We have not loved You with our whole hearts, nor have we loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are grateful for the gift of forgiveness and for Your compassion. Merciful God, the call to public leadership is a heavy burden, the pressures are great and the effects of our actions and decisions are real. I ask that You would grant each Member of this Senate Your strength to persevere, that they would not grow weary in doing good, and that You would restore their souls, refresh their minds, and strengthen their frame. And give us a vision, O Lord, of all that is true and good and beautiful, that even as we wrestle with the complexities of life together, that we might never lose hope in holding up the greatest ideals for which You created us. Guide our leaders now, I ask, to serve, lead, and make laws for our land that serve the common good and cause Texans everywhere to flourish. And now, with respect for people of every faith and no faith, I pray these things in Jesus' merciful name. Amen.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Whitmire and by unanimous consent, the remarks by Senator Lucio regarding Carlos Rodriguez were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

A very dear friend of mine and of so many in the valley and around Texas passed away yesterday, a Weslaco, Texas, native, he died in Houston of a heart attack. He was an outstanding Texas businessman. He and his wife, Elma, owned and operated a group of proprietary schools known in South Texas as South Texas Vo-Tech. Charlie, as I called him, and Elma were blessed with five beautiful daughters. Charlie was a pioneer in proprietary and private schools in Texas dating back to the late 1960s where he started a language academy in Brownsville, Texas. He had an incredible work ethic, and he contributed so much. He and his family were not only entrepreneurs but they did so much to help so many nonprofits. Because of the compassion they had for the community and the people that surrounded them, they were able to make a big difference in the lives of so many, and also in the schools that they operated, they helped thousands of young men and women accomplish their vocational, technical, and educational goals. I wanted to just ask the Senate today, Members, to adjourn in his memory, and I would very much appreciate it. In the same motion, I would ask that my remarks could be entered into the Journal in his memory so that we could show his family that we truly respected this giant of a man who, again, made such an incredible difference in the lives of so many in South Texas who knew him. Thank you, Mr. President.

ADJOURNMENT

On motion of Senator Whitmire, the Senate at 12:24 p.m. adjourned, in memory of Steve Jones and Carlos Rodriguez, until 11:00 a.m. tomorrow.
