FISCAL NOTE, 84TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 24, 2015

TO: Honorable Joe Straus, Speaker of the House, House of Representatives

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB10 by Thompson, Senfronia (Relating to certain criminal and civil consequences of trafficking of persons, compelling prostitution, and certain other related criminal offenses; to the prevention, prosecution, and punishment of those offenses, and to compensation paid to victims of those offenses.), As Passed 2nd House

Estimated Two-year Net Impact to General Revenue Related Funds for HB10, As Passed 2nd House: a negative impact of ($1,478,576) through the biennium ending August 31, 2017.

The bill would make no appropriation but could provide the legal basis for an appropriation of funds to implement the provisions of the bill.

General Revenue-Related Funds, Five-Year Impact:

Fiscal Year	Probable Net Positive/(Negative) Impact to General Revenue Related Funds
2016	($742,788)
2017	($735,788)
2018	($735,788)
2019	($735,788)
2020	($735,788)

All Funds, Five-Year Impact:

Fiscal Year	Probable Savings/(Cost) from General Revenue Fund 1	Change in Number of State Employees from FY 2015
2016	($742,788)	11.0
2017	($735,788)	11.0
2018	($735,788)	11.0
2019	($735,788)	11.0
2020	($735,788)	11.0

Fiscal Analysis

The bill would revise multiple codes relating to certain criminal and civil consequences of trafficking of persons, compelling prostitution, and certain other related criminal offenses.

The bill would require the Office of the Governor to establish the Child Sex Trafficking Prevention Unit within the Office of the Governor's criminal justice division.

The bill would require the Texas Education Agency (TEA) to develop a policy in addition to its current child abuse and neglect reporting policy to include mandatory reporting related to trafficking of a child. Reporting would be required by each school district and open-enrollment charter school.

Methodology

This analysis assumes that the provisions of the bill addressing felony sanctions for criminal offenses would not result in a significant impact on state correctional agencies or on the demand for resources and services of those agencies.

According to the Office of the Governor, establishing the Child Sex Trafficking Prevention Unit within the criminal justice division would require 11 new FTEs as well as funds for travel, equipment, and operating costs. The FTEs would include 1 director, 4 referral or hotline specialists, and 6 case managers for placement at each of the Department of Public Safety's regional field offices at a total annual cost of $510,000, not including benefits. The Office of the Governor estimates travel costs of $23,000 each fiscal year. Hotline services would have an annual cost of $5,000 and a related cost of $15,000 for outreach to relevant parties. Equipment and supplies would have an annual cost of $10,000. The total estimated fiscal impact of the bill would be a cost of $742,788 in General Revenue in fiscal year 2016 and $735,788 in General Revenue in each subsequent fiscal year.

Based on the analysis of the Texas Education Agency (TEA), there would be minimal costs to TEA associated with the expanded task force duties and the new Public Education Information Management System (PEIMS) reporting requirement related to trafficked children. It is assumed that TEA could absorb the costs associated with the bill within existing resources.

Technology

There would be a one-time cost of $7,000 to the Office of the Governor for a case management system.

Local Government Impact

Independent school districts and charter districts would incur some administrative costs to collect and report additional information.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE IMPACT STATEMENT

84TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 24, 2015

TO: Honorable Joe Straus, Speaker of the House, House of Representatives

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB10 by Thompson, Senfronia (Relating to certain criminal and civil consequences of trafficking of persons, compelling prostitution, and certain other related criminal offenses; to the prevention, prosecution, and punishment of those offenses, and to compensation paid to victims of those offenses.), As Passed 2nd House

The provisions of the bill addressing felony sanctions are the subject of this analysis. The bill would amend the Code of Criminal Procedure to add compelling a child younger than 18 to commit prostitution to the list of offenses for which there is no statute of limitations and add soliciting a person younger than 18 for prostitution to the list of convictions or adjudications for which sex offender registration is required. The bill would amend the Penal Code to expand the definition of soliciting a person younger than 18 for prostitution and add language to clarify continuous trafficking of persons includes conduct against one or more victims. Compelling a child younger than 18 to commit prostitution and continuous trafficking of persons are first degree felonies. Soliciting a person younger than 18 for prostitution is a second degree felony. Failure to comply with sex offender registration requirements is punishable at all felony degrees with the punishment degree based on the specifics of the offense. A first degree felony is punishable by confinement in prison for life or five to 99 years, a second degree felony for two to 20 years, a third degree felony for two to ten years, and a state jail felony is punishable by confinement in a state jail for 180 days to two years. In addition to confinement certain felony level offenses are subject to an optional fine not to exceed $10,000.

In fiscal year 2014, 66 people were arrested, 11 were placed under direct felony community supervision, and 11 were admitted to correctional institutions for compelling a child younger than 18 to commit prostitution. In fiscal year 2014, 24 people were arrested, fewer than ten were placed under direct felony community supervision, and fewer than ten were admitted into correctional institutions for soliciting a person younger than 18 for prostitution. Under the provisions of the bill those entering the criminal justice system for soliciting a person younger than 18 for prostitution would be required to register as a sex offender and would be subject to failure to comply with sex offender registration requirements for non-compliance. In fiscal year 2014, 1,524 people were arrested, 273 were placed under direct felony community supervision, and 972 were admitted into correctional institutions for failure to comply with sex offender registration requirements outside of the provisions of the bill. In fiscal year 2014, 11 people were arrested, fewer than ten were placed under direct felony supervision, and fewer than ten were admitted into correctional institutions for the continuous trafficking of persons. This analysis assumes the provisions of the bill addressing felony sanctions for criminal offenses would not result in a significant impact on state correctional agencies.
