brief—

Senator Lucio: Thank you, Mr. President.

President: —comments.

Senator Lucio: Very briefly, I came in a couple of months after my good friend, Senator Ellis. I, too, have seen many things happen on this Senate floor for close to 23 years now. I'm fourth in seniority, behind the Dean, Senator Zaffirini, and Senator Ellis. I, too, had a bill filibustered my first year here and were able to pass that bill over the objections of Senator Carlos Truan, the late Carlos Truan. I gave him a cough drop during the process because I felt sorry for my colleague and I respected him, and he had the right to speak out against my bill. I did exactly what Senator Ellis has stated a little while ago. So, I just want to go on record, I want this bill to pass, but yet I stand before you to tell you that Senator Davis does have the right to oppose this bill until she drops, and I don't think that'll be before twelve. And I just want to say this, that we have an opportunity of a lifetime to be able to show not only Texas but the whole country what we're all about, and let's do it right. Thank you.

President: The Chair recognizes Senator Williams.

Senator Williams: Thank you, Mr. President. Members, there's been a lot of things said here, and I'm just going to make a few comments. We've all been here a long time. The first thing that I would say is that I have enormous respect for Senator Davis. She is my deskmate. She sits right behind me. We chat frequently. We agree on very little, but we are on friendly terms, and I've included her in many meetings in the Finance Committee and given her opportunities to ask questions extensively. The implication that I have anything but the deepest respect for her is, frankly, out of bounds. And what I would further say is that I have tremendous respect for the traditions of this Senate. And I want to be clear about what my objection is here. The tradition and the rules that we have—and I would encourage you to read Rule 4.01 and all the notes of the rulings, some of which have been conveniently omitted by my colleagues as they read them aloud to all of us—I would encourage you to read all of those. And what I would say is that it's very clear to me, and it was made clear to me when I came to the Senate and in the filibusters that I have witnessed during the 12 years that I've been here, the six regular sessions and so many special sessions I can't count them anymore, that a filibuster is an endurance contest, and it's to be made unaided and unassisted. And that's been made very clear to me since the very beginning. And what my objection relates to is not the fact that Senator Davis is wearing a back brace, I'm wearing orthotics and tennis shoes because my back bothers me and my feet are bothering me, too. I don't object to that at all. But the tradition of this filibuster in the Senate has always been that you had to do it on your own. And, Senator Ellis, you're well aware of that, I believe, because I was, frankly, surprised that you said you didn't help her put it on, and there's a picture on Twitter right now of you helping her put it on. When we were at the front dais, you said, no, I just handed it to her. And there's a picture of you putting it around her waist, just as I said. And so, frankly, I'm surprised at the implication here that things were just handed across the rail and, like, it was like a piece of paper. That's not true. That's not what happened. And so, I want to be clear that I have enormous respect for Senator Davis. I respect her right to filibuster, and I think that it is an important tradition that I hope we will maintain in this body. And part of that tradition is that the rules clearly state, on, under what circumstances you can filibuster and that if three points of order are called, and we've had clarification on this from Senator West, if three points of order are called, then you cannot continue your filibuster. And that further points to what my point is, that it is an endurance contest. And so, I respectfully ask that you would vote with me on this. And, Mr. President, I would move that we, if, Mr. President, I think you've indicated that you'd like for the body to vote on this, and I would like to make the appropriate motion to do so.

President: You're recognized.

Senator Williams: I'd move the question on the point of order.

President: Members, the issue before us is whether or not the point of order raised by Senator Williams be sustained. The Secretary will call the roll. Yes, a vote yes is to sustain the point of order, no is to not sustain, the—

Secretary of the Senate: Birdwell, Campbell, Carona, Davis, Deuell, Duncan, Ellis, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Garcia, Hancock, Hegar, Hinojosa, Huffman, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Rodriguez, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Uresti, Van de Putte, Watson, West, Whitmire, Williams, Zaffirini.

President: Members, there being 17 ayes and 11 nays, the, the point of order is sustained.

(Senator Davis resumed discussion of SB 5.)

(Senator Seliger in Chair)

SENATOR ANNOUNCED PRESENT

Senator Van de Putte, who had previously been recorded as "Absent-excused," was announced "Present."

(President in Chair)

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Campbell raised a point of order that remarks relating to a sonogram bill were not germane to the body of SB 5.

POINT OF ORDER RULING

The President ruled that the point of order was well-taken and sustained.

The President announced the third violation of the rules had been made by Senator Davis, which would result in the end of the filibuster.

Senator Watson moved to appeal the ruling of the Chair on the point of order by Senator Campbell.

Senator Duncan replaced the President in the Chair.

(Senator Duncan in Chair)

The Presiding Officer advised the Senate and the spectators that the Senate rules on decorum would be strictly enforced.

The Presiding Officer recognized Senator Estes for a motion. Senator Estes moved to table the motion to appeal the ruling of the Chair.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Watson raised a point of order that a Member called to the Chair pending an appeal does not entertain any motions nor accept any further point of order, citing Senate Rule 1.01 and Senate Rule 5.15.

POINT OF ORDER RULING

The Presiding Officer stated that the point of order was respectfully overruled.

Senator Estes moved to call the previous question on the motion to table the motion to appeal the ruling on the point of order by Senator Campbell.

Five Senators seconded the motion.

Question—Shall the main question be now put?

Senator West was recognized and requested that Senator Estes' motion to call the previous question be reduced to writing and read by the Secretary of the Senate, pursuant to Senate Rule 6.03.

The request was granted.

Question—Shall the main question be now put?

The motion to call for the previous question prevailed by the following vote: Yeas 17, Nays 12.

Yeas: Birdwell, Campbell, Deuell, Duncan, Estes, Fraser, Hancock, Hegar, Huffman, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Williams.

Nays: Davis, Ellis, Garcia, Hinojosa, Lucio, Rodríguez, Uresti, Van de Putte, Watson, West, Whitmire, Zaffirini.

Absent: Carona.

Absent-excused: Eltife.

The motion to table the motion to appeal the ruling relating to Senator Campbell's point of order prevailed by the following vote: Yeas 19, Nays 10.

Yeas: Birdwell, Campbell, Deuell, Duncan, Estes, Fraser, Hancock, Hegar, Huffman, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Van de Putte, West, Williams.

Nays: Davis, Ellis, Garcia, Hinojosa, Lucio, Rodríguez, Uresti, Watson, Whitmire, Zaffirini.

Absent: Carona.

Absent-excused: Eltife.

Senator Patrick moved to call the previous question on the concurrence in the House amendment to SB 5.

Five Senators seconded the motion.

Question—Shall the main question be now put?

The motion to call for the previous question prevailed by the following vote: Yeas 19, Nays 10.

Yeas: Birdwell, Campbell, Deuell, Duncan, Estes, Fraser, Hancock, Hegar, Huffman, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Van de Putte, West, Williams.

Nays: Davis, Ellis, Garcia, Hinojosa, Lucio, Rodríguez, Uresti, Watson, Whitmire, Zaffirini.

Absent: Carona.

Absent-excused: Eltife.

(President in Chair)

Question—Shall the Senate concur in the House amendment to SB 5?

Senator Hegar moved to concur in the House amendment to SB 5.

The motion prevailed by the following vote: Yeas 18, Nays 11.

Yeas: Birdwell, Campbell, Deuell, Duncan, Estes, Fraser, Hancock, Hegar, Huffman, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Williams.

Nays: Davis, Ellis, Garcia, Hinojosa, Rodríguez, Uresti, Van de Putte, Watson, West, Whitmire, Zaffirini.

Absent: Carona.

Absent-excused: Eltife.

The President declared the constitutional time for the First Called Session had expired and Senate Bill 5 could not be signed by the President in the presence of the Senate and, therefore, could not be enrolled.

STATEMENT REGARDING SENATE BILL 5

Senator Zaffirini submitted the following statement regarding SB 5:

I am, and always have been, strongly pro-life. I also am very strongly pro-women's health. Today I voted against SB 5 because it does not make abortions less necessary and because it has the potential to limit access to critical health care services for thousands of Texas women.

Considering that the medical specialists associated most closely with women's reproductive health stand opposed to the legislation, and considering the high level of regulation and safety related to abortion services in Texas today, advocates for SB 5 failed to make the case that this bill is necessary. I cannot in good conscience support the bill because it includes so many onerous restrictions that jeopardize women's access to critical health care services.

I also am concerned about the possible negative consequences of this legislation. The bill's unnecessary regulations could force medical clinics to close, thereby limiting access to critical services. If clinics close in regions without many alternatives, women are likely to delay seeking care, and those in desperate situations may turn to desperate, unsafe measures. Other unnecessary regulations in the bill also intrude upon the doctor-patient relationship by requiring a particular regimen and limiting a doctor's ability to prescribe the best option for a specific patient. The Legislature should not substitute its judgment for that of qualified medical professionals.

The Texas Legislature should focus instead on making women's health care and pre-natal care more accessible and affordable. I will continue to vote pro-life, and I also will support issues including women's preventative health care, affordable contraception and family planning, health care for economically disadvantaged women, and pre-natal and pregnancy-related health care.

ZAFFIRINI

FIRST DAY

(Monday, July 1, 2013)

In obedience to the Proclamation of the Honorable Rick Perry, Governor of the State of Texas, the Senate met in the Senate Chamber of the State Capitol at Austin, Texas, on the 1st day of July, 2013, at 2:04 p.m. and was called to order by the Honorable David Dewhurst, Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate.

The President directed the Secretary of the Senate to call the roll of the Senate.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Birdwell, Campbell, Carona, Davis, Duncan, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Garcia, Hancock, Hegar, Hinojosa, Huffman, Lucio, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Rodríguez, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Uresti, Van de Putte, Watson, West, Whitmire, Williams, Zaffirini.

Absent-excused: Deuell, Ellis, Nelson.

The President announced that a quorum of the Senate was present.

Patsy Spaw, Secretary of the Senate, offered the invocation as follows:

O holy Father, today we humbly come before You in great need of Your love and Your healing. We ask You to remove the hurt, the animosity, the pain, and the negativity from our hearts and from this Chamber. As we face the challenges of the session, we ask for Your strength and Your wisdom to proceed with civility and respect for one another. Remind us that we are truly a family and restore this Senate to the body we all love so much. Lord, You are our rock and our refuge, our comfort and our hope. We ask for Your blessing and favor in such a difficult time. Amen.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

On motion of Senator Whitmire, Senator Deuell was granted leave of absence for today on account of important business.

On motion of Senator Whitmire, Senator Ellis was granted leave of absence for today on account of important business.

On motion of Senator Whitmire, Senator Nelson was granted leave of absence for today on account of important business.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

The following Proclamation by the Governor was read and was filed with the Secretary of the Senate:

PROCLAMATION

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

I, RICK PERRY, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF TEXAS, by the authority vested in me by Article III, Section 5 and Article IV, Section 8 of the Texas Constitution, do hereby call an extraordinary session of the 83rd Legislature, to convene in the City of Austin, commencing at 2 p.m. on Monday, July 1, 2013, for the following purposes:

To consider legislation relating to the regulation of abortion procedures, providers, and facilities.

To consider legislation relating to the funding of transportation infrastructure projects.

To consider legislation relating to establishing a mandatory sentence of life with parole for a capital felony committed by a 17-year-old offender.

The Secretary of State will take notice of this action and will notify the members of the legislature of my action.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereto signed my name and have officially caused the Seal of State to be affixed at my Office in the City of Austin, Texas, this the 26th day of June 2013.

(Seal)

/s/Rick Perry
Governor of Texas

Attested by:

/s/John Steen
Secretary of State

SENATE BILLS AND RESOLUTION ON FIRST READING

The following bills and resolution were introduced, read first time, and referred to the committees indicated:

SB 1 by Hegar

Relating to the regulation of abortion procedures, providers, and facilities; providing penalties.

To Committee on Health and Human Services.

SB 2 by Huffman

Relating to the punishment for a capital felony committed by an individual younger than 18 years of age.

To Committee on Criminal Justice.

SJR 1 by Nichols

Proposing a constitutional amendment to provide for the transfer of certain general revenue to the economic stabilization fund, to provide for the transfer of certain general revenue to the state highway fund and the dedication of that revenue, and to authorize the payment of the principal and interest on certain highway improvement bonds from certain general revenue transferred to the state highway fund.

To Committee on Finance.

SENATE RULES SUSPENDED
(Posting Rules)

On motion of Senator Williams and by unanimous consent, Senate Rule 11.10(a) and Senate Rule 11.18(a) were suspended in order that the Committee on Finance might meet and consider SJR 1 tomorrow.

SENATE RULES SUSPENDED
(Posting Rules)

On motion of Senator Whitmire and by unanimous consent, Senate Rule 11.10(a) and Senate Rule 11.18(a) were suspended in order that the Committee on Criminal Justice might meet and consider SB 2 tomorrow.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

On motion of Senator Whitmire, Senator Hinojosa was granted leave of absence for the remainder of the day on account of important business.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Watson and by unanimous consent, the remarks between Senator Watson and the President were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

President: Senator Watson, for what purpose do you rise, Sir?

Senator Watson: Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President, as we begin this Second Called Session that does not have redistricting as part of the call, and since the Governor has signed SB 2, SB 3, and SB 4, the redistricting bills that were passed in the last special session, my parliamentary inquiry is, will we be following the Two-Thirds Rule during this session and a blocker bill be referred?

President: Senator, thank you for your question, but it's not my intent to refer a blocker bill.

Senator Watson: Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: Have any plans been discussed with the Parliamentarian, Sergeant-at-Arms, or DPS, regarding their assistance in the enforcement of Article III, Rule 3.05, which deals with the applause, outbursts, or demonstrations, as we proceed with this session?

President: Yes.

Senator Watson: Parliamentary inquiry. Will extra DPS officers or staff be stationed in the gallery?

President: Yes.

Senator Watson: Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: Is there a plan to remove people who attempt to speak up or demonstrate regardless of their position on any of the bills that may be heard?

President: Yes.

Senator Watson: So, that would apply regardless of the point of view of the person that is engaged in applause, outbursts, or demonstrations.

President: That is correct.

Senator Watson: Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: Have there been any discussions regarding the access to the gallery during Senate sessions on the floor?

President: Senator Watson, both my office, Senator Eltife, and I have had conversations with the DPS on strict enforcement of decorum so that all the Members can hear the proceedings and we can move forward. It's my hope that all of our visitors to the Capitol will follow our requests for decorum. If they are unable to, then we would have to clear the gallery in order to proceed.

Senator Watson: Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: Absent a violation of Rule 3.05, it's not the intention of the Chair to limit the number of people in the gallery, and it's to allow the gallery to remain open to all people who wish to attend as a spectator during the Senate sessions on the floor?

President: That is correct, Senator Watson. Both the Fire Marshal and the DPS have advised that, that the number of people in the gallery would be limited to the number of seats. But we have made available, we have made available, starting yesterday afternoon, the auditorium with the large screen for overflow, so people can watch, everyone who wants can watch the proceedings, both, A, in committee, B, on the floor.

Senator Watson: Thank you, Mr. President. Parliamentary inquiry.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: Has there been any discussion regarding access to WiFi in the Capitol or in the Senate Chamber?

President: Not that I'm aware of.

Senator Watson: So, it's not the, parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: It's not the intention of the Chair, the President of the Senate, to limit or eliminate WiFi access or live streaming of any proceedings in the Senate Chamber?

President: That is correct.

Senator Watson: Thank you, Mr. President. Parliamentary inquiry.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: Under Rule 11.18(a), related to public hearings, it indicates that no bill may be reported to the Senate before it has been the subject of an open public hearing before a committee or subcommittee. It indicates notice must be given and then the Chair shall afford reasonable opportunity to interested parties to appear and testify at the hearing. My parliamentary inquiry is, given the heightened interest in at least one of the bills that has been referred today, when we speak of reasonable opportunity for interested parties to appear and testify, will this include a time limit on testimony?

President: Yes.

Senator Watson: And has the Chair determined what that time limit will be?

President: Senator Watson, I'm going to make a clarification because I answered in the affirmative knowing that what our past practice has been. That decision will be left up to the Chair of the committee and the Members of the committee.

Senator Watson: Thank you, Mr. President. Parliamentary inquiry.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: Has there been any determination made about a time limit on the length of the hearing?

President: I have not had a discussion with Senator Nelson, and I do not know her thoughts.

Senator Watson: Does, thank you, Mr. President. Parliamentary inquiry.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator Watson: Does, does the definition of "reasonable opportunity" include the capacity of the location of the hearing?

President: Senator Watson, I'm not quite sure where you're going with that, but—

Senator Watson: I'll be happy—

President: —what it means—

Senator Watson: —to clarify.

President: —what it means is, that a reasonable opportunity for any members of the public that so wish to have their views be known.

Senator Watson: Thank you, Mr. President. And I'll be happy to clarify. The Health and Human Services Committee, to which SB 1 has been referred, traditionally meets in the Senate Chamber, which is, as we all know, the best venue if you have a large crowd that might be interested. And my question was related to whether the Committee will continue to meet in the Chamber throughout the special session, so as to provide a reasonable opportunity for all who want to attend to be able to watch those proceedings.

President: Senator Watson, as you know, the Health and Human Services Committee meets not only on the floor of the Senate but also from time to time in the extension. I would direct your inquiries to Senator Nelson. I have not had a chance to visit with her, but I'm going to leave those decisions to the Senator. But I know, I speak for her when I say that she has the same wish that I do and you do, that anyone who is wanting to express their views, we are going to help provide a forum for that.

Senator Watson: Thank you very much, Mr. President.

President: Thank you, Senator Watson. Senator Watson, if I may, I'm going to make a clarification that I'm glad that the Parliamentarian pointed this out to me. When I made a reference to the auditorium, it was in terms of, if there was a need to clear the gallery, so everyone who wanted could be able to watch the proceedings. At the present time, we have not opened the auditorium because there's no apparent need at this present time to do that.

Senator Watson: Thank you for that clarification, Mr. President. So, if I might, in the form of a parliamentary inquiry, otherwise, for clarification purposes, what the Chair is indicating, the President is indicating, that unless there is a violation, a determined violation of Rule 3.05 involving Senate decorum, the gallery will remain open, and if there is the necessity for invoking the penalties of Rule 3.05, including clearing the gallery, an alternative venue will be made available for those that might wish to watch. That's what you're saying?

President: That is correct, Senator Watson. I feel, and I know you do, that we want to make government as open and transparent, and we want people to be able to come here and observe what is, what is occurring, make their, their wishes, their thoughts known to the elected representatives, but in a manner so that we can proceed with our debates.

Senator Watson: Thank you, Mr. President. And then, implicit in what your clarification was, it sounded to me, but I don't want to put words in your mouth, and I want to make sure I'm clear. Implicit in what you were saying was that if there is a large enough group of people wishing to watch and witness what is going on either in a committee hearing, on the Senate floor, or part of the Senate's deliberations on a bill, and the gallery is simply not large enough to accommodate those people, we will make other arrangements such as, perhaps, the auditorium, to allow for an overflow room.

President: Senator Watson—

Senator Watson: Yes, Mr. President.

President: —Senator Watson, I'm going to ask Senator Eltife and our Administration Committee to address that so that we can provide as much access as we can for people that wish to see the proceeding.

Senator Watson: Thank you, Mr. President. I appreciate that, that's very helpful.

President: Thank you.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

On motion of Senator Whitmire, Senator Paxton was granted leave of absence for the remainder of the day on account of important business.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Watson and by unanimous consent, the remarks between Senator West and the President were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

President: Senator West, for what purpose do you rise, Sir?

Senator West: Parliamentary inquiry.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator West: Mr. President, what is the official legislative time right now?

President: Looks to me to be 2:25.

Senator West: And here's the problem, and many of us look at this particular clock as the time, and the reality is this clock is about two minutes slow, at least by my clock. And so, I'm, how do we determine legislative time, official legislative time?

President: Senator West, it was my understanding, and I just confirmed it, that the Senate historically works according to the clock on the wall, uses that as a guide. Now, I think where you're going is, is that always accurate? And we will work with Senator Eltife and the Sergeant-at-Arms to make best efforts to make sure that the time on that clock is, in fact, the exact time.

Senator West: Mr. President, parliamentary inquiry.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator West: If there is, in fact, a dispute at, in terms of what the time is, is the time, is there another source, an independent source that we utilize to determine exactly what the official time is?

President: Senator West, the Senate historically has operated according to the time on the clock on the wall. And as I said just a moment ago, I'm going to ask Senator Eltife, his committee, and the Sergeant-at-Arms to make best efforts to have the clock be as accurate as we can make it.

Senator West: Okay, parliamentary inquiry.

President: State your inquiry.

Senator West: If there is a dispute, though, concerning what the time is, is there a procedure, an established procedure to go by to resolve that dispute? And if there's not, I'd recommend that we establish one.

President: Senator West, I've just shared with you, twice, what our practice has been historically from today backwards. If a dispute arises, we'll address that. In the meantime, I will talk with Senator Eltife and the Administration Committee to see if we have a resolution on that.

Senator West: Thank you very much.

President: Thank you, Senator.

---

SECOND DAY

(Thursday, July 11, 2013)

The Senate met at 9:12 a.m. pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by the President.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Birdwell, Campbell, Carona, Davis, Deuell, Duncan, Ellis, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Garcia, Hancock, Hegar, Hinojosa, Huffman, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Rodríguez, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Uresti, Van de Putte, Watson, West, Whitmire, Williams, Zaffirini.

The President announced that a quorum of the Senate was present.

Pastor Mike Mizell, Bethel Temple, Cleburne, was introduced by Senator Birdwell and offered the invocation as follows:

Heavenly Father, we first and foremost want to thank You for blessing us with another day to behold Your greatness and the splendor of Your creation. Thank You that Your steadfast love never ceases; it never comes to an end but is new every morning. As we gather today, we give thanks to the men and women who gave the ultimate sacrifice so we could be free. It is this freedom that allows us to gather today in our state's Capitol to conduct the affairs of the citizens of Texas as free people. Therefore, I request that You grant wisdom to each of our leaders here today. I ask for wisdom to govern with a righteous and just heart. As Micah wrote, He has shown you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God. (Micah 6:8) I lift up each of these legislators and ask that You grant to each a desire to do what is right and just, not just what is expedient. I also ask for a common unity to exist even where there is disagreement as they are here to work for the good of the people of Texas. I pray that the God of all comfort will comfort each of us, and I ask that the peace of God which transcends all understanding would guard our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. (Philippians 4:7) Amen.

Senator Whitmire moved that the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of the previous day be dispensed with and the Journal be approved as printed.

The motion prevailed without objection.

PHYSICIAN OF THE DAY

Senator Watson was recognized and presented Dr. Lynn Stewart of Austin as the Physician of the Day.

The Senate welcomed Dr. Stewart and thanked her for her participation in the Physician of the Day program sponsored by the Texas Academy of Family Physicians.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS POSTPONED

The President announced that the introduction of bills and resolutions on first reading would be postponed until the end of today's session.

There was no objection.

CONCLUSION OF MORNING CALL

The President at 9:20 a.m. announced the conclusion of morning call.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 1 ON SECOND READING

The President laid before the Senate SJR 1 by Senator Nichols at this time on its second reading:

SJR 1, Proposing a constitutional amendment to provide for the transfer of certain general revenue to the economic stabilization fund, to provide for the transfer of certain general revenue to the state highway fund and the dedication of that revenue, and to authorize the payment of the principal and interest on certain highway improvement bonds from certain general revenue transferred to the state highway fund.

The resolution was read second time.

Senator Nichols offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Floor Amendment No. 1

Amend SJR 1 by striking SECTION 4 of the bill (senate committee report, page 2, line 62, through page 3, line 2), substituting the following appropriately numbered SECTION, and renumbering subsequent SECTIONS accordingly:

SECTION __. This proposed constitutional amendment shall be submitted to the voters at an election to be held November 5, 2013. The ballot shall be printed to permit voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment providing for the use and dedication of certain money deposited or transferred to the state highway fund to assist in the completion of transportation construction, maintenance, and rehabilitation projects other than toll roads."

The amendment to SJR 1 was read and was adopted by a viva voce vote.

All Members are deemed to have voted "Yea" on the adoption of Floor Amendment No. 1.

On motion of Senator Nichols and by unanimous consent, the caption was amended to conform to the body of the resolution as amended.

SJR 1 as amended was passed to engrossment by a viva voce vote.

All Members are deemed to have voted "Yea" on the passage to engrossment.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 1 ON THIRD READING

Senator Nichols moved that Senate Rule 7.18 and the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that SJR 1 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

The motion prevailed by the following vote: Yeas 31, Nays 0.

The resolution was read third time and was passed by the following vote: Yeas 31, Nays 0.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

HOUSE CHAMBER

Austin, Texas

Thursday, July 11, 2013 - 1

The Honorable President of the Senate
Senate Chamber
Austin, Texas

Mr. President:

I am directed by the house to inform the senate that the house has taken the following action:

THE HOUSE HAS PASSED THE FOLLOWING MEASURES:

HCR 4 Guillen

Designating the week beginning September 8, 2013, as Direct Support Professionals Recognition Week in Texas.

Respectfully,

/s/Robert Haney, Chief Clerk
House of Representatives

SENATE BILL 2 ON SECOND READING

The President laid before the Senate SB 2 by Senator Huffman at this time on its second reading:

SB 2, Relating to the punishment for a capital felony committed by an individual younger than 18 years of age.

The bill was read second time and was passed to engrossment by a viva voce vote.

All Members are deemed to have voted "Yea" on the passage to engrossment except as follows:

Nays: Rodríguez.

SENATE BILL 2 ON THIRD READING

Senator Huffman moved that Senate Rule 7.18 and the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that SB 2 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

The motion prevailed by the following vote: Yeas 30, Nays 1.

Nays: Rodríguez.

The bill was read third time and was passed by the following vote: Yeas 30, Nays 1. (Same as previous roll call)

REASON FOR VOTE

Senator Rodríguez submitted the following reason for vote on SB 2:

Although we had ample time to improve this legislation, we did not do so. I voted against S.B. 2 because I believe it is unnecessarily inflexible and takes discretion out of the hands of Texas judges and juries, who are in the best position to judge the merits of each case.

When the Senate Committee on Criminal Justice considered this legislation during the Regular Session and the First Called Special Session, I expressed serious concerns that the proposed legislation did not fully comport with the requirements of the U.S. Supreme Court's decision in Miller v. Alabama. I feared that the legislation, if passed, would subject the state to further litigation by continuing a policy of extreme sentences for youthful offenders. However, I initially voted for this legislation during the previous session because it closed a gap in current state law created by the Miller decision that affected 25 pending cases across the state, including one in my district. In Miller, the Supreme Court struck down mandatory sentences of life without the possibility of parole for homicide crimes for individuals who were under the age of 18 years at the time of the offense. The decision found mandatory life without the possibility of parole for youthful offenders to violate the 8th Amendment prohibition against cruel and unusual punishment.

S.B. 2 eliminates the sentence of life without the possibility of parole for 17-year old defendants and replaces it with a sentence of life with the possibility of parole after 40 years. During the Senate's consideration of the legislation, I expressed concerns that a minimum sentence of 40 years was in essence a life sentence. The United States Sentencing Commission defines a life sentence as 470 months (or just over 39 years), based on average life expectancy of those serving prison sentences. Hence, the practical reality is that a sentencing option of life with parole eligibility after 40 years is a life without parole sentence.

It is my belief that S.B. 2 would better comply with the requirements of Miller if judges and juries are allowed to impose individualized sentences that take into consideration the unique characteristics of youthful offenders, including the defendant's age, family and home environment, the circumstances of the homicide offense, including familial and peer pressure, and other factors. In addition to these mitigating factors, the Supreme Court in Miller indicated that a judge or a jury should also be able to weigh the greater likelihood of a young person to be rehabilitated.

However, S.B. 2 does not allow for consideration of any of these factors. As a consequence, I believe it is in contravention of the Supreme Court's opinion in Miller and will likely be held unconstitutional. Instead, in furtherance of the best policies for juveniles in the criminal justice system, the Texas Legislature should establish a meaningful sentencing range and specific guidance for individualized sentencing of youthful offenders.

RODRÍGUEZ

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Rodríguez and by unanimous consent, the remarks between Senators Huffman and Rodríguez regarding SB 2 were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

Senator Rodríguez: Senator Huffman, good morning.

Senator Huffman: Good morning.

Senator Rodríguez: You recall when we had the Senate committee hearing—

Senator Huffman: Yes.

Senator Rodríguez: —on this bill, that I expressed some concerns and reservations about the bill because—

Senator Huffman: Yes.

Senator Rodríguez: —I felt that it didn't fully comport with the Supreme Court decision in Miller.

Senator Huffman: Yes.

Senator Rodríguez: And you remember that, or you might recall that we discussed the possibility of studying the issue of individualized sentencing for juveniles as an interim charge. I think Senator Hinojosa was a proponent of that. Now, your bill would have addressed the gap that exists right now in the sentencing for 17-year-olds by removing life without parole for these individuals and replacing it with a life sentence with parole after a minimum of 40 years, which would have been consistent with the penalty for 14- to 16-year-olds. Isn't that right?

Senator Huffman: Yes.

Senator Rodríguez: Yeah. And is it the goal of this legislation to make Texas law conform to the constitutional requirements set forth in Miller versus Alabama?

Senator Huffman: Yes.

Senator Rodríguez: And are you familiar with the following quote from Miller, quote, the mandatory penalty schemes at issue here, however, prevent the sentence from considering youth and from assessing whether the youth, whether the law's harshest term of imprisonment proportionately punishes a juvenile offender.

Senator Huffman: Is your question, I'm sorry, am I familiar with that line from this case? From the—

Senator Rodríguez: Yeah.

Senator Huffman: —opinion, yes.

Senator Rodríguez: Yes. So, the court is talking about needing to assess penalties on juveniles that are proportionate to not only the crime but also to other characteristics that the judge, that the court considered. It indicated that judges and juries ought to have more latitude in deciding sentences for juvenile offenders. Is that correct?

Senator Huffman: Well, it has some opinions in the case, but I think the final holding is that they just find the mandatory life without parole the harshest sentence and that was unconstitutional.

Senator Rodríguez: But there's a lot of discussion throughout the opinion about the prior decisions, the Graham decision and others, Roper, where the court has made it very clear that juvenile offenders, given their brain development, given their circumstances, are different as far as sentencing purposes than adult offenders. Isn't that correct?

Senator Huffman: That's correct, and that's why the new law will parole, give them parole eligibility rather than mandate them to a life in prison without any possibility of parole.

Senator Rodríguez: But the parole eligibility is after serving a minimum of 40 years.

Senator Huffman: Yes.

Senator Rodríguez: Is that right?

Senator Huffman: Yes, yes.

Senator Rodríguez: Does your bill include the various criteria set out in Miller relating to youth and change over time?

Senator Huffman: The bill simply puts Texas law in line with current Texas law for 14- to 16-year-olds, which gives a 17-year-old individual convicted of capital felony a possibility of parole after serving 40 years.

Senator Rodríguez: Well, Senator, you—

Senator Huffman: And that is not the harshest penalty under the law. It's not death and it's not life—

Senator Rodríguez: Yes.

Senator Huffman: —mandatory life.

Senator Rodríguez: You had a distinguished career as a jurist, as a judge in Houston. Do you think that juries and judges should be able to consider the unique characteristics of these youthful offenders, along the lines of what the court stated, including the defendant's age, family and home environment, the circumstances of the homicide offense, including familial and peer pressure and other factors?

Senator Huffman: I believe that an individual who is 17 years old who has been convicted of committing a capital crime, that it is an appropriate punishment for them to serve 40 years before they're eligible for parole. At that time, the conclusion of 40 years, then any circumstances that are relevant should be taken into consideration including the facts of the offense, including attempts at rehabilitation, including any information that the parole board can gather to determine if it is then appropriate to parole the individual.

Senator Rodríguez: Senator Huffman, it's my understanding that other states have responded to the Miller decision by passing their legislation recently. And it's my understanding that Wyoming, for example, abolished the juvenile life without parole and replaced it with 25 years. I also hear that North Carolina did something similar. And more recently, Delaware enacted legislation that also eliminates juvenile life without parole, replacing it with 25 years to life, thus enabling those sentenced to life without parole as juveniles to have a new sentencing hearing under the new sentencing range. Why could we not consider a minimum of 25 years as some of these other states have done, versus the harsher 40 years?

Senator Huffman: In my opinion, 25 years would be too light of a sentence for an individual convicted of committing a capital felony. There's other states that have even gone higher than 40. So, we're actually somewhere in the middle, and I think it's an appropriate place to be. And, again, it, current law in Texas, even younger offenders are at 40 years, so, this simply brings the law together with what current Texas law is. And as you know, the court, the federal courts, the Supreme Court has historically deferred to the states. They set up what the constitutional boundaries are, but basically defer to the state to set up their own sentencing scheme in criminal cases, depending, of course, on constitutionality.

Senator Rodríguez: As you may recall, we had testimony at the committee hearing that the United States Sentencing Commission defines a life sentence as 470 months or just over 39 years based on average life expectancy of those serving prison sentences. You recall that? So, isn't the sentencing scheme of parole after 40 years essentially a life without parole sentence, and therefore not compliant with Miller?

Senator Huffman: I disagree with that analysis. I think if you talk to a 14-, a 16-, or a 17-year-old who's convicted, that they would much rather think that in their mid-50s that they would be eligible for parole rather than to know that they will never be eligible, that they would live their whole life in prison. I think, you know, it's realistic to assume that there will be juveniles who serve out the whole 40 years and in their mid-50s, late 50s will come before a parole board for that parole board to make an assessment of whether there is reasonable, you know, they should be paroled, and it's reasonable to do so.

Senator Rodríguez: Senator Huffman, let me tell you some other factors that trouble me about this particular sentencing, mandatory sentencing scheme that we're talking about, because according to a national survey of the characteristics of youth sentenced to life without parole from 2012, 60 percent of all youths sentenced to life without parole nationwide are Black. A Black youth is twice, two times more likely to receive a life without the possibility of parole sentence if his victim is White. Conversely, if a White youth, a White youth is two times less likely to receive life without parole if his victim is Black. So, if SB 2 becomes law how will the severe racial disparities that have been noted, how will these racial disparities in the application of these severe penalties be addressed for our juveniles?

Senator Huffman: Well, I personally believe that the facts of the offense should dictate whether or not a person is charged with capital murder, doesn't matter what the race or background is of either the victim or the perpetrator, the alleged perpetrator. And that's the way that we should proceed.

Senator Rodríguez: Well, I think that there's been a lot of media accounts about this issue, and, as you know, there's approximately 25 cases pending in our courts right now involving 17-year-olds arrested for capital-eligible crimes in Texas. Of those, at least 13 of these cases involve African Americans, six are Hispanic, and two are White, and although it may not reflect racial discrimination, as you seem to be suggesting, shouldn't we be concerned about the disproportionate impact on Black and Hispanic youth?

Senator Huffman: I think we should be concerned, yes.

Senator Rodríguez: I think we should be concerned, and I think that that's why it's important to study the issue during the interim, and I hope that you will be supportive of that effort in order to shed some more light on how this bill would impact juveniles in our community. And I want to thank you for your responses, Senator, and I know you've been steadfast in your position.

SECTION ____ . Section 171.012(a), Health and Safety Code, is amended to read as follows:

(a) Consent to an abortion is voluntary and informed only if:

(1) the physician who is to perform the abortion informs the pregnant woman on whom the abortion is to be performed of:

(A) the physician's name;

(B) the particular medical risks associated with the particular abortion procedure to be employed, including, when medically accurate:

(i) the risks of infection and hemorrhage; and

(ii) the potential danger to a subsequent pregnancy and of infertility; ~~and~~

~~[(iii) the possibility of increased risk of breast cancer following an induced abortion and the natural protective effect of a completed pregnancy in avoiding breast cancer;]~~

(C) the probable gestational age of the unborn child at the time the abortion is to be performed; and

(D) the medical risks associated with carrying the child to term;

(2) the physician who is to perform the abortion or the physician's agent informs the pregnant woman that:

(A) medical assistance benefits may be available for prenatal care, childbirth, and neonatal care;

(B) the father is liable for assistance in the support of the child without regard to whether the father has offered to pay for the abortion; and

(C) public and private agencies provide pregnancy prevention counseling and medical referrals for obtaining pregnancy prevention medications or devices, including emergency contraception for victims of rape or incest;

(3) the physician who is to perform the abortion or the physician's agent:

(A) provides the pregnant woman with the printed materials described by Section 171.014; and

(B) informs the pregnant woman that those materials:

(i) have been provided by the Department of State Health Services;

(ii) are accessible on an Internet website sponsored by the department;

(iii) describe the unborn child and list agencies that offer alternatives to abortion; and

(iv) include a list of agencies that offer sonogram services at no cost to the pregnant woman;

(4) before any sedative or anesthesia is administered to the pregnant woman and at least 24 hours before the abortion or at least two hours before the abortion if the pregnant woman waives this requirement by certifying that she currently lives 100 miles or more from the nearest abortion provider that is a facility licensed under Chapter 245 or a facility that performs more than 50 abortions in any 12-month period:

(A) the physician who is to perform the abortion or an agent of the physician who is also a sonographer certified by a national registry of medical sonographers performs a sonogram on the pregnant woman on whom the abortion is to be performed;

(B) the physician who is to perform the abortion displays the sonogram images in a quality consistent with current medical practice in a manner that the pregnant woman may view them;

(C) the physician who is to perform the abortion provides, in a manner understandable to a layperson, a verbal explanation of the results of the sonogram images, including a medical description of the dimensions of the embryo or fetus, the presence of cardiac activity, and the presence of external members and internal organs; and

(D) the physician who is to perform the abortion or an agent of the physician who is also a sonographer certified by a national registry of medical sonographers makes audible the heart auscultation for the pregnant woman to hear, if present, in a quality consistent with current medical practice and provides, in a manner understandable to a layperson, a simultaneous verbal explanation of the heart auscultation;

(5) before receiving a sonogram under Subdivision (4)(A) and before the abortion is performed and before any sedative or anesthesia is administered, the pregnant woman completes and certifies with her signature an election form that states as follows:

"ABORTION AND SONOGRAM ELECTION

(1) THE INFORMATION AND PRINTED MATERIALS DESCRIBED BY SECTIONS 171.012(a)(1)-(3), TEXAS HEALTH AND SAFETY CODE, HAVE BEEN PROVIDED AND EXPLAINED TO ME.

Senator Rodríguez offered the following amendment to the bill:

Floor Amendment No. 11

Amend HB 2 (senate committee printing) by adding the following appropriately numbered SECTION to the bill and renumbering subsequent SECTIONS of the bill and cross-references to those SECTIONS accordingly:

SECTION _____. Subtitle H, Title 2, Health and Safety Code, is amended by adding Chapter 172 to read as follows:

CHAPTER 172. LIMITED SERVICE PREGNANCY CENTERS

Sec. 172.001. DEFINITIONS. In this chapter:

(1) "Comprehensive birth control services" means all drugs and medical devices that have been approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration for birth control.

(2) "Licensed health care practitioner" means an individual who is licensed or certified by or registered in this state to provide health care services.

(3) "Limited service pregnancy center" means an organization, including a pregnancy counseling organization or crisis pregnancy center, that for a fee or free of charge provides pregnancy counseling or information but does not perform abortions or make referrals to an abortion provider, does not provide or make referrals for comprehensive birth control services, and is not licensed or certified by this state or the federal government to provide medical or health care services. The term does not include a licensed health care provider, hospital, or family planning clinic that performs abortions or provides contraception or provides abortion or contraception referrals.

(4) "Pregnancy-related medical service" means a medical service provided to a pregnant woman by a health care provider licensed in this state.

Sec. 172.002. REQUIREMENTS FOR MATERIALS PROVIDED. All materials and information provided to a pregnant woman by a limited service pregnancy center must be scientifically accurate and evidence-based, as determined by a medical organization or physician group.

Sec. 172.003. NON-DIRECTIVE COUNSELING AND INFORMATION REQUIRED. A limited service pregnancy center that receives state money shall provide to each client comprehensive, non-directive reproductive health care counseling and information, including information on planning, birth control, pregnancy, and post-partum health.

Sec. 172.004. POSTED NOTICE REQUIRED. (a) A limited service pregnancy center shall prominently display, at the entrance of the center, two black and white signs, one in English and one in Spanish, that contain the following statement: "This center is not a licensed medical facility."

(b) Each sign required under Subsection (a) must be at least 8-1/2 by 11 inches in size and clearly legible from outside the center. The text for the sign must be in at least 48-point font size.

Sec. 172.005. CIVIL AND CRIMINAL PENALTIES. (a) A person commits an offense if the person violates Section 172.002 or 172.003. An offense under this subsection is a Class A misdemeanor.

(b) In addition to being subject to a criminal penalty, a person who intentionally violates Section 172.002 or 172.003 is liable for a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed $10,000 for each violation. The amount shall be based on:

- (1) the seriousness of the violation;
- (2) the history of previous violations;
- (3) the amount necessary to deter a future violation; and
- (4) any other matter that justice may require.

(c) The attorney general or a district or county attorney of the county in which the violation is alleged to have occurred may sue to collect a civil penalty under this section. In the suit the attorney general or a district or county attorney may recover reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining the penalty, including investigation and court costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

(d) A separate civil penalty may be collected for each day a continuing violation occurs.

(e) The penalties provided by this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law, including Chapter 17, Business & Commerce Code, and Chapter 165, Occupations Code.

Sec. 172.006. APPLICATION OF DECEPTIVE TRADE PRACTICES ACT. (a) A person who violates Section 172.004 commits a false, misleading, or deceptive act or practice within the meaning of Section 17.46, Business & Commerce Code.

(b) A public or private right or remedy under Chapter 17, Business & Commerce Code, may be used to enforce Section 172.004.

The amendment to HB 2 was read.

Amend HB 2 (senate committee printing) by adding the following appropriately numbered SECTION to the bill and renumbering subsequent SECTIONS of the bill and cross-references to those SECTIONS accordingly:

SECTION _____. Section 28.004, Education Code, is amended by amending Subsection (i) and adding Subsection (p) to read as follows:

(i) Before each school year, a school district shall provide written notice to a parent of each student enrolled in the district of the board of trustees' decision regarding whether the district will provide human sexuality instruction to district students. If instruction will be provided, the notice must include:

(1) a summary of the basic content of the district's human sexuality instruction to be provided to the student, including a statement informing the parent that the instruction is required by [of the instructional requirements under] state law to:

(A) present abstinence from sexual activity as the preferred choice of behavior in relationship to all sexual activity for unmarried persons of school age; and

(B) devote more attention to abstinence from sexual activity than to any other behavior;

(2) a statement of whether the instruction is considered by the district to be abstinence-only instruction or comprehensive instruction, including an explanation of the difference between those types of instruction and a specific statement regarding whether the student will receive information on contraception;

(3) [(2)] a statement of the parent's right to:

(A) review curriculum materials as provided by Subsection (j); and

(B) remove the student from any part of the district's human sexuality instruction without subjecting the student to any disciplinary action, academic penalty, or other sanction imposed by the district or the student's school; and

(4) [(3)] information describing the opportunities for parental involvement in the development of the curriculum to be used in human sexuality instruction, including information regarding the local school health advisory council established under Subsection (a).

(p) In this section, "abstinence-only instruction" means instruction that does not include information about preventing pregnancy, sexually transmitted diseases, infection with human immunodeficiency virus, or acquired immune deficiency syndrome through any means other than total abstinence from sexual activity.

Amend HB 2 (senate committee printing) by adding the following appropriately numbered SECTION to the bill and renumbering subsequent SECTIONS of the bill and cross-references to those SECTIONS accordingly:

SECTION _____. Section 28.004, Education Code, is amended by amending Subsection (e) and adding Subsection (o) to read as follows:

(e) Any course materials and instruction relating to human sexuality, sexually transmitted diseases, or human immunodeficiency virus or acquired immune deficiency syndrome shall be selected by the board of trustees with the advice of the local school health advisory council and must:

- (1) be evidence-based;
- (2) present abstinence from sexual activity as the preferred choice of behavior in relationship to all sexual activity for unmarried persons of school age;
- (3) [(2)] devote more attention to abstinence from sexual activity than to any other behavior;
- (4) [(3)] emphasize that abstinence from sexual activity, if used consistently and correctly, is the only method that is 100 percent effective in preventing pregnancy, sexually transmitted diseases, infection with human immunodeficiency virus, [or] acquired immune deficiency syndrome, and the emotional trauma associated with adolescent sexual activity;
- (5) [(4)] direct adolescents to a standard of behavior in which abstinence from sexual activity before marriage is the most effective way to prevent pregnancy, sexually transmitted diseases, [and] infection with human immunodeficiency virus, and [or] acquired immune deficiency syndrome; and
- (6) [(5)] teach contraception and condom use in terms of human use reality rates instead of theoretical laboratory rates, if instruction on contraception and condoms is included in curriculum content.

(o) In this section, "evidence-based" means information verified or supported by research that is:

- (1) conducted in compliance with accepted scientific methods;
- (2) published in peer-reviewed journals, if appropriate;
- (3) recognized as medically accurate, objective, and complete by mainstream professional organizations and agencies with expertise in the relevant field, including the federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the United States Department of Health and Human Services; and
- (4) proven through rigorous, scientific evaluation to achieve positive outcomes on measures of sexual risk behavior or its health consequences.

THIRD DAY

(Friday, July 12, 2013)

The Senate met at 11:51 p.m. pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by the President.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Birdwell, Campbell, Carona, Davis, Deuell, Duncan, Ellis, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Garcia, Hancock, Hegar, Hinojosa, Huffman, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Rodríguez, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Uresti, Van de Putte, Watson, West, Whitmire, Zaffirini.

Absent-excused: Williams.

The President announced that a quorum of the Senate was present.

Patsy Spaw, Secretary of the Senate, offered the invocation as follows:

O holy Father, as we begin a new legislative day but continue the day's discussion of great importance to this body of wonderful Senators, I ask that Your blessings be poured out on each of them, and I lift them up to You as dedicated public servants worthy of Your love and protection. Give them patience and respect for each other, and most of all, Father, give them wisdom and awareness of Your presence. I thank You for each of them and for their willingness to serve this great state they love so deeply despite the personal sacrifices they must make to serve. For each of them, I ask that they be granted peace in the knowledge that they have represented their constituents with dignity and honor. Bless the Texas Senate, heal the wounds of passionate debate, and bind their hearts together into one heart. Amen.

Senator Whitmire moved that the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of the previous day be dispensed with and the Journal be approved as printed.

The motion prevailed without objection.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

On motion of Senator Whitmire, Senator Williams was granted leave of absence for today on account of important business.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS POSTPONED

The President announced that the introduction of bills and resolutions on first reading would be postponed until the end of today's session.

There was no objection.

BILL SIGNED

The President announced the signing of the following enrolled bill in the presence of the Senate after the caption had been read: SB 2.

CONCLUSION OF MORNING CALL

The President at 11:53 p.m. announced the conclusion of morning call.

HOUSE BILL 2 ON THIRD READING

The President laid before the Senate HB 2, sponsored by Senator Hégar, at this time on its third reading and final passage:

HB 2, Relating to the regulation of abortion procedures, providers, and facilities; providing penalties.

The bill was read third time and was passed by the following vote: Yeas 19, Nays 11.

Yeas: Birdwell, Campbell, Carona, Deuell, Duncan, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Hancock, Hegar, Huffman, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor.

Nays: Davis, Ellis, Garcia, Hinojosa, Rodríguez, Uresti, Van de Putte, Watson, West, Whitmire, Zaffirini.

Absent-excused: Williams.

REASON FOR VOTE

Senator Zaffirini submitted the following reason for vote on HB 2:

I voted against House Bill 2 for a very simple reason: I am pro-life. I always have been, and I always will be. I believe, however, that this is NOT a pro-life bill, but, rather, that it is a bill that reduces women's access to health care; does nothing to reduce unintended pregnancies; does nothing to reduce the number of abortions; intrudes upon the doctor-patient relationship; and is opposed strongly by the American Congress of Obstetricians and Gynecologists and the Texas Hospital Association, whose priorities certainly include the health care of women.

Unfortunately, many divide us all into two categories—as being either pro-life or pro-choice. Reality is, however, that there are countless pro-lifers like me who also support Planned Parenthood; family planning; sex education; access to health care; and, because abortion is the law of the land, access to safe and legal abortions. Reality also is that there are pro-choicers who, like me, oppose aborting unborn children in the third trimester—after five months—and who also support issues associated closely with pro-life, such as parental consent and parental notification. The lines are not as clear-cut as some think—or wish.

During the regular legislative session I voted for Senate Bill 13 in committee because it would have prohibited the abortion of an unborn child after five months (or 20 weeks, as the bill states). I also voted against SB 537 and SB 1198 because I believed they restricted women's access to health care. When the bills were combined into an omnibus bill during a special session, namely, HB 2, I-like many other pro-lifers I know-could not support it.

Today I voted against HB 2 not only because it does not make abortions less necessary, but also because it would preclude women receiving critical health care services by causing the closure of licensed abortion facilities. As a result it could endanger the life of a woman by requiring her to travel as far as 550 miles to an ambulatory surgical center-1,100 miles round-trip-even when in ill health and regardless of her ability to pay travel expenses. Limiting women's access to safe and legal abortions will result in desperate women taking desperate measures-resorting to coat hangers, and, in my part of the world, going across the river into Mexico to get abortions or using medical drugs improperly and without the guidance of a doctor.

I respectfully disagree with those who believe that HB 2 improves safety standards for licensed abortion facilities by making them subject to ambulatory surgical center requirements. The new requirements for licensed abortion facilities would make them widen halls, provide separate lockers for men, and meet other expensive non-health standards that are unfunded mandates. Simultaneously, it would lower standards for licensed abortion facilities by making them subject to inspections every three-six years, instead of requiring their current unannounced annual inspections.

Whether we are pro-life or pro-choice, we should not close our minds to reasonable arguments that do not fit neatly within these classifications. As a pro-lifer, I tried mightily to amend this bill to honor the original intent of Senator Hegar's Senate Bill 13-to prohibit the abortion of an unborn child after five months. Today eleven Democrats voted for that amendment-to prohibit the abortion of an unborn child after five months. If the intended purpose at hand was to pass a pro-life bill with bipartisan support, the vote on that amendment proved that goal could have been realized.

On a related note, the majority also rejected my other attempts to improve HB 2. These included my amendments to substitute the term "severe fetal abnormality" in the Occupations Code section to preclude the possibility of authorizing the abortion of unborn children with Down's Syndrome; to include psychological conditions that existed before pregnancy among the exceptions to prohibitions; and requiring the state to fund the cost of upgrading existing facilities to ambulatory surgical centers. Accordingly, HB 2 is an unfunded mandate that could have passed with bipartisan support, had it been a true pro-life bill.

As a pro-lifer who simultaneously supports women's access to health services and because abortion is the law of the land, access to safe and legal abortions, I respectfully voted "no."

ZAFFIRINI

REASON FOR VOTE

Senator Rodríguez submitted the following reason for vote on HB 2:

First and foremost, a woman's right to choose and access safe abortion services is constitutionally protected.

What we are seeing here is a thinly veiled attempt to eliminate that access. This is not about women's health. It's political medicine with little scientific or medical basis. It's that simple.

The so-called "fetal pain" provision would ban abortions after 20 weeks. I've seen the pictures. I am a father. I understand the emotional attachment that begins with a pregnancy.

But, we are not here to debate emotions. We are here to determine the best public health policy and when it is constitutionally appropriate for government to intervene in people's lives for the public benefit - in this case, a healthy population.

Our guide in this endeavor should be the most accurate scientific and medical information.

The portion of the bill that deals with fetal pain becomes a measure of faith, because there is no conclusive medical evidence - indeed, the evidence is largely to the contrary - to support this concept.

Our faith is our own, and it is dear to us, each in our own way, but our constitution mandates that we cannot impose it on others whether they believe in one deity, or many, or none.

Requiring health clinics that perform abortions to be certified as ambulatory surgery centers, which would force closure of all but five of the 42 clinics that perform abortions in Texas, including the two clinics in El Paso, is medically unnecessary and simply amounts to harassment. That's why health care groups representing providers oppose it, as they oppose the other unnecessary and intrusive provisions.

How can proponents of the bill claim it's about women's health when health care professionals oppose it? How can proponents of the bill claim they are for the constitution, and then impose faith-based proposals on everyone? How can people who oppose government involvement in health care on the grounds that it is intrusive go to such lengths to intrude upon women's bodies?

There's a bigger picture here. From defunding the Women's Health Program and family planning clinics in 2011 to the Governor's veto of the Lily Ledbetter Fair Pay Act this session, we have failed to truly support women, and life for that matter.

Although we have some of the worst rates of childhood indicators - poverty, literacy, dropout rates, not to mention teen pregnancy - we do little to address those issues. And while we did better in funding education as a whole this session, we still did not completely restore the draconian cuts of 2011 and left $12 billion in the Rainy Day Fund.

Nevertheless, we have been called back for two special sessions for the divisive proposals contained in H.B. 2 while much-needed work, like authorizing tuition revenue bonds for Texas universities - which most of us support - remains undone.

These proposals place an undue burden on women, especially low-income and minority women. From my district, El Paso and West Texas, women would have to travel hundreds of miles, take days to do it, and spend huge amounts.

There are many proven strategies to increase access to health care, reduce pregnancy and reduce abortion. These include annual well-woman exams, counseling on pregnancy planning and access to birth control, screening for breast and cervical cancers, testing for hypertension and tuberculosis, and screening for sexually transmitted infections, including HIV.

Yet the bills and amendments I and others have filed were ignored. Ignored were proposals to expand Medicaid to low-income women; remove medically inaccurate language from state-sponsored health literature; repeal the literally invasive sonogram law; require state-funded crisis pregnancy centers to provide scientifically accurate and evidence-based information; give teen moms the legal ability to consent to receive contraception; require comprehensive and evidence-based sex education; and extend the Children's Health Insurance Program perinatal coverage from 60 days to six months.

What happens when women cannot access health services? Illegal and unsafe abortions will skyrocket. More people will cross the border for dangerous abortion-inducing pills. 1,500 women died while getting an abortion in 1940. That number dropped to 33 in 1974. And each year since 1980, the number of deaths from illegal abortion has been between 0 and 2. We will not go back to 1940s!

H.B. 2 does not enhance women's health, and it will not stop abortions. It will only make legal abortion services less available, and therefore, more dangerous.

Political medicine is bad for the health of women, our constitutional republic, and the lives of Texans, and it's part of a historical pattern of oppression that has afflicted women, people of color, the LGBTQ community, the poor - the powerless.

For these reasons, I stand with Texas women in opposition to this bill.

RODRÍGUEZ

STATEMENT REGARDING HOUSE BILL 2

Senator Williams submitted the following statement regarding HB 2:

Regretfully, business obligations prevent my attendance during the floor debate on HB 2/SB 1 for the Second Called Special Session of the 83rd Legislature. Had I been present, I would have voted "aye." Current Texas law prohibits elective abortions after six months, except in the case of rape, incest or life of the mother. Given what we know today about fetal development, HB 2/SB 1 is entirely appropriate in that it moves the prohibition to five months from six. The other provisions, specifically requiring abortion clinics to meet the same standards as other outpatient surgery centers and requiring physicians performing abortions to have admitting privileges at nearby hospitals, are sensible measures aimed at improving the quality of healthcare.

WILLIAMS

STATEMENTS REGARDING HOUSE BILL 2

Senator Lucio submitted the following statements regarding HB 2:

From Daniel Cardinal DiNardo, Archbishop of Galveston-Houston:

For the last two weeks, Texas has been the focus of an intense, and sometimes acrimonious, conflict over a legislative proposal to protect the lives of the unborn and to ensure the health and safety of women. The intensity of the debate has attracted international attention and a flood of outside campaigning throughout the state.

At issue is a proposal to protect the health, safety, and dignity of life—the life of the child in the womb and the life of the woman enduring the procedure. The bill improves facility standards to address abortion complications, requires compliance with FDA standards for distributing the abortion drug RU-486, requires abortion providers to have admitting privileges at nearby hospitals, and prohibits abortion after five months of pregnancy, when scientific evidence shows babies can feel pain.

The proposal is unambiguously focused on protecting both the child and the mother. In the eyes of our faith, both are sacred and precious. In our hearts, both are deserving of steps that ensure their health and safety. Short of closing these abortions facilities, the state is obligated to ensure providers meet reasonable standards of medical care.

My plea to our lawmakers is to remain strong in your beliefs for doing what is right and just. Know that there are millions of individuals across this state who are grateful to you for keeping to your principles, and will continue to support efforts to protect life.

From Dr. David Hardage, Executive Director, Baptist General Convention of Texas:

With the recent addition of abortion-related legislation to the call of the special session, I write today to remind you of the position of the Baptist General Convention of Texas and urge your careful consideration of bills intent on reducing abortion in Texas.

Texas Baptists have had a consistent and clear position regarding the morality of abortion. Abortion is inconsistent with Christian practice and should be avoided. Scripture is clear that each person is created in God's image and abortion as birth control is not compatible with the call of the gospel to reverence life. Importantly, the biblical narratives teach us to reverence every life involved in a crisis pregnancy: the unborn, the mother, the father, the extended family, the whole of society.

This understanding is to be taught first and foremost in our homes and churches, but there is also a place for a public witness and legislative action. Texas Baptists support legislative remedies which serve to limit abortion except in extreme circumstances.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE STATEMENT ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Birdwell and by unanimous consent, his personal privilege statement was ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

This evening I rise to honor the lives of two sons of Texas given in the line of duty. I wish to honor the life of United States Army Sergeant William R. Moody, who was killed June 18th this year by hostile enemy action at the age of 30 while serving his country in Afghanistan. Sergeant Moody was a native of Johnson County, Burleson, member of the 68th Combat Sustainment Support Battalion, 43rd Sustainment Brigade, 4th

Infantry Division, based at Fort Carson, Colorado, and he was serving his third tour of duty in Afghanistan when he gave his last full measure of devotion in service to his country. I also rise to recognize the life of Deputy Sergeant Lance McLean of the Hood County Sheriff's Office, who died in the line of duty by hostile action on June 29, 2013, at the age of 38. Sergeant McLean leaves behind his wife, Katy; his son, Quinton; and his daughter, Abigail. Members, thank you for affording me this opportunity to honor two of our finest Texans, and I ask that we recess today, that we do so in the honored memory of U.S. Army Sergeant William R. Moody and Hood County Sheriff's Deputy Sergeant Lance McLean.

MOTION TO RECESS

On motion of Senator Whitmire and by unanimous consent, the Senate at 12:02 a.m. Saturday, July 13, 2013, agreed to recess, in memory of William R. Moody and Lance McLean, pending the introduction of bills and resolutions on first reading, the receipt of messages, and the receipt of committee reports, until 11:00 a.m. Wednesday, July 17, 2013.

IN LEGISLATIVE SESSION (Monday, July 15, 2013)

The President at 2:52 p.m. called the Senate to order as In Legislative Session.

BILL SIGNED

The President announced the signing of the following enrolled bill in the presence of the Senate after the caption had been read: HB 2.

RECESS

Pursuant to a previously adopted motion, the Senate at 2:53 p.m. recessed, in memory of William R. Moody and Lance McLean, until 11:00 a.m. Wednesday, July 17, 2013.

SENATE RESOLUTION 71*(Caucus Report)

Senator Whitmire offered the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. CAUCUS REPORT. At a caucus held on July 19, 2013, the caucus made the recommendations for the operation of the senate contained in this resolution.

SECTION 2. EMPLOYEES. (a) The lieutenant governor may employ the employees necessary for the operation of the office of the lieutenant governor from the closing of this session and until the convening of the next session. The lieutenant governor and the secretary of the senate shall be furnished postage, telegraph, telephone, express, and all other expenses incident to their respective offices.

(b) The secretary of the senate is the chief executive administrator and shall be retained during the interval between adjournment of this session and the convening of the next session of the legislature. The secretary of the senate may employ the employees necessary for the operation of the senate and to perform duties as may be required in connection with the business of the state from the closing of this session and until the convening of the next session.

(c) Each senator may employ secretarial and other office staff for the senator's office.

(d) The chairman of the administration committee is authorized to retain a sufficient number of staff employees to conclude the work of the enrolling clerk, calendar clerk, journal clerk, and sergeant-at-arms. The administration committee shall establish the salaries for the senate staff.

SECTION 3. SENATE OFFICERS. (a) The following elected officers of the 83rd Legislature shall serve for the interval between adjournment of this session and the convening of the next session of the legislature:

- (1) Secretary of the Senate—Patsy Spaw;
- (2) Calendar Clerk—Linda Tubbs;
- (3) Doorkeeper—Austin Osborn;
- (4) Enrolling Clerk—Patience Worrel;
- (5) Journal Clerk—Polly Emerson; and
- (6) Sergeant-at-Arms—Rick DeLeon.

(b) All employees and elected officers of the senate shall operate under the direct supervision of the secretary of the senate during the interim.

(c) Officers named in this section serve at the will of the senate.

SECTION 4. DUTIES OF CHAIRMAN OF ADMINISTRATION COMMITTEE. (a) The chairman of the administration committee shall place the senate chamber in order and purchase supplies and make all necessary repairs and improvements between the adjournment of this session and the convening of the next session of the legislature.

(b) The chairman shall make an inventory of all furniture and fixtures in the senate chamber and in the private offices of the members, as well as of the supplies and equipment on hand in the purchasing and supply department and shall close the books for the Regular Session of the 83rd Legislature.

(c) The chairman shall not acquire any equipment on a rental/purchase plan unless the equipment is placed on the senate inventory at the termination of the plan.

(d) The chairman shall examine records and accounts payable out of the contingent expense fund as necessary to approve all claims and accounts against the senate, and no claim or account shall be paid without the consent and approval of the chairman.

(e) The chairman and any member of the administration committee shall be entitled to receive actual and necessary expenses incurred during the interim.

(f) In addition to the duties of the administration committee expressly imposed by this resolution, the committee shall take actions necessary to ensure that the administrative operations of the senate comply with applicable law and are conducted effectively and efficiently.

(g) The chairman shall appoint a working group of the senate to study the Permanent Rules of the Senate of the 83rd Legislature and to make recommendations for changes to the rules to the Senate of the 84th Legislature. The Parliamentarian, Karina Davis, and the Secretary of the Senate, Patsy Spaw, shall staff the working group and provide confidential and neutral advice to the chairman and members of the working group. The working group shall study issues related to the proper functioning of the senate, including senate decorum, admission to the floor and gallery, consideration of ceremonial resolutions, filibusters, public hearings, executive sessions, and all other senate rules.

SECTION 5. JOURNAL. (a) The secretary of the senate shall have 225 volumes of the Senate Journal of the Second Called Session of the 83rd Legislature printed. Two hundred and twenty-five copies shall be bound in buckram and delivered to the secretary of the senate who shall forward one volume to each member of the senate, the lieutenant governor, and each member of the house of representatives on request.

(b) The printing of the journals shall be done in accordance with the provisions of this resolution under the supervision of the chairman of the administration committee. The chairman shall refuse to receive or receipt for the journals until corrected and published in accordance with the preexisting law as finally approved by the chairman of the administration committee. When the accounts have been certified by the chairman of the administration committee, the accounts shall be paid out of the contingent expense fund of the 83rd Legislature.

SECTION 6. PAYMENT OF SALARIES AND EXPENSES. (a) Salaries and expenses authorized by this resolution shall be paid out of the per diem and contingent expense fund of the 83rd Legislature as provided by this section.

(b) The senate shall request the comptroller of public accounts to issue general revenue warrants for:

(1) payment of the employees of the lieutenant governor's office, the lieutenant governor, members of the senate, employees of the senate committees, and employees of the senate, except as provided by Subchapter H, Chapter 660, Government Code, upon presentation of the payroll account signed by the chairman of the administration committee and the secretary of the senate; and

(2) the payment of materials, supplies, and expenses of the senate, including travel expenses for members and employees, upon vouchers signed by the chairman of the administration committee and the secretary of the senate.

SECTION 7. EXPENSE REIMBURSEMENT AND PER DIEM. (a) In furtherance of the legislative duties and responsibilities of the senate, the administration committee shall charge to the individual member's office budget:

(1) the reimbursement of all actual expenses incurred by the members when traveling in performance of legislative duties and responsibilities or incident to those duties; and

(2) the payment of all other reasonable and necessary expenses for the operation of the office of the individual senator during any period the legislature is not in session. Expenditures for these services by the administration committee are authorized as an expense of the senate and shall not be restricted to Austin but may be incurred in individual senatorial districts. Such expenses shall be paid from funds appropriated for the use of the senate on vouchers approved by the chairman of the administration committee and the secretary of the senate in accordance with regulations governing such expenditures.

(b) Each senator shall be permitted a payroll of $38,000 per month to employ secretarial and other office staff and for intrastate travel expenses for staff employees. This payroll amount accrues on the first day of the month and may not be expended prior to the month in which it accrues, but any unexpended portion for a month may be carried forward from month to month until the end of the fiscal year. An unexpended amount remaining at the end of each fiscal year, not to exceed $10,000, may be carried forward to the next fiscal year. Other expenses, including travel expenses or other reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in the furtherance and performance of legislative duties or in operation of the member's office or incident thereto, shall be provided in addition to the maximum salary authorized.

(c) The secretary of the senate may order reimbursement for legislative expenses consistent with this resolution and the establishment by the Texas Ethics Commission of per diem rates.

(d) Any member of the senate and the lieutenant governor are eligible to receive such reimbursement on application of the member or the lieutenant governor to the secretary of the senate.

(e) On the application of a member of the senate or the lieutenant governor, the applicant shall be entitled to reimbursement for legislative expenses for each legislative day.

(f) For purposes of this section, a legislative day includes each day of a regular or special session of the legislature, including any day the legislature is not in session for a period of four consecutive days or less, and all days the legislature is not in session if the senator or lieutenant governor attends a meeting of a joint, special, or legislative committee as evidenced by the official record of the body, and each day, limited to 12 days per month for non-chairs or 16 days per month for chairs and the lieutenant governor, the senator or the lieutenant governor, including those living within a 50-mile radius, is otherwise engaged in legislative business as evidenced by claims submitted to the chairman of the administration committee.

SECTION 8. MEMBER'S EMPLOYEE LEAVE POLICY. (a) An employee of a senator accrues vacation leave, compensatory leave, or sick leave in accordance with policies adopted by the senator consistent with the requirements of this section.

(b) An employee may accrue vacation leave, compensatory leave, or sick leave only if the employee files a monthly time record with the senate human resources office. Time records are due not later than the 10th day of the following month.

(c) Compensatory time must be used not later than the last day of the 12th month following the month in which the time was accrued.

(d) An employee is not entitled to compensation for accrued but unused compensatory time.

SECTION 9. DESIGNATION FOR ATTENDANCE AT MEETINGS AND FUNCTIONS. (a) The lieutenant governor may appoint any member of the senate, the secretary of the senate, or any other senate employee to attend meetings of the National Conference of State Legislatures and other similar meetings. Necessary and actual expenses are authorized upon the approval of the chairman of the administration committee and the secretary of the senate.

(b) The lieutenant governor may designate a member of the senate to represent the senate at ceremonies and ceremonial functions. The necessary expenses of the senator and necessary staff for this purpose shall be paid pursuant to a budget approved by the administration committee.

SECTION 10. MEETINGS DURING INTERIM. (a) Each of the standing committees and subcommittees of the senate of the 83rd Legislature may continue to meet at such times and places during the interim as determined by such committees and subcommittees and to hold hearings, recommend legislation, and perform research on matters directed either by resolution, the lieutenant governor, or as determined by majority vote of each committee.

(b) Each continuing committee and subcommittee shall continue to function under the rules adopted during the legislative session where applicable.

(c) Expenses for the operation of these committees and subcommittees shall be paid pursuant to a budget prepared by each committee and approved by the administration committee.

(d) The operating expenses of these committees shall be paid from the contingent expense fund of the senate, and committee members shall be reimbursed for their actual expenses incurred in carrying out the duties of the committees.

SECTION 11. SENATE OFFICES. Members not returning for the 84th Legislature shall vacate their senate offices by December 1, 2014.

SECTION 12. FURNISHING OF INFORMATION BY SENATE EMPLOYEE. An employee of the senate may not furnish any information to any person, firm, or corporation other than general information pertaining to the senate and routinely furnished to the public.

SECTION 13. OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT. An employee of the senate may not be employed by and receive compensation from any other person, firm, or corporation during the employee's senate employment without the permission of the employee's senate employer.

SECTION 14. REMOVAL OF SENATE PROPERTY. The secretary of the senate is specifically directed not to permit the removal of any of the property of the senate from the senate chamber or the rooms of the senate except as authorized by the chairman of the administration committee.

SR 71 was read and adopted by the following vote: Yeas 27, Nays 0.

Absent-excused: Carona, Hancock, Huffman, Williams.

HOUSE BILL ON FIRST READING

The following bill received from the House was read first time and referred to the committee indicated:

HB 16 to Committee on Finance.

SENATE RULES 8.02 AND 10.01 SUSPENDED

(Referral to Committee)

(Joint Resolutions Subject to Rules Governing Bills)

Senator Nichols moved to suspend Senate Rule 8.02 and Senate Rule 10.01 to take up for consideration HJR 2 at this time.

The motion prevailed by the following vote: Yeas 27, Nays 0.

Absent-excused: Carona, Hancock, Huffman, Williams.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 2

The President laid before the Senate HJR 2 sponsored by Senator Nichols:

HJR 2, Proposing a constitutional amendment to provide for revenue from motor fuel taxes to be used solely for constructing, maintaining, and acquiring rights-of-way for certain public roadways and to provide for the transfer of certain general revenue to the economic stabilization fund and the available school fund.

The resolution was read.

Senator Nichols offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Floor Amendment No. 1

Amend HJR 2 by striking all below the resolving clause and substituting the following:

SECTION 1. Section 49-g, Article III, Texas Constitution, is amended by amending Subsections (c), (d), and (e) and adding Subsections (c-1) and (c-2) to read as follows:

(c) Not later than the 90th day of each fiscal year, the comptroller of public accounts shall transfer from the general revenue fund to the economic stabilization fund and the state highway fund the sum of the amounts described [prescribed] by Subsections (d) and (e) of this section, to be allocated as provided by Subsections (c-1) and (c-2) of this section. However, if necessary and notwithstanding the allocations prescribed by Subsections (c-1) and (c-2) of this section, the comptroller shall reduce proportionately the amounts described by Subsections (d) and (e) of this section to be transferred and allocated to the economic stabilization fund to prevent the amount in that [the] fund from exceeding the limit in effect for that biennium under Subsection (g) of this section. Revenue transferred to the state highway fund under this subsection may be used only for constructing, maintaining, and acquiring rights-of-way for public roadways other than toll roads.

(c-1) Of the sum of the amounts described by Subsections (d) and (e) of this section and required to be transferred from the general revenue fund under Subsection (c) of this section, the comptroller shall allocate one-half to the economic stabilization fund and the remainder to the state highway fund, except as provided by Subsection (c-2) of this section.

(c-2) If the anticipated balance of the economic stabilization fund after any transfer that may be made under Subsection (b) of this section and any transfer and allocation of money that may be made as provided by Subsections (c) and (c-1) of this section would be less than $6 billion, the comptroller shall reduce the amount that would otherwise be allocated to the state highway fund as provided by Subsection (c-1) of this section by the lesser of the total amount of the allocation to that fund or the amount necessary for the anticipated balance of the economic stabilization fund, after any transfer that may be made under Subsection (b) of this section and the transfer and allocation to be made as provided by Subsections (c) and (c-1) of this section, to equal $6 billion. The comptroller shall allocate to the economic stabilization fund the amount by which the allocation to the state highway fund is reduced under this subsection.

(d) If in the preceding year the state received from oil production taxes a net amount greater than the net amount of oil production taxes received by the state in the fiscal year ending August 31, 1987, the comptroller shall transfer under Subsection (c) of this section and allocate in accordance with Subsections (c-1) and (c-2) of this section [to the economic stabilization fund] an amount equal to 75 percent of the difference between those amounts. The comptroller shall retain the remaining 25 percent of the difference as general revenue. In computing the net amount of oil production taxes received, the comptroller may not consider refunds paid as a result of oil overcharge litigation.

(e) If in the preceding year the state received from gas production taxes a net amount greater than the net amount of gas production taxes received by the state in the fiscal year ending August 31, 1987, the comptroller shall transfer under Subsection (c) of this section and allocate in accordance with Subsections (c-1) and (c-2) of this section [to the economic stabilization fund] an amount equal to 75 percent of the difference between those amounts. The comptroller shall retain the remaining 25 percent of the difference as general revenue. For the purposes of this subsection, the comptroller shall adjust the [his] computation of revenues to reflect only 12 months of collection.

SECTION 2. Section 49-p, Article III, Texas Constitution, is amended by adding Subsection (e) to read as follows:

(e) Revenue transferred to the state highway fund under Section 49-g(c) of this article may be appropriated to pay the principal of and interest on bonds issued under this section.

SECTION 3. The following temporary provision is added to the Texas Constitution:

TEMPORARY PROVISION. (a) This temporary provision applies to the constitutional amendment proposed by the 83rd Legislature, 2nd Called Session, 2013, to provide for the transfer of certain general revenue to the economic stabilization fund, to provide for the transfer of certain general revenue to the state highway fund and the dedication of that revenue, and to authorize the payment of the principal and interest on certain highway improvement bonds from certain general revenue transferred to the state highway fund.

(b) The amendment to Section 49-g, Article III, of this constitution takes effect January 1, 2014, and applies only to a transfer of revenue made by the comptroller of public accounts as provided by Subsection (c) of that section on or after January 1, 2014.

(c) This temporary provision expires January 1, 2015.

SECTION 4. This proposed constitutional amendment shall be submitted to the voters at an election to be held November 5, 2013. The ballot shall be printed to permit voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment providing for the use and dedication of certain money deposited or transferred to the state highway fund to assist in the completion of transportation construction, maintenance, and rehabilitation projects other than toll roads."

The amendment to HJR 2 was read and was adopted by the following vote: Yeas 27, Nays 0.

Absent-excused: Carona, Hancock, Huffman, Williams.

On motion of Senator Nichols and by unanimous consent, the caption was amended to conform to the body of the resolution as amended.

HJR 2 as amended was considered immediately and was adopted by the following vote: Yeas 27, Nays 0.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE STATEMENT ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Fraser and by unanimous consent, his personal privilege statement was ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

Killeen Police Officer Robert Hornsby, known as Bobby, was shot last Saturday night while responding as a member of a Killeen Police Department SWAT team to a local domestic disturbance.

He and his team were confronted by a man with an AK-47 rifle. In the exchange of gunfire, Officer Hornsby was hit and died early last Sunday morning. A fellow officer was wounded.

Bobby Hornsby, age 32, was a local boy and a graduate of Temple High School who joined the Killeen Police Department four years ago. He had joined its elite SWAT team just eight months ago.

Fellow officers describe Bobby as an officer's officer and a man with a heart of gold. He was a father, a son, a husband, a brother, and a friend, and the first Killeen police officer killed in the line of duty since 1917.

Officer Hornsby is survived by his wife, Kimberly, and two children, a four-year-old daughter and a one-year-old son.

He was laid to rest Thursday at the Killeen City Cemetery.

Mr. President, I move that the Senate adjourn today in honor of a Killeen police officer, Robert "Bobby" Hornsby, killed in the line of duty last Saturday evening while serving to protect and defend the citizens of Killeen and all of us here in the Lone Star State.

MOTION TO RECESS

The motion prevailed without objection.

The President asked if there were any motions to instruct the conference committee on HJR 2 before appointment.

There were no motions offered.

Accordingly, the President announced the appointment of the following conferees on the part of the Senate: Senators Nichols, Chair; Williams, Whitmire, Eltife, and Hinojosa.

SENATE RULE 8.02 SUSPENDED
(Referral to Committee)

Senator Estes moved to suspend Senate Rule 8.02 to take up for consideration HCR 3 at this time.

The motion prevailed without objection.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 3

The President laid before the Senate the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The Texas Legislative Medal of Honor was established to recognize gallant and intrepid service by a member of the state or federal military forces, and Audie Murphy, the most highly decorated American soldier of World War II, would be a fitting recipient of this prestigious award; and

WHEREAS, Born in Kingston, Hunt County, on June 20, 1925, Audie Leon Murphy was one of 12 children; he received several years of formal education before leaving school to help support his family; in addition to working a variety of jobs, he hunted small game for food and became a crack shot; and

WHEREAS, Audie Murphy tried to enlist in the armed forces after the attack on Pearl Harbor but was rejected because he was underage; later, when he claimed to be a year older than he actually was, the marines and paratroopers turned him down on the grounds that he was too short and thin; finally, in June 1942, still misrepresenting his date of birth, he managed to join the army infantry; determined to become a combat soldier, he successfully resisted the effort of his company commander to have him transferred to a cook and bakers school; and

WHEREAS, In early 1943, Private Murphy shipped overseas to Morocco as a replacement in Company B, 1st Battalion, 15th Infantry Regiment, 3rd Infantry Division; while stationed in North Africa, he participated in extensive training maneuvers; he saw his first combat in July 1943, when the 3rd Division invaded Sicily, and he subsequently took part in the landing at Salerno, the Volturno River Campaign, the landing at Anzio, and the march on Rome; during those months in Italy, Audie Murphy demonstrated both exceptional skill as a marksman and a sound grasp of small-unit tactics; his proficiency as a soldier earned him repeated promotions and several decorations for valor; and

WHEREAS, On the morning of August 15, 1944, Staff Sergeant Murphy landed with the 3rd Division in southern France; that same day, he earned the Distinguished Service Cross, this nation's second-highest award for heroism, for his actions in single-handedly destroying a German machine gun crew and several other enemy positions, feats that made possible the capture of a fiercely contested hill; the following October 2 and October 5, he earned Silver Stars for further heroic action; and

WHEREAS, That fall, Audie Murphy received a battlefield commission as a second lieutenant; soon afterward, he sustained a wound that removed him from action for the next 10 weeks; though not completely healed, he returned to his unit early the next year, and on January 25, 1945, he became company commander; and

WHEREAS, At that time, Lieutenant Murphy's men were engaged in the effort to clear German soldiers from an area in eastern France known as the Colmar Pocket; on January 26, in bitter cold and with several feet of snow covering the ground, Company B came under attack by six German tanks and 250 German infantrymen; Lieutenant Murphy ordered his troops, whose effective strength had been reduced by about 40 percent, to fall back; he remained forward and continued to direct Allied artillery fire by telephone; when the German tanks drew abreast of his position, he mounted a burning tank destroyer and, though exposed to fire on three sides, employed its machine gun against the enemy, causing the German infantry to waver and the tanks to fall back; he continued to hold his ground in the firefight for an hour, wiping out a German squad that had reached within 10 yards of his position; when his ammunition was exhausted, he made his way back to his company, refused medical treatment for a leg wound, and led his men in a successful counterattack, enabling his unit to save the woods that had been the Germans' objective; Lieutenant Murphy was credited with personally killing or wounding about 50 enemy combatants in that encounter, and his exceptional bravery earned him the Medal of Honor; and

WHEREAS, The following month, Audie Murphy was withdrawn from the front lines, promoted to first lieutenant, and made a liaison officer; he returned to the States in mid-June 1945, having earned 28 medals, including several from France and Belgium; he was not yet 21; and

WHEREAS, Lieutenant Murphy received his discharge from the army in September 1945; he joined the Texas National Guard in 1950, after the outbreak of the Korean War, and eventually attained the rank of major; assigned to inactive status in 1957, he transferred to the United States Army Reserve in 1966 and continued as a member of the reserve until his death in 1971; and

WHEREAS, Though his extraordinary record in the war brought him widespread fame, Audie Murphy remained profoundly humble, highlighting his comrades' courage, rather than his own, in his autobiography and requesting a plain government headstone for his grave, instead of one adorned with the gold gilt that typically signifies a Medal of Honor recipient; and

WHEREAS, Audie Murphy repeatedly risked his life to save the lives of his fellow soldiers and to help advance their mission, and for his remarkable heroism he is most assuredly deserving of this state's supreme military award; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the 83rd Legislature of the State of Texas, 2nd Called Session, hereby direct the governor of the State of Texas to award the Texas Legislative Medal of Honor posthumously to Audie Murphy in recognition of his valiant actions in World War II.

VAN DE PUTTE

HCR 3 was read.

On motion of Senator Estes, on behalf of Senator Van de Putte, and by unanimous consent, the resolution was considered immediately and was adopted by the following vote: Yeas 28, Nays 0.

Absent-excused: Carona, Davis, West.

RESOLUTIONS SIGNED

The President announced the signing of the following enrolled resolutions in the presence of the Senate: HCR 7, HCR 14, HCR 16, HCR 18.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 6

The President laid before the Senate the following resolution:

HCR 6, In memory of Daniel Richard Haggerty.

RODRÍGUEZ

On motion of Senator Rodríguez, the resolution was considered immediately, was read, and was adopted by a rising vote of the Senate.

In honor of the memory of Daniel Richard Haggerty, the text of the resolution is printed at the end of today's Senate Journal.

House Concurrent Resolution 6

WHEREAS, Citizens of El Paso County lost a dedicated community leader with the passing of County Commissioner Daniel Richard Haggerty on June 28, 2013, at the age of 64; and

WHEREAS, Born in Rochester, Minnesota, Dan Haggerty was the fifth child of Richard and Eleanor Haggerty, who instilled in each of their 11 children a deep respect for country, community, and the value of hard work; after his graduation from Cathedral High School in El Paso, he enlisted in the U.S. Army and later joined the Marine Corps, serving three tours in Vietnam; he retired from active duty with the rank of sergeant in 1972, but remained a Navy Reservist; and

WHEREAS, In the years following his return to civilian life, Mr. Haggerty owned an El Paso real estate firm; in 1994, he was elected county commissioner for Precinct 4, which encompasses parts of Northeast and West El Paso; although an outspoken fiscal conservative in a majority-Democratic county, he was returned to office for nearly two decades and won the respect of fellow commissioners from both sides of the aisle; he was known for his frankness as well as for his sense of humor, which could defuse any tense moments that would arise; and

WHEREAS, His ability to find levity in misfortune never faltered, even after he was diagnosed with cancer in 2011; when he lost his hair to chemotherapy treatments, he donned colorful wigs to wear to county commissioner meetings in an effort to raise cancer awareness; and

WHEREAS, A devout Catholic, Mr. Haggerty belonged to the Knights of Columbus and additionally shared his time with a group for marine veterans; he maintained close bonds with his brothers and sisters, a number of whom also went on to hold elected office, and was a cherished uncle to many nieces and nephews; and

WHEREAS, Admired for his courage, kindness, and sincerity, Dan Haggerty devoted himself wholeheartedly to his constituents in El Paso County, and he will be deeply missed by all those who had the good fortune to know him; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the 83rd Legislature of the State of Texas, 2nd Called Session, hereby pay tribute to the memory of Daniel Richard Haggerty and extend sincere sympathy to the members of his family: to his sisters, Kathleen Haggerty Burds, Mary Haggerty McLaughlin and her husband, Michael, Eileen Haggerty Hart and her husband, Brad, and Bridget Haggerty Maxwell and her husband, Michael; to his brothers, Patrick Haggerty,

Michael Haggerty and his wife, Cynthia, Brian Haggerty and his wife, Audrey, and Jeremiah Haggerty and his wife, Silvia; and to his other relatives and many friends; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be prepared for his family and that when the Texas House of Representatives and Senate adjourn this day, they do so in memory of Dan Haggerty.

THIRD DAY

(Friday, July 26, 2013)

AFTER RECESS

The Senate met at 4:12 p.m. and was called to order by the President.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Whitmire and by unanimous consent, the remarks by Senators Williams and Taylor were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

Senator Williams: Thank you, Mr. President. Texas lost one of its brightest stars and a very great man today. Mr. Mitchell was an American businessman, real estate developer, and philanthropist. He passed away this morning at the age of 94 at his home in Galveston. Mr. Mitchell was born to Greek immigrants in Galveston in 1919. He learned the value of hard work at a young age with a summer job in the Louisiana oil fields. And from that experience he became interested in the oil and gas business, went on to earn a petroleum engineering degree at Texas A&M, where he graduated first in his class. He was a captain in the Army Corps of Engineers during World War II, and he went on to establish Mitchell Energy and Development, one of the nation's largest independent oil and gas companies. Mr. Mitchell was an innovator and a pioneer and a visionary in every sense of the word. He and his research team pioneered the development of hydraulic fracking, a process that we all hear about now but that he worked on for many, many years before he perfected it. This process is responsible for the oil and gas boom that we are enjoying in Texas here today and, indeed, across the country in places that you've never thought of as oil and gas producing states, like New York and other areas that have traditionally not been oil and gas producing states. Mr. Mitchell could have patented and kept that process and that technology to inure to his own benefit, but instead he gave that to the world. After he spent years of time and his own money and his own fortune developing that, he freely gave that technology so that others in the industry could continue to perfect it. He is one of the most generous people that I have ever known in my life. I believe I'm correct when I say he is the largest donor to Texas A&M. There are a lot of numbers that have been thrown around, but there's a lot of gifts that many people have received and no one knows that George Mitchell was behind that. His partner in life was his wife, Cynthia, who died a few years ago, who was one of the most gracious people I've ever known in my life. And she was the mother of his 10 children and did a wonderful job of raising those children while he built one of the largest independent oil and gas companies that's publicly held and, of course, a real estate empire. Cynthia is the person who inspired Mr. Mitchell to start The Woodlands, which is my hometown. And The Woodlands was part originally of 75,000 acres of timberland that Mr. Mitchell owned in Montgomery County, and Cynthia had a vision for a new town and convinced him to take 25,000 acres and make that the community that it is today of over 100,000 people. That would have never happened in the era that he started that there were many of these new towns that were started across the country with urban land development loans. This is one of the few that made it and by far the most successful, and it's because Mr. Mitchell put his time and his fortune into making sure that was a successful venture. The Cynthia and George Mitchell Foundation is a mission-driven grantmaking foundation that seeks innovative and sustainable solutions for human and environmental problems. Since he established it in 1978, they have distributed over $400 million toward those goals of sustainable living. He also signed "The Giving Pledge," along with Bill Gates, and pledged half of his fortune to charity. Mr. Mitchell is remembered by thousands of people, by the thousands of lives he touched. He loved The Woodlands and he loved Galveston, which was his hometown. And Galveston would not be the wonderful place that it is today if it wasn't for George Mitchell. At the turn of the last century, in the early 1900s, Galveston was known as the Wall Street of the Southwest. But when the Houston Ship Channel was completed and became active, Galveston sort of fell to the wayside, and if it hadn't been for Mr. Mitchell coming back in and redeveloping those places in downtown Galveston, it would not be the beautiful tourist mecca that it is today. Funeral arrangements are pending with Carnes Brothers Funeral Home in Galveston. There's nothing that Mr. Mitchell loved more than sitting down and having a cup of coffee and talking about the current affairs of the world or trying to make a business deal over a cup of coffee. And he did that often at the old coffee shop down at the Bank of the Southwest building in Houston, he did it at The Woodlands in a development company, and he was often found at the coffee shop at the Tremont in Galveston. He was a wonderful and generous person and that rare visionary that it was my great privilege to know. Thank you.

Senator Taylor: Thank you, Mr. President, and I, too, want to rise along with my colleague Senator Williams to honor the life of Mr. Mitchell, truly a life well-lived. He had such an amazing impact on his community, both the community he created, The Woodlands, and then the community of his birth in Galveston. You know he did a number of things in Galveston for his hometown, the redevelopment of The Strand, the rebirth of Mardi Gras that we know, along with the redevelopment of a couple of nice hotels, historic hotels. This great man will certainly be missed by the citizens of Texas, and this great state will be hard-pressed to replace a man like Mr. Mitchell. Thank you.

THIRD DAY

(Monday, July 29, 2013)

AFTER RECESS

The Senate met at 2:54 p.m. and was called to order by the President:

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

On motion of Senator Zaffirini, Senator Huffman was granted leave of absence for today on account of important business.

On motion of Senator Zaffirini, Senator Uresti was granted leave of absence for today on account of important business.

RESOLUTIONS SIGNED

The President announced the signing of the following enrolled resolutions in the presence of the Senate:

HCR 3, HCR 5, HCR 6, HCR 9, HCR 10, HCR 12, HCR 19.

PHYSICIAN OF THE DAY

Senator Nichols was recognized and presented Dr. Larry Brown of Jasper as the Physician of the Day.

The Senate welcomed Dr. Brown and thanked him for his participation in the Physician of the Day program sponsored by the Texas Academy of Family Physicians.

SENATE RESOLUTION 108

Senator Nichols offered the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Texas, 83rd Legislature, 2nd Called Session, 2013, That Senate Rule 12.03 be suspended in part as provided by Senate Rule 12.08 to enable the conference committee appointed to resolve the differences on House Bill 16 (the creation and functions of legislative select committees on transportation funding, expenditures, and finance and to the preservation of a sufficient balance in the economic stabilization fund) to consider and take action on the following matters:

(1) Senate Rules 12.03(1) and (2) are suspended to permit the committee to change, alter, amend, and omit text which is not in disagreement in Section 1 of the bill to read as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The speaker of the house of representatives shall appoint nine members to a House Select Committee on Transportation Funding, Expenditures, and Finance and designate one member as chair. The lieutenant governor shall appoint nine members to a Senate Select Committee on Transportation Funding, Expenditures, and Finance and designate one member as chair. The speaker and lieutenant governor shall make the appointments not later than November 30, 2013.

(b) The committees established under this section may meet separately at the call of the chair of the committee or jointly at the call of both chairs. In joint meetings, the chairs shall act as joint chairs.

(c) The committees established under this section, meeting separately or jointly, shall review, study, and evaluate:

(1) the future reliability of all current state transportation funding sources;

(2) alternatives that may increase available state funding for surface transportation, including an examination of increases to current surface-transportation-related funding streams and possible diversions of non-surface-transportation-related funding streams toward surface transportation funding;

(3) the use of debt financing in state transportation funding, including the uses of the Texas Mobility Fund, and the effects on long-term transportation planning of using debt financing;

(4) alternative transportation funding options in use nationally and internationally;

(5) current and historic appropriations to the Texas Department of Transportation, including:

(A) whether that agency's budget structure best maximizes the application of limited public funds toward highway maintenance and construction;

(B) whether there are opportunities to reduce the use of money from the state highway fund by that agency for activities not related to highway maintenance and construction, including such uses as employee salaries and benefits; and

(C) possible benefits of developing a budget for that agency for the 2016-2017 state fiscal biennium using zero-based budgeting principles;

(6) the uses of the state highway fund for agencies other than the Texas Department of Transportation, including and emphasizing the use of that fund for the Department of Public Safety of the State of Texas; and

(7) the original purpose of the economic stabilization fund established by Section 49-g, Article III, Texas Constitution, whether that purpose remains relevant, and whether it remains appropriate to continue using the net amount of oil and gas production taxes received in the 1987 state fiscal year as the basis for making general revenue transfers to the economic stabilization fund.

(d) Following consideration of the factors described by Subsection (c) of this section, the committees established under this section shall jointly adopt recommendations related to the reviewed subjects and shall provide a written report of the committees' recommendations on the reviewed subjects to the legislature not later than November 1, 2014.

(e) The committees established under this section may exercise any power of a committee of their respective chambers and any powers of a joint committee. For the purposes of this Act, the committees established under this section are considered a joint committee and the cost of operation of each committee may be borne in the same manner as the cost of a joint committee. The Texas Legislative Council may provide funding for the operations of the committees. To the extent not inconsistent with this resolution, the joint rules adopted by the 83rd Legislature for the administration of joint interim legislative study committees apply to the committees established under this section.

(f) This section expires January 13, 2015.

Explanation: The change is necessary to replace the joint committee and study regarding the economic stabilization fund included as provided by each chamber's version of the bill with select committees to study the matters described by Section 1 of the bill and to provide for the expiration of the select committees.

(2) Senate Rule 12.03(4) is suspended to permit the committee to add text on a matter which is not included in either the House or Senate version of the bill to read as follows:

SECTION 2. (a) Chapter 316, Government Code, is amended by adding Subchapter H to read as follows:

SUBCHAPTER H. PRESERVATION OF SUFFICIENT BALANCE IN ECONOMIC STABILIZATION FUND

Sec. 316.091. DEFINITION. In this subchapter:

(1) "Board" means the Legislative Budget Board.

(2) "Fund" means the economic stabilization fund.

Sec. 316.092. DETERMINATION OF SUFFICIENT BALANCE. (a) For the purposes of Section 49-g(c-2), Article III, Texas Constitution, before the board submits the budget as prescribed by Section 322.008(c), the board shall determine and adopt for the next state fiscal biennium a sufficient balance of the fund in an amount that the board estimates will ensure an appropriate amount of revenue available in the fund. In determining the sufficient balance for each that fiscal biennium, the board shall consider:

(1) the history of fund balances;

(2) the history of transfers to the fund;

(3) estimated fund balances during that fiscal biennium;

(4) estimated transfers to the fund to occur during that fiscal biennium;

(5) information available to the board regarding state highway congestion and funding demands; and

(6) any other information requested by the board regarding the state's financial condition.

(b) On or before October 1 of each even-numbered year, the comptroller shall provide to the board the comptroller's projection of the amounts to be transferred to the fund during the next state fiscal biennium.

Sec. 316.093. ADJUSTMENT OF CONSTITUTIONAL ALLOCATIONS TO FUND AND STATE HIGHWAY FUND. (a) Before the comptroller makes transfers for a state fiscal year in accordance with Section 49-g(c), Article III, Texas Constitution, the comptroller shall determine whether the sum of the balance of the fund on the preceding August 31, any projected transfer to the fund under Sections 49-g(b) of that article, and any projected transfer to the fund under Section 49-g(c) of that article in accordance with the allocations for the transfer as provided by Section 49-g(c-1) of that article is less than the sufficient balance adopted under Section 316.092.

(b) If the sum described by Subsection (a) is less than the sufficient balance adopted under Section 316.092, the comptroller shall adjust the allocation of amounts to be transferred to the fund and to the state highway fund as provided by Section 49-g(c), Article III, Texas Constitution, so that:

(1) the amount allocated for transfer to the fund is increased by an additional amount equal to the lesser of the remaining one-half of the sum of the amounts allocated for transfer under Sections 49-g (d) and (e) of that article or the amount necessary for the sufficient balance to be reached when considered together with other estimated transfers to the fund during the then-current fiscal year; and

(2) the amount allocated for transfer to the state highway fund is reduced by the amount of the increased allocation to the fund under Subdivision (1).

(c) If the board has not adopted under Section 316.092 a sufficient balance for the comptroller to consider under this section, the comptroller shall adjust the allocation of amounts to be transferred to the fund and to the state highway fund as provided by Section 49-g(c), Article III, Texas Constitution, so that the total of those amounts are transferred to the economic stabilization fund, except that the comptroller shall reduce a transfer made under this subsection as necessary to prevent the amount in the fund from exceeding the limit in effect for that biennium under Section 49-g(g) of that article.

(d) As soon as practicable after the effective date of this section, the board shall determine and adopt a sufficient balance of the fund applicable to the transfers to be made under Section 49-g(c), Article III, Texas Constitution, for the state fiscal year beginning September 1, 2014, and a sufficient balance of the fund applicable to the transfers to be made under that section for the next fiscal biennium. The comptroller may not make the transfers required under that section for the state fiscal year beginning September 1, 2014, until the board has adopted a sufficient balance under this subsection. However, if the board has not adopted the balance before the 30th day after the effective date of this section, the comptroller shall make that transfer on the 30th day after the effective date of this section in accordance with Subsection (c) of this section. This subsection expires September 1, 2015.

(b) This section takes effect immediately on the final canvass of the election on the constitutional amendment proposed by the 83rd Legislature, 2nd Called Session, 2013, to provide for the transfer of certain general revenue to the economic stabilization fund and the state highway fund and for the dedication of the revenue transferred to the state highway fund, but only if that amendment is approved by the voters. If that amendment is not approved by the voters, this Act has no effect.

Explanation: The change is necessary to provide a general law procedure for allocation of certain amounts to be transferred under Section 49-g, Article III, Texas Constitution, as would be required if the constitutional amendment proposed by House Joint Resolution No. 2 is approved by the voters.

(3) Senate Rules 12.03(1) and (3) are suspended to permit the committee to change, alter, amend, and add text on a matter which is not in disagreement to read as follows:

SECTION 3. Except as otherwise provided by this Act:

(1) this Act takes effect immediately if it receives a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution; and

(2) if this Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this Act takes effect on the 91st day after the last day of the legislative session.

Explanation: The change is necessary to allow for the select committees provided for to begin functioning earlier and to provide for a contingent effective date for the general law procedure, as provided by the bill, for allocation of certain amounts to be transferred under Section 49-g, Article III, Texas Constitution, as would be required if the constitutional amendment proposed by House Joint Resolution No. 2 is approved by the voters.

SR 108 was read and was adopted by the following vote: Yeas 21, Nays 2.

Yeas: Birdwell, Campbell, Deuell, Duncan, Estes, Fraser, Garcia, Hancock, Hegar, Hinojosa, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Rodríguez, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Van de Putte, Watson, Williams, Zaffirini.

Nays: Patrick, Paxton.

Absent: Ellis, Eltife, Whitmire.

Absent-excused: Carona, Davis, Huffman, Uresti, West.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON HOUSE BILL 16 ADOPTED

Senator Nichols called from the President's table the Conference Committee Report on HB 16. The Conference Committee Report was filed with the Senate on Sunday, July 28, 2013.

On motion of Senator Nichols, the Conference Committee Report was adopted by the following vote: Yeas 19, Nays 4.

Yeas: Birdwell, Campbell, Deuell, Duncan, Estes, Fraser, Garcia, Hegar, Hinojosa, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Rodríguez, Seliger, Taylor, Van de Putte, Watson, Williams, Zaffirini.

Nays: Hancock, Patrick, Paxton, Schwertner.

Absent: Ellis, Eltife, Whitmire.

Absent-excused: Carona, Davis, Huffman, Uresti, West.

REASON FOR VOTE

Senator Schwertner submitted the following reason for vote on the Conference Committee Report on HB 16:

Thank you, Mr. President. Respectfully, I rise today in opposition to the adoption of the Conference Committee Report for House Bill 16.

Members, we all understand the critical need to secure a predictable new source of funding for our state highways. And like most of you, I agree that our state's record-setting oil and gas revenue has now placed this Legislature in a position to dedicate some portion of these funds to satisfy some portion of our transportation needs.

But without a real and constitutionally-guaranteed hard trigger to replenish our Rainy Day Fund back to a known and agreed-upon level, this legislation has the potential to negatively impact our state's financial well-being over the decades to come. Over the past two decades, the State of Texas has stood as a beacon of freedom and economic prosperity through some of the most difficult times our nation has ever faced. But what's allowed us to do that, Members, is the fiscal discipline practiced by the Texas Legislature over that same period and the foresight provided by the 70th Legislature when they first established our state's Economic Stabilization Fund in 1987.

Our state's credit rating depends on certainty, the certainty that comes from prudent financial management and keeping a healthy and predictable balance in our state's Economic Stabilization Fund. A high credit rating means Texas continues to enjoy lower interest rates on debt, saving millions in taxpayer dollars every year.

Thomas Jefferson once said that when it comes to matters of style one should be flexible and swim with the current, but when it comes to matters of principle, one should stand firm like a rock.

Is highway funding an important priority for the state? Of course it is. But that funding shouldn't come at the expense of our principles, specifically our principles of fiscal responsibility and accountability to our constituents.

Members, the voters deserve the assurance that we are thinking long-term. A constitutional trigger would provide the state with the kind of long-term stability that has been the hallmark of Texas' economic success for the past quarter century.

Texans should be able to live secure in the knowledge that their state government has a certain amount of money in the bank. And if it should become necessary to change the amount of money that we feel is prudent to keep in reserve, then Texans deserve the right to decide that as well.

I believe that the citizens of my district sent me here to fight for their best interests, use my best judgment in setting the larger priorities of the state, and when necessary, to make tough decisions on their behalf. With that in mind, I cannot willingly abdicate my responsibility to the members of the Legislative Budget Board.

With the exception of the Lieutenant Governor, the appointed members of the LBB are directly accountable to only about 16 percent of the state's voters, yet the impact of the authority we're preparing to grant them would be felt by 100 percent of the state's population.

In making this decision, we must also think beyond the individuals that currently comprise the LBB, members we all know, trust, and respect. The question is, Members, whether we're willing to blindly trust anyone who may hold the reins of power in the decades to come.

There may come a time when we, or some future Legislature, may determine that a constitutionally-set trigger is too low or even unreasonably high. But that doesn't change the fact that the initial decision should remain in the hands of all of the people's representatives and, ultimately, with the people themselves.

In the years ahead, the Members serving in this body and those who will serve after them will undoubtedly face a number of new financial questions and challenges. But without some form of an established and constitutionally-protected trigger to replenish our Rainy Day Fund, how will we go back to our districts and say we did everything we could to be financially prudent with taxpayers' dollars, protect our credit rating, and leave our state in the healthiest possible condition, prepared to weather the next school funding crunch, the next hurricane, the next wildfire season, or the next financial crisis?

We each want to do something to improve the infrastructure of our state highways. But the larger tragedy would be to pass something in haste which we do not fully support. The voters sent us here to do a job; let's not abdicate that sacred responsibility.

With all due respect to Chairman Nichols, the Members of the conference committee, and the other Members who have worked tirelessly on this legislation, I would ask that you join me in voting "No" on HJR 2 and HB 16. Thank you, Mr. President.

SCHWERTNER

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Campbell and by unanimous consent, the exchange between Senators Nichols and Campbell regarding the Conference Committee Report on HB 16 was ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

Senator Campbell: Chairman Nichols, I just wanted to double check. I thought we were also going to have a conversation about SJR 1, but since we are having this conversation, in just summarizing it, nothing in this bill changes the two-thirds vote, as many have said, regarding spending of the Rainy Day Fund. Correct?

Senator Nichols: Correct.

Senator Campbell: This only gets us, this funding stream only gets us about one-fourth of what we need annually. Is that correct?

Senator Nichols: That's correct.

Senator Campbell: SJR 1 starts us, if you will, on a funding path or stream. Even though it is not enough, for more of a pay as you go concept.

Senator Nichols: That's correct.

Senator Campbell: And this funding would actually, even though, again, it doesn't provide everything we need, the funding actually would help us be that much less dependent on toll roads.

Senator Nichols: This money goes to non-toll roads.

Senator Campbell: Correct. And the more money we have for transportation, the less dependent we are on toll roads.

Senator Nichols: That's correct.

Senator Campbell: You know I would have preferred, as I think a lot of us would have preferred, a six billion dollar floor or the one-third of the ESF balance to be used as a trigger. And it is not really comforting for me to have the LBB set that value, but I am at least reassured some by the conversation we have had. But, you know, our urban areas are choked down because of congestion, and it is these urban areas that are the economic drivers of our state. And we risk, wouldn't you agree, danger to this big economic engine of our state if we don't fund transportation?

Senator Nichols: It's hurting already.

Senator Campbell: So, transportation then becomes a priority for our state, and it's hard sometimes to be between a rock and a hard place. You know, risking speculation about what would happen with our Economic Stabilization Fund in the future being drained down versus where we are at the present day, which is almost a crisis with our transportation. Right?

Senator Nichols: Yes.

Senator Campbell: So, with transportation as a priority, I do feel that if we don't fund transportation, our economy, our great economy of the State of Texas will be impeded. So, while I would have liked to have seen—and we talked about this in Regular Session—a sustainable revenue stream coming from general revenue, actually even part of the motor vehicle sales tax and getting diversions out of Fund 6. That didn't happen. So, we are looking at another sustainable, or maybe less predictable, but at least a revenue stream for transportation. Right?

Senator Nichols: That's right.

Senator Campbell: So, even though there are flaws, and I would quote Senator Taylor when he says, let's don't let perfect be the enemy of good. I think we've made some headway here, and I think that while, yes, we may have to address some questions about control of the Rainy Day Fund, I think we are going to have to address more questions to the people of Texas, most certainly San Antonio and my district—after sitting on a highway and they are stopped, it's barely a moving parking lot—why we can't come together and find some funding for transportation. So, I am supporting this bill, and I'm probably going to take some heat, but I do support it. I think it was a brilliant idea, the way you chose to take it out of the Rainy Day Fund prior to it getting there. And I do hope that we can come back next session, maybe do a cleanup bill and put some protections in there if we feel that the LBB is going to put us at risk. Thank you, Sir. Members, I encourage you to vote for this bill. Thank you. Thank you, Mr. President.

AT EASE

The President at 3:37 p.m. announced the Senate would stand At Ease subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate met at 2:22 p.m. and was called to order by the President.

SENATOR ANNOUNCED PRESENT

Senator Davis, who had previously been recorded as "Absent-excused," was announced "Present."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

HOUSE CHAMBER

Austin, Texas

Tuesday, July 30, 2013 - 1

The Honorable President of the Senate
Senate Chamber
Austin, Texas

Mr. President:

I am directed by the house to inform the senate that the house has taken the following action:

THE HOUSE HAS ADOPTED THE FOLLOWING CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORTS:

HB 16 (59 Yeas, 55 Nays, 1 Present, not voting)

Respectfully,

/s/Robert Haney, Chief Clerk
House of Representatives

RECESS

On motion of Senator Zaffirini, the Senate at 2:23 p.m. recessed subject to the call of the Chair.

AFTER RECESS

The Senate met at 3:19 p.m. and was called to order by the President.

RESOLUTIONS SIGNED

The President announced the signing of the following enrolled resolutions in the presence of the Senate: HCR 8, HCR 13.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Duncan, his remarks regarding Colin Coe, former Legal Counsel to Senator West, were reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

Thank you, Members. Senator West has asked me to convey his extreme sadness in announcing the passing of his former Legal Counsel, Colin Coe. He served with a legal and legislative prowess second to none and knew the rules like the back of his hand. Colin was respected for his encyclopedic knowledge of the budget process both in the Senate and House. He was a true Texas civil servant, spending much of his adult life in government service. The back halls of the Capitol will be much less lively in his absence but will be more effective and efficient because he walked and worked in them. Senator West will always be most appreciative of his commitment to the law, to the legislative process, the residents of Texas, and the constituents of Senatorial District 23. Colin, as we called him, Co-Co, I think many of you did, is from Plainview, Texas, and I guess is currently probably a constituent of the 28th Senatorial District. All of us benefit from this large family of staff that we have, that stays here and works while we go home and gets here early and stays late every day, prepares us, and gives us good advice. Colin Coe was one of those staff members who did that not just for Senator West but for all of us. He sat back there at that table in Finance and he always had some wise advice. And when I had a tough issue or a problem or a concern, I would ask him a question because he always had an interesting perspective on things. Might have been because he was from West Texas, I don't know, but he certainly did a great job for Senator West and for the Texas Senate. So, when we adjourn sine die today for this special session, I would move that we do it in memory of Colin Coe.

On motion of Senator Lucio, his remarks regarding Andres G. "Andy" Muniz were reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

Mr. President, Members, I rise today to adjourn in memory of Andres G. Muniz. Andy, as he was affectionately known, was a tremendous public servant, family man, community leader, and housing advocate. He served on the Brownsville Housing Authority Commission for 10 years, six of those as board chairman. During his tenure, he led the renovation and construction of developments for the less privileged, elderly, and disabled. In his professional life, he served as the Director of Cameron County's Department of Labor, and as a veteran of the Korean War, he was an active member in the VFW and the American Legion. A consummate advocate for education, he helped raise money for scholarships through the Pan American Golf Association. Andy will be sorely missed by his wife, Dahlia, of 35 years, his children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and all the many friends and lives he touched.

MOTION TO ADJOURN SINE DIE

On motion of Senator Zaffirini, the Senate of the 83rd Legislature, 2nd Called Session, at 3:26 p.m. Tuesday, July 30, 2013, agreed to adjourn sine die, in memory of Colin Coe and Andres G. Muniz.

CO-AUTHOR OF SENATE BILL 40

On motion of Senator Zaffirini, Senator Davis will be shown as Co-author of SB 40.

RESOLUTIONS OF RECOGNITION

The following resolutions were adopted by the Senate:

Memorial Resolutions

EIGHTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE — THIRD CALLED SESSION

FIRST DAY

(Tuesday, July 30, 2013)

In obedience to the Proclamation of the Honorable Rick Perry, Governor of the State of Texas, the Senate met in the Senate Chamber of the State Capitol at Austin, Texas, on the 30th day of July, 2013, at 4:52 p.m. and was called to order by the Honorable David Dewhurst, Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate.

The President directed the Secretary of the Senate to call the roll of the Senate.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Birdwell, Campbell, Davis, Deuell, Duncan, Ellis, Estes, Fraser, Garcia, Hancock, Hegar, Hinojosa, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Rodríguez, Schwertner, Seliger, Taylor, Van de Putte, Watson, Williams, Zaffirini.

Absent: Eltife, Whitmire.

Absent-excused: Carona, Huffman, Uresti, West.

The President announced that a quorum of the Senate was present.

Senator Craig Estes offered the invocation as follows:

Welcome to a new special session. My prayer this afternoon is taken from the famously inspirational passage in the Epistle of Hebrews, Chapter 12, and it is decidedly from a Christian perspective, but I believe people of all faiths can gain inspiration from it. As we go to prayer, I want you to think about all the portraits around us in this Chamber of the great men and women that went before us leading this great state, a great cloud of witnesses. So, let us pray. Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out before us. Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down on the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured such opposition from sinful men so that you will not grow weary or lose heart. Therefore, strengthen your feeble arms and weak knees. Make level paths for your feet. Make every effort to live in peace with all men and be holy. Without holiness no one will see the Lord. Amen.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

On motion of Senator Zaffirini, Senator Carona was granted leave of absence for today on account of important business.

On motion of Senator Zaffirini, Senator Huffman was granted leave of absence for today on account of important business.

On motion of Senator Zaffirini, Senator Uresti was granted leave of absence for today on account of important business.

On motion of Senator Zaffirini, Senator West was granted leave of absence for today on account of important business.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

The following Proclamation by the Governor was read and was filed with the Secretary of the Senate:

PROCLAMATION

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

I, RICK PERRY, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF TEXAS, by the authority vested in me by Article III, Section 5 and Article IV, Section 8 of the Texas Constitution, do hereby call an extraordinary session of the 83rd Legislature, to convene in the City of Austin, commencing at 4:30 p.m. on Tuesday, July 30, 2013, for the following purposes:

To consider legislation relating to the funding of transportation infrastructure projects.

The Secretary of State will take notice of this action and will notify the members of the legislature of my action.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereto signed my name and have officially caused the Seal of State to be affixed at my Office in the City of Austin, Texas, this the 30th day of July 2013.

(Seal)

/s/Rick Perry
Governor of Texas

Attested by:

/s/John Steen
Secretary of State

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

CONCLUSION OF MORNING CALL

The President at 5:11 p.m. announced the conclusion of morning call.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 1 ON SECOND READING

The President laid before the Senate SJR 1 by Senator Nichols at this time on its second reading:

SJR 1, Proposing a constitutional amendment to provide for the transfer of certain general revenue to the economic stabilization fund and to the state highway fund and for the dedication of the revenue transferred to the state highway fund.

The resolution was read second time.

Senator Patrick offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Floor Amendment No. 1

Amend SJR 1 in Section 1 of the resolution by striking the added Subsection (c-2), Section 49-g, Article III, Texas Constitution, and substituting:

(c-2) If the balance of the economic stabilization fund after any transfers to be made under Subsections (b) and (c) of this section, in accordance with the allocation as provided by Subsection (c-1) of this section, is anticipated to be less than one-third of the maximum balance of the economic stabilization fund authorized by Subsection (g) of this section for the state fiscal biennium preceding the biennium during which the transfer under Subsection (c) of this section is to be made, the comptroller shall reduce the amount that would otherwise be allocated to the state highway fund in accordance with Subsection (c-1) of this section by the lesser of the total amount of the allocation to that fund or the amount necessary for the anticipated balance of the economic stabilization fund, after any transfer that may be made under Subsection (b) of this section and the transfer and allocation to be made as provided by Subsection (c) of this section and this subsection, to equal one-third of the maximum balance of the economic stabilization fund authorized by Subsection (g) of this section for the state fiscal biennium preceding the biennium during which the transfer under Subsection (c) of this section is to be made. The comptroller shall allocate to the economic stabilization fund the amount by which the allocation to the state highway fund is reduced under this subsection.

The amendment to SJR 1 was read.

On motion of Senator Nichols, Floor Amendment No. 1 was tabled by the following vote: Yeas 18, Nays 7.

Yeas: Campbell, Davis, Deuell, Duncan, Ellis, Fraser, Garcia, Hancock, Hegar, Hinojosa, Nelson, Nichols, Rodríguez, Seliger, Van de Putte, Watson, Williams, Zaffirini.

Nays: Birdwell, Estes, Lucio, Patrick, Paxton, Schwertner, Taylor.

Absent-excused: Carona, Eltife, Huffman, Uresti, West, Whitmire.

SJR 1 was passed to engrossment by the following vote: Yeas 22, Nays 3.

Yeas: Birdwell, Campbell, Davis, Deuell, Duncan, Ellis, Estes, Fraser, Garcia, Hancock, Hegar, Hinojosa, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Rodríguez, Seliger, Taylor, Van de Putte, Watson, Williams, Zaffirini.

Nays: Patrick, Paxton, Schwertner.

Absent-excused: Carona, Eltife, Huffman, Uresti, West, Whitmire.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 1 ON THIRD READING

Senator Nichols moved that Senate Rule 7.18 and the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that SJR 1 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

The motion prevailed by the following vote: Yeas 22, Nays 3.

Yeas: Birdwell, Campbell, Davis, Deuell, Duncan, Ellis, Estes, Fraser, Garcia, Hancock, Hegar, Hinojosa, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Rodríguez, Seliger, Taylor, Van de Putte, Watson, Williams, Zaffirini.

Nays: Patrick, Paxton, Schwertner.

Absent-excused: Carona, Eltife, Huffman, Uresti, West, Whitmire.

The resolution was read third time and was passed by the following vote: Yeas 22, Nays 3. (Same as previous roll call)

REASON FOR VOTE

Senator Birdwell submitted the following reason for vote on SJR 1:

Today I voted in support of SJR 1, which proposes to Texas voters a 2014 constitutional amendment that would allow for a portion of the oil and natural gas severance tax revenue currently transferred to the Economic Stabilization Fund (ESF) to be deposited into the State Highway Fund (SHF). This transparent allocation of funds allows for the specific and limited purpose of construction, maintenance, and right-of-way acquisition for public roadways and prohibits the use of these funds for the expansion of toll roads or creation of new debt.

During the first and second special sessions, I expressed to the bill author my serious concerns about the utilization of the ESF for the creation of a new constitutionally protected revenue stream. In each of these sessions, the Senate was able to work together to implement a permanent minimum balance threshold which—in the event that the constitutionally required two-thirds vote of the Legislature to allow expenditures from the fund were to take place—the flow of revenue to the SHF would be temporarily halted and redirected back to the ESF.

Though the House was not willing to concur with the Senate mechanism to safeguard the ESF, the conference committee members agreed on a requirement for the Legislative Budget Board to set a minimum balance threshold on the ESF every two years. Even under these circumstances, the House unfortunately lacked the requisite support to pass the legislation, and Governor Perry elected to immediately call the Legislature into a third special session.

Prior to the passage of SJR 1 today, I voted in favor of an amendment that would revert us back to the legislatively defined floor that the Senate originally proposed. While that amendment did not pass, I am still pleased that in this version of the legislation, the ESF will continue to grow and that the two-thirds vote requirement of both chambers will firmly control any and all expenditures from the fund.

I still believe strongly that transportation funding must be prioritized within general revenue budgeting, and I look forward to working with my colleagues to see that this process begins to take shape in the very near future. In the meantime, I am pleased that this legislation will promptly serve to construct and maintain the crucial highway infrastructure of our rapidly growing state.

BIRDWELL

SENATE BILL 1 ON SECOND READING

The President laid before the Senate SB 1 by Senator Nichols at this time on its second reading:

SB 1, Relating to the creation and functions of legislative select committees on transportation funding, expenditures, and finance and to the preservation of a sufficient balance in the economic stabilization fund.

The bill was read second time and was passed to engrossment by a viva voce vote.

All Members are deemed to have voted "Yea" on the passage to engrossment except as follows:

Nays: Paxton, Patrick, Schwertner.

Absent-excused: Carona, Eltife, Huffman, Uresti, West, Whitmire.

SENATE BILL 1 ON THIRD READING

Senator Nichols moved that Senate Rule 7.18 and the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that SB 1 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

The motion prevailed by the following vote: Yeas 22, Nays 3.

Yeas: Birdwell, Campbell, Davis, Deuell, Duncan, Ellis, Estes, Fraser, Garcia, Hancock, Hegar, Hinojosa, Lucio, Nelson, Nichols, Rodríguez, Seliger, Taylor, Van de Putte, Watson, Williams, Zaffirini.

Nays: Patrick, Paxton, Schwertner.

Absent-excused: Carona, Eltife, Huffman, Uresti, West, Whitmire.

The bill was read third time and was passed by the following vote: Yeas 22, Nays 3. (Same as previous roll call)

MOTION TO RECESS

On motion of Senator Zaffirini and by unanimous consent, the Senate at 5:35 p.m. agreed to recess, pending the introduction of bills and resolutions on first reading, the receipt of messages, and the receipt of committee reports, until 2:00 p.m. Monday, August 5, 2013.

CO-AUTHORS OF SENATE BILL 3

On motion of Senator Seliger, Senators Campbell, Deuell, Duncan, Ellis, Estes, Hegar, Hinojosa, Nichols, Paxton, Schwertner, Van de Putte, Watson, and Zaffirini will be shown as Co-authors of SB 3.

RECESS

Pursuant to a previously adopted motion, the Senate at 5:36 p.m. recessed until 2:00 p.m. Monday, August 5, 2013.

HOUSE BILL 1 ON SECOND READING

The President laid before the Senate CSHB 1, sponsored by Senator Nichols, at this time on its second reading:

CSHB 1, Relating to transportation funding, expenditures, and finance and the preservation of a sufficient balance in the economic stabilization fund; making an appropriation.

The bill was read second time.

Senator Uresti offered the following amendment to the bill:

Floor Amendment No. 1

Amend CSHB 1 by adding the following appropriately numbered SECTION to the bill and renumbering subsequent SECTIONS of the bill accordingly:

SECTION _____. Subchapter H, Chapter 201, Transportation Code, is amended by adding Section 201.6155 to read as follows:

Sec. 201.6155. CONVERSION OF PAVED ROAD OR HIGHWAY TO NON-PAVED SURFACE. (a) The department shall adopt and publish criteria to determine whether a segment of a road or highway in the state highway system may be converted from a paved surface to a non-paved surface, including a graveled surface. The criteria must require the department to calculate for a specific segment of road or highway proposed to be converted the annual cost to maintain the segment with:

(1) a paved surface; and

(2) a non-paved surface.

(b) The department shall adopt criteria to determine whether a segment of a road or highway in the state highway system that was converted from a paved surface to a non-paved surface under this section must be restored to a paved surface.

(c) The department shall conduct an assessment of the conditions of each road or highway in the state highway system using the criteria described by Subsection (a). If the department determines that the segment of a road or highway meets the criteria described by Subsection (a), the department shall send written notice that the road or highway is a candidate for conversion to a non-paved surface to:

(1) the legislator of each legislative district in which the road or highway is located; and

(2) the county judge of each county in which the road or highway is located.

(d) Not later than the 180th day after the date a county judge receives notice under Subsection (c), the county judge may submit a mitigation plan that does not require the conversion of the road or highway to a non-paved surface. A mitigation plan may include donations or contributions of funds from any source.

(e) The department may not convert a segment of a road or highway in the state highway system from a paved surface to a non-paved surface, including a graveled surface, unless the department:

(1) determines that a mitigation plan submitted under Subsection (d) is not feasible;

(2) adopts a written plan to restore the paved surface to the road or highway in accordance with the criteria described by Subsection (b); and

(3) provides notice that the department intends to convert the road or highway to a non-paved surface to:

(A) the legislator of each legislative district in which the road or highway is located; and

(B) the county judge of each county in which the road or highway is located.

The amendment to CSHB 1 was read.

On motion of Senator Nichols, Floor Amendment No. 1 was tabled by the following vote: Yeas 16, Nays 11.

Yeas: Birdwell, Campbell, Deuell, Duncan, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Hancock, Nelson, Nichols, Patrick, Paxton, Seliger, Taylor, Whitmire, Williams.

Nays: Davis, Ellis, Garcia, Hegar, Hinojosa, Lucio, Rodríguez, Uresti, Watson, West, Zaffirini.

Absent-excused: Carona, Huffman, Schwertner, Van de Putte.

CSHB 1 was passed to third reading by a viva voce vote.

All Members are deemed to have voted "Yea" on the passage to third reading except as follows:

Nays: Seliger.

Absent-excused: Carona, Huffman, Schwertner, Van de Putte.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL 1 ON THIRD READING

The bill was read third time and was passed by the following vote: Yeas 26, Nays 1. (Same as previous roll call)

GUESTS PRESENTED

Senator Watson was recognized and introduced to the Senate Ann Hightower and Alison Suttle, daughters of the Honorable Jack Hightower.

The Senate welcomed its guests.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Watson and by unanimous consent, the remarks by Senators Watson, Duncan, and Seliger were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

Senator Watson: Thank you very much, Mr. President. Thank you, Dean. It's my honor, on really a sad occasion, but it's my honor to recognize today as a part of a memorial, the passing of Justice Jack Hightower. Justice Hightower died this past Saturday at the age of eighty-six. He was born in Memphis, Texas, in 1926 and served our country in the Navy. He graduated from Baylor University, both with his undergraduate and his law school degree. And he was a very proud Baylor graduate.

He served on the Baylor Board of Regents, and he really loved that place. He was recognized as a distinguished alumnus and gave back great amounts of time to Baylor and to the students of Baylor University. One of my favorite scriptures is one that I was introduced to, where I really had some understanding of it, when I was at Baylor, by my father. It's Romans 12:6-8. And in it, it says, Since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given us, each of us is to exercise them accordingly; if prophesy, according to the proportion of his faith; if service, in his serving; for he who teaches, in his teaching; for he who exhorts, in his exhortation; he who gives, with liberality; he who leads, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness. Jack Hightower's gifts, and he exercised them very well, were in serving and in leading. When he led, he did it as Paul said to the Romans to do, which was to do it with diligence. After graduating from Baylor Law School, he went to Vernon where he set up his law practice. And within one year, he was elected to the Texas House of Representatives. After that, he served for many years as the District Attorney of Wilbarger County, and then he served for a decade under two different configurations of his Senate district here in the Texas Senate. Our Secretary told me earlier, when I indicated I was going to be doing this tonight, that when she first came to work for the Senate, he was Chair of the Administration Committee. He also was the President Pro Tempore of the Senate at one point. He then served as a Member of Congress for five terms, and subsequent to that, he served on the Supreme Court as a Justice, and he is the last member of the court that had any legislative experience when he went to the court. Justice Hightower was a great historian, and he loved books. He was a tremendous collector of books. You saw a real joy in any chance he had to share those books with you and show you the different books that he had. Part of his being an historian and loving books got him a presidential appointment to the National Commission of Libraries and Information Sciences, where he served for five years. By the way, one of the things he has done with his writings and his letters and his books is he has shared them at Baylor University in the Poage Library. Justice Hightower was a Freemason. In 1972, he was the grandmaster of the Grand Lodge of Texas, and until his passing on Saturday, he was the oldest living past grandmaster of the Grand Lodge of Texas. This was a man who loved politics and he loved policy. I was sharing in the lounge earlier tonight a story. I remember in 2002, when I was running for Attorney General, and somehow was back in Austin on a Friday night or a Saturday night, I don't remember what it was, and we were in the backyard, and by the way, I was going to introduce them in a minute, but I wanted to introduce two of his three daughters, Ann and Alison, that join us here tonight. We were in Alison's backyard, and Alison's husband, Richard, was cooking, and I was standing over there by where he was cooking, and Judge Hightower was there, and he was, not grilling me, but he was sure asking a lot of questions about what I'd been doing and where I'd been. And I must admit, things weren't going that great. I thought I was doing some major league whining about how hot it had been, or how little the crowd had been, or how many cities I'd had to be at. You might pay attention to this, Senator Paxton, and how many cities I'd had to go to. I really thought I'd put on a pretty good whine, and when I paused for a minute to catch my breath, I'll never forget, Judge Hightower looked me in the eye and he said, "I'm so envious." He just loved politics and he loved policy. I feel very good that just a couple of weeks ago, I had the opportunity to go see him where he was living. He was asleep when we got there. Our loud voices woke him up. Once they had gotten him up out of bed and got him in a chair where he could take visitors, and we had the opportunity to visit, he wanted to know about the special session. He wanted to know about why we were in a special session and what was going on in that. He loved the policy of it. He also loved his family. He leaves his wife, Colleen, as I've introduced, two of his daughters that are with us, Ann and Alison, and also Amy. He was a great father-in-law and a wonderful grandfather. Jack Hightower was a gentleman who cared about Texas. He served it well and with diligence, and he loved its people. He was the kind of political figure that reveals the positive, the professionalism, the good that can be done by those who choose a life of positive public service. He has a legacy that those of us who've chosen this path, whether we've chosen it for a single term or many terms, whether we've chosen it for one office or multiple offices, he's left a legacy that we should all aspire to achieve. Mr. President, he had a great life and left an example for all of us. And tonight, when we hopefully adjourn, I'm going to ask that we do that in honor and in the memory of Justice Jack Hightower.

Senator Duncan: Thank you, Mr. President and Members. Thank you, Senator Watson, for bringing this amendment. Growing up in Vernon, Texas, Ann, as you know, we looked up to, and I was very fortunate to grow up in a town where my State Senator and where my Congressman was a man of honor and a role model for all of us young folks growing up in Vernon. I kept up with Jack all through his career on the Supreme Court. He worked for the Attorney General's office here in Austin, and I always enjoyed seeing him at the airport. He really was the type of person that us growing up in Vernon looked up to, and I am very proud to know that he was my Senator, my Congressman growing up, but also from Vernon, Texas. He will be well remembered. Kirk, you did a great job laying out his career. Just think about this, a House Member, he served as a District Attorney in the prosecutor role, in the Texas Senate, President Pro Tempore, U.S. Congress, and the Texas Supreme Court. You don't find many careers like that, and that says so much about not only his wisdom but also his integrity.

Senator Seliger: Thank you, Mr. President and Members. Senator Watson, your invitation raises an interesting sort of subject. As you look around this room, do we ever wonder about the people that sat in the chairs that we now sit and the desks that we now sit? What they did and what they brought to this, and what they left in this Chamber and in the State of Texas? Do we ever think, do we measure up to what has been done to this point? I say with some bias, I look around this room and see an awful lot of people I think do meet the standards set by distinguished Texans, not just distinguished ones, but people with the highest ideals and performance. And so, I occupy the seat that was once occupied by Jack Hightower and by Max Sherman and by Teel Bivins, and so when I look at my chair and I look at this desk, I think one of the challenges for me and for everybody else is, do we meet the standards of the chair and the desk? And it is a high aspiration in this case. If you talk to the people who knew Jack Hightower, of all of his accomplishments and his intellect and his integrity, I think what distinguished him maybe most of all, he was maybe first and foremost a real gentleman. Thank you, Senator Watson.

VIDEO RELEASE POLICY WAIVED

On motion of Senator Watson and by unanimous consent, the Senate policy that governs the release of recordings of the Senate proceedings was waived in order to grant his request for a DVD of today's session.

MOMENT OF SILENCE OBSERVED

At the request of Senator Patrick, the Senate observed a moment of silence to pray for the health of former State Representative Charlie Howard and Cindy Zerwas, wife of State Representative John Zerwas.

MOTION TO ADJOURN SINE DIE

On motion of Senator Whitmire, the Senate of the 83rd Legislature, 3rd Called Session, at 9:44 p.m. agreed to adjourn sine die, in memory of the Honorable Jack Hightower, subject to the completion of administrative duties.
