

Chapter 551

H.B. No. 2066

AN ACT

relating to the rescission of nonjudicial foreclosure sales.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Chapter 51, Property Code, is amended by adding Section 51.016 to read as follows:

Sec. 51.016. RESCISSION OF NONJUDICIAL FORECLOSURE SALES.

(a) This section applies only to a nonjudicial foreclosure sale of residential real property conducted under Section 51.002. In this subsection, "residential real property" means:

(1) a single family home, duplex, triplex, or quadraplex; or

(2) a unit in a multiunit residential structure in which title to an individual unit is transferred to the owner of the unit under a condominium or cooperative system.

(b) Not later than the 15th calendar day after the date of a foreclosure sale, a mortgagee, trustee, or substitute trustee may rescind the sale under this section if:

(1) the statutory requirements for the sale were not satisfied;

(2) the default leading to the sale was cured before the sale;

(3) a receivership or dependent probate administration involving the property was pending at the time of sale;

1 (4) a condition specified in the conditions of sale
2 prescribed by the trustee or substitute trustee before the sale and 3 made available in writing to prospective bidders at the sale was not 4 met;

5 (5) the mortgagee or mortgage servicer and the debtor
6 agreed before the sale to cancel the sale based on an enforceable 7 written agreement by the debtor to cure the default; or

8 (6) at the time of the sale, a court-ordered or 9 automatic stay of the sale imposed in a bankruptcy case filed by a 10 person with an interest in the property was in effect.

11 (c) On or before the 15th calendar day after the date of the 12 sale, the party rescinding the sale shall:

13 (1) serve a written notice of rescission that 14 describes the reason for the rescission and includes recording
15 information for any affected trustee's or substitute trustee's deed 16 that was recorded on:

17 (A) the purchaser, if the mortgagee is not the 18 purchaser; and

19 (B) each debtor who, according to the records of 20 the mortgage servicer of the debt, is obligated to pay the debt; and

21 (2) file each notice for recording in the real 22 property records of the county in which all or a part of the 23 property is located.

24 (d) A notice required by Subsection (c) must be served by 25 certified mail. Service of the notice is complete when the notice 26 is deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid and 27 addressed to the purchaser or debtor, as applicable, at the

1 purchaser's or debtor's last known address, as applicable. The 2 affidavit of a person knowledgeable of the facts to the effect that 3 service was completed is prima facie evidence of service.

4 (e) Not later than the fifth calendar day after the date a
5 foreclosure sale is rescinded under this section, the mortgagee
6 shall return to the purchaser by certified mail, electronic or wire 7 transfer, or courier service with delivery tracking the amount of 8 the bid paid by the purchaser for the property at the sale. The 9 debtor shall return to the trustee the amount of any excess proceeds
10 received by the debtor from the sale. The return of the bid amount 11 is considered made on the date:

12 (1) the bid amount is deposited postage prepaid in the 13 United States mail or with the courier service addressed to the 14 purchaser at the purchaser's last known address; or 15 (2) the electronic or wire transfer is ordered.

16 (f) The rescinding mortgagee, trustee, or substitute
17 trustee shall cause to be filed for recording in the real property
18 records of the county where the notice required under Subsection 19 (c) was recorded an affidavit stating the date the bid amount was 20 returned together with the certified mail, electronic or wire
21 transfer, or courier service delivery tracking information.

22 (g) An affidavit executed and filed in accordance with 23 Subsection (f) is prima facie evidence of the return of the bid
24 amount and of the authority of the maker of the affidavit. A bona 25 fide purchaser, lender, or other person acquiring an interest in 26 the property or an insurer of title is entitled to rely conclusively 27 on the record of the filed affidavit and notice, and any subsequent

1 purchaser in good faith and for value is entitled to bona fide
2 purchaser protection.

3 (h) The rescission of a foreclosure sale under this section
4 restores the mortgagee and the debtor to their respective title, 5 rights, and obligations under any instrument relating to the 6 foreclosed property that existed immediately prior to the sale.

7 (i) A rescission of a foreclosure sale under this section is 8 void as to a creditor or to a subsequent purchaser for a valuable 9 consideration without notice unless notice of the rescission has 10 been acknowledged, sworn to, or proved and filed for recording as 11 required by law. A rescission of a foreclosure sale under this 12 section evidenced by an unrecorded instrument is binding on a party 13 to the instrument, on the party's heirs, and on a subsequent 14 purchaser who does not pay a valuable consideration or who has 15 notice of the instrument.

16 (j) No action challenging the effectiveness of a rescission
17 under this section may be commenced unless the action is filed on or 18 before the 30th calendar day after the date the notices of 19 rescission required by Subsection (c) are filed for recording. A 20 lis pendens notice based on the rescission not recorded within that 21 period has no effect. This subsection does not affect the 22 limitations period for an action claiming damages resulting from 23 the rescission.

24 (k) If the foreclosure sale is rescinded under this section
25 for a reason listed in Subsection (b), other than a stay described 26 by Subsection (b)(6), the court in a civil action filed by the 27 purchaser challenging the effectiveness of the rescission or

1 claiming damages resulting from the rescission may only award as 2 damages to the purchaser the amount of the bid paid for the property
3 by the purchaser at the sale that has not been refunded to the 4 purchaser, plus interest on that amount at the rate of 10 percent
5 per year. Notwithstanding any other law, the court may not order 6 specific performance of the sale as a remedy for the purchaser.
7 Interest awarded under this subsection ceases to accrue on the 8 fourth day after the date the mortgagee deposits the amount of the 9 damages awarded in the United States mail or with a courier for 10 delivery to the purchaser.

11 (l) If a foreclosure sale is rescinded under this section
12 for a reason provided by Subsection (b)(6), the court in a civil 13 action filed by the purchaser challenging the effectiveness of the 14 rescission or claiming damages resulting from the rescission may 15 only award as damages to the purchaser the amount of the bid paid 16 for the property by the purchaser at the sale that has not been 17 refunded to the purchaser.

18 (m) Nothing in this section prohibits the rescission of a 19 sale by agreement of the affected parties on other terms or a suit
20 to rescind a sale not rescinded under this section.

21 SECTION 2. The changes in law made by this Act apply only to 22 a foreclosure sale that occurs on or after the effective date of 23 this Act. A foreclosure sale that occurred before the effective
24 date of this Act is governed by the law applicable to the 25 foreclosure sale immediately before the effective date of this Act, 26 and that law is continued in effect for that purpose.

27 SECTION 3. This Act takes effect September 1, 2015.
