

Fanthorp Inn

STATE HISTORIC SITE

Suspended from the outstretched arm of a bearded gentleman, the soft glow of a lantern slowly comes into focus. You're tired, hot and ready for a good meal and a place to lay your head. The rutted and jarring road has been treacherous. Twice, male passengers have had to descend the coach, grab a spoke and help dislodge it from a mire. With a loud "whoa" from the teamster, the coach rolls to an abrupt stop and the door swings open. Welcome to Fanthorp Inn! Step into the 1850s while you explore the meticulously restored stagecoach inn of Henry and Rachel Fanthorp.

 Picnicking: Picnic sites with tables and full-service restroom.

 Historic Structures and Exhibits: Original and fully furnished stagecoach inn, replica 1850 Concord stagecoach

 Special Events:
Stagecoach Days: second Saturdays February-October, includes stagecoach rides, historic activities and tours;

Twilight Firelight: Saturday after Thanksgiving, contact park for details.

 1844 Fanthorp Cemetery
