TO THE GOVERNOR, MEMBERS OF THE TEXAS LEGISLATURE AND OF THE JUDICIARY, AND THE CITIZENS OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Pursuant to the statutory requirements of Sections 71.031 and 71.034, Texas Government Code, I am pleased to submit the 74th Annual Report of the Texas Judicial System.

The 74th Annual Report contains a broad spectrum of valuable statistics and other information regarding the activities, as well as the structure and jurisdiction, of Texas' complex judicial system. The report also discusses the activities of the Texas Judicial Council, the Task Force on Indigent Defense, the Judicial Committee on Information Technology, and the Office of Court Administration. The report is accessible online at the Texas Judiciary Online website, http://www.courts.state.tx.us/publicinfo/annual_reports.asp.

The Texas Judicial Council worked this past year to provide information and recommendations to the 78th Legislature for improving the administration of the Texas Judicial System. Each Council recommendation was developed in a public forum with input from the Judiciary, the bar and the general public. The Council made recommendations concerning the equalization of appellate court funding, improvements to the efficiency of the current district court system, and incentives for jury service.

This report also includes for the first time a report on the activities of the Task Force on Indigent Defense, a standing committee of the Texas Judicial Council. As part of the Texas Fair Defense Act (Senate Bill 7), the 77th Legislature created the Task Force to assist local governments in the provision of legal representation for indigent defendants. In March 2002, the Task Force began the process of awarding approximately $7 million in grant funds to qualifying counties and began the development of uniform indigent defense policies and standards.

The Judicial Committee on Information Technology, originally created by the 75th Legislature in 1997, continued its efforts to integrate information technology into the trial and appellate courts. Although the Committee's many important accomplishments for fiscal year 2002 are set out in this report, the most noteworthy include the initiation of a comprehensive electronic court filing project, the improvement of case management and web services for the appellate courts, and the provision of secure e-mail and website hosting for trial courts.

The Texas Judicial Council and the Office of Court Administration would like to thank the judges and clerks at all court levels for their cooperation. This report would not be possible without their diligent reporting efforts and their responses to requests for information on court operations. Finally, I would like to thank the staff members of the Office of Court Administration for their dedication to the preparation of this report on the activities of the judicial system.

ACTIVITIES AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

TEXAS JUDICIAL COUNCIL
OFFICE OF COURT ADMINISTRATION
JUDICIAL COMMITTEE ON INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY
TASK FORCE ON INDIGENT DEFENSE

INTRODUCTION TO THE REPORTS

Reports for the fiscal year 2002 activities of the Texas Judicial Council, Office of Court Administration, Judicial Committee on Information Technology, and Task Force on Indigent Defense follow this introductory section.

The 22-member Texas Judicial Council is the primary policy-making body responsible for studying and recommending changes to the current and future state of the judiciary. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals serve as chair and vice-chair of the Council, respectively. The Chief Justice, the Governor of Texas, the Lieutenant Governor, and the Speaker of the House appoint the other members, which include ten judges, four legislators, and six citizen members from across the state. Together with the input of judges, legislators, public officials, members of the bar, and the public, the Council strives to improve the quality and efficiency of justice in Texas.

The headquarters staff of the Office of Court Administration, authorized at a budget level of 44.5 full-time equivalents, provides research support, as well as technical, legal, and administrative assistance, to the Texas Judicial Council, the Judicial Committee on Information Technology, other judicial boards and commissions, and all courts of the state. Acting under the direction and supervision of the Supreme Court and the Chief Justice, and managed by an administrative director, the Office of Court Administration conducts research and studies as well as provides management and technical assistance to provide uniform administration of the courts and efficient administration of justice throughout the state judicial system.

OCA also employs personnel (88.5 full-time equivalents) needed to administer the adjudication of Title IV-D (child support establishment and enforcement) cases within the expedited time frames established by Chapter 201.110 of the Texas Family Code and personnel (30.0 full-time equivalents) needed to administer the adjudication of substitute care and child protective services cases within the time frames established by Chapter 263 of the Texas Family Code.

The 15-member Judicial Committee on Information Technology (JCIT) was created in 1997 by Senate Bill 1417, the Judicial Efficiency Bill, during the 75th Legislature. The committee's mission is to establish standards and guidelines for the systematic implementation and integration of information technology into the trial and appellate courts in Texas.

The 13-member Task Force on Indigent Defense is charged with directing and monitoring the distribution of funds to counties to provide indigent defense services, developing policies and standards for providing legal representation and other defense services to indigent defendants, providing technical support to counties relating to indigent defense, and establishing a statewide county reporting plan for indigent defense information. The Office of Court Administration employs 5.0 full-time equivalents to support the activities of the Task Force.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE

FISCAL YEAR 2002

I. INTRODUCTION

The Texas Judicial Council (Council) was created in 1929 by the 41st Legislature to study and make recommendations for improving the administration of the Texas judicial system. Since its inception, the Council has collected comprehensive statewide statistics on the operation of Texas' courts. The Office of Court Administration (OCA) helps the Council fulfill its duties by collecting and annually publishing information on the docket activities of each appellate, district, county, justice, and municipal court in the state.

In 1997, the 75th Legislature passed House Bill 2297 which restructured the membership of the Council and placed it under the direct supervision of the Chief Justice. Those changes, along with legislative appropriations for the hiring of two full-time staff persons, substantially improved the Council's ability to address the most pressing issues facing Texas' judicial system.

This report discusses the activities, findings, and recommendations of the Texas Judicial Council since December 1, 2001.

II. DUTIES, MEMBERSHIP, MEETINGS, AND COMMITTEES

- A. Duties. Chapter 71, Government Code, charges the Council with the following duties: 1
  - continuously study the organization, rules, procedures and practice, work accomplished, results, and uniformity of the discretionary powers of the state courts and methods for their improvement;
  - receive and consider advice from judges, public officials, members of the Bar, and citizens concerning remedies for faults in the administration of justice;
  - design methods for simplifying judicial procedure, expediting the transaction of judicial business, and correcting faults in the administration of justice;
  - file a complete detailed report with the Governor and the Supreme Court before December 2 of each year on Council activities, information from the Council's study, and Council recommendations;
  - investigate and report on matters concerning the administration of justice that the Supreme court or the Legislature refers to the Council; and
  - gather judicial statistics and other pertinent information from the several state judges and other court officials of the state.
- B. Membership. The Council consists of 22 members. Chief Justice Thomas R. Phillips serves ex officio as chair, and Presiding Judge Sharon Keller of the Court of Criminal Appeals serves ex officio as vice-chair. Chief Justice Phillips appointed the following judges to serve on the Council:

Chief Justice John H. Cayce (2nd Court of Appeals); Judge Al Green (Justice of the Peace Precinct 7, Harris County); Justice Ann McClure (8th Court of Appeals); &lt;sup>1</sup> See §§ 71.031-71.035, Government Code.

ANNUAL REPORTS OF THE JUDICIAL SUPPORT AGENCIES

Judge Orlinda L. Naranjo (Travis County Court-at-Law No. 2); Judge Jim Parsons (3rd District Court); Judge Glenn Phillips (Kilgore Municipal Court); Judge Penny L. Pope (Justice of the Peace Precinct 2, Galveston County); Presiding Judge Dean Rucker (318th District Court); Judge Rodolfo Tamez (Presiding Judge, Corpus Christi Municipal Court); and Judge Mike Wood (Harris County Probate Court No. 2).

Lieutenant Governor Bill Ratliff appointed Senator Royce West of Dallas (serving in his capacity as chair of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee) and Senator Robert Duncan of Lubbock to the Council. Speaker Pete Laney appointed Representative Senfronia Thompson of Houston (serving in her capacity as chair of the House Committee on Judicial Affairs) and Representative Pete Gallego of Alpine to represent the Texas House of Representatives on the Council.

Governor George W. Bush appointed the following citizen members to the Council:

Ms. Willie Jean Birmingham (Marshall); Mr. Joseph A. Callier, Esq. (Houston); Deacon Jose Luis Lopez (Uvalde); and Ms. Ann Manning, Esq. (Lubbock).

Governor Rick Perry appointed the following citizen members to the Council:

Mr. Lance Richard Byrd (Dallas); and Ms. Delia Martinez-Carian, Esq. (San Antonio).

- C. Meetings. Since December 1, 2001, the Council conducted one public hearing on September 17, 2002 in Austin. Most of the Council's accomplishments were achieved after extensive study and examination in one of the six special committees appointed to work on the interim legislative mandates and judicial initiatives as discussed below.
- D. Committees. The Council appoints special committees to conduct the majority of its work. Each committee is instructed to obtain input from the public, the Legislature, the Judiciary, and other interested parties and to submit its final recommendations to the Council for consideration. The following committees were active during the 2001-2002 reporting period:
  - ► Committee on the Equalization of Appellate Court Funding
  - Committee on District Courts
  - Committee on Juries
  - Committee on Judicial Data Management
  - ► Committee on Judicial Training
  - Committee on Prosecutors in Justice of the Peace and Municipal Courts.

III. LEGISLATIVE MANDATES: RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE 78TH LEGISLATURE

A. Committee on the Equalization of Appellate Court Funding. In May 2001, the 77th Legislature attached a rider to Senate Bill 1 (the Appropriations Act) that required the Texas Judicial Council (Council) to "study issues involved in equalizing the funding of the sixteen appellate courts... [and to] include a comparison of current funding, staffing levels, caseload, and other appropriate variables." In order to comply with this legislative charge, the Council formed the Committee on the Equalization of Appellate Court Funding (Committee) in June 2001. The Committee, chaired by Chief Justice John Cayce, that are in need of additional judicial resources. After holding three public hearings, conducting extensive research, and soliciting input from the Legislature, the Presiding Judges of the nine administrative judicial regions, and the Judiciary, the Committee submitted its final work product to the Council for approval. On September 17, 2002, the Council adopted the Committee's report Assessing Judicial Workload in Texas' District Courts, which included the following key recommendations:

- The 78th Legislature should strive to fulfill its constitutional duty to equitably distribute judicial districts across the state;
- 2. The Texas Legislature should consider the implementation of statewide uniform jurisdiction for courts at the same level;
- 3. The 78th Legislature should appropriate the necessary funding to the Office of Court Administration and the Texas Judicial Council, for the implementation of a judicial workload assessment (weighted caseload study) for Texas' judicial districts to be conducted by the National Center for State Courts (NCSC) or some other comparable entity. The Legislature should also consider appropriating the necessary funding for a judicial workload assessment of Texas' entire trial court system;
- 4. The 78th Legislature should consider the implementation of a standardized procedure that would allow for the establishment of any additional district courts only as they are needed and only after a quantitative and qualitative review;
- 5. The Presiding Judges of Texas' nine administrative regions should develop and implement a Visiting Judge Reporting Form to be submitted to the Office of Court Administration (OCA) at least annually for inclusion in the Annual Report of the Texas Judicial System;
- 6. In an effort to improve the administration of and accessibility to Texas' district courts, judges and court personnel should continually strive to implement improvements in case management strategies, technology, and administrative procedures;
- 7. The Judicial Committee on Information Technology (JCIT) should continue its ongoing efforts to improve the technology that is available to the trial courts to promote internal efficiency; and
- 8. The Office of Court Administration (OCA) should continue its ongoing efforts to simplify the Annual Report of the Texas Judicial System by developing an automated reporting system, monitoring the quality of the data, improving court compliance, and streamlining the analysis of statewide trends and key statistical factors.
- C. Committee on Juries. In 2001, the 77th Legislature passed Senate Bill 395 by Senator Robert Duncan, which directed the Texas Judicial Council (Council) to "conduct a study to examine jury service in each county of this state; collect and examine information relating to reimbursement of expenses for jurors and other incentives for jury service." The Council was also required to collect and examine demographic and statistical information regarding each county's prospective and empaneled jurors. To comply with this charge, the Council created the Committee on Juries (Committee) in June 2001. The Committee, chaired by Senator Duncan, conducted two public hearings and solicited input from the 254 counties, the Legislative Budget Board, the Legislature, and the Judiciary. The Committee plans to issue its preliminary report and recommendations in December 2002.
- D. Committee on Judicial Data Management. In June 2001, pursuant to a rider attached to Senate Bill 1 (the Appropriations Act), the Council formed the Committee on Judicial Data Management (Committee), chaired by Judge Jim Parsons, to provide general assistance and guidance to the Office of Court Administration (OCA) in its effort to streamline, revise, and simplify the annual report of the Texas judicial conducted three public hearings and solicited input from several advisory members, the Legislative Budget Board (LBB), the Legislature, and the Council of Chief Justices. The Committee focused on developing a meaningful legislative appropriations process for Texas' appellate courts so as to ensure that sufficient funds are allocated for the preservation of public trust and for the protection of the rule of law. In January 2002, the Committee issued its final report State Funding for Texas' Appellate Courts. On September 17, 2002, the Council adopted the report and the following key recommendations:

- The Texas Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals should continue to submit their respective individual LARs, separate and apart from the fourteen intermediate appellate courts, under the guidance of the LBB to the Legislature for funding consideration;
- 2. The fourteen intermediate appellate courts should submit a joint, but not consolidated, LAR on behalf of all of the intermediate appellate courts under the guidance of the LBB to the Legislature for funding consideration. The joint, but not consolidated, LAR will consist of the fourteen individual appellate court LARs presented in a single package, without consolidation;
- 3. While preparing the joint, but not consolidated, LAR for the fourteen appellate courts, each court should continue to take into account the many factors that can directly affect a court's budget including, but not limited to, the number of justices, the number of full time employees, the number of new case filings, and the number of total cases on the docket;
- 4. To enhance a court's ability to manage the limited state resources and to promote efficiency and productivity, the appellate courts should maintain the current budget flexibility features afforded to them by the legislature through the block grant concept including the exemptions from FTE and travel cap limitations and the preservation of any Article IX UB between years in a biennia. While the courts appreciate the concept of block grant funding, a uniform funding methodology for the allocation of state funds among the fourteen appellate courts will not produce fair and adequate results;
- 5. To facilitate and promote effective communication between the judiciary and the legislature, the Council of Chief Justices (CCJ) should continue to select an individual to serve as a representative of the fourteen intermediate appellate courts to provide invaluable testimony and supporting documentation to the legislature on behalf of and in the best interests of the fourteen intermediate appellate courts as a whole. However, due to the unique attributes of each of the fourteen appellate courts, each chief justice should maintain the discretion to testify before the legislature concerning the individual needs of his/her respective court; and
- 6. At the beginning of each legislative session, the CCJ should request that the legislature convene a joint subcommittee of House Appropriations and Senate Finance to separately address the LARs of the fourteen intermediate appellate courts such that the joint subcommittee could submit its recommendations to both the House and Senate for final approval.
- B. Committee on District Courts. In May 2001, the 77th Legislature attached a rider to Senate Bill 1 (the Appropriations Act) that required the Texas Judicial Council (Council) to "prepare a report on current district court locations, populations served, docket activity and other appropriate variables that would inform a legislative determination on the need for creating additional district courts." The rider also instructed the Council to collect statistics regarding the use of visiting judges and the efficiency of the current district court system. In order to comply with this legislative charge the Council formed the Committee on District Courts (Committee) in June 2001. The Committee, chaired by Representative Pete Gallego, recognized that both the Judiciary and the Legislature need an objective and reliable methodology to determine the location of any additional district courts in Texas. As a result, the Committee focused on developing appropriate criteria that would enable lawmakers to properly assess and identify those counties system. With a goal of increasing the accuracy and efficiency of the current reporting process, the Committee met in June 2001 to discuss alternative data submission options such as electronic data reporting and web-based reporting. After addressing the fiscal and statistical impacts of various reporting options, the Committee recommended, in part, that the OCA maintain the current summary-level database and pursue the web-based reporting option for the district and county courts. The Committee also requested that the OCA organize a workgroup of interested parties to examine the current data elements, propose any additional elements, develop clear definitions and directions, and explore the feasibility and usefulness of a cover sheet for civil case filings. The Committee plans to submit its final recommendations to the Council for approval in 2003.

IV. OTHER LEGISLATIVE PROPOSALS

- A. Judicial Campaign Finance. In October 1999, the Supreme Court of Texas created the Judicial Campaign Finance Study Committee (Study Committee) and asked the Study Committee to "propose both rule and statutory changes to improve the way in which campaigns for the Texas judiciary are financed." In February 1999, the Study Committee issued its final report and recommendations to the Supreme Court. The Court then held two public hearings with invited public testimony on the Study Committee's report. As part of its disposition of the Study Committee's recommendations, the Court directed the Texas Judicial Council (Council) to review the suggestions that: (1) limits be placed on the amount of campaign funds that judges can retain between elections; (2) limits be placed on judges' use of political contributions to make donations to political organizations; and (3) voter guides be developed to inform the public about judicial candidates. As a result, in August 1999, the Council created the Committee on Judicial Campaign Finance (Committee), chaired by Judge David Patronella, to study the issues outlined in the Court's directive and to develop recommendations for consideration by the full Council. The following legislative recommendations, which were filed during the 77th Regular Session but did not become law, were addressed by the Council in September 2002:
  - Judicial Contribution Limit. Senate Bill 822 by Senator Royce West would have established that for the purposes of contribution limits and limits on the reimbursement of personal funds, the primary and the general elections would be considered a single election for unopposed judicial candidates. That recommendation passed the Senate, but died in House Committee. The Council voted to support the legislative proposal during the upcoming 78th Legislative Session.
  - Judicial Contribution Prohibition. Senate Bill 823 by Senator Royce West and House Bill 167, as substituted, by Representative Pete Gallego would have prohibited unopposed judicial candidates, including independent and write-in candidates, from accepting political contributions. Judicial candidates would still be permitted to receive contributions during the 210 days prior to the filing deadline. After receiving a public hearing, each proposal died in committee. The Council voted to support the legislative proposal during the upcoming 78th Legislative Session.
  - ▶ Judicial Elections. House Bill 1117 by Representative Toby Goodman was similar to one of the Council's recommendations. The proposal would have required a candidate for office to the supreme court or court of criminal appeals who chose to pay the filing fee to also submit a petition with a minimum of 100 signatures from each of the five state senatorial districts. The bill, which was passed by the 77th Legislature, was vetoed by the Governor in June 2001. The Council voted to support the legislative proposal during the upcoming 78th Legislative Session.
  - Cross-Filing in Judicial Elections. House Bill 2884 by Representative Pete Gallego would have provided that a candidate for office to the supreme court, the court of criminal appeals, a court of appeal, a district court, or a statutory county court could seek nomination in the primary and/or general election as the nominee of one or more parties. The Council left the proposal pending.

- B. Visiting Judge Program. In November 1998, the Council submitted to the 76th Legislature several legislative proposals for improving the visiting judges' program. Those recommendations, which were filed as Senate Bill 263 by Senator Robert Duncan, were passed by the Senate and died in House Committee. In December 2000, the Council agreed to submit those same recommendations to the 77th Legislature. Those recommendations, which were filed as Senate Bill 397 by Senator Robert Duncan, died in Senate Committee. In September 2002, the Council voted to support the proposal during the upcoming 78th Legislative Session.
- C. Judicial Districts Board. The state's district courts have not been comprehensively redistricted since 1883 and the work of the Judicial Districts Board after the last census was not addressed by the Legislature. The Council created the Committee on Judicial Redistricting (Committee) to study and make recommendations to improve the method of reapportioning judicial districts in Texas. The Committee developed a legislative proposal that would abolish the Judicial Districts Board but retain the constitutional provision that requires the Legislative Redistricting Board to reapportion state judicial districts. In January 1999, the Council agreed to submit the recommendation to the 76th Legislature. That recommendation, which was filed as Senate Bill 412/Senate Joint Resolution 20, was passed by the Senate and died in House committee. In December 2000, the Council agreed to submit that same recommendation to the 77th Legislature. The proposals, filed as House Bill 1473/House Joint Resolution 61 by Representative Pete Gallego and Senate Bill 394/Senate Joint Resolution 15 by Senator Robert Duncan, died in committee. In September 2002, the Council left the recommendation pending until the next Council meeting.

V. JUDICIAL COUNCIL INITIATIVES

- A. Committee on Judicial Training. Currently, a number of associate judges, masters, magistrates, and referees may not receive sufficient judicial education or training. Yet, these individuals are serving in a judicial capacity and are subject to judicial sanctions. In June 2001, the Council formed the Committee on Judicial Training (Committee), to study and make recommendations regarding the need for judicial education and training of associate judges, masters, magistrates, and referees. The Committee, chaired by Justice Ann McClure, held its first public hearing on November 7, 2002 and plans to submit its recommendations to the Council for approval in December 2002.
- B. Committee on Prosecutors in the Justice of the Peace and Municipal Courts. In June 2001 the Council formed the Committee on Prosecutors in the Justice of the Peace and Municipal Courts (Committee) to identify, study, and make recommendations regarding those municipal and justice of the peace courts that do not have a prosecutor. The Committee, chaired by Judge Glenn Phillips, has begun its preliminary investigation into the matter and plans to meet in late December.
- C. Committee on the Judicial Voter Information Guide. As a result of the passage of House Bill 59 by Representative Robert Puente regarding the making of a voter information guide for judicial elections, the Council formed the Committee on the Voter Information Guide (Committee). Chief Justice Phillips offered the assistance of this Committee to the Secretary of State for the development and implementation of the voter information guide.

VI. OTHER COUNCIL ACTIVITIES

A. Student Loan Repayment Program. The 77th Legislature appropriated funds by rider to the Texas Judicial Council to maintain the student loan repayment program which was created by the 76th Legislature for those individuals who accept clerkships or temporary attorney positions in the appellate courts. The rider allocated $255,763 to the program for each fiscal year of the biennium (for a total of $511,526). In fiscal year 2002, there were 67 eligible applicants. Pursuant to the administrative guidelines as developed with assistance of the state's law schools, the staff of the Higher Education Coordinating Board, the Judiciary, and members of the Bar, applicants received a loan reimbursement in the amount of $3,830.26 for 12 months of service at an appellate court.

B. Hate Crime Reporting. House Bill 587 by Representative Senfronia Thompson relating to the investigation and prosecution of certain hateful acts was passed by the 77th Legislature and signed by the Governor in May 2001. To comply with the reporting requirements in the bill, the Office of Court Administration (OCA) developed a reporting form entitled "Report of a Request for a Hate Crime Finding." This form, along with a cover letter, was forwarded to each district and county clerk in August 2001. Since December 1, 2001, the OCA has received a total of six reports.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE

OFFICE OF COURT ADMINISTRATION

FISCAL YEAR 2002

I. INTRODUCTION

The Office of Court Administration was created in 1977 by the 65th Legislature to provide support and technical assistance to Texas courts at all levels, thereby providing the public access to a judicial system that is efficient and just.

The duties of the Office of Court Administration and its administrative director are set forth in sections 72.011 – 72.027, Government Code. According to section 72.011:

- (a) The office of court administration is an agency of the state and operates under the direction and supervision of the supreme court and the chief justice of the supreme court.
- (b) The office shall exercise the powers and perform the duties or functions imposed on the office by this chapter or the supreme court.

The Mission Statement of the Office of Court Administration is:

To promote Justice by providing Leadership and Service to the Texas Judicial System.

The Office will provide leadership by developing and implementing policies which enhance the Texas Judicial System; fostering court adaptation to future change; securing sufficient resources for state and local courts; strengthening the leadership role of the courts; providing innovative models for the organization and administration of the courts; and encouraging collaboration with and within all courts in Texas.

The Office will provide service by offering technical assistance; promoting knowledge; informing; educating; and generally supporting courts and judicial organizations.

II. SUMMARY OF AGENCY DUTIES AND ACTIVITIES

The following is a brief synopsis of the duties and activities of each division at the Office of Court Administration (OCA).

Divisions

- A. Research, Court Services, and Judicial Information. The Research, Court Services, and Judicial Information Division serves as a resource for the courts in key areas of judicial administration. The division provides consultation on recommended best practices in administrative operations, works to establish innovative court programs, serves to increase public accessibility to the courts, and helps develop and implement programs designed to increase the collection of fines, fees, and court costs. Moreover, division staff collect, analyze, and publish information related to court activities throughout the state. The statistics collected focus on significant issues and accomplishments in the judicial arena and are used for identifying opportunities for improvement in the judicial system. The division also produces the Texas Judicial System Annual Report and the Texas Judicial System Directory. An expanded discussion of the activities and accomplishments of the Research and Court Services Department is included in Section IV.
- B. Judicial Planning. The Judicial Planning Division directs strategic and long range planning for the Texas Judicial System. It provides staff support for the Texas Judicial Council in its effort to study the organization and work accomplished by the state's courts and methods for their improvement. The division consults with all levels of courts and the other branches of government to evaluate the effectiveness of planning and operational strategies, including the development of recommendations to the legislature. A more comprehensive presentation of the work products of the Judicial Planning Division is included in the annual report of the Texas Judicial Council.

- C. Information Services. The Information Services Division provides staff support for the Judicial Committee on Information Technology (JCIT). Division staff research, plan, and implement the latest technological innovations that best meet the strategic direction of the JCIT to facilitate improved court efficiencies and to promote establishment of technology standards throughout the Texas courts. The division also provides technical support of the desktops and network infrastructure for the appellate courts, as well as technical support for case management software for the appellate and trial courts. A more comprehensive description of the accomplishments of the JCIT and the Information Services Division follows this report on the OCA.
- D. Indigent Defense. The Indigent Defense Division supports the Task Force on Indigent Defense in directing and monitoring the distribution of funds to counties to provide indigent defense services, developing policies and standards for providing legal representation and other defense services to indigent defendants, providing technical support to counties relating to indigent defense, and establishing a statewide county reporting plan for indigent defense information. A more comprehensive description of the accomplishments of the Task Force follows this report on OCA.
- E. Legal. The Legal Division attorneys render legal advice to OCA management and to judicial officers and boards. The Legal Division produces the District Clerk Procedure Manual and County Clerk Procedure Manual, and promulgates legislatively-mandated forms such as the model jury summons and questionnaire and the standard felony judgment form. It provides training to judges and clerks on relevant matters of law. It also assists the presiding judges in administering the Title IV-D Masters Program and the Foster Care Courts Program. An expanded discussion of the activities and accomplishments of the Legal Division is included in Section IV below.
- F. Finance and Operations. The Finance and Operations Division provides technical assistance to appellate courts and other judicial entities in their business operations. The division also provides administrative, accounting and budgetary support to agency management and employees, as well as to other judicial boards and commissions.
- G. Human Resources. The Human Resources (HR) Division provides services in support of OCA's efforts to recruit, hire, train, compensate and retain the skilled workforce needed to support the judiciary. The division is available as a technical resource to assist judicial officers, courts, boards, and commissions with a variety of human resources issues, including drafting of personnel policies and procedures, assisting with personnel-related compliance audits, recruiting of staff, and providing training for judges and clerks on various personnel topics. The HR Division also takes a leadership role in keeping the courts abreast of current employment laws, trends, and mandates required for effective human resources management.

III. STRATEGIC PLANNING AND CUSTOMER SERVICE

A. Strategic Plan

On June 3, 2002, OCA submitted its first, formal strategic plan to the Legislative Budget Board and the Governor's Office. In the plan, OCA identified two agency goals: (1) Improve Processes and Report Information, and (2) Complete Specialized Court Program Cases.

The first goal includes strategies for Court Administration, Information Technology, Docket Equalization, Assistance to Administrative Judicial Regions, and Indigent Defense. The second goal includes the Title IV-D (Child Support) Masters and Assistants Program and the Foster Care Courts Program. A complete copy of the Strategic Plan for Fiscal Years 2003-07 can be found at OCA's Website:

http://www.courts.state.tx.us/oca/strategic_plan/table_of_contents.htm

B. Customer Service Survey

As part of the strategic planning process, OCA completed a customer service survey. Customers were asked to respond to statements in the survey using a numerical scale, with "5" signifying "Strongly Agree" and "1" indicating "Strongly Disagree." The survey instrument covered staff knowledge and courtesy, proper routing (communication) of the requests or inquiries, timeliness of responses, complaint handling, clarity and comprehensiveness of website and printed information, overall service quality, and suggestions for improvement of service delivery.

The survey was sent to the chief justices and court clerks of the sixteen appellate courts, as well as to the presiding judge of each of the nine Administrative Judicial Regions. The survey was also sent to a proportional, stratified, random sample of 515 trial courts (approximately 20 percent of the customer base of 2,587 trial courts). In total, 556 customers were surveyed.

Overall, respondents expressed a high level of satisfaction with OCA services. More than 98 percent of all respondents rated their overall satisfaction between a "3" and "5." As shown below, the average score was 4.41.

OVERALL CUSTOMER SATISFACTION

	% Respondents Indicating Satisfaction	Lowest Score Received	Highest Score Received	Mean Score
Overall, I was satisfied with my experience. (n=152)	98.6 %	1	5	4.41

The complete report on customer service can be found at OCA's website:

IV. ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN FISCAL YEAR 2002

A. RESEARCH AND COURT SERVICES DEPARTMENT

During fiscal year 2002, the department's activities included the development and continuation of numerous programs and projects designed with the purpose of increasing the collection of fines, fees, and court costs, improving the administrative operation of the courts, and increasing the public's accessibility to the courts. The highlights of the programs and projects of the Research and Court Services Department are as follows:

- 1. Collections Improvement Project. Assisted in implementing OCA's model fine collections programs in the county-level courts in Medina and Gillespie counties, the justice courts in Wichita County, and the municipal court in the City of Odessa. Also, OCA provided technical assistance to the existing fine collections programs in Bexar, Bowie, Cameron, Dallas, El Paso, Galveston, Harris, Hidalgo, Jefferson, Kerr, Lubbock, Montgomery, Randall, San Patricio, and Tom Green counties. Further, OCA evaluated how collections are handled in the City of Lockhart and in Aransas, Grayson, Hood, Travis, and Wharton counties and made collections improvement recommendations. By the end of fiscal year 2002, 34 counties, 4 cities, and 156 courts (including district, county-level, justice, and municipal courts) in the state were utilizing fine collections programs.
- 2. Rural Court Delay Reduction Program. Obtained a $96,966 grant from the Edward Byrne Memorial State and Local Law Enforcement Assistance Grant Program to continue a rural court delay reduction program for a fourth and final year. The program was originally implemented in six district courts that serve a total of 18 counties. Due to the success of the program in the 21st and 335th District Courts, the commissioners courts in the counties served by those courts agreed to fund, starting on June 1, 2001, the court coordinator position originally created and funded under this grant project. As a result, during the fourth year of the project, a total of four district courts that serve a total of 14 counties continued to receive grant funding. This grant project provided trained court coordinators to assist judges in drug and criminal case management through the use of OCA's case management software and the implementation of innovative case management techniques, including differentiated case management. The participating counties agreed to provide a cash match of $32,322, resulting in a total project cost of $129,288. The grant period was June 1, 2001 through May 31, 2002.

- 3. Criminal Differentiated Case Management Pilot Project. Obtained a $161,369 grant from the Edward Byrne Memorial State and Local Law Enforcement Assistance Grant Program to continue the implementation of a criminal differentiated case management system in the district courts in Lubbock and Hidalgo counties. The goal of the project was to improve the criminal case management system in each of the project counties to enable the district courts to dispose of criminal cases in a more expeditious manner and make better use of existing judicial resources. The participating counties agreed to contribute a cash match of $53,790, resulting in a total project cost of $215,159. The grant period was September 1, 2001 to August 31, 2002.
- 4. Juvenile Law Referees. Obtained a $190,803 Juvenile Justice Accountability Incentive Block Grant to continue the project for a third year. The purpose of the project was to hold juvenile offenders more accountable for their actions by providing additional judicial officers and support staff to efficiently and effectively process the large volume of juvenile cases in Hidalgo and Bexar counties. The participating counties agreed to provide a cash match of $126,403, resulting in a total project cost of $317,206. The grant period was August 1, 2001 through July 31, 2002.
- 5. Case Management Review of Grayson County Courts. Conducted a case management review of three district courts and two county courts at law in Grayson County in order to gain an understanding of the manner in which cases were processed. During the period May 2000 to November 2001, OCA gathered statistical and other information, performed site visits to interview participants involved in processing cases, and analyzed the information collected to identify opportunities for improvement in the case management system. A final report of findings and recommendations was released in December 2001.
- 6. Financial Management Counseling Pilot Project. Obtained a $40,000 grant from the State Justice Institute to implement a pilot project in Dallas County designed to improve the services provided to offenders referred to the Dallas County Criminal Courts Collections Department. The goal of the project, which involved the hiring of a financial management counselor ("FMC"), was to improve the collections rate of the department by assisting offenders who requested assistance with personal debt management for the purpose of paying their court-ordered fines, fees, and court costs. The grant period was May 1, 2000 to April 30, 2002. A final evaluative analysis report of the pilot project was published in April 2002. Due to the success of the project, the Dallas County commissioners court agreed to continue funding the FMC position after grant funding for the pilot project ended.
- 7. Trial Court Technology Survey 2001. In August 2001, OCA and JCIT surveyed all trial courts, district clerks, and county clerks in the state to determine their technology capabilities and needs. Because of the technical nature of the information sought, considerable follow up with the courts and clerks was required. A final report on the survey results was released in August 2002.
- 8. Court Costs and Fees Handbook for County Clerks and District Clerks. Drafted a handbook to aid clerks and others by providing up-to-date information on various topics concerning court costs and fees in criminal cases. The handbook was published in September 2001.
- 9. Court Financial Management Handbook for Texas Counties. Drafted a handbook to aid judges, clerks, county auditors, and others by providing up-to-date information on various topics regarding justice, county-level, and district court financial management. The handbook was published in April 2002.

The grants received by OCA (from federal, state, or other sources) for projects, such as those described in 2., 3., 4. and 6. above, are primarily pass-through grants which go to local participating governments or courts to cover the project costs under the grant. The local government or court also generally provides the preponderance of any local matching funds required as a condition of the grant. Generally, OCA participation under the grant project occurs on an "in-kind" basis and takes two forms: (1) Research and Court Services research staff participate in the actual research, analysis, and report-writing phases of a grant project; and (2) OCA staff serve as grant manager or fiscal agent in administering the grant by reviewing expenditures and filing necessary grant reports to the funding agency. By providing this assistance at minimal or no cost to the grant, OCA can maximize the use of grant funds for the local participant.

B. LEGAL DIVISION

During fiscal year 2002, the Legal Division provided legal counsel and assistance to OCA management and to judicial officers and boards. Some of the major projects for which the division has taken a leadership role are as follows:

- Task Force on Indigent Defense. A division attorney served as acting interim director of the Task Force on Indigent Defense, ensuring that OCA and the counties implemented the Fair Defense Act before the Task Force was appointed, and providing legal counsel and assistance.
- 2. Information Services. The division assisted the Judicial Committee on Information Technology in its Judicial Data project and its Electronic Filing project, and rendered assistance throughout the year on procurements and technology contracts important to the success of various projects of JCIT.
- Judicial Redistricting. The division's general counsel served as counsel to the Judicial Districts Board and provided assistance to the Senate Jurisprudence Committee in its judicial redistricting charge.
- 4. Training. OCA attorneys served as faculty to the Texas County and District Courts Association, the State Bar of Texas, the Texas Justice Court Training Center, the Texas Municipal Courts Education Center, the Texas Association of Counties, the County and District Clerks' Association, and other entities.
- 5. Assistance to the Presiding Judges. OCA's Legal Division also enhanced the services provided to the presiding judges of the administrative judicial regions. For the Title IV-D Masters Program, Legal staff assisted with the administration of employment evaluations of the masters and assistants. For the Foster Care Courts program, Legal staff assisted with the implementation of six new courts. Legal staff also assisted with judicial training for the Title IV-D masters and the Foster Care Courts staff. The presiding judges met as a board to administer the Title IV-D Masters Program and the Foster Care Courts Program seven times between September 1, 2001 and August 31, 2002. The Legal Division provided administrative support at these meetings.
- 6. Title IV-D Masters Program. Through a cooperative agreement with the Office of the Attorney General, OCA receives state and federal funds to administer the Title IV-D Masters Program. The program consists of 41 masters who hear child support cases, their 39 assistants, and two court monitors. OCA pays the salary and travel expenses for the Title IV-D Masters Program staff. OCA also maintains an automated case management system to support the Title IV-D Masters Program. The system permits the masters, assistants, and court monitors to monitor their caseloads and report caseload information to their presiding judges.
- 7. Foster Care Courts. During fiscal year 2002, six new foster care courts were established, for a total of 14 foster care courts. Two more courts will begin operations in FY 2003. Currently, each court serves between four and 17 counties; a total of 124 counties are served by these courts. The Legal Division's Foster Care Courts' attorney also worked with the Legislative Budget Board and the Governor's Office to develop performance measures for the Foster Care Courts. The performance measures will count the number of hearings and the number of children receiving a final order within each fiscal year.

C. FINANCE AND OPERATIONS DIVISION

- MIP Accounting System. In March 2002, OCA began using its new MIP (Micro Information Products) accounting system, which will allow the agency to interface with the state's Uniform Statewide Accounting System (USAS) to track financial data more effectively, while providing a wide variety of reporting capabilities that were not available in the past. As of August 31, 2002, OCA has completed implementation of the new system. All accounting data for FY 2002 has been entered, and FY 2003 data is being entered exclusively into the new system.
- 2. Internal Audit. In FY 2002, OCA began planning to implement an internal audit function. The agency intends to contract with a vendor to provide internal audit services that comply with the Texas Internal Auditing Act, §2102.001 et seq. of the Texas Government Code. Section 2102.003 defines "state agency" as a department, board, bureau, institution, commission, or other agency in the executive branch of state government. Therefore, the OCA, being in the judicial branch of state government, is exempt from this requirement.

Despite OCA's statutory exemption, OCA's administrative director has determined it is in the best interest of the agency to implement internal auditing activities at OCA, using Chapter 2102 as its guide. The auditing services will assist the administrative director by furnishing independent analyses, appraisals, and recommendations about the adequacy and effectiveness of OCA's systems of internal control policies and procedures and the quality of performance in carrying out assigned responsibilities.

The internal auditing function will be implemented at OCA in FY 2003.

D. HUMAN RESOURCES DIVISION

The Human Resources Division was created late in fiscal year 2001 as a separate division reporting directly to OCA's administrative director.

During fiscal year 2002, activities were focused on hiring a new director and reviewing, revising and/or developing agency policies and procedures related to human resources management. Accomplishments include successful resolution of an October 2001 personnel policy audit by the Texas Commission on Human Rights (TCHR); successful completion of a risk management review conducted by the State Office of Risk Management (SORM) in May 2002; revision of the agency's EEO training program; development of an agency Workforce Plan in support of the FY 2004-2005 Strategic Plan; and assisting in the recruitment and selection of 25 new employees across various programs (including the newly-formed Task Force on Indigent Defense).

Preliminary steps were taken to assist the appellate courts (through the Council of Chief Justices) in coordinating personnel polices and recruitment initiatives, such as the creation of a uniform employment application for the courts' legal personnel. In addition, the Human Resources Division responded to numerous inquiries from appellate court clerks, or served as intermediary between the clerks and other agencies (e.g. State Auditor, SORM, etc.), regarding a variety of human resources issues and concerns.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE JUDICIAL COMMITTEE ON INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY FISCAL YEAR 2002

I. INTRODUCTION

The Office of Court Administration (OCA) provides staff for researching and planning activities, fiscal services, and administrative support to the Judicial Committee on Information Technology (JCIT). The 75th Legislature created the JCIT in 1997 in Senate Bill 1417, the Judicial Efficiency Bill. The committee's mission is to establish standards and guidelines for the systematic implementation and integration of information technology into the trial and appellate courts in Texas. Its goal is to coordinate the design and implementation of a statewide computer communications network and a comprehensive justice information system. The general powers and duties of JCIT are outlined in Section 77.031, Texas Government Code (Vernon 1997).

II. MEMBERSHIP

The 15 voting members of the JCIT are appointed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court to represent all levels of the judiciary—including, but not limited to appellate court judges, appellate court clerks, district court judges, county court judges, statutory probate judges, justices of the peace, municipal court judges, district attorneys, court reporters, court administrators, district or county clerks, members of the legislature, attorneys, and the general public. Voting members serve four-year terms. Eight of the current members are serving terms set to end August 31, 2003, and seven of the current members are serving terms set to end August 31, 2005. All current voting member appointments were made on August 28, 2001. Seventeen additional members serve as non-voting liaison and advisory members of the committee, with no defined terms.

Members of the JCIT as of August 31, 2002 were:

MEMBER	POSITION	TERM EXPIRES

III. OVERVIEW

JCIT and OCA serve approximately 20,000 court officials and staff in over 3,000 courts in regions, districts, counties, precincts, and municipalities throughout the state. The role of JCIT and OCA is to provide leadership and support to integrate justice information and to affect the seamless exchange of information across courts at all levels.

JCIT requested and received legislative appropriations for the 2002-2003 biennium to support OCA's current infrastructure and software applications for appellate and trial courts, to complete the design and implementation of a standardized appellate court case management system, to assist courts in replacing OCA's aging trial court case management system, and to replace the Judicial Council's court statistics database. The legislature also appropriated funds to upgrade OCA's current network that supports the 16 appellate courts, State Prosecuting Attorney, State Law Library, Court Reporters Certification Board, foster care courts and IV-D Masters, Texas Task Force on Indigent Defense, selected trial courts' electronic mail, and Office of Court Administration.

The JCIT Chair appointed subcommittees for each of the funded projects to provide planning guidance to the OCA staff. The Chair also appointed subcommittees to provide guidance for unfunded, targeted areas including standards, telecommunications, and trial court assistance. All funded and unfunded projects are integrated into the Committee's planning and oversight. Subcommittee membership is extended to non-JCIT members from the public and private sectors to provide specialized expertise and experience.

The Committee has continued to coordinate closely with its stakeholders—state agencies, local governments, and judicial associations—to define requirements and make the best use of scarce resources. The list of stakeholders that JCIT consulted during fiscal year 2002 to improve justice information integration includes the Texas Departments of Information Resources, Public Safety, Protective and Regulatory Services, and Criminal Justice; Criminal Justice Policy Council; Council of Chief Justices of the Courts of Appeals; Telecommunications Planning and Oversight Council; State Bar of Texas; Texas Association of Counties; Texas Tech University School of Law; Texas County and District Clerks Association; Texas Center for the Judiciary; Conference of Urban Counties; Texas Justice Court Training Center; Texas Municipal Court Education Center; Access to Justice Commission; and several counties and regional councils of government.

The Committee also surveyed each court and clerk in Texas to determine their technology needs and priorities. The results are published in the Trial Court Technology Survey Report 2001.

IV. ACCOMPLISHMENTS

JCIT's successes during fiscal year 2002 include these significant accomplishments.

A. Appellate Court Projects. JCIT, through the staff of the Office of Court Administration, completed development of Windows-based case management software for the intermediate appellate courts. Through August 31, 2002, OCA has converted 13 of the 14 intermediate courts of appeals to new case management software. OCA development and implementation work should be complete for the conversions for the remaining intermediate court, plus the Court of Criminal Appeals and Supreme Court, in fiscal year 2003.

OCA converted 11 of 14 intermediate appellate courts to the Texas Judiciary Online (http://www.courts.state.tx.us/) website and will convert the remaining courts as scheduled by the courts. Also, OCA developed a case notification system—CaseMail—to notify interested parties of case activities. Interested parties can sign up for CaseMail notices for any case in any appellate court that uses the Texas Judiciary Online website.

The servers and operating systems in all appellate courts except the Supreme Court were upgraded by OCA. The Supreme Court server upgrade will be completed in 2003. OCA also upgraded servers and operating systems for its supported judicial agencies (including the State Prosecuting Attorney, Court Reporters Certification Board, and State Law Library) in fiscal year 2002.

OCA continued infrastructure and daily operations support for its 24 supported entities and began negotiating a disaster recovery planning contract with the West Texas Disaster Recovery and Operations Center (WTDROC).

B. Electronic Court Filing. The legislature charged the Committee to "develop minimum standards for an electronically based document system to provide for the flow of information within the judicial system in electronic form and recommend rules relating to the electronic filing of documents with courts." To fulfill this mandate, JCIT coordinated with the Department of Information Resources, the national judicial standards committees, and Texas clerks and courts.

JCIT adopted an electronic court filing strategy in fiscal year 2002 that allows filers and courts to connect electronically through the state's e-Government portal, TexasOnline. The 77th Legislature created TexasOnline to make government more accessible to Texas citizens through electronic means. The electronic filing system network architecture is designed to move documents from the filer's desktop computer to the filer's open-market services provider to TexasOnline and on to the clerk of the court. This system design takes advantage of lessons learned in earlier efforts in other states by allowing each filer to file electronically in any participating court using only one service provider. It also allows courts to accept filings from all commercial filing services without having to connect to each one individually.

JCIT worked closely with judges, clerks, and court staff in 2002 to develop recommended local rules for the electronic filing system. TexasOnline plans electronic filing pilot projects in Bexar and Fort Bend Counties beginning in fiscal year 2003, followed by implementation in a number of counties. The electronic filing local rules will be evaluated during the pilots and the results may be adopted by the Texas Supreme Court in revised Rules of Civil Procedure.

JCIT developed standards for the electronic exchange of data and the required document formats for electronic filings. JCIT recommended, and the TexasOnline Authority approved, a flat $2.00 per-filing convenience fee to be collected by the pilot counties to recover direct implementation and operating costs.

JCIT developed and published a "white paper" to provide electronic court filing details to assist counties, courts, clerks, vendors, attorneys, and the public in planning for this capability. The JCIT's "Electronic Filing White Paper," is available online at http://www.courts.state.tx.us/jcit/standards/Efiling/E-filingProjectwebsite.htm.

C. Telecommunications. JCIT, through the Office of Court Administration, developed and maintains a database of telecommunications and connectivity options for all Texas courts. The database is posted on the Texas Judiciary Online (http://telecom.courts.state.tx.us/) and is available to courts, clerks, local governments, state agencies, and the public to support planning efforts. The telecommunications database provides information to assist planners in determining available connectivity options for their locations. The database can display for each court location the type of services available (dial-up, digital subscriber lines, satellite, frame relay, etc.), and the estimated costs of each type of service. The database includes information on toll-free dial-up Internet service available through the FBI's Law Enforcement Online (LEO).

JCIT's resolution for a shared justice telecommunications network was updated and adopted in June 2002. The new vision statement defines requirements for planning, developing, testing, and funding a shared network, along with bandwidth, security, and quality of service standards. The updated requirements are available at http://www.courts.state.tx.us/jcit/Resolutions/SharedJusticeNetwork.pdf.

The JCIT Telecommunications Subcommittee, chaired by JCIT Vice Chair, Dr. Don Hardcastle of Baylor University, participated with the Department of Information Resources, Department of Public Safety, Texas Association of Counties, County Information Resources Agency, Texas Telecommunications Planning and Oversight Council, and other agencies to develop a strategy and plan for a statewide, consolidated telecommunications network. The network as envisioned would serve the judiciary as well as other state and local government entities and would fit the JCIT's vision for a shared justice network. The potential cost savings from economies of scale and aggregated demand are attractive. The expected increases in quality of service for all users are promising. JCIT will continue to work to represent the interests of the judiciary in this coordinated enterprise.

JCIT is planning a county connectivity project for the next biennium that will extend broadband telecommunications to courts that have no telecommunications connectivity or only dial-up service. JCIT's goal is to fund and install broadband hardware and initial connectivity in up to 60 rural counties.

D. Trial Court Assistance. The Committee had limited funding to assist trial courts in fiscal year 2002, so it sought innovative, no-cost solutions to meet several judicial requirements.

JCIT and OCA established secure e-mail services for district and statutory county court judges and staff. Through fiscal year 2002, JCIT and OCA provided over 280 accounts to give judges official state domain e-mail services to replace commercial e-mail addresses. For example, a judge can now use a government domain address such as District.Judge@444th.courts.state.tx.us for official court business instead of having to use a commercial account.

JCIT and OCA contracted with the County Information Resources Agency (CIRA)—part of the Texas Association of Counties (TAC)—to provide secure e-mail services to rural Texas counties. Using OCA's hardware, CIRA established secure e-mail accounts for over 160 officials in rural counties, including more than 60 judges and clerks. Through this JCIT initiative, CIRA also established and supports official county websites for 70 rural counties (see, for example, the Loving County website at http://www.co.loving.tx.us/).

In 2001, JCIT purchased a portable wireless network with 20 student laptop computers for use by the four judicial training centers. During fiscal year 2002, this system was used to train almost 200 judges and staff at training locations across the State of Texas.

JCIT assisted the judicial training centers in planning a Texas Court Technology Conference to be held in conjunction with the Government Technology Conference in Austin in January 2003. TAC will serve as sponsor, with the other three judicial training centers providing co-sponsorship. Conference plans include seminars, technology demonstrations, online legal research training, and the National Center for State Courts' portable Courtroom 21.

JCIT, OCA, the Department of Public Safety (DPS), and CIRA coordinated to provide toll-free Internet access to rural courts through the FBI's Law Enforcement Online (LEO). Several rural judges and clerks signed up for this free Internet service in fiscal year 2002.

JCIT approved, and OCA submitted to the Governor's Office, a block federal grant application for $2.36 million to provide electronic disposition and arrest reporting capabilities in selected counties. With the demands for homeland security improvements, all available criminal justice grant funds were dedicated to that requirement, so unfortunately JCIT's request was not funded for fiscal year 2003.

In late 2001, JCIT and OCA surveyed Texas trial courts to determine their information technology capabilities and their requirements. The results of the survey will be used to develop future projects to meet the technology needs of the courts. The resulting Trial Court Technology Report - 2001 is available on the Texas Judiciary Online website at http://www.courts.state.tx.us/publicinfo/tc survey.pdf).

JCIT and OCA renewed the statewide contracts for online legal research services with leading vendors, adding public defenders to the eligible applicants. This contract provides significant cost savings for the judiciary over regular commercial rates. Rates and services are available to courts on the Texas Judiciary Online website at http://www.courts.state.tx.us/jcit/contractdocs.htm.

JCIT and OCA coordinated with the Texas Municipal Court Education Center on the development and implementation of a standardized electronic municipal court bench book. The municipal court bench book is available on the Texas Judiciary Online website at http://www.courts.state.tx.us/publicinfo/2001benchbook/.

JCIT and OCA, in partnership with Texas criminal justice professionals, defined, developed, and promulgated standard felony judgment forms pursuant to Section 42.01 of the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure. The standard forms are available for use by district courts, clerks, and attorneys throughout the state. The forms provide approved, standard language in a pull-down format for quick and accurate entry of required felony conviction and sentencing information for use by the Texas Department of Criminal Justice. The Texas Judiciary Online website provides these standard forms at http://www.courts.state.tx.us/jcit/Felony Forms/TableofContents.htm.

JCIT and OCA researched and published a database of statutory reporting requirements by courts and clerks to state agencies. The database serves as the cornerstone to define judicial data sharing opportunities and provides a ready reference for courts and clerks. The database is available on the Texas Judiciary Online website at http://www.courts.state.tx.us/jcit/requirements/index.htm.

JCIT and OCA established a district court electronic newsgroup for district court judges. As part of the newsgroup, OCA provides secure folders for discussion and collaboration among district judges on judicial issues. The newsgroup is designed primarily for district judges in rural counties who typically do not have other local judges available for consultation.

JCIT and OCA assisted trial courts in obtaining surplus computer items from state sources. Each month state agencies post surplus property item listings on the Comptroller's website. Eligible political subdivisions, including courts, can claim the items on a first come, first served basis. JCIT publicizes the availability of the items in its newsletters and on its website (http://www.courts.state.tx.us/jcit/tsp.htm). In fiscal year 2002, some courts and training centers were successful in acquiring computers and peripheral items through this program.

E. Trial Court Case Management. The current version of OCA's case management system, used by more than 450 customers around the state, is more than 10 years old. As OCA's software approaches the end of its life cycle, it becomes more difficult to interface with the newer Windows operating systems. Based on legislative directions, JCIT's Trial Court Case Management project's goal is to replace the DOS-based system this biennium. The project will evaluate and verify commercial case management systems and make the systems available on statewide contracts through the Department of Information Resources (DIR).

JCIT and OCA developed the requirements, standards, and specifications for the replacement case management systems. These requirements definitions were coordinated with DIR, which has agreed to release the case management system request for offers (RFO) in fiscal year 2003. OCA and DIR will evaluate responding case management systems and those that meet required functions and standards will be added to statewide contracts managed by DIR. Local governments will be able to purchase the verified case management software and services at the best available rates from the DIR statewide contracts. As part of the JCIT strategy, OCA will support its existing DOS case management system through August 2005. After August 2005, OCA will no longer support or maintain its DOS system. Current customers will be encouraged to purchase a replacement system from the statewide contracts before September 2005.

JCIT began coordination with TexasOnline, the state's electronic government portal, to host a self-funding, web-based case management system. The system will be primarily for courts and clerks that cannot afford local infrastructure or support. If established, the system will be hosted and maintained by TexasOnline at its facilities at the West Texas Disaster Recovery and Operations Center (WTDROC) and accessible to the courts and clerks via the Internet. Funding strategies being considered include a fee-per-case solution that could be supported, for example, by court technology fees. Once designed, the proposed solution will require approval by the TexasOnline Authority before it can be implemented.

The OCA staff gathered system requirements for a case management system to support its 16 foster care courts. The foster care system will be developed in fiscal year 2003.

F. Trial Court Data Management. The Office of Court Administration publishes the Annual Report of the Texas Judicial System and the annual Texas Judicial System Directory. Data for these two annual reports are compiled from caseload, proceedings, activities, and revenue statistics reported by trial courts each month as well as from the personal data sheets submitted by judges and clerks. The legacy system is largely paper-based and, due to multiple points of data entry, sometimes data errors occur. The Trial Court Data Management project's goal is to make this system more efficient by improving data submission, processing, and dissemination.

JCIT and the OCA project team developed the system specifications based on guidance and direction from the Texas Judicial Council, which establishes the data reporting requirements. OCA released its request for offers (RFO) in July 2002 to replace the existing database and to develop and implement improved summary-level reporting capabilities. OCA and JCIT will evaluate vendor submissions and contract for the required services in fiscal year 2003.

OCA posted all trial court monthly report data from fiscal year 2000 to present on the Texas Judiciary Online (TJO) website (http://www.courts.state.tx.us/). The courts and the public no longer must wait for an annual report to review statistics; the information is made available on the TJO website as soon as it is reported.

An interim goal of the data management project was to offer online reporting to municipal and justice courts as a substitute for paper reporting. That capability was implemented in fiscal year 2002 and by August 2002 over 180 of the eligible courts had signed up to submit their monthly reports over the Internet. When fully implemented, the project will also offer web-based reporting to district and county courts and clerks.

In cooperation with the Department of Public Safety, JCIT and OCA assisted 10 counties in improving their electronic reporting of criminal case disposition information. The ten counties had previously received federal grant funds for electronic reporting but were experiencing technical or process challenges that prevented them from achieving accuracy and timeliness standards. JCIT and OCA continue to monitor electronic reporting and work with DPS to assist counties in meeting standards. JCIT and DPS have identified additional candidate counties for expansion of electronic reporting capabilities in fiscal year 2003.

JCIT and OCA participated in ongoing efforts to integrate justice information at all levels. Their efforts included working with the Department of Information Resources and justice agencies from the state and local level to develop the Texas Justice Information Integration Initiative (TJI3) Strategic Plan. JCIT and OCA also served as members of the State Agency Justice Information Coordinating Committee (SAJICC), which works to eliminate redundant reporting and to share justice information among agencies.

G. Judicial Information Technology Standards. The legislature authorized JCIT to develop standards for judicial information technology. JCIT's Standards Subcommittee is charged with researching, developing, and recommending judicial information technology standards for statewide use.

During fiscal year 2002, JCIT adopted standards for the security and protection of judicial information, judicial websites, and civil case management functions. JCIT also developed and adopted document and data exchange formats for electronic court filing. OCA developed proposed standards for Windows 2000 Server in appellate courts, which will be considered for adoption by JCIT in 2003.

Adopted standards can be viewed or printed from the JCIT website at http://www.courts.state.tx.us/jcit/standards/standards.htm. Standards in development and open for comment can be accessed on the JCIT website at http://www.courts.state.tx.us/jcit/standards/ProposedStandards.htm.

In August 2002, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court requested that JCIT develop a proposed policy for public access to court records. The Standards Subcommittee began work on that task as fiscal year 2002 closed. The draft policy is expected to be approved in fiscal year 2003 and forwarded to the Texas Judicial Council for action.

V. SUMMARY

Fiscal year 2002 was a busy, productive year for the Judicial Committee on Information Technology, one marked by significant progress, including: improving case management, web services, and infrastructure in appellate courts; providing secure e-mail and website hosting in trial courts; establishing statewide judicial information technology standards; and initiating a comprehensive electronic court filing project. JCIT focused on meeting the information needs of the judiciary. In doing so, JCIT implemented many of the recommendations of the 1996 Information Technology Task Force of the Commission on Judicial Efficiency. In the coming biennium, JCIT is committed to expand its successes.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE

TASK FORCE ON INDIGENT DEFENSE

FISCAL YEAR 2002

I. INTRODUCTION

The Texas Fair Defense Act (the Act) was enacted by the 77th Legislature and now is codified in Chapter 71 of the Government Code. It created the blueprint for interaction between state and local governments in providing legal representation and services for indigent defendants. It contains the following requirements for indigent defense representation: 1) prompt access to appointed counsel; 2) fair and neutral methods for selecting appointed counsel; 3) qualifications for appointed counsel; 4) financial standards and procedures for determining when a person is indigent; and, 5) procedures and fee schedules for appointed counsel, experts, and investigators.

The Act required the judges of county and district courts who handle criminal cases in each county and the county juvenile boards to prepare countywide procedures for timely and fairly appointing counsel to indigent defendants in criminal and juvenile cases, and to submit their countywide plans to the Office of Court Administration (OCA) by January 1, 2002. Each countywide plan was required to meet the statewide standards for indigent defense procedures specified in the Act.

The Act also created the Task Force on Indigent Defense (Task Force) to assist local governments in improving the delivery of indigent defense services. The Task Force is a standing committee of the Texas Judicial Council and is composed of eight ex officio members and five members appointed by the Governor. It is administratively attached to OCA but has fiscal independence. The Task Force's mission is advanced through state funding to counties and through development of uniform indigent defense policies and standards. In addition, the Task Force is monitoring county compliance through the collection of state-mandated indigent defense reports concerning county procedures and expenditures.

The Act became law on January 1, 2002, and the Governor made appointments to the Task Force on January 23rd. The Task Force met for the first time in February, and Chief Justice Tom Phillips appointed Sharon Keller, presiding judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, to serve as chair. Judge Keller appointed as vice chair Olen Underwood, judge of the 284th District Court and presiding judge of the 2nd Administrative Judicial Region of Texas. To focus the efforts of the Task Force, the chair appointed two committees: the Grants and Reporting Committee and the Policy and Standards Committee. The director of the Task Force, Jim Bethke, was hired in March of 2002, and four other staff members were hired by the end of May.

II. MEMBERSHIP

The members of the Task Force are as follows:

Members of the Judicial Council Who Are E (Govt. Code Sec.
(1) presiding judge of the court of criminal appeals:	Presiding Judge Sharon Keller Chair of Task Force
(2) chief justice of the supreme court:	Chief Justice Thomas Phillips
(3) member of the senate appointed by the lieutenant governor to serve on the council:	Senator Robert Duncan
(4) member of the house appointed by the speaker to serve on the council:	Representative Pete Gallego
(5) one of the courts of appeals justices serving on the council who is designated by the governor to serve on the Task Force on Indigent Defense:	Justice Ann McClure (El Paso)
(6) one of the county court or statutory county court judges serving on the council who is designated by the governor to serve on the Task Force on Indigent Defense or, if a county court or statutory county court judge is not serving on the council, one of the statutory probate court judges serving on the council who is designated by the governor to serve on the task force:	Judge Orlinda Naranjo County Court at Law No. 2 (Travis County)
(7) chair of the Senate Criminal Justice Committee:	Senator Ken Armbrister
(8) chair of the House Criminal Jurisprudence Committee:	Representative Juan Hinojosa
Task Force Members Appoin	ted by the Governor
(Govt. Code Sec.	71.053)
(9) one member who is an active district judge serving as a presiding judge of one of the nine administrative judicial regions;	Judge Olen Underwood, 284th District Court, presiding judge, 2 nd Administrative Judicial Region of Texas Vice Chair of Task Force

(11) one member who is a practicing criminal defense attorney;	Knox Fitzpatrick of Dallas, shareholder in the law firm Fitzpatrick, Hagood, Fisher & Holmes, L.L.P.
(12) one member who is a public defender or who is employed by a public defender; and	Eduardo Arredondo of Marble Falls, private practice and public defender for Burnet County
(13) one member who is a judge of a constitutional county court or who is a county commissioner of a county with a population of 250,000 or more	Benny Glen Whitley of Hurst, Tarrant County commissioner for precinct 3.

III. OVERVIEW

In March 2002, the Task Force began the process of awarding approximately $7 million in grant funds to all qualifying counties to improve indigent defense services. The Task Force adopted emergency grant administration rules and sent out grant application kits in April. The Task Force decided that Fiscal Year 2002 grant funding would be based on a population formula with a $5,000 minimum funding level to qualifying counties. Eligibility for grants was conditioned on fiscal and plan requirements. Counties fiscally qualified for funding if their FY 2002 annualized expenses were greater than their baseline expenses in FY 2001. Counties could alternatively qualify by providing commitments to use grant funds to improve their indigent defense systems. The county plans also were required to provide for the prompt access to counsel required by the Act.

Grant applications were due by May 31st. Only 68 counties qualified on both fiscal and plan requirements at the time the original grant applications were submitted. Task Force staff contacted each of the counties that did not initially qualify for the grants, as well as those counties that did not apply, to assist them in meeting the requirements of the grant program. These phone calls resulted in numerous grant application addenda and plan supplements being submitted, and helped many more counties demonstrate their eligibility for grant funding. On July 22, 2002, after this process was competed, the Task Force approved grant awards totaling $7,298,124 to 238 counties. Ten counties did not apply for grant funding and six counties did not qualify fiscally for funding. In late July, after submission of additional documentation, two of the six counties that originally did not qualify fiscally for the grant were awarded direct disbursements. Distribution of 238 grant awards and two direct disbursements was completed by September 3, 2002.

Simultaneous with the grant process, the Task Force began a preliminary analysis of the county plans for compliance with the Act. Professor Robert Dawson, of the University of Texas School of Law, graciously provided four law students to assist the Task Force in its analysis. This review indicated that 135 counties addressed each of the main requirements of the law.

This initial review of county plans was followed with a more in-depth review of county processes that focused on procedures for determining indigence and on minimum annual continuing legal education and experience requirements for attorneys handling appointments in criminal and juvenile cases. This more detailed review was completed at the direction of the Policies and Standards Committee, following its first meeting in May of 2002.

IV. ACCOMPLISHMENTS

The Task Force accomplished much in FY 2002. It collected the local indigent defense plans totaling more than 8,000 pages, examined the plans for content and posted them on the Internet, distributed approximately $7 million in grant funds, and began a statewide dialogue with many stakeholders concerning indigent defense. These accomplishments were consolidated into only eight months of activity. Furthermore, in what may be its greatest achievement, the Task Force has created an efficient and collaborative infrastructure for continuing implementation of the Act and for future improvements to indigent defense procedures statewide.

For a complete version of the Task Force's 2002 Annual Report, please visit the website at www.courts.state.tx.us/tfid.

THE TEXAS FAIR DEFENSE ACT WAS PASSED DURING THE LAST LEGISLATIVE SESSION TO IMPROVE INDIGENT DEFENSE IN TEXAS (S.B. 7)

First Comprehensive Statewide Mandate for New Local Rules and Standards to Improve Indigent Defense

- Prompt access to appointed counsel
- Fair and neutral methods for selecting attorneys
- Qualifications for appointed counsel
- Financial standards and procedures for determining whether a person is indigent
- Procedures for fees and schedule for expenses for attorneys, experts and investigators

First State Body to Administer Statewide Indigent Defense Policies

- Task Force on Indigent Defense as standing committee of the Texas Judicial Council with administrative support by Office of Court Administration
- Task Force to develop policies and standards related to indigent defense for the approval of the Texas Judicial Council

First State Funding Dedicated to Assist Counties in Improving Indigent Defense

- Task Force to distribute grants to counties to improve indigent defense systems based on a county's compliance with certain legal requirements under S.B. 7 and policies developed by the Task Force.
- Task Force was appropriated $19.8 million for the 2002-2003 biennium for administration and grants.

Administrative Implementation of Texas Fair Defense Act Has Been Successful and All Counties Have Submitted Plans to Meet the New Requirements

Task Force Established Basic Administrative and Reporting Infrastructure in a Short Time

Counties Have Submitted Local Plans Stating How They Will Meet Fair Defense Act Requirements

Prompt access to counsel requirement met by all counties with some exceeding requirements

75% of counties chose to appoint counsel using rotation from lists of qualified counsel Most counties require trial experience and continuing legal education (CLE) in criminal or juvenile law that are often graduated based on offense severity Most counties adopted procedures for determining indigence, published schedules of fees and procedures related to payment of attorneys, experts and investigators

INDIGENT DEFENSE POLICIES SHOULD CONTINUE TO IMPROVE NEXT BIENNIUM AS NEW STANDARDS ARE PROMULGATED AND EVALUATION INFORMATION BEGINS TO BE GENERATED

Task Force beings issuing policy and standards to improve the quality of indigent defense services October 2002 minimum attorney CLE rules proposed/model forms for magistrate's warning and attorney fee voucher were adopted

Will consider standards for determining indigence, operations of public defender and contract defender systems

Have the standards facilitated the implementation of the act?

Have the standards increased costs for the counties?

Task Force will start reviewing indigent defense expenditures

Local expenditures increased from $93 million in 2001 to $113 million in 2002*

LAR by Task Force for 2004-2005: $20 million

$19 million dedicated for grants to counties/$3.3 million exceptional item for additional grants making up for delay start-up first year revenue What has been the impact of state funding?

What additional areas should the state consider funding to enhance services?

Task Force will start prioritizing areas to evaluate impact of policy and standards

Evaluation strategy should be implemented to start producing performance information in key areas

How well did counties perform in meeting prompt appointment requirement, how is the rotation system working, do attorney qualifications match type of cases?

JUDICIAL BRANCH
STRUCTURE & OPERATION

COURT STRUCTURE OF TEXAS

- All Justice of the Peace Courts and most Municipal Courts are not courts of record. Appeals from these courts are by trial de novo in the county-level courts, and in some instances in the district courts.

An offense that arises under a municipal ordinance is punishable by a fine not to exceed: (1) $2000 for ordinances that govern fire safety, zoning, and public health or (2) $500 for all others.

Court Structure Of Texas

Descriptive Outline

September 1, 2002

The appellate courts of Texas include the Supreme Court of Texas, the Court of Criminal Appeals, and 14 intermediate courts of appeals.

In addition, the Texas Constitution establishes district courts as the state trial courts of general jurisdiction and provides for a single constitutional county court in each county, presided over by the county judge. In more populous counties, the Legislature has established statutory county courts to function as county courts at law and probate courts.

The Constitution also provides for justice of the peace courts in each county to handle criminal misdemeanor cases and serve as small claims courts. Finally, the Legislature has established municipal courts in each incorporated city of the State to handle criminal misdemeanor cases and city ordinance violations.

Supreme Court

- NUMBER OF COURTS: 1 1.
- JURISDICTION: The Supreme Court of Texas has statewide, final appellate jurisdiction in most civil and juvenile cases and original jurisdiction to issue writs. It has general responsibility for the efficient operation of the Texas judicial system; is empowered to make and enforce all necessary rules of civil trial practice and procedure, evidence, and appellate procedure; and promulgate rules of administration of justice in the state. In addition, the Court has final authority over the involuntary retirement or removal of all judges in the state, and the authority to transfer cases between the 14 Courts of Appeals.
- SEAT: Austin. Note: Article V, Section 3a, Texas Constitution, requiring the court to sit in Austin was repealed in 2001.
- MEMBERSHIP:
  - Number: One chief justice and eight justices.
  - Selection: Partisan, statewide election. Vacancies between elections are filled by gubernatorial appointment with the advice and consent of the Senate.
  - Qualifications: Citizen of the United States and of Texas; age 35 or older; and a practicing lawyer, or lawyer and judge of a court of record together, for at least 10 years.
  - Salaries: Chief Justice: $115,000; Justices: $113,000. d.
  - Term: Six-year, overlapping terms.

Court Of Criminal Appeals

- NUMBER OF COURTS: 1
- JURISDICTION: The Court of Criminal Appeals has statewide, final appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases: exclusive jurisdiction over automatic appeals in death penalty cases; and the power to issue writs. In conjunction with the Supreme Court, it is empowered to promulgate rules of evidence and rules for appellate procedure in criminal cases.
- SEAT: Austin. 3.
- MEMBERSHIP:
  - Number: One presiding judge and eight judges.
  - - (1) Partisan, statewide election. Vacancies between elections are filled by gubernatorial appointment

- with the advice and consent of the Senate.
- (2) The Court has authority to appoint commissioners.
- Qualifications: Citizen of the United States and of Texas; age 35 or older; and a practicing lawyer, or lawyer and judge of a court of record together, for at least 10 years.
- d. Salaries: Presiding Judge: $115,000; Judges: $113,000.
- Term: Six-year, overlapping terms.

Courts Of Appeals

- NUMBER OF COURTS: 14
- JURISDICTION: These courts have intermediate appellate jurisdiction in civil and criminal cases from trial courts in each respective geographical court of appeals district of the state. These courts have limited original writ jurisdiction.
- SEATS: 1st District, Houston 2nd District, Fort Worth 3.

  - 3rd District, Austin
  - 4th District, San Antonio
  - 5th District, Dallas
  - 6th District, Texarkana 7th District, Amarillo

  - 8th District, El Paso
  - 9th District, Beaumont
  - 10th District, Waco 11th District, Eastland
  - 12th District, Tyler
  - 13th District, Corpus Christi, Edinburg
  - 14th District, Houston

With certain exceptions, the courts of appeals for the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 8th, 10th, 12th, 13th and 14th districts may sit in any county seat within their individual court of appeals district.

- MEMBERSHIP:
  - Number: Each court has one chief justice and from two to 12 additional justices, as authorized by the Legislature, for a total of 80 justices statewide. The total number of members on each court is: 1st, Houston - 9; 2nd, Fort Worth - 7; 3rd, Austin - 6; 4th, San Antonio - 7; 5th, Dallas - 13; 6th, Texarkana - 3; 7th, Amarillo - 4; 8th, El Paso - 4; 9th, Beaumont - 3; 10th, Waco - 3; 11th, Eastland - 3; 12th, Tyler - 3; 13th, Corpus Christi, Edinburg - 6; 14th, Houston - 9.
  - Selection: Partisan election within each court of appeals district. Vacancies between elections are filled by gubernatorial appointment with the advice and consent of the Senate.
  - Qualifications: Citizen of the United States and of Texas; age 35 or older; and a practicing lawyer, or lawyer and judge of a court of record together, for at least 10 years.
  - Salaries paid by the State: Chief Justices: $107,850; Justices: $107,350.
  - Salary supplements: May be paid by the counties in the districts, not to exceed $15,000 per year, and total salary must be $1,000 less than that received by a Supreme Court justice ($500 in the case of chief justices).
  - Term: Six years.

Court Structure of Texas

District Courts

1. NUMBER OF COURTS: 418

2. JURISDICTION: There are 418 separate district courts, identified by separate numbers, each having its own geographical jurisdiction. Each district court has one judge. In a number of areas, the geographical jurisdiction of two or more district courts is overlapping. District courts are trial courts of general subject-matter jurisdiction. They have "exclusive, appellate, and original jurisdiction of all actions, proceedings, and remedies, except in cases where exclusive, appellate, or original jurisdiction may be conferred by (the) Constitution or other law on some other court. ..." Generally, this jurisdiction includes original jurisdiction of felony criminal prosecutions, suits for divorce, suits over title to land, election contests, and civil suits with an amount in controversy of at least $200.

County courts at law and constitutional county courts also exercise limited subject-matter jurisdiction over civil suits and therefore, to a limited extent, share jurisdiction with the district courts. Individual statutes stipulate maximum amounts in controversy over which each county-level court may exercise jurisdiction. To the extent that such "dollar amount" jurisdiction coincides with the district court, the two courts have concurrent jurisdiction. Such concurrent jurisdiction of the district and county-level courts begins with suits involving $200 and extends to the maximum amount stipulated by the applicable statute pertaining to the individual county-level court. Above the maximum jurisdictional amount of the county-level courts, the district court exercises exclusive jurisdiction.

The district courts may hear contested matters involved in probate cases and have general supervisory control over commissioners courts. In addition, these courts have general original jurisdiction over all causes of action for which a remedy or jurisdiction is not provided by law or by the Constitution, and have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, certiorari, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Most district courts exercise both criminal and civil jurisdiction, but in the metropolitan areas there is a tendency for the courts to specialize in either civil, criminal, or family law cases. In some instances, the courts that hear criminal cases exclusively are designated "criminal district courts." A limited number of district courts also have the subject-matter jurisdiction normally exercised by county courts.

Appeals from judgments of the district courts are to the courts of appeals, except those capital offense cases in which the death penalty has been assessed, which are appealed directly to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

SEATS: At the county seat of each county included in each respective geographical district.

4. MEMBERSHIP:

a. Number: One judge per court.

- b. Selection: Partisan, district wide election. Vacancies between elections are filled by gubernatorial appointment with the advice and consent of the Senate.
- c. Qualifications: Citizen of the United States and of Texas; age 25 or older; resident of the district for two years; licensed to practice law in Texas and a practicing lawyer or judge, or both combined, for four years.

d. Salaries paid by the State: $101.700.

- statute may be paid by counties. Total salary must be $1,000 less than that received by justices of the court of appeals in which the district court is located.
- f. Term: Four years.

"Constitutional" County Courts

. JURISDICTION:

a. Legal jurisdiction: The Texas Constitution establishes one county court in each of the 254 counties of the state, but not all such courts exercise judicial functions. In populous counties, the "county judge" may devote full time to the administration of county government.

By statute (Sec. 26.042, Government Code), constitutional county courts have juvenile jurisdiction; concurrent civil jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in cases in which the matter in controversy exceeds $200 but does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest; and concurrent civil jurisdiction with district courts in cases in which the matter in controversy exceeds $500 but does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest. County courts have the general jurisdiction of a probate court (Sec. 4, Probate Code), and they have exclusive original jurisdiction over misdemeanors, other than those involving official misconduct, where the fine allowed exceeds $500 or where a jail sentence may be imposed (Sec. 26.045, Government Code).

Decisions from the municipal and justice of the peace courts may be appealed to the county court, and the appeal takes the form of a completely new trial (trial de novo). Appeals from municipal courts of record are an exception in which the county court reviews only the written record from the trial. Original and appellate judgments of the county court may be appealed to the court of appeals, with certain limitations.

In addition, some constitutional county courts are divested of certain subject matter jurisdiction while others are granted additional jurisdiction by statutory provisions, which apply only to those courts (Secs. 26.101 to 26.354, Government Code).

NOTE: The commissioners court is the governing body of the county, not a judicial entity. It is presided over by the constitutional county judge and includes four elected commissioners. Although it performs no judicial duties, the commissioners court can issue certain writs and contempt citations.

Statutory County Courts / Probate Courts

1. NUMBER OF COURTS: 218

2. JURISDICTION:

a. Legal jurisdiction: Under the constitutional provision which authorizes the Legislature to establish other courts as it may deem necessary and to prescribe the jurisdiction of such courts, the Legislature has established 202 statutory county courts in 79 counties, and 16 statutory probate courts in nine counties, primarily in metropolitan areas, to relieve the constitutional county judge of some or all of the judicial duties of office.

In general, Sec. 25.003, Government Code, provides statutory county courts with jurisdiction over all causes and proceedings—civil, criminal, original and appellate—prescribed by law for county courts, except those concerning roads, bridges, public highways, or the general administration of county business that is within the jurisdiction of the commissioners court in each county. However, the actual jurisdiction of each statutory county varies considerably according to the statute under which it was created. In addition, some of these courts have been established to exercise subject-matter jurisdiction in only limited fields, such as civil, criminal or appellate (from justice or municipal courts) cases.

In general, statutory probate courts have the general jurisdiction provided to probate courts by the Probate Code and the jurisdiction provided by law for a county court to hear and determine cases and matters instituted under Sections 166.046, 192.027, 193.007, 552.019, 711.004, or 714.003, Health and Safety Code; Chapter 462, Health and Safety Code; or Subtitle C or D, Title 7, Health and Safety Code.

In general, statutory county courts which exercise civil jurisdiction concurrent with the constitutional county court also have concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district courts in 1) civil cases in which the matter in controversy exceeds $500 but does not exceed $100,000, exclusive of interest, statutory or punitive damages and penalties, and attorneys' fees and costs, and 2) appeals of final rulings and decisions of the Texas Workers' Compensation Commission. Statutory provisions specific to individual courts, however, may restrict a court's actual jurisdiction.

- c. Qualifications: A judge of a statutory county court must be at least 25 years of age; have resided in the county for at least two years; and be a licensed attorney who has practiced law or served as a judge for four years.
- d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.
- e. Term: Four years.

Justice Of The Peace Courts

1. NUMBER OF COURTS: 834

 JURISDICTION: The Texas Constitution provides that each county shall have, depending on the population, one to eight justice precincts. In each such precinct, depending on the population, one or more justices of the peace are to be elected.

Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in misdemeanor criminal cases when punishment is by fine less than $500. They have exclusive jurisdiction over civil cases where the amount in controversy is $200 or less and concurrent jurisdiction with both the county and district courts in civil matters in which exclusive jurisdiction is not in the district or county court and the amount in controversy is $5,000 or less. By statute, they are granted jurisdiction over forcible entry and detainer actions.

A justice of the peace may issue warrants of search and arrest, conduct preliminary hearings, serve as ex officio notary public, perform marriages, and serve as coroner in counties where there is no provision for a medical examiner. The justice court also functions as a small claims court.

3. SEATS: Determined by county commissioners.

4. MEMBERSHIP:

a. Number: One judge per court.

b. Selection: Partisan precinct-wide election.

 Qualifications: No specific statutory or constitutional provisions apply.

d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.

e. Term: Four years.

Municipal Courts

1. NUMBER OF CITIES WITH ACTIVE COURTS: 877

2. JURISDICTION: By a general statute, the Legislature has created a municipal court in each of the incorporated cities of the State. Presently, municipal courts are operating in approximately 877 cities and towns. Metropolitan cities usually have more than one municipal court

Municipal courts have concurrent jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in misdemeanor cases resulting from violations of state laws within the city limits (predominantly traffic offenses) when punishment is limited to a fine and in cases arising under Chapter 106 of the Alcoholic Beverage Code relating to minors that do not include confinement as an authorized sanction.

Municipal judges also serve as magistrates of the State. They have original and exclusive jurisdiction over violation of city ordinances and resolutions, rules, or orders of joint boards operating airports under Section 22.074, Transportation Code that are punishable by a fine not to exceed: 1) $2,000 in cases arising under ordinances involving litter, fire safety, zoning, public health, and sanitation; and 2) $500 in all other cases arising under a municipal ordinance or resolution, rule or order of a joint board operating an airport under Section 22.074, Transportation Code.

Municipal courts created by general statute are not of record—that is, courts where the record of the trial, upon request of either party or at the direction of the court, is reduced to writing—and appeals from them are by trial de novo in the county court, county court at law, or district court.

Municipal Courts (continued)

The Legislature has authorized the governing body of each city to establish municipal courts of record; appeals from these courts are on the record made therein. In addition to the jurisdiction provided by general law for municipal courts, municipal courts of record also have jurisdiction over criminal cases that arise under ordinances authorized by Section 215.072, 217.042, 341.903 and 401.002, Local Gov't Code. The governing body of a municipality by ordinance may also provide that the court: 1) has civil jurisdiction for the purpose of enforcing municipal ordinances enacted under Subchapter A, Chapter 214, Local Government Code, or Subchapter E, Chapter 683, Transportation Code, and 2) concurrent jurisdiction with a district court or a statutory county court for the purpose of enforcing health and safety and nuisance abatement ordinances. The governing body of a municipality by ordinance may also authorize the courts to issue search warrants for the purpose of investigating a health and safety nuisance abatement ordinance violation and seizure warrants for the purpose of securing, removing or demolishing the offending property and removing the debris.

- 3. SEATS: Determined by city or town.
- 4. MEMBERSHIP:
  - a. Number: Generally, one court per municipality and one judge per court. Statutes allow some city governing bodies to establish more than one court and/or more than one judge per court. As of September 1, 2002, 1,310 persons were serving as municipal judge.
  - b. Selection: Elected or appointed by the governing body of the city as provided by city charter or ordinance.
  - Qualifications: Determined by the governing body of the city.
  - d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the city. Highly variable.
  - e. Term: Most are appointed for two-year terms and serve at the will of the governing body of the city.

TEXAS JUDICIAL SYSTEM SUBJECT-MATTER JURISDICTION OF THE COURTS

INTRODUCTION

The basic structure of the present court system of Texas was established by an 1891 constitutional amendment. The amendment established the Supreme Court, the highest state appellate court for civil matters, and the Court of Criminal Appeals, which makes the final determination in criminal matters. There are fourteen intermediate courts of appeals which exercise intermediate appellate jurisdiction in civil and criminal cases.

The state trial courts of general jurisdiction are the district courts, of which there were 418 as of September 1, 2002. Ten of these courts are designated "Criminal District Courts."

The geographical area served by each district court is established by the specific statute creating that court and does not necessarily correspond to the area served by any previously established court. Each court has one judge.

In addition to these state courts, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county, presided over by the county judge. The county judge also serves as head of the county commissioners court, the governing body of the county. To aid the constitutional county court with its judicial functions, the Legislature has established statutory county courts, designated as county courts at law or probate courts, in the more populous counties. As of September 1, 2002, there were 16 probate courts and 202 county courts at law in operation in 79 counties. Four additional courts have been authorized by the Legislature but have not been implemented as of September 1, 2002. Eight additional courts have been authorized by the Legislature to become operational at a later date.

The Texas Constitution authorizes not less than one nor more than 16 justices of the peace in each county. Under this provision approximately 834 justice of the peace courts have been established. These courts also serve as small claims courts.

By statute, the Legislature has created municipal courts in each incorporated city in the State. These courts have original jurisdiction over violations of municipal ordinances and concurrent criminal jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts over state law violations, limited to the geographical confines of the municipality.

Trials in the justice of the peace and most municipal courts are not of record, and appeals therefrom are by trial de novo to the county court, except in certain counties, as noted later, where the appeal is to a county court at law or to a district court. When an appeal is by trial de novo, the case is tried again in the higher court, just as if the original trial had not occurred.

Jurisdiction of the various levels of courts is established by constitutional provision and by statute. Statutory jurisdiction is established by general statutes providing jurisdiction for all courts on a particular level, as well as by the statutes establishing individual courts. Thus, to determine the jurisdiction of any one particular court, recourse must be had first to the Constitution, second to the general statutes establishing jurisdiction for that level of court, third to the specific statute authorizing the establishment of the particular court in question, fourth to statutes creating other courts in the same county (whose jurisdictional provisions may affect the court in question), and fifth to statutes dealing with specific subject matters (such as the Family Code, which requires, for example, that judges who are lawyers hear appeals from actions by non-lawyer judges in juvenile cases.)

The State provides full funding for the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals. It provides a base salary and some expenses for the appellate and district judges of Texas. Most counties supplement the base salary for district courts and courts of appeals. Counties pay the costs of "constitutional" county courts, county courts at law, justice of the peace courts, and the operating costs of district courts except for the base salary of the judge. The cities finance the operation of municipal courts.

APPELLATE COURTS

The appellate courts of the Texas Judicial System are: (1) the Supreme Court, the highest state appellate court for civil and juvenile cases; (2) the Court of Criminal Appeals, the highest state appellate court for criminal cases; and (3) the 14 courts of appeals, the intermediate appellate courts for civil and criminal appeals from the trial level courts.

Appellate courts do not try cases, have jurors, or hear witnesses. Rather, they review actions and decisions of the lower courts on questions of law or allegations of procedural error. In carrying out this review, the appellate courts are usually restricted to the evidence and exhibits presented in the trial court.

THE SUPREME COURT

In 1836, the Supreme Court of Texas was first established by the Constitution of the Republic of Texas, which vested the judicial power of the Republic in "...one Supreme Court and such inferior courts as the Congress may establish." This Court was re-established by each successive constitution adopted throughout the course of Texas history. The various constitutions and amendments thereto, however, provided for different numbers of judges to sit on the Court and different methods for the selection of the judges. The Constitution of 1845 provided that the Supreme Court consist of a chief justice and two associate justices. The Constitution of 1866 provided for five justices, and the Constitution of 1869 reverted to a three-judge court; the Constitution of 1873 increased the number to five, and the Constitution of 1876 again reduced the membership to three. To aid the three justices in disposing of the ever increasing workload, the Legislature created two "Commissions of Appeals," each to consist of three judges appointed by the Supreme Court. This system, begun in 1920, continued until the adoption of the constitutional amendment of 1945 which abolished the two Commissions of Appeals and increased the number of justices on the Supreme Court to nine, the present number.

A constitutional amendment adopted in 1980 provides:

The Supreme Court shall exercise the judicial power of the state except as otherwise provided in this Constitution. Its jurisdiction shall be coextensive with the limits of the State and its determinations shall be final except in criminal law matters. Its appellate jurisdiction shall be final and shall extend to all cases except in criminal law matters and as otherwise provided in this Constitution or by law.

Thus, the Supreme Court of Texas has statewide final appellate jurisdiction in most civil and juvenile cases. The Supreme Court is empowered to make and enforce all necessary rules of civil trial practice and procedure, evidence, and appellate procedure, and to promulgate rules of administration to provide for the efficient administration of justice in the State. A constitutional amendment effective January 1, 1986, gave the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals jurisdiction to answer questions of state law certified from a federal appellate court. The Supreme Court has original jurisdiction to issue writs and to conduct proceedings for the involuntary retirement or removal of judges.

The Supreme Court is composed of one chief justice and eight justices, who are elected in partisan elections on a statewide basis for six-year terms of office. Vacancies between elections are filled by gubernatorial appointment with the advice and consent of the State Senate, until the next general election. To be eligible to serve as a justice of this court, a person must be licensed to practice law in this State, be a citizen of the United States and of the State of Texas, be at least 35 years of age, and have been a practicing lawyer, or a lawyer and judge of a court of record together, for at least ten years.

In addition to its major responsibilities of hearing oral arguments, deciding cases appealed to it, and writing opinions, the Supreme Court has many administrative duties placed upon it by the Legislature to ensure the efficient administration of justice by the Texas judicial system. These duties include: (1) promulgating the Rules of Civil Procedure for the Texas judicial system (Gov't Code §22.004); (2) promulgating rules of administration for the Texas judicial system (Gov't Code §72.024); (3) equalizing the dockets of the 14 courts of appeals (Gov't Code §73.001); (4) promulgating the rules of procedure for the Commission on Judicial Conduct, and disciplining judges or removing judges from office (Gov't Code, Ch. 81); (5) supervising the operations of the State Bar of Texas and the rules and regulations for the admission, discipline, supervision, and disbarment of lawyers, and approving the law schools of the State (Gov't Code, Ch. 81); and (6) promulgating the rules for the operation of the Court Reporters Certification Board and the disciplinary rules enforced by this Board (Gov't Code §52.002).

The Chief Justice has the responsibility to: (1) confer with the presiding judges of the administrative judicial regions to promote the prompt dispatch of judicial business (Gov't Code §74.001); (2) assign judges between administrative judicial regions (Gov't Code §74.057); (3) assign retired appellate justices to the various courts of appeals on a temporary basis (Gov't Code §73.003); (4) deliver a "State of the Judiciary" message at the commencement of each regular session of the Legislature (Gov't Code §21.004); and (5) ensure that the Supreme Court executes and implements its administrative duties and responsibilities (Gov't Code §72.006).

THE COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS

To relieve the Supreme Court of some of its caseload, the Constitution of 1876 created the Court of Appeals, composed of three elected judges, with appellate jurisdiction in all criminal cases and in those civil cases tried by the county courts. The judiciary article that was created by the constitutional amendment of 1891 changed the name of this court to the Court of Criminal Appeals and limited its jurisdiction to appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases only.

A constitutional amendment adopted in 1980 provides:

The Court of Criminal Appeals shall have final appellate jurisdiction coextensive with the limits of the State, and its determination shall be final, in all criminal cases of whatever grade, with such exceptions and under such regulations as may be provided in this Constitution or as prescribed by law.

The jurisdiction of the Court of Criminal Appeals extends to criminal cases heard by the intermediate courts of appeals and directly from the trial courts in all cases in which the death penalty has been imposed. The Court of Criminal Appeals (and the Supreme Court) have jurisdiction to answer questions of state law certified from a federal appellate court. In addition, the Legislature has authorized the Court of Criminal Appeals to promulgate rules of evidence and appellate procedure for criminal cases.

The Court of Criminal Appeals, as originally established, was composed of three judges. As its workload increased, the Legislature granted it the authority to appoint commissioners to aid in the disposition of pending cases. The number of judges on the Court was increased to five by a constitutional amendment adopted in 1966, and was again increased to nine by another constitutional amendment adopted in 1977.

Today, the Court of Criminal Appeals consists of a presiding judge and eight additional judges, who must have the same qualifications, and are elected in the same manner, as the justices of the Supreme Court.

THE COURTS OF APPEAL

The first intermediate appellate court in Texas was created by the Constitution of 1876, which created a Court of Appeals with appellate jurisdiction in all criminal cases and in all civil cases originating in the county courts. However, by 1891, the docket of the Supreme Court had become so crowded that it became apparent that other changes were necessary to expedite the disposition of appellate cases. Thus, the amendment of 1891 converted the Court of Appeals into the Court of Criminal Appeals and authorized the Legislature to establish intermediate courts of civil appeals located at various places throughout the State. The purpose of this amendment was to preclude the large quantity of civil litigation from further congesting the docket of the Supreme Court, while at the same time providing for a more convenient and less expensive system of intermediate appellate courts for civil cases. Under this authority, the Legislature has divided the State into 14 court of appeals districts and has established a court of appeals in each.

Courts of appeals are now located in the following cities: Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Dallas, Eastland, El Paso, Fort Worth, Houston (two courts), San Antonio, Texarkana, Tyler, and Waco.

Each court of appeals has jurisdiction of appeals from the trial courts located in its respective district. The appeals heard in these courts are based upon the "record" (a written transcription of the testimony given, exhibits introduced, and the documents filed in the trial court) and the written and oral arguments of the appellate lawyers. The courts of appeals do not receive testimony or hear witnesses in considering the cases on appeal.

Each of the courts of appeals has at least three judges--a chief justice and two other justices. However, the Legislature is empowered to increase this number whenever the workload of an individual court requires additional judges. The Dallas Court of Appeals has 13 justices, the two courts located in Houston (the First and the Fourteenth) each have nine justices, the courts located in Fort Worth and San Antonio each have seven, the courts located in Austin and Corpus Christi each have six, the courts located in El Paso and Amarillo each have four, and the remaining courts each retain the constitutional minimum number of three. There are now 80 judges serving on the 14 intermediate courts of appeals.

Judges of these courts are elected in partisan elections for sixyear terms of office by the voters in their own districts. They must have the same qualifications for office as the justices of the Supreme Court of Texas.

TRIAL COURTS

The trial courts are those courts in which witnesses are heard, testimony is received, exhibits are offered into evidence, and a verdict is rendered. In a civil case, the verdict determines which party to the lawsuit prevails; in a criminal case, the verdict determines whether the defendant is guilty or not guilty of the crime alleged. Defendants in criminal cases and the parties in civil lawsuits have the right to a trial by a jury of either six or twelve local citizens. Except in capital murder cases, the parties have the right to waive a trial by jury and have the judge presiding over the case make the final determination. Generally, determinations made in the trial courts can be appealed to the appellate courts for review.

The trial court structure in Texas has several different levels, each level handling different types of cases. The state trial court of general jurisdiction is known as the district court. The county-level courts consist of the "constitutional" county courts, the "statutory" county courts, and the "statutory" probate courts. In addition, there are the municipal courts, located in each incorporated city of the State, and the justice of the peace courts, located in precincts of each county of the State.

Citations are to the Texas Government Code unless otherwise indicated. Index to reference numbers is found on page 57.

DISTRICT COURTS

The district courts are the primary trial courts in Texas, the successor to the common law nisi prius courts. The Constitution of the Republic provided for not less than three nor more than eight district courts, each having a judge elected by a joint ballot of both houses of Congress for a term of four years. Most constitutions of the State continued the district courts but provided that the judges were to be elected by the qualified voters. (The exceptions were the Constitutions of 1845 and 1861 which provided for the appointment of judges by the Governor with confirmation by the Senate.) All of the constitutions have provided that the judges of these courts must be chosen from defined districts (as opposed to statewide election).

District courts are courts of general jurisdiction. A constitutional amendment adopted effective in November 1985 amends Article V, Section 8 of the Texas Constitution, in pertinent part, as follows:

District Court jurisdiction consists of exclusive, appellate, and original jurisdiction of all actions, proceedings, and remedies, except in cases where exclusive, appellate, or original jurisdiction may be conferred by this Constitution or other law on some other court, tribunal, or administrative body.

This provision, while it extends a district court's potential jurisdiction to "all actions," also makes such jurisdiction relative in that the court's jurisdiction excludes any matters in which exclusive, appellate, or original jurisdiction is conferred by law upon some other court. For this reason, while one can speak of the "general" jurisdiction of a district court, the actual jurisdiction of any specific court will always be limited by the constitutional or statutory provisions which confer exclusive, original, or appellate jurisdiction on other courts serving the same county or counties.

Taking into account the various constitutional and statutory provisions which confer general jurisdiction on other levels of court, it can be said that district courts generally have the following jurisdiction: original jurisdiction in all criminal cases of the grade of felony, and misdemeanors involving official misconduct; cases of divorce; suits for title to land or enforcement of liens on land; contested elections; suits for slander or defamation; and suits on behalf of the State for penalties, forfeitures and escheat.

The district courts also have jurisdiction in civil matters with a minimum monetary limit but no maximum limit. The amount of the lower limit is currently unclear. The courts of appeals have split opinions on whether the minimum amount in controversy must exceed $200 or $500. Prior to 1985, a minimum monetary limit of $500 was required by Article V, Section 8 of the Texas Constitution and by article 1906 of the Revised Civil Statutes. In 1985, article 1906 was codified in the Government Code. The lower limit was deleted from the codified version in an apparent attempt to eliminate the duplication in the code and the constitution. However, the constitution also was amended in 1985, and the $500 limit was deleted.

Two courts of appeals have indicated that the minimum amount is $200 because district courts have jurisdiction over matters unless another court has exclusive jurisdiction over the matter. Since justice courts have exclusive jurisdiction in civil matters under $200, they stated that this is the lower limit of a district court's jurisdiction. See Arteaga v. Jackson, 994 S.W.2d 342, 342 (Tex. App. - Texarkana 1999, pet. denied) and Arnold v. West Bend Co., 983 S.W.2d365, 366 n.1 (Tex. App. - Houston 1st Dist.] 1998, no pet.). Another court of appeals has concluded that the codification of article 1906 was not intended to be a substantive change and thus, the limit is $500. See Chapa v. Spivey, 999 S.W.2d 833, 835-836 (Tex. App. - Tyler 1999, no pet.).

Although the Supreme Court has discussed the conflict regarding the monetary jurisdictional minimum, it did not rule on the matter since it was not essential to the court's decision in the case. See Peek v. Equipment Service Co., 779 S.W.2d 802, 804 n. 4 (Tex. 1989).

In those counties having statutory county courts at law, the district courts generally have exclusive jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy is $100,000 or more and concurrent jurisdiction with the statutory county courts at law in cases where the amount in controversy exceeds $500 but is less than $100,000.

The district courts may hear contested matters involved in probate cases and have general supervisory control over commissioners courts. In addition, district courts have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, certiorari, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Appeals from judgments of the district courts are to the court of appeals having jurisdiction over the locale of the district court.

As of September 1, 2002, there were 418 separate district-level courts in operation. Each is identified by separate numbers, each having its own judge elected by the voters of the judicial district. In a number of locations, the geographical jurisdiction of two or more district courts is overlapping.

A 1985 constitutional amendment established a Judicial Districts Board to reapportion Texas judicial districts, subject to legislative approval. The same amendment also allows for more than one judge per judicial district.

Most district courts exercise criminal and civil jurisdiction, but in the metropolitan areas there is a tendency for the courts to specialize in either civil, criminal, or family law matters. In some localities, the courts that exercise criminal jurisdiction exclusively are designated criminal district courts. A limited number of district courts also exercise the subject-matter jurisdiction normally exercised by county courts.

SPECIALIZED JURISDICTION

The Supreme Court has repeatedly held that the Legislature cannot reduce the constitutional jurisdiction of a district court. Lord v. Clayton, 163 Tex. 62, 352 S.W.2d 718 (1961); Ex Parte Richards, 137 Tex. 520, 155 S.W.2d 597 (1941); Reasonover v. Reasonover, 122 Tex. 512, 58 S.W. 2d 817 (1933); St. Louis S. W. Ry. v. Hall, 98 Tex. 480, 85 S.W. 786 (1905). Accord, Zamora v. State, 508 S.W.2d 819 (Tex. Crim App. 1974). See also, Ward v. State, 523 S.W.2d 681, 682 (Tex. Crim. App. 1975); Castro v. State, 124 Tex. Crim. 13, 60 S.W.2d 211 (1933); and dissenting opinion in Ex Parte Bazemore, 430 S.W.2d 205 (Tex. Crim. App. 1968).

In St. Louis S.W. Ry. v. Hall, the Supreme Court stated the rule as follows: "If the Legislature did enough to bring into active existence a district court, it was at once clothed with the powers conferred by the Constitution upon such courts, and any attempts in the act to unduly limit those powers must be treated as futile." 85 S.W. at 788. In Lord v. Clayton, the Supreme Court held that, although the statute creating the 136th District Court of Jefferson County purportedly limited its jurisdiction to civil cases only, and other legislation purported to give exclusive jurisdiction in criminal cases to the Criminal District Court of Jefferson County, the 136th Court was nevertheless a constitutional district court with full power to impanel a grand jury, receive an indictment, and try the accused.

A new facet has been added to this jurisdictional issue by the 1985 amendment of Article. V, Section 8 of the Constitution which now grants the district courts jurisdiction over all matters "except in cases where...jurisdiction may be conferred by this constitution or other law on some other court....".

Although the Legislature has not been able to divest a regular district court of any of its constitutional jurisdiction, the Legislature may, under its constitutional authority to create "other courts" (Tex. Const. art. V, sec. 1) establish special "district-level" courts with limited jurisdiction. See Jordan v. Crudgington, 231 S.W.2d 641 (Tex. 1950) (regarding the Court of Domestic Relations of Potter County); Ex Parte Richards, 137 Tex. 520, 155 S.W.2d 597 (1941) (regarding the Criminal District Court of Willacy County).

One "Criminal District Court" was created with jurisdiction limited to criminal, divorce, dependent and delinquent children, adoption, and civil habeas corpus proceedings:

Criminal District Court of Jefferson County ...... 24.920 1

As will be noted later, most special "Criminal District Courts" have jurisdiction concurrent with county-level courts in criminal matters.

While the courts have ruled that the Legislature may not limit the jurisdiction of regular district courts, the statutes frequently express the intention that certain district courts give primary attention to only a portion of those matters over which they have jurisdiction.

The 65th Legislature, in 1977, converted all functioning domestic relations and special juvenile courts to district courts of general jurisdiction. However, these courts have primary responsibility for cases involving family law matters, including adoptions, birth records, divorce and marriage annulment, child welfare, custody, support and reciprocal support, dependency, neglect and delinquency, parent and child, and husband and wife. Section 24.601, Tex. Gov't Code. Section 24.601 does not limit other district courts' jurisdiction nor relieve them of responsibility for handling cases involving family law matters. Courts with primary responsibility for handling family law matters are known as "Family District Courts." There are now thirty-two such courts:

Criminal District Court No. 4 of Tarrant County 24.913
One district court is to give preference to juvenile matters:

As of September 1, 2002, 202 statutory county courts and 16 statutory probate courts had been created, largely in metropolitan areas. Four additional courts have been authorized by the Legislature but have not been implemented as of September 1, 2002. Eight additional courts have been authorized to become operational at a later date.

A "statutory county court" means a county court created by the Legislature, including county courts at law, county criminal courts, county criminal courts of appeals, and county civil courts at law. A "statutory probate court" means a statutory court designated as a statutory probate court under Chapter 25, Gov't Code. A statutory county court exercising probate jurisdiction is not a statutory probate court unless it is designated one under Chapter 25, Gov't Code. While the jurisdiction of these courts is generally carved out of that given to the constitutional county courts, the statutes specify in many instances that certain jurisdiction normally in the district court is to be exercised concurrently by the statutory county court and the district court.

In one instance, the county court at law has concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in all matters:

County Court at Law of Panola County ...... 25.1852 15

In 1991, the 72nd Legislature passed H.B. 66, which provided that a statutory county court exercising civil jurisdiction of the county court, with certain exceptions enumerated in the statutes, has concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in civil cases in which the matter in controversy exceeds $500 but does not exceed $100,000 (excluding interest, statutory or punitive damages and penalties, and attorney's fees and costs, as alleged on the face of the petition) and appeals of final rulings and decisions of the Texas Workers' Compensation Commission. Sec. 25.003, Tex. Gov't Code.

Forty-nine county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court, as discussed above, in appeals of decisions of the Texas Workers' Compensation Commission and civil cases when the matter in controversy does not exceed $100,000:

In one county, if the county judge is licensed to practice law in Texas and has practiced for at least two years, the jurisdiction of the constitutional county court is expanded to include (concurrent with the district court) family law cases, eminent domain, and civil matters when the amount in controversy does not exceed $20,000:

COUNTY-LEVEL COURTS

The county courts were established by the Constitution of 1836. They were presided over by a chief justice appointed by the Congress of the Republic of Texas for a term of four years. This continued from 1836 to 1841, when the office was made elective. The term was shortened to two years in the Constitutions of 1845 and 1861. Under the Constitution of 1866, the name of the presiding officer of the court was changed from chief justice to county judge, and the term of office was again established at four years.

The county court was abolished by the Constitution of 1869, but was re-established by the Constitution of 1876 with an elected presiding officer, the county judge, serving a two-year term. The term of office was increased to four years by a constitutional amendment adopted in 1954.

Today, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county. Generally, "constitutional" county courts have concurrent jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in civil cases where the matter in controversy exceeds $200 but does not exceed $5,000; concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts in civil cases where the matter in controversy exceeds $500 but does not exceed $5,000; general jurisdiction over probate cases; juvenile jurisdiction; and exclusive original jurisdiction over misdemeanors, other than those involving official misconduct, where punishment for the offense, upon conviction, is by fine exceeding $500 and/or a jail sentence not to exceed one year. County courts generally have appellate jurisdiction (usually by trial de novo) over cases tried originally in the justice of the peace courts and municipal courts. Original and appellate judgments of the county courts may be appealed to the courts of appeals.

The Constitution provides that the county judge "shall be well informed in the law of the State ...". This has been interpreted to mean that neither formal study of the law nor a license to practice law is a necessary qualification to hold office as county judge. Currently, of the 254 county judges in the State, approximately 12 percent are licensed to practice law.

Under its constitutional authorization to "...establish such other courts as it may deem necessary...[and to] conform the jurisdiction of the district and other inferior courts thereto," the Legislature has created statutory county courts and statutory probate courts, primarily in metropolitan counties, to provide assistance to the single "constitutional" county court. The Legislature has authorized a total of 230 of these statutory courts in 85 counties to relieve the county judge of some or all of the judicial duties of office. As of September 1, 2002, 218 of these courts were in actual operation in 79 counties. (See list which follows.)

Under the constitutional grant of authority the Legislature has established the following statutory county courts and statutory probate courts (the number of statutory courts in each county is shown in parentheses):

The judges of these statutory courts are elected in countywide, partisan elections for four-year terms. Any vacancies occurring between elections are filled by appointment of the county commissioners. The statutes creating these courts uniformly require that the persons serving as judges must be licensed to practice law in Texas.

The legal jurisdiction of the special county courts varies considerably and is determined by the specific statute that establishes the particular court. As the varied names suggest, some of these courts have subject-matter jurisdiction in only limited fields, such as civil, criminal, probate, or appellate (from justice courts or municipal courts); however, even the specialized name does not always disclose the complete function of the court. To determine the exact jurisdiction of any one of the statutory county courts, it is necessary to review the specific statute that established it.

In general, statutory county courts, which have jurisdiction to exercise civil jurisdiction concurrent with the constitutional jurisdiction of the county court, have concurrent jurisdiction with district courts in civil matters when the amount in controversy is more than $500 and less than $100,000 and appeals of final rulings and decisions of the Texas Workers' Compensation Commission. Statutory county courts also have, concurrent with the county court, the probate jurisdiction provided by general law for county courts. However, in a county that has a statutory probate court, the statutory probate court is the only statutory county court with probate jurisdiction. Other jurisdiction of a statutory county court is, broadly speaking, either carved out of the constitutional county court's regular jurisdiction or shared with it (concurrent).

The jurisdiction of statutory county courts and their relation to the constitutional county courts take many forms. In two counties, all civil, criminal, and probate jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the statutory county court:

County Court at Law of Nacogdoches
County	26.104, 25.1762	68
County Court at Law of Reeves County	26.149, 25.1972

In two counties, all civil, criminal, probate and juvenile jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the statutory county court:

County Court at Law of Aransas County . . . 26.274, 25.0062 69 County Court at Law of Cooke County . . . . 26.295, 25.0512

In one county, all civil jurisdiction was transferred to one county court at law and juvenile jurisdiction was transferred to two county courts at law:

In one county, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law but, if the county judge is an attorney, the county court exercises concurrent jurisdiction with the county court at law in all matters over which county courts have jurisdiction generally. If the county judge is not an attorney, the county court exercises concurrent jurisdiction with the county court at law only in probate and mental health matters:

One county court at law had transferred to it all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court and the courts have concurrent jurisdiction in probate matters, and the county court at law is instructed to give preference to criminal cases:

Three county courts at law exercise concurrent jurisdiction with at least one of the district courts in the county in all civil and criminal matters that had earlier been transferred from the county court to the district court. The county court at law and county court have concurrent probate jurisdiction:

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

The position of justice of the peace was established by the Constitution of the Republic which provided for a "convenient number of "Justices of the Peace" to be elected by the qualified voters of each county, for terms of two years. This office has been retained in all subsequent constitutions, although the jurisdiction of these courts has been severely restricted in later constitutions.

The justice of the peace is important in the capacity as a committing magistrate, with the authority to issue warrants for the apprehension and arrest of persons charged with the commission of public offenses, both felonies and misdemeanors. As a magistrate, the justice of the peace may hold preliminary hearings, reduce testimony to writing, discharge the accused, or remand the accused to jail and set bail. In addition, the justice of the peace serves as the coroner in those counties where there is no provision for a medical examiner, serves as an ex officio notary public, and may perform marriage ceremonies.

As amended in November 1983, the Texas Constitution provides that each county is to be divided, according to population, into at least one, and not more than eight, justice precincts, in each of which is to be elected one or more justices of the peace. Approximately 834 justice of the peace courts are in operation today.

Justices of the peace are elected by the voters of the respective precincts of the county in partisan elections for four-year terms of office. There are no constitutional or statutory qualifications to hold this office and only about five percent of the justices of the peace in the State are lawyers.

Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in misdemeanor criminal cases where punishment upon conviction may be by fine only. These courts generally have exclusive jurisdiction of civil matters when the amount in controversy does not exceed $200, and concurrent jurisdiction with the county courts when the amount in controversy is from $200.01 to $5,000. Justice of the peace courts also have jurisdiction over forcible entry and detainer cases and function as small claims courts. Trials in justice of the peace courts are not of record. Appeals from these courts are upon trial de novo in the county court, the county court at law, or the district court.

In thirty-six counties, the county court, by special statute, has been given concurrent jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts in that county in all civil matters over which the justice of the peace courts have jurisdiction:

MUNICIPAL COURTS

Under its constitutional authority to create "...such other courts as may be provided by law," the Texas Legislature has created municipal courts in each incorporated city of the State.

Presently, municipal courts are operating in approximately 877 cities. Metropolitan cities usually have more than one municipal court. These courts have no appellate jurisdiction, but do have original and exclusive jurisdiction over criminal violations of city ordinances and resolutions, rules or orders of joint boards that operate airports under Section 22.074, Transportation Code and are punishable by a fine not to exceed: 1) $2,000 in cases arising under municipal ordinances or airport board resolutions, rules or orders that govern litter, fire safety, zoning, public health, and sanitation; or 2) $500 in all other cases arising under a municipal ordinance or airport board resolution, rule or order. The municipal courts also have concurrent jurisdiction with justice courts in misdemeanor cases resulting from violations of state laws occurring within the city limits when punishment upon conviction is limited to a fine or the case arises under Ch. 106 of the Alcoholic Beverage Code relating to minors and does not include confinement as an authorized sanction. Municipal Courts also have limited civil jurisdiction in being able to assess civil penalties for owners of dangerous dogs. Furthermore, certain municipalities with a population in excess of 125,000 may declare the violation of city ordinances relating to parking and stopping vehicles to be civil offenses and prescribe civil fines, and establish an administrative adjudication hearing procedure for these offenses.

Municipal judges also serve as magistrates of the State. In this capacity, the municipal judge has authority to issue warrants for the apprehension and arrest of persons charged with the commission of public offenses, both felonies and misdemeanors. As a magistrate, the municipal judge may issue search and arrest warrants, hold preliminary hearings, reduce testimony to writing, discharge an accused, or remand the accused to jail and set bail.

Trials in the municipal courts, generally, are not of record, and appeals go to the county court, the county court at law, or the district court upon trial de novo.

Under the authority of special and general legislation, several municipal courts operate as "courts of record." In the courts of record, a formal record and transcript are made of the proceedings in the trial and appeals of these cases are made on the record perfected in the municipal courts. Such appeals are generally heard in the county court or county court at law, but the Legislature has authorized the City of El Paso to create a municipal court of appeals to hear appeals from that city's municipal courts.

In addition to the jurisdiction provided by general law for municipal courts, municipal courts of record also have jurisdiction over criminal cases that arise under ordinances authorized by Section 215.072, 217.042, 341.903 and 401.002, Local Gov't Code. The governing body of a municipality by ordinance may also provide that the court: 1) has civil jurisdiction for the purpose of enforcing municipal ordinances enacted under Subchapter A, Chapter 214, Local Government Code, or Subchapter E, Chapter 683, Transportation Code, and 2) concurrent jurisdiction with a district court or a statutory county court for the purpose of enforcing health and safety and nuisance abatement ordinances. The governing body of a municipality by ordinance may also authorize the courts to issue search warrants for the purpose of investigating a health and safety nuisance abatement ordinance violation and seizure warrants for the purpose of securing, removing or demolishing the offending property and removing the debris.

The statutes authorizing municipal courts of record uniformly require the judge to be licensed to practice law in this State. No such provision is required of the other municipal judges, and of the approximately 1,310 municipal judges in this State, about 28 percent presently are licensed as attorneys.

Selection and terms of office of municipal court judges vary from city to city. While in a few cities, municipal judges are elected at city elections, the vast number are appointed by the governing body of the city. Terms of office are usually two years.

Courts of Appeals Justices

Chapter 31 of the Texas Government Code authorizes the counties in each Court of Appeals district to pay each justice of the Court of Appeals for that district a sum not to exceed $15,000 per year for judicial and administrative services rendered. This compensation is in addition to the salary paid by the State. Section 659.012, Government Code, limits the total salary for a justice of a Court of Appeals to a combined sum from state and county sources of $1,000 less than the state salary paid to a justice of the Supreme Court. This same provision limits the chief justices of the Courts of Appeals to receive a combined salary of $500 less than the state salary paid to justices of the Supreme Court. As of September 1, 2002, the annual state salary paid to a justice of the Supreme Court was $113,000.

District Court Judges

Various sections of Chapter 32, Government Code, authorize the state salaries of some district court judges to be supplemented from county funds. Section 659.012, Government Code, limits, unless otherwise provided by law, the total annual salary for a district judge to a combined sum from state and county sources of $2,000 less than the state salary provided for a justice of the Supreme Court.

The following supplemental compensation information was obtained from affidavits on file with the State Comptroller of Public Accounts.

Annual Supplemental Compensation Justices of the Courts of Appeals

Supplements for the year beginning September 1, 2002 paid by the counties in addition to the basic state salary of $107,850 for Chief Justices and $107,350 for Justices.

TEXAS JUDICIAL SYSTEM

COURT ACTIVITY OVERVIEW

Cautionary Statement

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. These statistics do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Regarding appellate courts, temporary emergencies such as illness of a judge or unusually burdensome cases may distort the statistical picture. In addition, there is no reliable way to ascertain the time spent by appellate or trial judges in study or research in the composing of their opinions and decisions.

At least three factors are not represented in the district court statistics presented and should be borne in mind when evaluating judicial output:

- 1. One very complicated case may consume an inordinate amount of time compared to less complicated cases.
- 2. The judges of district courts in most rural areas spend more time traveling than do their urban counterparts. Unlike most urban district courts, the district courts in rural areas often serve multiple counties to which the judge must regularly travel. Also, a metropolitan complex of many judges of identical jurisdiction permits judicial efficiencies not available in rural areas.
- 3. Judges have to spend many hours on administrative matters and other judicial functions not reported in this statistical report, e.g., preparing and submitting the necessary budget requests for the operation of the court to the county commissioners, impaneling grand juries, managing petit jury requirements, supervising community supervision and county auditor departments, handling juvenile corrections duties and responsibilities, and performing many other duties not related to their judicial functions.

As a result of their official position, many county-level court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges have non-judicial responsibilities in the community that are not reflected in these statistics.

The court activity in this report contains the reported activity from: 1) all appellate courts as reported by the appellate clerks; 2) district and county-level courts as reported by the district and county clerks; and 3) justice of the peace and municipal courts as reported by these courts. However, not all trial courts have reported their activity. Therefore, when analyzing the court activity of the trial courts, it is important to note that the reported activity does not reflect all the activity of those courts.

Caseload Trends in the Supreme Court

Analysis of Activity for Year Ended August 31, 2002

BACKGROUND

The Supreme Court of Texas is the highest state court for civil appeals and promulgates rules of administration and civil procedure for the courts of Texas. It is comprised of the Chief Justice and eight justices.

The caseload of the Supreme Court is directly affected by the structure and jurisdiction of Texas' appellate court system. The 14 Courts of Appeals handle most of the state's criminal and civil appeals from the district and county-level courts, and the Court of Criminal Appeals handles all criminal appeals beyond the Courts of Appeals.

The case activity of the Supreme Court can be broken down into three broad categories: determining whether to grant review of a Court of Appeals' final judgment (i.e., to grant or not grant a petition for review); disposition of regular causes (i.e., granted petitions for review, accepted petitions for writs of mandamus or habeas corpus, certified questions, accepted parental notification appeals, and direct appeals); and disposition of motions.

"Regular causes" involve cases in which four or more of the Supreme Court justices have decided in conference that a petition for review, petition for writ of mandamus or habeas corpus, or parental notification appeal should be reviewed. Regular causes also include direct appeals the Court has agreed to review and questions of law certified to it by a federal appellate court that the Court has agreed to answer. Most regular causes are set for oral argument in open court and are reported in written opinions. However, a petition may be granted and an unsigned opinion (per curiam) issued without oral argument if at least six members of the Court vote accordingly.

The Court does not have control over the number of petitions for review that are filed and must be considered. Much of the Court's time is spent determining which petitions for review will be granted. In deciding which petitions will be granted, the Court exercises some control over its caseload. In addition, the Court rules on hundreds of motions filed each year related to petitions and regular causes.

PETITIONS FOR REVIEW

- The number of petitions for review dropped 3.1 percent from the previous fiscal year (from 1,018 in FY 2001 to 986 in FY 2002). Despite this decrease, the Court's workload has remained relatively stable during the past thirteen fiscal years, with the number of petitions filed ranging from a low of 866 in FY 1990 to a high of 1,171 in FY 1993. The 986 petitions for review filed in FY 2002 fall in the middle of this range.
- Corresponding to the reduction in petitions filed, the number of disposed petitions for review fell by 19 (from 1,020 in FY 2001 to 1,001 in FY 2002), or 1.9 percent. Of the 1,001 disposed petitions reviewed in FY 2002, 116 were granted and 828 were denied, accounting for 11.6 percent and 82.7 percent, respectively. The remaining 57 petitions (5.7 percent) were dismissed, abated, struck, transferred, or withdrawn. Since FY 1990, an average of 11.8 percent of petitions have been granted and 82.1 percent denied, while the remaining 7.0 percent were disposed in another manner.

The number of petitions for review disposed (1,001) slightly exceeded the number of petitions added (986) in FY 2002. The Court disposed of 1,001 petitions for review; this represents 1.5 percent more than were added to the docket during the year.

REGULAR CAUSES

- During the fiscal year, 118 causes were added to the Supreme Court docket. Causes added to the docket steadily grew during fiscal years 1990 through 1994 then began to decline in FY 1995. Since this initial decline, causes added have remained at a lower, more consistent level over the last six fiscal years, ranging from 107 to 120 causes added per fiscal year.
- The number of regular causes disposed (112 causes) in FY 2002 decreased slightly compared to the previous fiscal year (118 causes). The disposition of causes has remained relatively constant over the last six fiscal years, ranging from a low of 108 to a high of 121. Sixty-two causes remained pending at the end of FY 2002, which is equal to the average number of pending causes for the last 13 years. The number of pending causes has varied little over the last six fiscal years, ranging from 57 to 63.
- Supreme Court justices wrote 165 opinions, an average of 18.3 opinions per justice. The number of opinions issued increased by 18.7 percent from the previous fiscal year (from 139 in FY 2001 to 165 in FY 2002). A rise in the number of majority opinions—18 more than the previous fiscal year (59)—accounted for most of this change. In addition, the number of per curiam opinions, concurring opinions, and dissenting opinions increased marginally. The number of concurring and dissenting opinions also changed marginally, falling from 7 in FY 2001 to 4 in FY 2002.

OTHER ACTIVITY

- In FY 2002, the number of other petitions, direct appeals, and other matters added to the docket increased by 9.2 percent (from 283 to 309), while disposition of these cases increased by 10.1 percent (from 277 to 305) from the previous fiscal year.
- The number of motions added to the Court's docket increased by 8.3 percent from the previous fiscal year (from 1,642 in FY 2001 to 1,778 in FY 2002). Disposition of motions also increased from 1,600 in FY 2001 to 1,812 in FY 2002—an increase of 13.3 percent.

NOTE: Data for prior fiscal years are from the respective Annual Reports of the Texas Judicial System.

&lt;sup>1</sup> "Regular causes" involve cases in which four or more of the Supreme Court justices have decided in conference that a petition for review, petition for writ of mandamus or habeas corpus, or parental notification appeal should be reviewed. Regular causes also include direct appeals the Court has agreed to review and questions of law certified to it by a federal appellate court that the Court has agreed to answer.

Caseload Trends in the Court of Criminal Appeals

BACKGROUND

The Court of Criminal Appeals is the highest state court for criminal appeals and, in conjunction with the Supreme Court of Texas, promulgates rules of evidence and appellate procedure. It is comprised of the Presiding Judge and eight judges.

The caseload of the Court of Criminal Appeals consists of a blend of mandatory and discretionary matters. Decisions made by the Courts of Appeals in criminal cases may be appealed to the Court of Criminal Appeals by petition for discretionary review, which may be filed by the State, the defendant, or both. In addition, the Court may review a decision on its own motion. All cases that result in the death penalty are automatically directed to the Court of Criminal Appeals from the trial court level.

A significant portion of the Court's workload is the mandatory review of applications for postconviction habeas corpus relief in felony cases without a death penalty, under article 11.07 of the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure.

PETITIONS FOR DISCRETIONARY REVIEW, APPLICATIONS FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS, AND CASES INVOLVING ORIGINAL PROCEEDINGS

- The number of petitions for discretionary review filed with the Court fell by 4.2 percent from the previous fiscal year (from 2,036 in FY 2001 to 1,951 in FY 2002). Despite this, the 1,951 petitions for discretionary review filed in FY 2002 exceeded the overall average (1,755) for the last 13 fiscal years.
- The Court disposed of 2,017 petitions for discretionary review in FY 2002, 3.4 percent more than the 1,951 petitions that were added to the docket.
- The number of pending petitions for discretionary review has generally declined since 1998. The 490 petitions for discretionary review pending at the end of FY 2002 was 12.5 percent fewer that the 560 petitions pending at the end of FY 2001, and 34.1 percent less than the FY 1998 peak of 744 pending petitions.
- Applications for writ of habeas corpus filed with the Court under articles 11.07 or 11.071 of the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure increased by 3.4 percent from FY 2001. 6,167 applications were filed in FY 2002, compared to 5,964 the previous fiscal year. Ninety (1.5 percent) of the 6,167 applications filed in FY 2002 involved death penalty cases.
- While the number of applications for writ of habeas corpus filed increased, disposition of these matters decreased by 2.5 percent (from 6,123 in FY 2001 to 5,968 in FY 2002). Consequently, pending applications increased by 29.7 percent, from 694 applications at the end of FY 2001 to 900 applications at the end of FY 2002.

Note: Includes applications for writ of habeas corpus, original proceedings, motions for stay of execution, and motions for reconsideration for applications for writs of habeas corpus and original proceedings.

• Original proceedings<sup>1</sup> filed with the Court increased 21.6 percent from the previous fiscal year (from 602 in FY 2001 to 732 in FY 2002). Disposition of these matters also increased, but only by 16.6 percent (from 602 in FY 2001 to 702 in FY 2002). As a result of the increased number of filings, pending original proceedings cases rose 48.5 percent, from 68 cases at the end of FY 2001 to 101 cases at the end of FY 2002.

DIRECT APPEALS AND GRANTED PETITIONS FOR DISCRETIONARY REVIEW

- In FY 2002, the number of direct appeals added to the Court's docket (278) increased 8.6 percent from the previous fiscal year, in which 256 direct appeals were added. Despite this increase, the number of death penalty cases (excluding DNA appeals) filed in FY 2002 was 30.9 percent (17 cases) lower than the peak of 55 cases filed in FY 2000.
- The Court disposed of 295 direct appeal cases in FY 2002, 16.1 percent more than the 254 cases that were disposed of in the previous fiscal year. Furthermore, it disposed of 6.1 percent (17) more cases than were added to the docket during the fiscal year.
- The Court of Criminal Appeals added 146 granted petitions for discretionary review to its docket in FY 2002. This represents an increase of 32.7 percent over the 110 granted petitions added in FY 2001.
- The Court disposed of 143 granted petitions for discretionary review in FY 2002, 41 (40.2 percent) more than it disposed during FY 2001 (102). The number of pending granted petitions for discretionary review at the end of FY 2002 (128) was only three more than at the end of FY 2001.

MOTIONS AND OPINIONS

• While the number of motions filed and disposed have both fluctuated each fiscal year, the number of motions pending at the end of the fiscal year has steadily declined since FY 1997. Motions for rehearing and reconsideration filed during FY 2002 totaled 119, a 10.5 percent decrease from the previous fiscal year (133). The number of disposed motions in FY 2002 remained nearly the same of the same o

Note: Direct appeals cases include cases involving the death penalty (including DNA appeals), habeas corpus, and extraordinary matters.

Note: Data for granted petitions for discretionary review added to the docket was not available for fiscal years 1990 through 1992.

motions in FY 2002 remained nearly the same as FY 2001 (130 and 132, respectively), and pending motions fell from 11 in FY 2001 to 5 cases in FY 2002.

Judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals wrote 595 opinions in FY 2002. Of these, 438 (73.6 percent) were determinative opinions (signed or per curiam). Of the determinative opinions, 162 (37.0 percent) were signed and 276 (63.0 percent) were per curiam.

Original proceedings include original writs of certiorari, writs of habeas corpus, original writs of mandamus, and original writs of prohibition involving extraordinary matters that were filed directly with the Court of Criminal Appeals, bypassing the trial court.

Cases pending at the beginning of the fiscal year (September 1) may not equal cases pending at the end of the previous fiscal year (August 31) due to docket adjustments.

All cases added were new filings except one death penalty direct appeal added by reinstatement and two added by rehearings granted, as well as two direct appeals involving habeas corpus & extraordinary matters added by rehearings granted.

The 77th Legislature passed a law permitting convicted persons to submit a motion to the convicting court for forensic DNA testing of evidence containing biological material. After holding a hearing, the convicting court makes a finding as to whether the results are favorable to the convicting person. If the person was convicted in a capital case, an appeal of the convicting court's finding is a direct appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals. (Texas Code of Criminal Procedure art. 64.05, effective April 5, 2001.)

Original proceedings are filed directly with the Court of Criminal Appeals. Applications for writ of habeas corpus, although seeking relief from the Court of Criminal Appeals, must be filed in the trial court, which has 35 days in which to submit findings of fact, conclusions of law, and a recommendation to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Motions for extensions of time to file transcripts of court tereview.

<sup>5</sup> Motions for extensions of time to file transcripts of court reporter's notes, bill of exceptions, briefs and petitions for discretionary review

Caseload Trends in the Fourteen Courts of Appeals

BACKGROUND

The 14 Courts of Appeals have intermediate appellate jurisdiction in civil and criminal cases. Each Court of Appeals has jurisdiction over appeals from the trial courts in its respective district. The Courts of Appeals also have limited original writ jurisdiction.

A total of 80 justices serve on the Courts of Appeals, which are located in Fort Worth, Austin, San Antonio, Dallas, Texarkana, Amarillo, El Paso, Beaumont, Waco, Eastland, Tyler, Corpus Christi, and Houston. The number of justices on each court ranges from three on five of the courts to 13 on the Court of Appeals in Dallas, which is the largest court.

CASES ADDED TO THE DOCKETS

The number of cases added to the Courts of Appeals dockets increased slightly. The number of cases added<sup>2</sup> to the Courts of Appeals dockets grew from 11,696 in FY 2001 to 11,984 in FY 2002—a 2.5 percent increase. Despite this increase, the number of cases added to the dockets has remained relatively stable since FY 1998, when a record 12,502 cases were added.

New filings increased by 3.3 percent. In FY 2002, a total of 10,563 new cases (5,686 criminal cases and 4,877 civil cases) were filed in the Courts of Appeals, compared to 10,228 cases in FY 2001. Growth in the number of new criminal cases filed accounted for most of this increase. New criminal cases rose 4.6 percent from the 5,436 filed in FY 2001, while civil cases increased only 1.8 percent from the 4,792 cases filed in FY 2001.

Cases Added and Disposed

CASES DISPOSED

• The Courts of Appeals disposed of more cases than were added to the dockets.

Although 731 fewer cases were disposed in FY 2002 (12,399 cases) than in the previous fiscal year (13,130 cases), the Courts of Appeals disposed of more cases than were added to the dockets (11,984). The Courts' overall disposition rate<sup>3</sup> remained stable—61.2 percent in FY 2002, compared to 61.3 percent in the previous fiscal year—and continued to exceed the ten-year average of 54.0 percent.

- The average clearance rate<sup>4</sup> for the Courts of Appeals fell from its all-time high of 112.3 percent in FY 2001 to 103.5 percent in FY 2002. The average clearance rate for the Courts has exceeded 100 percent for four consecutive years, indicating that the Courts have disposed of more cases than have been added to their dockets each fiscal year since FY 1999.
- The number of dispositions of both criminal and civil cases decreased. Disposition of criminal cases by the Courts decreased 8.1 percent, from 7,615 in FY 2001 to 6,995 in FY 2002. Disposition of civil cases decreased by 2.0 percent, from 5,515 in FY 2001 to 5,404 in FY 2002.

The disposition rate is calculated by dividing the number of dispositions by the total number of cases on the docket (cases pending at the beginning of the fiscal year as well as all cases added over the same fiscal year).

The average times to disposition in FY 2002 were similar to those in FY 2001. In FY 2002, the average length of time between the filing of a case in a Court of Appeals and its disposition was 10.2 months for criminal cases and 8.4 months for civil cases. In addition, the average length of time between submission<sup>5</sup> of an appeal and its disposition was 1.7 months for criminal cases and 2.3 months for civil cases.

PENDING CASES

- In FY 2002, the year-end total civil and criminal pending caseload (7,977 cases) reached its lowest level since FY 1991, when 7,125 cases remained on the Courts of Appeals' dockets. The Courts' backlog has declined each year since peaking in FY 1998 (11,575 cases), though the rate of backlog reduction fell from 14.4 percent in FY 2001 to 3.8 percent in FY 2002.
- The number of pending criminal cases has declined more quickly than the pending civil caseload over the last four years. From FY 1998 to FY 2002, the number of pending civil cases decreased by 20.2 percent (from 4,047 to 3,229 cases), while the number of pending criminal cases fell by 36.9 percent (from 7,528 to 4,748 cases). Criminal cases, therefore, comprised 59.5 percent of the total pending caseload in FY 2002, compared to 65 percent in FY 1998.

TRANSFERRED CASES

- The docket equalization program, which strives to reduce disparities among the 14 Courts of Appeals regarding the average number of new cases filed per justice, resulted in the transfer of 856 cases in FY 2002. Pursuant to orders of the Supreme Court, a total of 258 civil cases and 598 criminal cases were transferred among the Courts in FY 2002. This represents fewer overall transfers than the 968 transfers required to equalize the docket in FY 2001.
- In FY 2002, the docket equalization program reduced caseload disparities by 80.5 percent. The average number of new cases filed per justice for all 14 Courts of Appeals was 132. Pre-transfer filings ranged from 67.3 per justice in the 11th Court of Appeals (Eastland) to 188.3 per justice in the 9th Court of Appeals (Beaumont). New filings per justice for 13 of the 14 Courts of Appeals were more than 13 cases (or 10 percent) above or below the statewide average; however, none of the Courts varied more than 10 percent from the statewide average when transfers were included. Including transfers, the average difference from the statewide mean dropped from 8.0 cases (or an average of 20.5 %) to 0.6 cases (or an average of 4.0 percent)<sup>6</sup>, and the new filings ranged from 123.3 per justice in the 13th Court of Appeals (Corpus Christi) to 143.9 per justice in the 1st Court of Appeals (Houston).

&lt;sup>5</sup> A case is considered "submitted" when the Court hears oral argument or, if no oral argument is heard, when the case is referred to the justices for formal consideration.

Note: The objective of the Docket Equalization program is to reduce or eliminate the disparities among the 14 Courts of Appeals regarding the number of new cases filed per justice. Pursuant to quarterly Supreme Court orders, the Courts of Appeals transfer cases from those courts with larger filings rates to those with smaller filings rates. Because the natural fluctuation in the number of new case filings in each court is not known in advance, the number of cases transferred each quarter is determined according to a formula that takes into account the average filings in each court during the previous four quarters. As a result, the number of cases filed in a given fiscal year is heavily influenced by the filings rates of the previous year as well as the current year. Therefore, the combination of natural fluctuations in case filings and the lag in case transfers causes some Courts of Appeals to have more new cases filed per justice than others in any given fiscal year. However, over longer periods, such as three to five years, the filings rates for new cases in each court would be much closer to the average for all Courts of Appeals.

OPINIONS WRITTEN

■ The justices of the Courts of Appeals wrote 11,959 opinions in FY 2002. This was 732 opinions fewer than were written during the previous fiscal year. Of the 11,959 opinions issued, 2,977 were published, and 8,982 were not published. Sitting justices wrote 94.3 percent (11,276) of the opinions, while visiting justices wrote the other 5.7 percent (683).

&lt;sup>6</sup> Equalization is considered achieved if the new cases filed each year per justice in each of the Courts of Appeals vary by 10 percent or less from the statewide average of new cases filed per justice. (Article IV, Senate Bill 1, General Appropriations Act, 2002-2003 Biennium, Seventy-seventh Legislature, Regular session, 2001.)

Section 74.042, Texas Government Code, establishes nine administrative judicial regions in the State, with the presiding judge for each region designated by the Governor.

The duties of a presiding judge include promulgating and implementing regional rules of administration, advising local judges on judicial management, recommending changes to the Supreme Court for the improvement of judicial administration, and acting for local administrative judges in their absence.

The presiding judge of each region convenes an annual conference of the district and statutory county court judges in the region to discuss the administration of justice and to adopt regional rules of administration. The presiding judge may assign active, senior, and former district judges and active, retired, and former statutory county court judges residing within the region to serve on a court as needed. A presiding judge may request that another presiding judge assign a judge from his region to sit in the region of the requesting judge.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court convenes an annual conference of the nine presiding judges to promote uniform administration of justice in the State. In addition, the Chief Justice is empowered to assign judges of one administrative region for service in another region whenever such assignments are necessary for the prompt and efficient administration of justice.

NINTH ADMINISTRATIVE JUDICIAL REGION

Assignment of Judges to Active Duty in the Trial Courts

The state is divided into nine administrative judicial regions, in each of which a presiding judge is designated by the governor and confirmed by the senate. These presiding judges are authorized by Sections 74.054 and 74.056, Government Code, to assign judges of their respective regions for service on courts other than those to which they were elected. Judges who may be assigned are regular, retired ("senior"), and former district judges, and regular, retired, and former statutory county court judges.

The presiding judge of one administrative judicial region may request that the presiding judge of another region furnish judges for assignment in the region of the requesting judge. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court also is authorized by Section 74.057, Government Code, to assign judges of one administrative judicial region for service in another. The Chief Justice may also assign active and retired

During the year ended August 31, 2002, a total of 8,932 assignments were made to the trial courts of the state, and 28,321 days were served by the judges on assignment. Assuming 250 working days per year, this service was equivalent to an additional 113 full-time judges serving in the trial courts of the state.

Retired and former judges who served during the year totaled 275. These judges received 8,268 assignments and served 27,581 days—the equivalent of adding 110 full-time judges to active service during the year.

Active judges serving a regular court were assigned to courts in other areas 664 times. These judges served 740 days, adding the equivalent of 3 full-time judges to service.

The highest number of assignments was made within or to the First Administrative Judicial Region with 1,915 assignments and 8,051 days of service and the Second Administrative Judicial Region with 1,894 assignments and 5,713 days of service.

The presiding judges of the nine administrative judicial regions made a total of 574 assignments of their resident judges for service in other regions: First (16), Second (101), Third (223), Fourth (37), Fifth (4), Sixth (12), Seventh (83), Eighth (76), and Ninth (22).

DISTRICT COURTS

Caseload Trends in the District Courts

Analysis of Activity for Year Ended August 31, 2002

BACKGROUND

As of September 1, 2002, 418 district courts were operating in Texas. District courts, the primary trial courts in Texas, are courts of general jurisdiction, and most of these courts exercise both criminal and civil jurisdiction. In metropolitan areas, however, district courts tend to specialize in civil, criminal, or family law matters. Additionally, in a few localities, courts that primarily exercise criminal jurisdiction are designated "criminal district courts." A limited number of district courts in the state also possess subject matter jurisdiction normally exercised by county courts.

CASE FILINGS

- The number of cases added to district court dockets increased by 5.1 percent from the previous fiscal year. In FY 2002, 792,035 cases were filed in district courts, compared to 753,254 in FY 2001. Civil cases accounted for 66.3 percent, criminal cases for 29.0 percent, and juvenile cases for 4.7 percent of all cases added in FY 2002. Over the past decade, the total number of cases added to district court dockets has increased an average of 1.7 percent per fiscal year, resulting in an overall 16.3 percent increase (from 681,222 cases added in FY 1993).
- The number of civil cases added to the dockets grew by 4.9 percent. In FY 2002, 525,178 civil cases were added, compared to 500,460 in FY 2001. Nearly two-thirds (345,745 cases) of these cases involved family law and divorce matters.

Over the last 10 fiscal years, the number of civil cases added has grown an average of 1.8 percent per fiscal year, resulting in an overall increase of 16.7 percent (from 450,163 civil cases added in FY 1993).

FY 2001. Only 1.8 percent (666 cases) of the juvenile cases filed in FY 2002 involved conduct indicating a need for supervision (CINS), while the remaining 98.2 percent (36,786 cases) involved delinquent conduct. Despite the recent decrease in juvenile filings, the number of juvenile cases added to the dockets has grown an average of 7.6 percent per fiscal year over the last 10 fiscal years, resulting in an overall increase of 84.0 percent (from 20,359 juvenile cases added in FY 1993).

DISPOSITIONS

- District courts disposed of slightly more cases than during the previous fiscal year. In FY 2002, district courts disposed of 746,640 cases, compared to 738,243 in the previous fiscal year—a 1.1 percent increase. Dispositions have increased an average of 1.1 percent per fiscal year over the last decade, resulting in an overall increase of 10.1 percent (from 678,222 dispositions in FY 1993).
- The statewide average number of cases disposed per judge continued to grow. In FY 2002, 1,786 cases per judge were disposed, compared to 1,766 in FY 2001, 1,751 in FY 2000 and 1,704 in FY 1999.
- Criminal cases accounted for 29.2 percent (218,097 cases) of all cases disposed in FY 2002, civil dispositions comprised 65.9 percent (492,061 cases), and juvenile cases comprised 4.9 percent (36,482 cases).
- Of all civil cases disposed, 22.3 percent were disposed by a bench trial, while 0.39 percent were disposed by a jury trial. In FY 2002, 109,615 cases (or 22.3 percent of all civil cases disposed) were disposed by bench trial, compared to 111,046 cases (or 22.6 percent of all civil case dispositions) during the previous fiscal year. In FY 2002, 1,918 civil cases (0.39 percent) were disposed by a jury trial, compared to 2,377 civil cases (0.48 percent) in FY 2001.
- The number of criminal cases disposed in FY 2002 was similar to the number disposed during the previous fiscal year. The defendant entered a plea of guilty in 40.9 percent (89,281 cases) of criminal cases disposed during FY 2002. In addition, defendants pled guilty and were placed on deferred adjudication in 16.4 percent (35,863 cases) of all criminal cases disposed in FY 2002. A small percentage (2.2 percent, or 4,838 cases) of criminal cases were disposed at trial. Dismissals accounted for another 13.9 percent (30,268 cases) of disposed cases, and transfers and other dispositions made up the remaining 26.5 percent (57,847 cases) of the total criminal cases disposed.
- Of all criminal cases that were disposed at trial, 76.2 percent were disposed by jury trial. In FY 2002, 4,838 cases (or 2.2 percent of all criminal cases disposed) went to trial. Of these cases, 1,150 (23.8 percent) were tried by a judge alone, and 3,688 cases (76.2 percent) were tried by a jury. Defendants were acquitted in 51.3 percent (590) of cases that were disposed by bench trial in FY 2002, compared to only 18.7 percent (691) of cases decided by a jury.

In FY 2002, a finding of delinquent conduct was entered in 54.0 percent (19,375 cases) of the 35,900 juvenile delinquent conduct cases disposed, while an affirmative finding of conduct indicating a need for supervision was entered in 49.0 percent (285 cases) of the 582
CINS cases disposed.

The overall case clearance rate fell to 94.3 percent. Despite an increase in dispositions, clearance rates fell in FY 2002 as the number of new cases added outpaced the disposition of cases. The overall clearance rate fell to 94.3 percent in FY 2002 from 98.0 percent in the previous fiscal year. Moreover, the civil clearance rate fell from 98.2 percent in FY 2001 to 93.7 percent in FY 2002, and the criminal clearance rate fell from 98.2 percent in FY 2001 to 95.1 percent in FY 2002. However, the juvenile clearance rate rose to 97.4 percent, compared to 94.9 percent in FY 2001.

Criminal Cases Reaching Trial: FY 2002
	Bench	Jury	ALL TRIALS
Convictions	560 (48.7%)	2,997 (81.3%)	3,557 (73.5%)
Acquittals	590 (51.3%)	691 (18.7%)	1,281 (26.5%)
TOTAL	1,150 (100%)	3,688 (100%)	4,838 (100%)

- Time to disposition of civil cases improved, and time to disposition of criminal cases remained stable, in FY 2002. In FY 2002, 48.1 percent of civil cases were disposed within six months, compared to 46.9 percent during the previous fiscal year. As in FY 2001, 32.1 percent of criminal cases were disposed within 60 days from filing in FY 2002.
- Approximately four percent more cases were pending in district courts at the end of FY 2002 than at the end of the previous fiscal year. At the close of FY 2002, 823,431 cases remained pending, compared to 791,978 in FY 2001.

OTHER ACTIVITY

- In FY 2002, 26 death sentences and 281 life sentences were assessed in the district courts. These figures are lower than the ten-year average of 34 death sentences and 410 life sentences. In FY 2002, one fewer death sentence and one fewer life sentence were assessed than during FY 2001.
- The number of post-conviction writs of habeas corpus and other writs of habeas corpus filed increased significantly. In FY 2002, 5,117 post-conviction writs of habeas corpus were filed, 16.8 percent more than the 4,382 that were filed in FY 2001. The number of other writs of habeas corpus filed also grew 19.0 percent, from 5,035 in FY 2001 to 5,994 in the subsequent fiscal year.
- The number of bond forfeiture proceedings also increased, while the number of contempt, extradition, and other separately docketed proceedings fell. Bond forfeiture proceedings increased 6.7 percent, from 9,483 in FY 2001 to 10,118 in FY 2002. Contempt, extradition, and other separately docketed proceedings, however, fell by 5.8 percent from the previous fiscal year (from 2,349 in FY 2001 to 2,214 proceedings in FY 2002).

District CourtsExplanation Of Case Categories

CRIMINAL DOCKET

A criminal case is counted as one defendant per indictment or information. For example, if an indictment names more than one defendant, there is more than one case; three defendants named in one indictment equals three cases. If the same defendant is charged in more than one indictment, even if for the same criminal episode, there is more than one case; the same person named in four indictments equals four cases. Finally, if an indictment contains more than one count (Article 21.24, Code of Criminal Procedure), only one case per person named in the indictment is reported. The case is reported under the classification for the most serious offense alleged.

The case-type categories are:

- CAPITAL MURDER: An offense under Penal Code Section 19.03 (Capital Murder).
- MURDER OR VOLUNTARY MANSLAUGHTER: An offense under Penal Code Sections 19.02 (Murder) or 19.04 (Manslaughter).
- ASSAULT OR ATTEMPTED MURDER: A felony offense under Penal Code Section 22.01 (Assault) or 22.04 (Injury to a Child or Elder); an offense under Section 22.02 (Aggravated Assault); or an offense of attempt (as defined in Section 15.01) to commit: Murder (19.02), Capital Murder (19.03), or Manslaughter (19.04).
- SEXUAL ASSAULT OF AN ADULT: An offense under Penal Code Sections 22.011 (Sexual Assault) or 22.021 (Aggravated Sexual Assault) where the victim is an adult (17 years or older).
- INDECENCY OR SEXUAL ASSAULT OF A CHILD: An offense under Penal Code Sections 22.011 (Sexual Assault) or 22.021 (Aggravated Sexual Assault) where the victim is a child (younger than 17 years), or an offense under 21.11 (Indecency with a Child).
- ROBBERY: An offense under Penal Code Sections 29.02 (Robbery) or 29.03 (Aggravated Robbery).
- BURGLARY: A felony offense under Penal Code Sections 30.02 (Burglary) or 30.04 (Burglary of Vehicles).
- THEFT: A felony offense under Penal Code Sections 31.03 (Theft) or 31.04 (Theft of Service) except when the property involved is a motor vehicle, or an offense under Penal Code Sections 32.31 (Credit Card Abuse and Debit Card Abuse).
- AUTOMOBILE THEFT: A felony offense under Penal Code Section 31.03 (Theft) if the property involved is a motor vehicle, or an offense under Section 31.07 (Unauthorized Use of a Vehicle).
- 10. ARSON: An offense under Penal Code Section 28.02 (Arson).
- 11. DRUG SALE OR MANUFACTURE: A felony offense under the Controlled Substances Act (Ch. 481, Health and Safety Code) or the Dangerous Drugs Act (Ch. 483, Health and Safety Code) for the manufacture, delivery, sale, or possession with intent to deliver or sell a drug or controlled substance.
- DRUG POSSESSION: A felony offense for possession under the Controlled Substances Act (Ch. 481, Health and Safety Code) or the Dangerous Drugs Act (Ch 483, Health and Safety Code), other than possession with intent to deliver or sell.
- 13. FELONY D.W.I.: A felony offense under Art. Section 49.09, Penal Code.
- 14. OTHER FELONY: A felony offense not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding categories, including cases previously categorized as forgery.
- 15. ALL MISDEMEANORS: Any offense classified as a misdemeanor.

CIVIL DOCKET

A civil case, unlike a criminal case, does not depend on the number of persons involved. Instead, each separate suit, normally commenced by the filing of the plaintiff's original petition, defines an individual civil case.

- INJURY OR DAMAGE INVOLVING MOTOR VEHICLE: All cases for damages associated in any way with a motor vehicle (automobile, truck, motorcycle, etc.), with or without accompanying personal injury. Examples include personal injury, property damage, and wrongful death cases that involve motor vehicles.
- INJURY OR DAMAGE OTHER THAN MOTOR VEHICLE: Cases for personal injury or damages arising out of an event not involving a motor vehicle. Examples include "slip-and-fall" cases, as well as personal injury, property damage, and wrongful death not involving motor vehicles.
- WORKERS' COMPENSATION: Appeals from awards of compensation for personal injury by the Workers' Compensation Commission (Ch. 410, Labor Code).
- TAX CASES: Suits brought by governmental taxing entities for the collection of taxes.
- CONDEMNATION: Suits by a unit of government or a corporation with the power of eminent domain for the taking of private land for public use.
- ACCOUNTS, CONTRACTS, NOTES: Suits based on enforcing the terms of a certain and express agreement, usually for the purpose of recovering a specific sum of money.
- RECIPROCALS (UIFSA): Actions involving child support in which the case has been received from another court outside the county or state.
- DIVORCE CASES: A suit brought by a party to a marriage to dissolve that marriage pursuant to Family Code Chapter 6. (Annulments are not reported here, but under All Other Family Matters.)
- ALL OTHER FAMILY MATTERS: Includes all family law matters other than divorce proceedings and those juvenile matters which are reported in the Juvenile Section, including:
  - a. Motions to modify previously granted divorce decrees, or other judgments or decrees, in such matters as amount of child support, child custody orders, and other similar motions which are filed under the original cause number:
  - b. Annulments;
  - c. Adoptions;
  - d. Changes of name;
  - e. Termination of parental rights (child protective service cases);
  - f. Dependent and neglected child cases;
  - g. Removal of disability of minority;
  - h. Removal of disability of minority for marriage;
  - i. Voluntary legitimation (Section 160.201, Texas Family Code); and
  - All other matters filed under the Family Code which are not reported elsewhere.
- OTHER CIVIL CAUSES: All civil cases not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding categories.

JUVENILE DOCKET

Juvenile cases are based upon petitions for adjudication of a child alleged to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (C.I.N.S.) as governed by Title 3 of the Texas Family Code.

OTHER PROCEEDINGS

The proceedings under these categories may stem from criminal, civil, or juvenile cases. Categories include post conviction writs of habeas corpus; other writs of habeas corpus; bond forfeiture proceedings; and contempt, extradition, and other separately docketed proceedings not reported elsewhere.

In 2001, the 77th Legislature attached a rider to Senate Bill 1 (the General Appropriations Act) to provide for district court performance measures. This rider provides:

9. District Court Performance Measures. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Office of Court Administration report data for the district courts on a countywide basis and that the data measure countywide clearance rates for criminal, civil and juvenile cases and measure age of cases disposed and the backlog index for criminal and civil cases...

The clearance rate (i.e., number of cases disposed/number of cases added to the docket) is a measure of how effectively a court is disposing the cases added to its docket. A clearance rate of 100 percent indicates that the court disposed of the same number of cases during the year as were added to the docket during the year, resulting in no changes to the court's case backlog.

The backlog index is a calculation used to measure the size of a court's backlog. The backlog index:

...measures the pending caseload against the court's capacity to dispose of the caseload during a given time period. Specifically, it is the number of cases (of a given case type) pending at the beginning of the year, divided by the total number of cases (of the given case type) disposed during the year. For example, if a court had 1,000 pending felony cases at the beginning of the year and disposed of 2,000 felony cases that year, it would have a backlog index of .5, which is a good backlog index for most courts. This index can be interpreted to mean that the court 'turned over' or disposed the equivalent of the pending caseload within six months (0.5 equals a half-year).* A backlog index of 1.0 means that the court disposed of the equivalent of the pending caseload in one year. A court should have a minimum goal of achieving a civil backlog index of 1.0 or less. On average, criminal cases should be disposed more quickly than major civil cases, so courts should maintain a lower backlog index for criminal cases than civil cases.<sup>1</sup>

The age of disposed cases allows a court to measure how quickly it is disposing of cases.

The data for the three district court performance measures are reported on pages 166 to 171.

* We refer to the "equivalent of the pending caseload" because some of the cases pending at the beginning of the year may still be pending at the end of the year; we mean that the court simply disposed of an equivalent number of cases as were pending at the beginning of the year.

JUDICIAL SYSTEM

COUNTY-LEVEL COURTS

Caseload Trends in the County-Level Courts

Analysis of Activity for Year Ended August 31, 2002

BACKGROUND

Constitutional County Courts

The Texas Constitution establishes one county court in each of the 254 counties of the state, but not all such courts exercise judicial functions.

Constitutional county courts have juvenile jurisdiction and concurrent civil jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts in cases in which the matter in controversy exceeds $200 but does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest, and concurrent civil jurisdiction with district courts in cases in which the matter in controversy exceeds $500 but does not exceed $5,000, exclusive of interest. County courts also have the general jurisdiction of a probate court, and they have exclusive original jurisdiction of misdemeanors (other than those involving official misconduct) where the fine allowed exceeds $500 or where a jail sentence may be imposed. They generally have appellate jurisdiction, usually by trial de novo, over cases originally tried in the justice of the peace and municipal courts.

Statutory County Courts / Statutory Probate Courts

Under its constitutional authority to establish such other courts as it may deem necessary and to prescribe the jurisdiction of such courts, the Legislature has established 200 statutory county courts and 16 statutory probate courts, primarily in metropolitan areas, to relieve the county judge of some or all of the judicial duties of office.

The legal jurisdiction of the statutory county courts varies considerably according to the statutes under which they were created. Some are intended to exercise subject-matter jurisdiction in only limited fields, such as civil, criminal, probate, or appellate (from justice courts or municipal courts). The concurrent civil jurisdiction of these statutory county courts with the district court extends to greater amounts in controversy than the constitutional county courts.

The jurisdiction of the statutory probate courts is limited primarily to probate matters.

Note: For purposes of this analysis, "county courts" includes constitutional county courts, statutory county courts, and statutory probate courts.

CASE FILINGS

- During FY 2002, the total number of cases added to the dockets of county courts declined by 2 percent. In FY 2002, criminal cases accounted for 71.7 percent (561,265 cases) of the 782,498 total cases added to county court dockets. Civil cases accounted for another 16.6 percent (129,527 cases), probate cases represented 6.9 percent (54,329 cases), mental health cases comprised 3.7 percent (29,126 cases), and juvenile cases represented 1.1 percent (8,251 cases) of the total caseload added.
- The number of civil cases added in county courts increased by 10,933 cases (9.2 percent) from FY 2001 to FY 2002. In FY 2002, the total number of civil cases added was 129,527, compared to 118,594 cases added in FY 2001. Suits on debt cases comprised 32.3 percent of civil cases added, while divorce and all other family law matters accounted for 18.8 percent.
- In FY 2002, the number of criminal cases added to the dockets of county courts declined from FY 2001 levels. In FY 2002, 561,265 cases were added to the county criminal dockets, compared with 584,792 cases in FY 2001, a decline of 4.0 percent. Theft or worthless check cases accounted for 23.4 percent of the total number of criminal cases added, while DWI and DUID cases comprised 18.9 percent of the cases added.

- Juvenile cases increased by 4.3 percent, from 7,908 cases added in FY 2001 to 8,251 cases added in FY 2002. Conduct indicating a need for supervision cases accounted for 9.9 percent of the juvenile cases filed in county courts, while delinquent conduct cases comprised 90.1 percent of the juvenile cases filed in FY 2002.
- Probate case filings during FY 2002 (54,329 cases) were slightly lower than the five-year average of 56,182 cases. The number of mental health cases filed (29,126 cases) in FY 2002 was higher than the average number filed over the last five fiscal years (27,607 cases).

CASES DISPOSED

Note: The figures in this section do not include probate or mental health cases because statistics on the disposition of those cases are not collected.

- For FY 2002, the total number of cases disposed declined 4.7 percent from the previous fiscal year (673,756 in FY 2002 versus 706,919 in FY 2001). Most of the decline was due to the drop in criminal dispositions, which fell 6.0 percent from 579,670 in FY 2001 to 544,921 in FY 2002. The number of total cases disposed in FY 2002 was slightly less than the previous five-year average of 677,284 cases.
- County courts had a clearance rate (total cases disposed/total cases added) of 96.4 percent for FY 2002. The civil case clearance rate was 93.6 percent, the juvenile case clearance rate was 92.5 percent, and the criminal case clearance rate was 97.1 percent. Criminal cases comprised 79.2 percent of the total pending caseload, while civil cases comprised 20.2 percent and juvenile cases accounted for 0.6 percent.

- There was a slight increase of 1.6 percent in the number of civil cases disposed in FY 2002 compared to FY 2001. Suits on debt made up 33.0 percent of all civil dispositions, while divorce and family law matters accounted for 19.0 percent. Of all civil dispositions in FY 2002, 33.4 percent were disposed within three months, 22.3 percent were disposed in three to six months, 21.4 percent were disposed in six to 12 months, and 22.9 percent were disposed more than 12 months after filing.
- In FY 2002, jury verdicts were rendered in 970 civil cases in county courts. This is a dramatic increase (49.7 percent) over FY 2001, when the total number of civil jury verdicts was 648. For FY 1997 through FY 2001, the average number of jury verdicts was 877.
- The composition of the disposed criminal caseload in FY 2002 remained consistent with that of the previous fiscal year. Of criminal cases disposed, 21.8 percent were theft or worthless check cases, 18.8 percent were driving while intoxicated or under the influence of drugs (DWI/DUID) cases, 12.6 percent were traffic cases, 11.1 percent were drug cases, 9.7 percent were assault cases, and 26.1 percent were other criminal violation cases. The figures for FY 2001 were 20.9 percent, 19.1 percent, 12.9 percent, 10.7 percent, 9.2 percent, and 27.1 percent, respectively. The age of cases disposed remained fairly consistent with the previous year. In FY 2002, 22.4 percent of all criminal cases were disposed in 30 days or less, and 55.5 percent were disposed more than 90 days after filing. The figures for FY 2001 were 23.3 percent and 54.6 percent, respectively.
- In FY 2002, deferred adjudications accounted for 71,380 of the dispositions in criminal cases, or 13.1 percent of the total number of criminal dispositions. Deferred adjudication was most frequently used in traffic cases and drug offense cases 28.6 percent of traffic cases and 19.8 percent of drug offenses were disposed by deferred adjudication.
- Acquittals in criminal cases increased slightly. In FY 2002, defendants were acquitted in 2,608 criminal cases—a 3.5 percent increase from FY 2001. Excluding directed verdicts and JNOVs, defendants who pleaded not guilty were convicted in 54.4 percent of all cases. There was little difference between conviction rates in those cases decided by a jury and those decided by a judge alone.
- County courts disposed of 4.3 percent fewer juvenile cases in FY 2002 than in FY 2001. The number of juvenile cases disposed in FY 2002 (7,633 cases) was almost identical to the 7,649 cases disposed on average over the previous five fiscal years. For conduct indicating need for supervision cases (CINS), an affirmative finding was made in 66.9

County Courts Explanation Of Case Categories

CRIMINAL DOCKET

A criminal case is counted as one defendant per information. For example, if an information names more than one defendant, there is more than one case; three defendants named in one information equals three cases. If the same defendant is charged in more than one information, even if for the same criminal episode, there is more than one case; the same person named in four informations equals four cases. Finally, if an information contains more than one count (Article 21.24, Code of Criminal Procedure) only one case per person named in the information is reported. The case is reported under the classification for the most serious offense alleged.

The case-type categories are:

- D.W.I. OR D.U.I.D.: A misdemeanor offense under Sections 49.04 or 49.09, Penal Code.
- 2. THEFT OR WORTHLESS CHECKS: An offense under Penal Code Section 31.03 (Theft) or Section 31.04 (Theft of Service) or any offense of theft or theft of service if the defendant obtained property or secured performance of service by issuing or passing a check or similar sight order for the payment of money, when the issuer did not have sufficient funds in or on deposit with the bank or other drawee for the payment in full of the check or order as well as all other checks or orders then outstanding (Section 31.06, Penal Code). Also included are appeals of cases brought under Penal Code Section 32.41—Issuance of Bad Checks.
- DRUG OFFENSES: An offense under the Controlled Substances Act (Ch. 481, Health and Safety Code) or the Dangerous Drug Act (Ch. 483, Health and Safety Code).
- ASSAULT: An offense under Penal Code 22.01 (Assault) or 22.05 (Deadly Conduct).
- TRAFFIC: Violations of the provisions of Title 7, Transportation Code and related statutes, except D.W.I. Section 49.04, Penal Code.
- OTHER CRIMINAL: An offense not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding categories.

CIVIL DOCKET

A civil case, unlike a criminal case, does not depend on the number of persons involved. Instead, each separate suit, normally commenced by the filing of the plaintiff's original petition, defines an individual civil case.

The case-type categories are:

INJURY OR DAMAGE INVOLVING MOTOR VEHICLE:
 All cases for damages associated in any way with a motor vehicle (automobile, truck, motorcycle, etc.), with or without accompanying personal injury. Examples include personal injury, property damage, and wrongful death cases. Any type of driver's license suspension case, however, is not included in this category.

- INJURY OR DAMAGE OTHER THAN MOTOR VEHICLE: Cases for personal injury or damages arising out of an event not involving a motor vehicle. Examples include "slipand-fall" cases.
- TAX CASES: Suits brought by governmental taxing entities for the collection of taxes.
- SUITS ON DEBT: Suits based on enforcing the terms of a certain and express agreement, usually for the purpose of recovering a specific sum of money.
- 5. DIVORCE: (Applicable only for some County Courts at Law.) A suit brought by a party to a marriage to dissolve that marriage pursuant to Family Code, Chapter 6. (Annulments are not reported here, but under All Other Family Law Matters.)
- 6. ALL OTHER FAMILY LAW MATTERS: This category includes all family law matters, other than divorce proceedings and those juvenile matters which are reported in the Juvenile Section, including:
  - a. Motions to modify previously granted divorce decrees, or other judgments or decrees, in such matters as amount of child support, child custody orders, and other similar motions which are filed under the original cause number;
  - b. Annulments:
  - c. Adoptions;
  - d. Changes of name;
  - Termination of parental rights (child protective service cases);
  - f. Dependent and neglected child cases;
  - g. Removal of disability of minority;
  - h. Removal of disability of minority for marriage;
  - Voluntary legitimation (Section 160.201, Texas Family Code); and
  - All other matters filed under the Family Code that are not reported elsewhere.
- OTHER CIVIL: All civil cases not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding categories.

JUVENILE DOCKET

Juvenile cases are based upon petitions for adjudication of a child alleged to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (C.I.N.S.) as governed by Title 3 of the Texas Family Code.

PROBATE AND MENTAL HEALTH CASES

- PROBATE CASES: These are governed by the Texas Probate Code, and include matters involving the probate of wills, the administration of estates, and guardianships. A single probate case may involve more than one person.
- MENTAL HEALTH CASES: These are governed by the Texas Mental Health Code and other mental health statutes, and include the commitment of mentally ill or alcoholic persons.

Court-Ordered Mental Health Services

The 75th Legislature passed H.B. 1039, which became effective September 1, 1997. It applies to all courts in which mental health commitment hearings are held. The bill requires the clerk of each court with jurisdiction to order commitment to provide the Office of Court Administration each month with a report of the number of applications for commitment orders for involuntary mental health services filed with the court and the disposition of those cases, including the number of commitment orders for inpatient and outpatient mental health services.

The following table summarizes the statewide data for fiscal year 2002 collected from county clerks, as required by H.B. 1039:

Statewide Summary of Court-Ordered Mental Health Services: FY 2002

DISTRICT & COUNTY-LEVEL COURT
JUVENILE ACTIVITY

Juvenile Caseload Trends in the District & County-Level Courts

BACKGROUND

Section 51.04 of the Texas Family Code provides for the designation of a court or courts in each county as the juvenile court to hear proceedings under Title 3 of the Family Code. The court designated must be either a district court, criminal district court, county court at law, or constitutional county court. The designation is made by the juvenile board in each county.

Juvenile courts have jurisdiction over offenses committed by juveniles who are at least 10 years of age and under 17 years of age at the time of the offense. The courts have jurisdiction over two types of offenses: delinquent conduct and conduct indicating a need for supervision (CINS). Delinquent conduct includes all offenses that are punishable by imprisonment or confinement in jail if committed by an adult, as well as contempt of justice and municipal courts. Conduct indicating a need for supervision includes truancy, running away from home, and fine-only offenses. Fine-only offenses, except for public intoxication, are within the original jurisdiction of the justice and municipal courts as criminal offenses and are only eligible to be heard by juvenile courts after being transferred by the justice or municipal court where the case was first filed. Juvenile courts do not have jurisdiction over traffic offenses committed by juveniles, as the justice and municipal courts must hear these cases.

In an effort to address the rise in juvenile crime over the past decade, juvenile courts in the larger Texas counties have been using juvenile law masters, referees, and associate judges to assist with detention hearings and the adjudication of cases under Title 3 of the Family Code.

OVERALL CASELOAD

- Over the last decade, the number of juvenile cases added has increased an average of 7.4 percent per fiscal year, for a total increase of 83.3 percent (from 24,936 added in FY 1993 to 45,703 added in FY 2002). However, number of juvenile cases added in FY 2002 was 1.9 percent less than the number of juvenile cases added in FY 2001 (46,570 cases).
- CINS cases accounted for 3.2 percent (1,480 cases) of juvenile cases added, while delinquent conduct cases comprised 96.8 percent (44,223 cases).
- Over the past ten years, the number of juvenile cases disposed per year has grown an average of 7.1 percent per fiscal year, for a total increase of 82.0 percent (from 24,249 cases disposed in FY 1993 to 44,115 cases disposed in FY 2002). However, number of juvenile cases disposed in FY 2002 was 1.2 percent less than the number disposed the previous fiscal year (44,640 cases).

- CINS cases accounted for 2.7 percent of juvenile cases disposed in FY 2002, while delinquent conduct cases comprised 97.3 percent.
- The gradual upward trend in pending cases continued in FY 2002. In each of the past ten years, the number of juvenile cases pending at the end of the fiscal year has increased from the previous fiscal year, indicating that dispositions have not kept pace with cases added. Although the number of cases added to the dockets of district and county-level courts in FY 2002

- decreased by 1.9 percent from FY 2001, the number of cases disposed also decreased by 1.2 percent, leaving 25,010 cases pending at the end of the year -1.7 percent more than in FY 2001.
- The juvenile case clearance rate improved slightly (from 95.9 percent in FY 2001 to 96.5 percent in FY 2002) and exceeded the average juvenile clearance rate of 95.1 percent for the last decade. However, during this period, the courts have not been able to obtain an overall juvenile clearance rate that exceeds 100 percent, which is necessary to reduce the courts' pending caseloads.

FINDINGS IN JUVENILE CASES

- Findings of delinquent conduct were made in 98.7 percent of the juvenile delinquency cases disposed with a finding in FY 2002. In addition, a finding of CINS was made in 99.3 percent of CINS cases disposed with a finding in FY 2002.
- In FY 2002, most (88.6 percent) findings of delinquent conduct or dispositions involving motions to revoke probation in delinquency cases resulted in probation being granted or continued. Of those cases in which probation was granted or continued, probation was granted or continued under parental care in 80.6 percent, to residential treatment facilities in 18.8 percent, and under foster care in the remaining 0.6 percent of cases. These figures were almost identical to the FY 2001 figures of 80.7 percent, 18.8 percent, and 0.5 percent, respectively.
- In FY 2002, a total of 2,459 commitments (or 10.3 percent of all dispositions resulting in findings of delinquent conduct) were made to Texas Youth Commission (TYC) facilities. This represents a 3.2 percent decrease from the number of children ordered confined to TYC facilities in FY 2001.

OTHER ACTIVITY

- During FY 2002, a total of 412 juveniles were certified to stand trial as adults. This total is up 121.5 percent from FY 2001, when 186 children were certified to be tried as adults.
- Other actions taken by juvenile courts during FY 2002 included 28,470 detention hearings and 2,331 hearings on motions to modify court orders. This was 3,688 fewer detention hearings than were held during the last fiscal year and 4,222 less than the five-year average (32,692 hearings) for FY 1998 through FY 2002. Hearings on motions to modify court orders also decreased. In FY 2001, 2,593 hearings were held, while in FY 2002 2,331 hearings were held (a 10.1 percent decrease).

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE
COURTS

Caseload Trends in the Justice of the Peace Courts

Analysis of Activity for Year Ended August 31, 2002

BACKGROUND

Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in criminal cases when punishment is by a fine only; or punishable by a fine and such sanctions, if any, as authorized by statute not consisting of confinement in jail or imprisonment. They have exclusive jurisdiction over civil cases in which the amount in controversy is $200 or less, and concurrent jurisdiction with both the county and district courts in civil matters in which exclusive jurisdiction is not in the district or county court and the amount in controversy is $5,000 or less. They have jurisdiction over forcible entry and detainer actions (evictions) and function as small claims courts.

There were 834 justice of the peace courts in operation in the state during FY 2002. The Texas Constitution provides that each county shall have, depending on the population, one to eight justice precincts. In each precinct, one or more justices are to be elected, depending on the population.

TOTAL CASELOAD

- The total number of criminal and civil cases filed in justice courts increased slightly in FY 2002. In FY 2002 the total number of new cases filed was 2,984,104, a 3.9 percent increase over FY 2001 (2,871,394) new cases filed. Traffic cases accounted for 68.1 percent (2,032,666 cases) of all cases filed.
- The clearance rate (total cases disposed / total cases added) for justices of the peace was 88.3 percent for FY 2002, down slightly from 88.4 percent last fiscal year. Total dispositions for civil and criminal cases increased 3.9 percent, from 2,537,364 in FY 2001 to 2,636,184 in FY 2002.
- The number of jury trials decreased dramatically from the previous fiscal year. There was a 39.4% decrease in the number of jury trials held in both civil and criminal cases. In FY 2001 7,685 jury trials were held, which is 3,030 more than in FY 2002. Of the 367,368 cases that went to trial in FY 2002 and were not dismissed, 98.7 percent were tried before a judge alone.

The number of cases dismissed at trial increased in all case enterprise. Total cases dismissed at trial increased in all cases enterprises.

The number of cases dismissed at trial increased in all case categories. Total cases dismissed at trial increased from 85,306 in FY 2001 to 106,440 in FY 2002. The largest percentage increase (34.2 percent) occurred in the traffic misdemeanors category.

CRIMINAL CASES

- Criminal cases accounted for 90.8 percent of the total cases filed in FY 2002. The 2,709,473 new criminal cases filed during FY 2002 continues the slight upward trend in new criminal filings over the past five years.
- The 2,709,473 criminal cases filed during FY 2002 marked an increase of 3.4 percent (90,266 cases) from criminal filings in the previous year. Traffic cases comprised 75 percent of criminal filings, with the remaining 25 percent consisting of non-traffic misdemeanors.

- In FY 2002, the majority of criminal case dispositions, 68.3 percent, occurred prior to trial. Most of these dispositions, 77.1 percent, were by payment of fine. For traffic misdemeanors, the payment of fines prior to trial accounted for 53.8 percent of dispositions. This percentage has remained constant over the past five years.
- In FY 2002, the conviction rate in bench trials for all criminal cases was 96.9 percent, while the conviction rate in jury trials was lower at 84.7 percent. Just 6,822 acquittals resulted from bench trials in justice of the peace courts, out of a total 219,409 criminal bench trials. Defendants fared much better in jury trials, obtaining 439 acquittals in 2,868 jury trial dispositions.

Note: Tctals may exceed 100 percent due to rounding.

CIVIL CASES

- Civil cases accounted for 9.2 percent of the total new cases filed in justice of the peace courts. In FY 2002, 274,631 new civil cases were filed. This is 12 percent more than the previous five-year average of 245,237 new civil cases filed.
- The number of civil cases filed in FY 2002 increased by almost 9 percent (22,444 cases) in comparison to FY 2001 filings. Forcible entry and detainer suits made up 54.1 percent of the 274,631 civil cases filed, while small claims and other civil actions comprised 23.1 and 22.9 percent, respectively.
- Forcible entry and detainer cases filed increased by 11.2% over the previous fiscal year, from 133,514 to 148,515 cases. The number of new forcible entry and detainer cases filed has increased each year over the past five fiscal years.
- Jury trials accounted for only 0.8 percent of all civil cases disposed in FY 2002. Juries disposed of 1,787 cases in FY 2002, compared with 2,157 cases in FY 2001.

JUVENILE AND OTHER ACTIVITY

- Juvenile statements taken by justices of the peace decreased significantly from FY 2001, while warnings administered and detention hearings held remained steady. In FY 2001, 10,928 statements were taken from juveniles, while 3,799 were taken in FY 2002. The number of statements taken from juveniles averaged 6,203 for the period FY 1998 through FY 2002.
- During FY 2002, justices of the peace held 38,002 conferences prior to legal action. This was a 12.5 percent decrease from FY 2001, when 43,452 conferences were held. Of these conferences, 47.1 percent resulted in cases not being filed as formal cases.
- Total appeals (14,184 cases) were lower than the average for the previous five-year average. For FY 1997 through FY 2001, the average number of cases appealed was 16,131.
- Total revenues received by justice of the peace courts have continued to grow over the past five years. For FY 2002, the revenues received were $238,623,166, a 38 percent increase over FY 1998, when $173,165,324 was collected.

Justice of the Peace Courts Explanation Of Case Categories

CRIMINAL CASES

TRAFFIC MISDEMEANORS

This category includes all non-jailable misdemeanor violations of the Texas traffic laws and other violations of laws relating to the operation or ownership of a motor vehicle (for example, Speeding, Stop Sign, Red Light, Inspection Sticker, Driver's License, Registration, etc.). Maximum punishment is by fine and such sanctions, if any, as authorized by statute not consisting of confinement in jail or imprisonment.

NON-TRAFFIC MISDEMEANORS

This category includes all other Class C misdemeanor criminal violations found in the Texas Penal Code and other state laws (for example, Public Intoxication, Disorderly Conduct, Assault, Theft Under $50, etc.). Maximum punishment is by fine and such sanctions, if any, as authorized by statute not consisting of confinement in jail or imprisonment.

SMALL CLAIMS SUITS

This category includes all suits for the recovery of money (damages or debt up to $5,000) brought to the justice of the peace as judge of the Small Claims Court in accordance with chapter 28 of the Texas Government Code.

FORCIBLE ENTRY AND DETAINER

This category includes all suits for forcible entry and detainer (recovery of possession of premises) brought under authority of section 27.031, Texas Government Code; Texas Property Code, section 24.001-24.008; and rules 738-755, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

OTHER CIVIL SUITS

This category includes all other suits within the civil jurisdiction of the justice of the peace court, including those for recovery of money (damages or debt up to $5,000) and for foreclosure of mortgages and enforcement of liens on personal property in cases in which the amount in controversy is otherwise within the justice court's jurisdiction as provided by section 27.031 of the Texas Government Code.

Counties That Redistricted Their Justice Courts

During fiscal year 2002, redistricting occurred in one or more justice of the peace precincts in each of the three counties listed below. While the boundaries of a precinct may have been altered, the precinct and/or place number may not necessarily have changed.

For those courts assigned a new precinct and/or place number, activity data were compiled by judge and recorded under the judge's new precinct and/or place number in order to maintain consistency. For example, a judge may have served three months in the old precinct (Precinct 1-1) and nine months in the new precinct (Precinct 2-1). The judge's total reported activity equals the sum of the statistics for the periods served in the old precinct (Precinct 1-1) and the new precinct (2-1) and is reported under the new precinct (2-1) only.

The changes in precinct and/or place number resulting from redistricting are shown below.

Bexar County:

New Precinct & Place	Judge Name	Old Precinct & Place
1-3	Zaragoza, Edmundo M.	5-1

Brazos County:

New Precinct & Place	Judge Name	Old Precinct & Place
1-1	Ellis, Jr., Charles	2-1
2-1	Meece, C. Patrick	4-1
2-2	Truelove, Ray	3-1
3-1	Boyett, George	6-1
4-1	Quintero, Ramiro	5-1

Dallas County:

New Precinct & Place	Judge Name	Old Precinct & Place
1-1	Jones, Thomas G.	7-1
1-2	Steele, Cleophas	8-2
1-A	Rose, Charles	8-1
2-1	Sholden, John	4-1
2-2	Blackington, Ken	5-1
3-1	Cercone, Albert	1-1
3-2	Ritter, Martha	3-2
3-3	Seider, Steven	3-1
3-A	Terry, Jim	2-1
4-1	Cawthon, Wilma	5-2
4-2	Whitney, Robert	2-2
5-1	Sepulveda, Luis	6-1

MUNICIPAL COURTS

Caseload Trends in the Municipal Courts

Analysis of Activity for Year Ended August 31, 2002

BACKGROUND

In FY 2002, municipal courts and municipal courts of record operated in 877 Texas cities. Municipal courts have original and exclusive jurisdiction over violations of city ordinances and resolutions rules or orders of joint boards that operate airports under Section 22.074, Transportation Code and that are punishable by a fine not to exceed: 1) $2,000 in cases arising under ordinances or resolutions, rules or orders involving fire safety, zoning, public health, and sanitation; and 2) $500 in all other cases arising under a municipal ordinance or airport board resolution, rule or order.

In addition, municipal courts have concurrent jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in misdemeanor cases resulting from violations of state laws within the city limits or property owned by the municipality located in the municipality's extraterritorial jurisdiction when punishment is limited to a fine or the case arises under Chapter 106 of the Alcoholic Beverage Code relating to minors and does not include confinement as an authorized sanction. Municipal courts of record may also have additional jurisdiction provided by local ordinance.

FILINGS AND DISPOSITIONS

- Municipal court caseloads remained relatively stable. In FY 2002, filings in Texas municipal courts grew by only 0.3 percent (from 7,443,443 to 7,445,864) from the previous fiscal year.
- Case filings in the eight largest cities accounted for 47.0 percent of all filings in the state. In FY 2002, the combined case filings of municipal courts in the eight largest cities—Houston, Dallas, San Antonio, El Paso, Austin, Fort Worth, Arlington, and Corpus Christi—totaled 3,502,029. This is 0.8 percent more than the 3,474,302 cases filed during the previous fiscal year.
- Traffic cases continued to dominate docket activity. Traffic cases accounted for 84.7 percent (6,309,195 cases) of all cases filed, while non-traffic misdemeanor cases (1,136,669 cases) accounted for the remaining 15.3 percent of cases filed in FY 2002. Non-parking traffic cases accounted for 70.3 percent (5,234,243 cases) of total case filings, while parking cases comprised another 14.4 percent (1,074,952 cases).
- The number of traffic misdemeanor filings has increased an average of 1.8 percent per fiscal year over the last decade, for a total increase of 17.4 percent (from 5,372,123 cases filed in FY 1993 to 6,309,195 filed in FY 2002). Non-parking traffic filings grew from 5,220,530 in FY 2001 to 5,234,243 in FY 2002, an increase of 0.3 percent. In addition, parking cases increased by less than 0.8 percent, from 1,066,817 in FY 2001 to 1,074,952 in FY 2002.
- Over the last ten years, the number of non-traffic misdemeanors filed has increased an average of 2.6 percent per fiscal year, for a total increase of 24.3 percent (from 914,423 cases in FY 1993 to 1,136,669 cases in FY 2002). From FY 2001 to FY 2002, state law non-traffic misdemeanor filings fell by 1.9 percent (17,663 cases) to 894,074, while non-traffic city ordinance violations fell by 0.7 percent (1,764 cases) to 242,595.

- The overall number of dispositions fell for the first time since FY 1996. In FY 2002, dispositions declined by 1.7 percent from the previous fiscal year (from 7,280,452 to 7,157,958). However, the total number of cases disposed has increased an average of 4.3 percent per year over the last decade, resulting in an overall increase of 42.3 percent (from 5,032,017 cases disposed in FY 1993 to 7,157,958 in FY 2002).
- Dispositions prior to trial made up 45.5 percent of all traffic dispositions. In FY 2002, 2,796,858 traffic cases were disposed prior to trial; of these cases, 86.3 percent (2,414,056 cases) were disposed by payment of fine or forfeiture of a - deposit made to ensure appearance. Another 24.4 percent (1,499,854 cases) of all traffic cases were disposed at trial, and 30.2 percent (1,856,380 cases) were dismissed. Most parking cases (96.1 percent, or 679,106 of 706,551 cases) were disposed before trial, with 93.5 percent of these cases being disposed by payment of a fine or forfeiture of a deposit.
- Nearly half of non-traffic cases were disposed before a judge or jury. In FY 2002, 48.1 percent (483,820 cases) of non-traffic cases were disposed before a judge or jury, while 45.5 percent (456,727 cases) were disposed prior to trial, and 6.4 percent (64,319 cases) were dismissed due to compliance with deferred disposition requirements.

Disposition of Non-Traffic Cases, FY 2002

OTHER ACTIVITY

 Of all cases that were disposed at trial in FY 2002 and were not dismissed, 99.7 percent were disposed before the judge without a jury. Of the 1,185,728 cases that were not dismissed at trial, 1,181,879 (99.7 percent) were tried before a judge alone, and 3,849 cases (0.3 percent) were decided by a jury. Not guilty findings were made in 2.6 percent (30,331) of cases that went to bench trial, compared to 23.3 percent (897) of cases that went to jury trial.

The number of appeals filed grew for the first time in the last 10 fiscal years. During FY 2002, the number of appeals increased 4.9 percent to 13,679 (from 13,034 in FY 2001). Traffic case appeals grew by 3.2 percent (from 10,996 in FY 2001 to 11,346 in FY 2002), while appeals involving non-traffic cases climbed 14.5 percent (to 2,333 from 2,038 in the previous fiscal year). However, over the last ten years, the number of appeals has decreased an average of 16.4 percent per fiscal year (from 72,904 appeals in FY 1993 to 13,679 appeals in FY 2002), representing a total 81.2 percent decrease for the decade. The number of convictions, on the other hand, has increased an average of 5.0 percent per fiscal year (from 787,021 in FY 1993 to 1,154,500 in FY 2002), representing a 46.7 percent increase for the decade.

* The rate of appeal equals the number of appeals divided by the number of convictions at trial during the fiscal year.

 The number of arrest warrants, search warrants, magistrate warnings, and emergency protective orders all increased. During FY 2002, judges issued 2,067,648 arrest warrants (3.4 percent more than the 2,000,053 issued in FY 2001), 5,908 search warrants (12.6 percent more than the 5,247 issued in FY 2001), 205,219 magistrate warnings (8.2 percent more than the 189,628 given in FY 2001), and 5,992 emergency protective orders (11.1 percent more than the 5,392 issued in FY 2001).

Juvenile activity fell by 3.0 percent. In FY 2002, municipal courts handled 277,804 juvenile matters, compared to 286,261 during the previous fiscal year. Transportation Code violations accounted for 37.9 percent of juvenile matters, while Alcoholic Beverage Code violations not involving driving comprised 14.5 percent. Health and Safety Code (tobacco-related) violations comprised 5.0 percent, Education Code (school-related) violations comprised 3.1 percent, and driving under the influence of alcohol violations comprised 1.4 percent, and all other violations accounted for the remaining 38.1 percent.

REVENUE

• Municipal court revenue increased by 7.6 percent. Revenue collected by reporting courts during FY 2002 totaled $485,964,834, compared to $451,599,258 in FY 2001. The amount of revenue per disposition averaged approximately $68, compared to $62 the previous fiscal year. Although municipalities collect this revenue, a portion of it is remitted to various special funds maintained by the state government.

Municipal Courts Explanation Of Case Categories

TRAFFIC MISDEMEANORS

This category includes all non-jailable misdemeanor violations of the Texas traffic laws and other violations of laws relating to the operation or ownership of a motor vehicle. Maximum punishment is by fine and such sanctions, if any, as authorized by statute not consisting of confinement in jail or imprisonment.

NON-PARKING

This includes all violations that do not involve offenses for improper parking (for example, Exceeding the Speed Limit, Failure to Stop at a Traffic Control Device, Expired or No Driver's License or Inspection Sticker, etc.).

PARKING

This includes violations of state law or municipal ordinance involving the improper standing of a vehicle (for example, Parking on Highway Right of Way, Within an Intersection, Overparking, etc.).

NON-TRAFFIC MISDEMEANORS

This category includes all other Class C or other nonjailable misdemeanor violations:

STATE LAW

Violations are those usually found in the Texas Penal Code and other state laws (for example, Public Intoxication, Disorderly Conduct, Assault, Theft under $50, etc.). Maximum punishment is by fine and such sanctions, if any, as authorized by statute not consisting of confinement in jail or imprisonment.

CITY ORDINANCE

Violations are those non-traffic offenses found in municipal ordinances (for example, Dog Running at Large, Plumbing Code Violation, etc.). Ordinance violations involving litter, fire safety, zoning, public health, and sanitation are punishable by fines only, up to a maximum of $2,000. Punishment for violation of other types of city ordinances is limited to fines only, not to exceed $500.

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION CENTERS

SUMMARY OF REPORTED ACTIVITY FOR YEAR ENDED AUGUST 31, 2002

The Alternative Dispute Resolution Centers of Texas were reauthorized and expanded in scope in 1987 by the 70th Legislature "to encourage the peaceable resolution of disputes, with special consideration given to disputes involving the parent-child relationship, ... and the early settlement of pending litigation through voluntary settlement procedures." (Acts 1987, 70th Legislature, Chapter 1121, Section 1.) Alternative Dispute Resolution Centers provide an opportunity to resolve conflicts creatively and effectively outside the courtroom using a variety of mechanisms including mediation, arbitration, negotiation, and moderated settlement conferences.

Twelve of 14 centers submitted reports for the period of September 1, 2001 through August 31, 2002. (Note: This summary does not include data from judges, court clerks, private groups, and other organizations that actively employ alternative dispute resolution procedures, but do not formally report associated statistics.)
