STATE PARK

Rustic facilities, miles of shoreline and abundant wildlife attract visitors each year to Lake Brownwood State Park. The 7,300-acre reservoir is big enough for swimming, fishing, boating and skiing. Several trails allow outdoor lovers to get close to nature. In the 1930s, the Civilian Conservation Corps built the park's roads, cabins and the popular recreation hall, which sits on a hilltop overlooking the lake and surrounding hills.

-  Camping: Campsites with water in the area, water and electricity, or full hookups. Also screened shelters.
